Whereas, for an agricultural society to qualify for a "stipend" it has to pay premiums for 3 consecutive years; and

Whereas, certain agricultural societies cannot qualify as they operate under leases from municipalities and others, and such leases are only for one-year periods; and

Whereas, the following legislation is vitally necessary to prevent undue hardship on certain agricultural societies; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 7, § 62, sub-§ 2, amended. Subsection 2 of section 62 of Title 7 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is further amended by adding at the end the following new sentence:

The 3-year provision shall not apply to any society that leases or rents the premises or site for its annual exhibition or fair from any other person, firm, corporation or legal entity.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 6, 1971
