Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1971, c. 119, § 11, amended. The first paragraph of section 11 of chapter 119 of the private and special laws of 1971 is amended to read as follows:

For accomplishing the purposes of this Act, and for such other expenses as may be necessary for the carrying out of said purposes, said district, through its trustees, is authorized to borrow money temporarily and to issue therefor its negotiable notes; and for the purpose of renewing and refunding the indebtedness so created, of paying any necessary expenses and liabilities incurred under the provisions of this Act, including organizational and other necessary expenses and liabilities whether incurred by the district or the Town of Jackman, the district being authorized to reimburse said town for any such expenses incurred by them, and in acquiring properties, paying damages, laying pipes, mains, aqueducts and conduits, constructing, maintaining, and operating a water plant or system and making renewals, additions, extensions and improvements to the same, and to cover interest payments during the period of construction, said district, through its trustees, is also authorized to issue, from time to time, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the district in one series, or in separate series, in such amount or amounts, bearing interest at such rate or rates, and having such terms and provisions as the trustees shall determine; provided, however, that the total indebtedness of the said district shall not exceed the sum of ~~$300,000~~ $800,000 at any time outstanding; but bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the district which have matured or otherwise become payable and for the payment of which adequate funds have been provided by depositing such funds with a paying or disbursing agent named in such bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness in trust for such purpose shall not be considered to be outstanding.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 14, 1974

CHAPTER 193

AN ACT to Increase the Indebtedness of the Ogunquit Sewer District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the present sewer system of the Ogunquit Sewer District is inadequate to provide for the needs of the users and a more adequate system must be immediately implemented; and

Whereas, an adequate sewer system is essential to the health and well-being of the people who are serviced by the Ogunquit Sewer District; and

Whereas, it is imperative that action be taken at the earliest possible time to eliminate such conditions; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1963, c. 87, § 17, amended. The 2nd sentence of section 17 of chapter 87 of the private and special laws of 1963 is amended to read as follows:

The total indebtedness of said district at any one time outstanding shall not exceed the sum of ~~$600,000~~ $1,000,000.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 19, 1974

CHAPTER 194

AN ACT Providing Funds for Spruce Budworm Control and Surveys.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, a severe outbreak of spruce budworm is present in the forests of northern Maine, threatening destruction in one of Maine's outstanding renewable, natural resources; and affecting environmental, economic and social values; and

Whereas, the infestations are appearing in additional areas of the State to the extent that additional field-survey staff people are needed to gather data upon which action decisions are based; and

Whereas, the following legislation is necessary to protect 430,000 acres of Maine forests; and to provide for expansion of a continuing survey and study program in other areas; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Appropriation. There is appropriated from the Unappropriated Surplus of the General Fund the sum of $595,450 to be expended by the Director of the Bureau of Forestry, or his agents, for spruce budworm control and for research. The rest of the funds are to be supplied from the balance of funds in the spruce budworm account and the Federal Government. Any unex-
