5. Fines. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Title, a judge of the Administrative Court, in his judicial discretion, may impose a fine of a specific sum which shall not be less than $50 nor more than $1,500 for any one offense. Such a fine may be imposed instead of or in addition to any suspension, revocation or modification of a license by the court.

The Administrative Court Judge shall maintain a record of all fines received by the court and shall pay the fines into the General Fund of the State Treasury on or before the 15th day of each month.

Sec. 4. 28 MRSA § 403, 6th, 7th and 8th sentences, as last amended by PL 1973, c. 303, § 3, are repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

The operation of a suspension or revocation of a license imposed by the Administrative Court shall be suspended, pending judgment of the Superior Court, provided that the licensee files an appeal in the Superior Court and notifies the Administrative Court that the appeal has been filed, within 7 days of the mailing of the decision of the Administrative Court by certified mail to the address given by the licensee at the time of his application for a license. Appeal by such aggrieved person to the law court from such decision may be taken. Upon such appeal, the law court may, after consideration, reverse or modify any decree so made by the court based upon an erroneous ruling or finding of law.

Sec. 5. Reference. The reference to the Executive Council contained in section 1 of the bill in Title 5, section 2401, subsection 1, shall be null and void effective January 1, 1977.

Sec. 6. Application and effective dates. All provisions of this Act relating to Associate Administrative Court Judge and the powers and duties relating to that position shall be effective on July 1, 1977. All other provisions of this Act shall be effective 90 days after the adjournment of the legislative session in which it is enacted.

Effective September 13, 1976, except as otherwise indicated

CHAPTER 781

AN ACT Pertaining to Private School Tuition.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

20 MRSA § 1292, first ¶, as last repealed and replaced by PL 1975, c. 746, § 14, is further amended by adding at the end the following new sentence:

Notwithstanding the above, a private school may charge tuition above the maximum legal tuition in those cases where a pupil has alternative choices for secondary education at the legal tuition rate.

Effective September 13, 1976
