er conduct and management of the affairs of said district. At said first meeting they shall determine by lot the term of office of each trustee so that one shall serve for one year, one for 2 years, and one for 3 years; and when the term of office of a trustee expires, the town ~~or body~~ which elected said trustee shall elect a successor to serve the full term of 3 years; and in case any other vacancy arises it shall be filled in like manner for the unexpired term. They may also ordain and establish such bylaws, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, as are necessary for their own convenience and the proper management of the affairs of said district. The terms of office of said trustees shall begin on the first Monday of April, but this provision shall not prevent the first board of trustees from becoming such at once upon their election at the meetings in which this charter is accepted. The trustees shall make and publish an annual report and include therein the report of the treasurer. Each trustee shall receive in full compensation for his services an allowance of $200 per ~~annum~~ year.

Effective June 28, 1974

CHAPTER 178

AN ACT Increasing Borrowing Capacity of Ashland Water and Sewer District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, certain equipment belonging to the Ashland Water and Sewer District is in dangerous condition and in need of repair as soon as possible; and

Whereas, in order to protect the health and welfare of the people served by the Ashland Water and Sewer District the following legislation is vitally necessary; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1947, c. 78, § 8, amended. The first sentence of section 8 of chapter 78 of the private and special laws of 1947, as last amended by chapter 21 of the private and special laws of 1971, is further amended to read as follows:

For accomplishing the purposes of this Act, said water district, through its trustees, is authorized to borrow money temporarily, and to issue therefor the interest bearing negotiable notes of the district, and for the purpose of refunding the indebtedness so created, of paying any necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this Act, including the expenses incurred in the creation of the district, of securing sources of supply, taking water and land, paying damages, laying pipes, constructing, maintaining and operating a water plant and sewerage and drainage system and making extensions, additions and improvements to the same, and the refunding of its obligations, the said district, through its trustees, may from time to time issue bonds of the district to an amount not exceeding ~~$550,000~~ $1,000,000 principal amount issued and outstanding at any one time.

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1947, c. 78, § 12, sub-§ 5, additional. Section 12 of chapter 78 of the private and special laws of 1947 is amended by adding a new subsection 5, to read as follows:

5. Unless and until such time as all districts engaged in providing sewer service are placed under the general regulatory jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission, the only rates of the district subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission under this section are those for water service.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective January 29, 1974

CHAPTER 179

AN ACT to Increase Borrowing Capacity of the Fort Fairfield Utilities District.

Emergency Preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the Fort Fairfield Utilities District and The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company have entered into an agreement for the construction, operation and maintenance of a municipal and industrial waste treatment facility in the Town of Fort Fairfield under the auspices of United States Public Law 92-500 (Federal Water Pollution Control Act), the same to be funded in part with federal funds, in part with State of Maine funds and in part with funds to be raised by said district; and

Whereas, in order to insure the success of said municipal-industrial waste treatment facility, it is necessary for the Fort Fairfield Utilities District to produce sufficient moneys with which to provide for interim financing for construction costs and other related costs; and

Whereas, the approval of the district's application for said project by the Environmental Protection Agency of the United States and the Department of Environmental Protection of the State of Maine are imminent and upon the granting of such approval said district should advertise said project for bid but could not unless its borrowing capacity is increased; and

Whereas, in order to accomplish these purposes it is necessary that the debt limit of the district be increased; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety; now, therefore,
