CHAPTER 506

AN ACT to Clarify the Laws Relating to Superior Court Commitment of Mentally Disordered Persons.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. 15 MRSA § 101, next to last sentence of the 2nd ¶ is amended to read:

Said justice shall then order the person returned to the appropriate court for disposition; however, if the justice ordering commitment for observation has provided for remand to the county jail following completion of the observation in the commitment order, the sheriff or any one or more of his deputies shall execute the remand order upon advice from the commissioner of completion of the observation.

Sec. 2. 15 MRSA § 101, sub-§ 1, 6th sentence, as last repealed and replaced by PL 1973, c. 547, § 2, is amended to read:

If the court determines that the defendant is not competent to stand trial but there does exist a substantial probability that the defendant will be competent to stand trial in the foreseeable future, it shall recommit the defendant to the custody of the Commissioner of Mental Health and Corrections to be placed in an appropriate institution for the mentally ill or the mentally retarded for observation, care and treatment.

Sec. 3. 15 MRSA § 104, last sentence of 2nd ¶, as last repealed and replaced by PL 1973, c. 243, is amended to read:

The nature and scope of the treatment program of persons hospitalized under section 103 preceding release, ~~including the grant of trial visits not exceeding 74 days at any one time~~ which shall be subject in each case to biweekly on-site hospital staff review, shall be determined by the professional hospital staff designated for such purpose by the superintendent.

Effective October 1, 1975
