CHAPTER 499

AN ACT to Provide a Minimum Fine for Obstructing Justice.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 17, § 2952, amended. The first sentence of section 2952 of Title 17 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

Whoever assaults, intimidates or in any manner willfully obstructs, intimidates or hinders any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, inland fish and game warden, coastal warden, forest ranger, employee or authorized representative of the Board of Environmental Protection, Insurance Commissioner or his authorized representative, liquor inspector, police officer or state probation-parole officer while in the lawful discharge of his official duties, whether with or without process, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than 11 months. The court may further order that restitution be made for damage to the property of a law enforcement officer resulting from any act or acts that have been found to be in violation of this section.
