PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and Sixth Legislature

1973

In the event that the counselee or client's condition is such as to require others to assume responsibility for him, or when there is clear and imminent danger to the counselee or client or to others, the counselor is expected to report this fact to an appropriate responsible authority or take such other emergency measures as the situation demands.

Effective October 3, 1973

CHAPTER 485

AN ACT Relating to Books for Recording in Office of Register of Deeds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 33, § 652, amended. The first paragraph of section 652 of Title 33 of the Revised Statutes is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

The county commissioners shall provide, at the expense of the several counties, suitable books or holders for plans at least 24 by 35 inches in dimension, which should be of substantial binding with stubs for insertions and the holders may be map hold files with proper hangers, both for the preservation of such plans. No plan shall be accepted for record unless drawn with ink upon strong linen cloth or polyester film with archival photographic image. Each register shall make a suitable index of all plans on record in his office.

Effective October 3, 1973

CHAPTER 486

AN ACT to Authorize Issuance of Warrants for Administrative Searches.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 4, § 179, additional. Title 4 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 179 to read as follows:

§ 179. Administrative search warrants

A District Court Judge may issue warrants to conduct administrative searches in such manner, for such purposes and under such circumstances as the Supreme Judicial Court shall by rule provide.
