CHAPTER 66

RESOLVE, To Establish a Commission to Study the Continuation of Coverage under Certain Group Health Insurance Policies.

Commission to study the continuation of coverage under certain group health insurance policies. Resolved: That there is established a commission to study and, if appropriate, to recommend proposed legislation dealing with the problems arising from the termination of coverage under some group health insurance policies. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing, the commission shall study the conversion of group to individual coverage, the extension of group coverage for costs incurred subsequent to termination, the conditions of termination of group coverage and notice to group members and the treatment of maternity claims upon termination of group coverage. The commission shall be composed of the Commissioner of Business Regulation, the Superintendent of the Bureau of Insurance and 3 members of the Joint Standing Committee on Business Legislation to be appointed by the chairpersons of that committee. The commission may hold public hearings and work sessions, consult with experts and other interested parties, utilize the assistance and services of the Office of Legislative Assistants and executive employees and do such other things as are necessary to carry out its duties.

The commission shall report its findings and any proposed legislation to the Joint Standing Committee on Business Legislation no later than December 1, 1978.

Effective July 6, 1978
