B. Any person whose employment is not in the usual course of the business, profession, trade or occupation of his employer. Policemen and firemen shall be deemed employees within the meaning of this Act. Employees who hire workmen within this State to work outside the State may agree with such workmen that the remedies under this Act shall be exclusive as regards injuries received outside this State by accident arising out of and in the course of such employment; and all contracts of hiring in this State, unless otherwise specified, shall be presumed to include such agreement. Any reference to an employee who has been injured shall, when the employee is dead, include his legal representatives, dependents and other persons to whom compensation may be payable; and

C. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, any charitable, religious, educational or other nonprofit corporation that may be or become an assenting employer under this Act, may cause any duly elected or appointed executive officer to be an employee of such corporation by specifically including such executive officer among those to whom such corporation secures payment of compensation in conformity with subchapter II; and such executive officer shall remain an employee of such corporation under this Act while such payment is so secured. With respect to any such corporation that secures compensation by making a contract of industrial accident insurance, specific inclusion of such executive officer in such contract shall cause such officer to be an employee of such corporation under this Act.
