fined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

Emergency clause; referendum; effective date. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved, only for the purpose of permitting its submission to the legal voters of the City of Eastport, voting at a regular or special election called and held for the purpose within 10 months after the approval of this Act. Such election shall be called, advertised and conducted according to the law relating to municipal elections; provided, however, that the registrar of voters of said city shall not be required to prepare for posting, nor the city clerk to post, a new list of voters, and for the purpose of registration of voters said registrar shall be in session the 3 secular days next preceding such election, the first 2 days thereof to be devoted to registration of voters and the last day to enable said registrar to verify the correction of said lists and to complete and close up his records of such sessions. The city clerk shall reduce the subject matter of this Act to the following question: "Shall 'An Act Amending the Eastport Public Landing Authority,' increasing the borrowing capacity of the authority from $75,000 to $500,000 and making other changes, passed by the 106th Legislature, be accepted?"

The voters shall indicate by a cross or check mark placed over the words "Yes" or "No" their opinion of the same. This Act shall take effect for all the purposes hereof immediately upon its acceptance by a majority of the legal voters voting at said election. The result of said election shall be declared by the municipal officers of the City of Eastport and due certificate thereof shall be filed by the city clerk with the Secretary of State.

Effective April 23, 1973

CHAPTER 63

AN ACT Relating to Powers of Ogunquit Village Corporation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1913, c. 203, § 2, sub-§ (5), additional. Section 2 of chapter 203 of the private and special laws of 1913, as last amended by chapter 166 of the private and special laws of 1955, is further amended by adding a new subsection (5) to read as follows:

(5) Rights, powers and privileges. The corporation, within its territorial limits, shall have and is hereby granted all the rights, powers and privileges which towns have, or which the municipal officers of towns have, under the provisions of the Revised Statutes of 1964, Title 30, chapter 209, sections 2151 to 2156 relating to ordinances; Title 30, chapter 239, subchapter V, section 4956 relating to land subdivisions, and sections 4961 to 4963, planning and zoning; Title 38, chapter 1, subchapter I, section 1 to section 6, relating to harbor masters; Title 24-A, sections 2601 to 2627, relating to group insurance and pension plans; and all Acts amendatory thereof, or additional thereto, are hereby specifically granted to and invested in the corporation and its municipal officers.

Effective October 3, 1973
