CHAPTER 215

AN ACT Relating to Fines Levied by the Harness Racing Commission.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 8, § 279-B, additional. Title 8 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 279-B to read as follows:

§ 279-B. Fines

In order to maintain proper control of harness racing, the commission is authorized to establish a schedule of fines not to exceed $50, which may be levied, in lieu of suspension, for the violation of the rules of racing as designated by the commission.

Any party aggrieved by any action taken pursuant to this section may petition the Administrative Hearing Commissioner for a declaratory ruling under Title 5, section 2402.

Effective October 3, 1973

CHAPTER 216

AN ACT Relating to Appointment of Complaint Justices in the District Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 4, § 161, repealed and replaced. Section 161 of Title 4 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by chapter 420 and section 1 of chapter 434, both of the public laws of 1967, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

§ 161. Complaint justice; appointment; duties; salary

The Chief Judge of the District Court may authorize any attorney-at-law, who is duly licensed to practice law in the State of Maine and who is also a justice of the peace, to receive complaints and to issue process for the arrest of persons charged with offenses, to issue search warrants and to endorse certificates of commitment of the mentally ill, all in accordance with law, and to perform all other such acts and duties that are or may be authorized by law. Such attorney shall be known as a complaint justice.
