Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the Land Use Regulation Commission's interim zoning of certain of the unorganized and deorganized areas of Franklin and Somerset Counties will expire in March of 1976 unless extended; and

Whereas, an extension of the interim zoning for these areas will allow time for the permanent zoning to be accomplished in a manner consistent with the purpose of the Land Use Regulation Commission statute and the comprehensive land use plan for the unorganized and deorganized areas; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

12 MRSA § 685-A, sub-§ 6, 4th ¶, as last amended by PL 1973, c. 569, § 10, is further amended to read:

Interim districts and land use standards shall be effective no more than ~~36~~ 48 months from the date first adopted. The adoption of permanent districts or land use standards shall supersede interim districts or standards.

Whereas, the prompt correction of these errors or vague provisions will provide for more effective administration of the new Banking Code; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:
