fect. Any person found to be an habitual offender under this chapter who is thereafter convicted of operating a motor vehicle in this State while the order of the court prohibiting such operation is in effect, may be punished by imprisonment for not more than 2 years.

§ 2281. Existing law

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as amending, modifying or repealing any existing law of Maine relating to the operation or licensing of motor vehicles, the licensing of persons to operate motor vehicles or providing penalties for the violation thereof, or shall be construed so as to preclude the exercise of the regulatory powers of any division, agency or department of the State having the statutory power to regulate such operation and licensing.

Effective September 23, 1971

Chapter 411

AN ACT Relating to Qualifications of Applicants for Examination for Admission to Practice Law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 4, § 804, amended. The 2nd sentence of the 2nd paragraph of section 804 of Title 4 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 370 of the public laws of 1967, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

Notwithstanding the foregoing educational and study requirements, an applicant who suffers from polio or other similarly disabling disease which prevents him from attending regular law school classes and who has a high school education or possesses a certificate of equivalency of a high school education and who has studied law diligently and in good faith for at least 4 years, which study shall be by instruction and completion of a course in law from a correspondence law school, shall, if otherwise qualified, qualify to take the bar examinations.

Effective September 23, 1971
