Chapter 440

AN ACT Relating to the Location of Solid Waste Disposal Areas.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 38, § 421, additional. Title 38 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 421, to read as follows:

§ 421. Solid waste disposal areas; location

No boundary of any public or private solid waste disposal area shall lie closer than 300 feet to any classified body of water.

If the Environmental Improvement Commission shall determine that soil conditions, groundwater conditions, topography or other conditions indicate that any boundary of any such area should be further than 300 feet from any classified body of water, it may, after notice to and a hearing with the affected party, order the relocation of such boundaries and the removal of any solid waste, previously deposited within the original boundaries, to the confines of the new boundaries.

Any person, corporation, municipality or state agency establishing a solid waste disposal area after the effective date of this Act may apply to the commission for a determination that the boundaries of the proposed area are suitably removed from any classified body of water.

Any solid waste disposal area whose boundary is closer than 300 feet to any classified body of water shall be discontinued in conformity with this section prior to December 1, 1973.

Effective September 23, 1971

Chapter 441

AN ACT Amending Certain Savings Bank Laws.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 9, § 517, sub-§ 2, amended. Subsection 2 of section 517 of Title 9 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

2. Two or more depositors. If the book was issued to 2 or more depositors, then by each depositor, his executor or administrator, unless the certificate was payable to either, or to either or their survivor, in which event it shall be signed by all such depositors then surviving, or by the last survivor or the executor or administrator of the last survivor of such depositors. A guardian or conservator shall sign for any of the foregoing persons depositors respecting whom he has been appointed.

Sec. 2. R. S., T. 9, § 517-A, additional. Title 9 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 517-A, to read as follows:

§ 517-A. Loss of certificate of deposit

If a bank, savings bank or trust company receives an affidavit in writing that a nonnegotiable certificate of deposit which it has issued is lost and could not be found after thorough search, together with a request that a duplicate certificate with identical provisions be issued, such notice and request being signed by the appropriate person or persons as provided, thereafter, said bank or trust company at the expiration of a period of 10 days from the receipt of such notice may issue a duplicate certificate of deposit to the persons signing said affidavit and request, if the missing certificate's whereabouts is not sooner disclosed, and the delivery of such duplicate certificate of deposit shall relieve said savings bank or trust company from all liability on account of the missing original certificate of deposit. Such notice and request shall be signed.

1. Single depositor. If the certificate was issued to a single depositor, then by him, or by his guardian, conservator, executor or administrator;

2. Two or more depositors. If the certificate was issued to 2 or more depositors, then by each depositor, his executor or administrator, unless the certificate was payable to either, or to either or the survivor, in which event it shall be signed by all such depositors then surviving, or by the last survivor or by the executor or administrator of the last survivor. A guardian or conservator shall sign for any of the foregoing depositors respecting whom he has been appointed.
