Chapter 214

AN ACT Relating to the Color of School Buses no Longer Used for School Purposes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 29, § 2011, amended. Section 2011 of Title 29 of the Revised Statutes, as repealed and replaced by section 1 of chapter 113 of the public laws of 1967 and as amended by section 19 of chapter 425 of the public laws of 1967, is further amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

Any motor vehicle, other than buses operated by a motor carrier having a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by the Public Utilities Commission under Title 35, sections 1501 to 1518, complying with the uniform school bus standards as to color and no longer used for school purposes or used as a school bus during any part of the current school year may retain such color, but shall not be registered or licensed to operate in this State until all markings and identification which would identify such vehicle as a school bus have been removed and distinguishing lights have been rendered inoperative.

Effective September 23, 1971

Chapter 215

AN ACT Relating to Appeals on Questions of Law in Criminal Cases.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 15, § 2115-A, sub-§ 1, amended. The first sentence of subsection 1 of section 2115-A of Title 15 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 547 of the public laws of 1967, is amended to read as follows:

An appeal may be taken by the State in criminal cases on questions of law, with the written approval of the Attorney General, from the District Court and from the Superior Court to the law court from a decision, order or judgment of the court suppressing evidence prior to trial, allowing a motion to dismiss an indictment, complaint or information, quashing an arrest or search warrant or suppressing a confession or admission, or ruling against the State in any pretrial order.

Effective September 23, 1971
