THE KNOWLTON AND MCLEARY COMPANY
FARMINGTON, MAINE
1975

RESOLVES
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and Seventh Legislature
1975

As a result of the alleged negligence of the employees of the Augusta Mental Health Institute and the Augusta Mental Health Institute, Priscilla Blodgett again attempted suicide and suffered serious injuries including but not limited to a permanent impairment of one side of her face.

Such action, if authorized, is to be brought in the Superior Court for the County of Kennebec within one year from the passage of this resolve, against the State of Maine for damages, if any, and the conduct of such action shall be according to the practice of actions or proceedings between parties in said Superior Court. The liabilities of the parties and elements of damage, if any, shall be the same as liabilities and elements of damage as between individuals. The complaint issuing out of said Superior Court under the authority of this resolve shall be served on the Secretary of State by attested copy by the sheriff or either of his deputies in any county of the State of Maine. The Attorney General is authorized and designated to appear, answer and defend said action.

Any judgment that may be recovered in this civil action shall be payable from the State Treasury on final process issued by the said Superior Court, or if applicable, the Supreme Judicial Court, and costs may be taxed for Priscilla D. Blodgett if she recovers in the action, and her recovery shall not exceed $25,000 including costs. Hearing thereon shall be before a Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court or Superior Court without a jury, said Justice to be assigned by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court.

Effective October 1, 1975
