PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

AS PASSED BY THE

One Hundred and Sixth Legislature

1973

---

Sec. 10. P. & S. L., 1947, c. 60, § 19, sub-§ VI, repealed. Subsection VI of section 19 of chapter 60 of the private and special laws of 1947, as enacted by section 5 of chapter 50 of the private and special laws of 1949, is repealed.

Emergency clause; effective date; transitional provisions. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved. On the effective date of this Act, the present duly elected and qualified trustees shall continue in office until the next regular municipal election, or until their successors are elected and qualified. Within 30 days of the effective date of this Act, the municipal officers of the Town of Freeport shall elect a sufficient number of additional trustees necessary to constitute the 7-member board of trustees contemplated by this Act, which trustees shall also serve until the next regular municipal election, or until their successors are elected and qualified. At the next regular municipal election following the effective date of this Act, 7 trustees shall be elected whose terms of office shall be determined as follows: The 3 trustees receiving the greatest number of votes shall serve until the regular municipal election in 1977; the 2 trustees receiving the next greatest number of votes shall serve until the regular municipal election in 1976; and the 2 remaining trustees shall serve until the regular municipal election in 1975. In the event of a tie in the number of votes cast for trustees, the term of office shall be determined by lot.

Effective May 2, 1973
