PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and Sixth Legislature

1973

The commission is authorized to formulate rules and regulations relative to the establishment and operation of schools offering courses designed to prepare students for the examinations of the commission for licenses for real estate brokers and salesmen and relative to the courses of study, instruction, instructor qualifications, grades and grading systems and related matters. Nothing in this section shall be construed to grant the commission any authority over any such courses conducted by the University of Maine or any other public higher education institution or any institution authorized by law to grant a degree.

1. Certificate of approval. Any such school shall first obtain a certificate of approval from, and thereafter abide by the rules and regulations of, the commission covering such schools.

2. —suspension or revocation. The commission shall have authority to suspend or revoke the certificate of approval of any school for violation of this section or of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

3. Prohibitions. It shall be unlawful for any school to offer courses or to conduct classes of instruction in real estate subjects without first procuring a certificate of approval; or having obtained a certificate of approval, to represent that its students are assured of passing examinations given by the commission, or to represent that the issuance of a certificate of approval is a recommendation or endorsement of the school to which it is issued or of any course of instruction given by it.

4. Fees. The application of each school shall be accompanied by a fee of $20 and, if issued, shall be annually renewable on payment of a fee of $10.

5. Penalty. In the event that any person is found guilty of violating this section in the operation of a school, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto, or attempts to continue to operate as a school after the revocation or during a period of suspension of a permit, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Effective October 3, 1973

CHAPTER 449

AN ACT Relating to Mirrors on Certain Vehicles.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 29, § 1367, amended. Section 1367 of Title 29 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is further amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

Whenever an automobile to which temporary outside mirrors have been attached for the purpose of permitting an unobstructed view to the rear when towing a trailer or semitrailer is operated when not towing a trailer or semitrailer, such temporary rear view mirrors shall be removed or otherwise adjusted so as not to extend beyond the width of the automobile.

Effective October 3, 1973
