proper government of the academy, not repugnant to the Constitution and laws of the State, and hold estate, real and personal, which it may now have, or may hereafter receive by gift, grant, devise, purchase or otherwise ~~to an amount not exceeding $400,000.~~

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1891, c. 286, § 6, amended. Section 6 of chapter 286 of the private and special laws of 1891 is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. Who may attend academy, free of tuition. All children between the ages of ten and twenty-one years, having their usual and legal residence in said town of Dresden, shall have the right to attend said academy and have all its equal privileges and advantages free of charge of tuition or otherwise in the same manner and to the same extent as in a free high school provided, ~~said town of Dresden shall vote to empower the trustees of said fund to transfer and deliver to the trustees under this charter, or their associates and successors, said fund and securities as provided in section five of this act until the trustees shall, by majority vote, exercise the powers set forth in section 7.~~

Sec. 3. P. & S. L., 1891, c. 286, § 7, repealed and replaced. Section 7 of chapter 286 of the private and special laws of 1891 is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

Sec. 7. May terminate use of Bridge Academy as separate school. Whenever the trustees shall determine that circumstances exist which make it unwise and imprudent to continue to maintain Bridge Academy as a free high school because of changes in educational methods, or because of inadequate trust income to maintain then currently acceptable qualities of instruction, or in the event that the Town of Dresden decides not to maintain separate school facilities, the trustees may vote to terminate the use of Bridge Academy as a separate school and shall thereafter devote future trust income to the promotion of education, literature and science primarily for the benefit of all children between the ages of ten and twenty-one, having their usual and legal residence in said Town of Dresden in such manner as they shall from time to time determine to be consonant with the intent of the founders of Bridge Academy. Such uses may include but not be limited to the maintenance of library and study facilities; special remedial courses; tuition payments to vocational schools and colleges; instructional courses of special benefit to the citizens of Dresden; contributions for underwriting special courses in any school providing education to any Dresden students; and to provide funds for the education of any such child in a manner that the trustees deem wise and prudent.

At the time the trustees exercise the powers herein granted and from time to time thereafter they shall determine what portions of the existing academy building shall be used for their purposes and the remaining portions shall be utilized as the trustees shall decide, the rents and income therefrom to be used in the same manner as other trust income.

Effective October 7, 1967

AN ACT Increasing the Borrowing Capacity of the Winter Harbor School District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the buildings which house the school pupils of the Town of Winter Harbor are overcrowded; and

Whereas, it is imperative that action be taken at the earliest possible moment to relieve these conditions ; and

Whereas, Acts passed by the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless passed as emergency measures ; and

Whereas, the overcrowded and inadequate conditions of the school is detrimental to the health, safety and quality of the schooling of the pupils ; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety ; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

P. & S. L., 1957, c. 11, § 4, amended. The first sentence of section 4 of chapter 11 of the private and special laws of 1957 is amended to read as follows :

To procure funds for the purposes of this Act and such other expense as may be necessary to carry out said purposes, the said district, by its trustees, is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow money and to issue bonds and notes for the district therefor, but shall not incur a total indebtedness at any one time outstanding in excess of the sum of ~~$60,000~~ $140,000.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.
