CHAPTER 293

AN ACT Providing for Voluntary Continuance of Residence at the Military and Naval Children's Home for Program Completion Beyond the Age of 18 Years.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, under existing law persons reaching the age of 18 years who are residents of the Military and Naval Children's Home are required to be discharged therefrom due to such arrival at the age of majority; and

Whereas, such mandatory discharge may interrupt or preclude the completion of educational or vocational training programs then in process; and

Whereas, several young persons now residents of such institution may reach the age of majority, 18 years, prior to the end of the present academic year or the completion of programs presently under way, the completion of which is dependent upon continued residency at the institution beyond the age of 18 years; and

Whereas, the following legislation is vitally necessary in order to assure that these residents of state institutions obtain optimum benefit from education and training presently in process; and
