Chapter 53

AN ACT Relating to Election and Duties of Ministers in Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Maine.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1869, c. 180, § 6, repealed and replaced. Section 6 of chapter 180 of the private and special laws of 1869 is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

Sec. 6. Election and duties of ministers. The wardens and vestrymen so elected, $\frac{2}{3}$ of them concurring in the choice, may choose some fit person, duly qualified, to act as minister or rector of said church agreeable to the constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and the person so elected shall be the rector or minister of the parish, provided, that if required by the constitution or bylaws of the parish the choice shall be submitted to the parish for approval and if such submission is required must be so approved before the person elected by the wardens and vestrymen is declared elected to be rector or minister. The minister or rector so chosen shall preside at all meetings of the wardens and vestrymen and have a casting vote, unless the business or question to be decided has relation to the personal interest of said minister or rector, provided, that in the absence of such minister or rector, one of the wardens shall preside. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of minister or rector by death, removal or otherwise, the wardens and vestrymen may elect a successor in the mode hereinbefore provided.

Effective October 1, 1969

Chapter 54

AN ACT Relating to Conveyance of Property to Bangor Recreation Center.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1951, c. 90, § 7, amended. Section 7 of chapter 90 of the private and special laws of 1951 is amended by adding after the first paragraph the following new paragraphs:

The district is authorized to receive from the City of Bangor, and said city is authorized to transfer and convey to said district any property, real, personal or mixed, now or hereafter owned or held by it which may lawfully be used for the purposes of the district, and any sums of money or other assets which the said city has raised or may raise, either by taxation, borrowing or otherwise, for such purposes. Before transferring and conveying any of said property or turning over any of said funds or assets, the municipal officers of the city shall be duly authorized to do so by a majority vote of all the members of the city council. The district is authorized to sell, transfer, convey, pledge or exchange property so received, except as may be provided in the instrument by which any particular property is so conveyed or received.
