OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED AT THE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
of the
ONE HUNDRED AND NINTH LEGISLATURE
1979

AN ACT to Limit Disability Retirement Payments to Persons Restored to Service under the State Retirement System.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

5 MRSA § 1123, 1st sentence, as amended by PL 1969, c. 206, is further amended to read:

Should a disability beneficiary be restored to service and should his annual earnable compensation then or at any time thereafter be equal to or greater than ~~his average final compensation at retirement~~, the difference between the average final compensation at retirement, subject to such percentage adjustments, if any, that may apply to the amount of retirement allowance of the beneficiary under section 1128 and the annual disability retirement allowance, the disability retirement allowance during the following year shall be reduced by the amount of the excess. If the excess exceeds his annual disability retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall cease, the beneficiary shall again become a member of the retirement system, and he shall contribute thereafter at the same rate he paid prior to his retirement, except that any person who is drawing a retirement allowance under any provision of this chapter and who subsequently becomes an employee of the Legislature or elected to the Legislature shall be exempted from all limitations on earnings and shall be permitted to continue to be a recipient of a retirement allowance regardless of the amount earned while in such legislative employ, further any such person may be entitled to accept the applicable amount of group life insurance for the duration of such legislative service or employment, but which shall not carry forward beyond the completion of said term of office.

Effective September 14, 1979
