APPORTIONMENT OF SENATE
AS AMENDED BY
SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER
DATED MARCH 13, 1968

Order of APPORTIONMENT OF SENATE

By: Supreme Judicial Court.

Supreme Judicial Court of Maine.

Aug. 1, 1967.

Apportionment of Senate. The Supreme Judicial Court in the absence of appropriate legislative action caused the state to be divided into districts for choice of senators.

Order establishing districts.

States 27

Where the Legislature failed to make apportionment of Senate and adjourned on the last day of period within which it was required by Constitution to act without setting time for another session, the Supreme Judicial Court caused state to be divided into districts for the choice of senators. M.R.S.A.Const. art. 4, §§ 1-4.

STATE OF MAINE

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

WHEREAS, the Supreme Judicial Court has been informed by the Secretary of State that the Legislature which convened after the adoption of Article CIII of the Amendments to the Constitution of Maine repealing and replacing Article IV, Part Second, Sections 1-4 of the Constitution failed to make the apportionment of the Senate as therein provided, and

WHEREAS, it appears that the Legislature adjourned without day on the eighth day of July, 1967, which day was the end of the period within which the Legislature was required to act under the Constitution.

Now therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution in Article IV, Part Second, Section 2, reading:

“In the event that the Legislature shall fail to make an apportionment, the Supreme Judicial Court shall, within sixty days following the end of the period in which the Legislature is required to act, but fails to do so, make the apportionment.”

the Supreme Judicial Court, the Justices unanimously agreeing thereto, does hereby in making the apportionment CAUSE the State to be divided into districts for the choice of Senators, and does hereby Order and Establish the following districts, each of which shall elect one Senator:
