OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and Sixth Legislature

1973

Whereas, fishermen, especially during the summer months, are being continually bothered and harassed by fast moving boats; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 38, § 231, sub-§ 4, ¶ D, amended. The first sentence of paragraph D of subsection 4 of section 231 of Title 38 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 47 of chapter 403 of the public laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

Regulations governing the horsepower of motors used to propel watercraft on all ~~inland~~ internal waters of ~~less than 50 acres in area~~ this State. For the purpose of this paragraph, internal waters shall be the same as inland waters. The acreage of said waters shall be those acreages as determined from data available in the records of the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 21, 1973

CHAPTER 16

AN ACT Relating to Hunting Pheasants.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 12, § 2401, sub-§ 6, additional. Section 2401 of Title 12 of the Revised Statutes, as repealed and replaced by section 1 of chapter 409 of the public laws of 1971, is amended by adding a new subsection 6, to read as follows:

6. Pheasant stamp. It shall be unlawful for any person who has attained the age of 16 years to hunt or have in possession any pheasant unless at the time of such hunting or possession he has on his person an unexpired State of Maine pheasant stamp validated by his signature written across the face of the stamp in ink. Such stamp shall be issued by the commissioner or his authorized agent at a fee of $1 and shall be exhibited to any warden or employee of the department upon request.

Sec. 2. Effective date. This Act shall be effective for the years 1973 and 1974 only.

Effective October 3, 1973
