PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and Sixth Legislature

AT THE
SPECIAL SESSION

January 2, 1974

to

March 29, 1974

Sec. 7. Authorized to receive gifts, etc.; may lease buildings. Said trustees are hereby authorized to receive any gift of real estate which shall be described in a trust deed or the donation of any sum of money or other thing of value in trust, to be expended under the provisions of this Act, and in every particular as if the same had been appropriated by said district for the purposes herein specified.

Said trustees shall have power to execute a term lease of any or all buildings upon premises satisfactory to the trustees.

Sec. 8. Referendum; effective date. This Act shall take effect 90 days after the adjournment of the Legislature, only for the purpose of permitting its submission to the legal voters of the proposed district at a regular or special election called by the municipal officers of the City of Bangor and held at the regular voting places in said city. The result of such election shall be determined by said municipal officers; the first such election shall not be later than the 31st day of December, 1974. The usual procedure for registration and preparation of check lists shall be followed as in elections called and held as provided by law; provided, that the board of registration shall not be required to prepare for posting, nor the city clerk to post a new list of voters. The city clerk shall prepare the required ballots, on which he shall state the subject matter of this Act in the following question: "Shall the Act Creating the Bangor Community Solid Waste District passed by the 106th Legislature, special session, be accepted?" The voters shall indicate by a cross or check mark placed against the word "Yes" or "No" their opinion of the same. This Act shall take effect for all the purposes hereof immediately upon its acceptance by a majority of the legal voters voting at said election; provided the total number of votes cast for and against the acceptance of this Act equals or exceeds 20% of the total votes for all candidates for Governor cast in the next previous gubernatorial election in said city. Failure of approval shall not prevent the municipal officers of said City of Bangor from again submitting said question to the voters of said district in the manner aforesaid. The result of such elections shall be declared by the municipal officers of the City of Bangor and due certificate thereof filed by the city clerk with the Secretary of State.

Effective June 28, 1974

CHAPTER 192

AN ACT Increasing Indebtedness of the Jackman Water District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, in order for the Jackman Water District to carry out its statutory duties and to provide funds to render the services required of the district; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1971, c. 119, § 11, amended. The first paragraph of section 11 of chapter 119 of the private and special laws of 1971 is amended to read as follows:

For accomplishing the purposes of this Act, and for such other expenses as may be necessary for the carrying out of said purposes, said district, through its trustees, is authorized to borrow money temporarily and to issue therefor its negotiable notes; and for the purpose of renewing and refunding the indebtedness so created, of paying any necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this Act, including organizational and other necessary expenses and liabilities whether incurred by the district or the Town of Jackman, the district being authorized to reimburse said town for any such expenses incurred by them, and in acquiring properties, paying damages, laying pipes, mains, aqueducts and conduits, constructing, maintaining, and operating a water plant or system and making renewals, additions, extensions and improvements to the same, and to cover interest payments during the period of construction, said district, through its trustees, is also authorized to issue, from time to time, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the district in one series, or in separate series, in such amount or amounts, bearing interest at such rate or rates, and having such terms and provisions as the trustees shall determine; provided, however, that the total indebtedness of the said district shall not exceed the sum of ~~$300,000~~ $800,000 at any time outstanding; but bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the district which have matured or otherwise become payable and for the payment of which adequate funds have been provided by depositing such funds with a paying or disbursing agent named in such bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness in trust for such purpose shall not be considered to be outstanding.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 14, 1974

CHAPTER 193

AN ACT to Increase the Indebtedness of the Ogunquit Sewer District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the present sewer system of the Ogunquit Sewer District is inadequate to provide for the needs of the users and a more adequate system must be immediately implemented; and

Whereas, an adequate sewer system is essential to the health and well-being of the people who are serviced by the Ogunquit Sewer District; and

Whereas, it is imperative that action be taken at the earliest possible time to eliminate such conditions; and
