B. Gifts in trust. If the gift is in trust the district directors shall either deposit or invest trust funds according to Title 30, section 5051.

- (1) Unless the instrument or order creating the trust prohibits, a district may treat any 2 or more trust funds as a single fund solely for the purposes of investment.
- (2) After deduction for management expenses, any interest earned or capital gains realized shall be prorated among the various trust funds.
- (3) Any property or securities included in the corpus of a trust fund shall be retained where the trust instrument so provides.
- (4) Unless otherwise specified in the trust instrument, only the annual income from the trust fund may be spent.
- (5) If the district fails to comply with the terms of the trust instrument, the trust fund reverts to the donor or his heirs.

2. Conditional. A School Administrative District may accept and receive money or other property as a conditional gift for any specified benevolent or educational purpose.

A. Acceptance or rejection. When the directors receive written notice from a prospective donor or his representative of a proposed gift, they shall submit the matter to the next regular meeting of the legislative body or shall call a special meeting as provided for in section 225, and shall within 10 days after the meeting send written notice of its acceptance or rejection.

(1) Conditional gifts. If the gift is a conditional gift:

- (a) When the donor or his representative has completed his part of the agreement respecting the execution of the conditional gift, the district shall perpetually comply with, and may raise money to carry into effect, the conditions upon which it was made.
- (b) Unless otherwise specified by its terms, a conditional gift of money shall be deposited or invested according to Title 30, section 5051.

Effective October 1, 1969
