A copy of that notice attested by the tribal clerk, with a return of service thereon by any officer qualified to serve criminal precepts, or an affidavit of service by any other person, shall be filed with the tribal clerk and be sufficient evidence of that service. If a person so notified shall not remove from the reservation within 2 days after service of the notice upon him, the governor or lieutenant governor in his absence or any member of the tribe may make complaint to the proper officer of the District Court for Southern Penobscot, who shall cause a certified copy of that complaint with a notice of time and place of court hearing thereon to be given in hand to the person or left at his place of last and usual abode at least 2 days before the time fixed for the court hearing, before the court. If the respondent fails to obey the order, or if within one year after the service of the notice he shall again become resident or commorant upon any reservation of the tribe without the consent of the governor or lieutenant governor and council, the judge shall cause the person to be apprehended and brought before the court and shall punish him by a fine of not more than $100 or by imprisonment for not more than 60 days, or by both. The costs of the court proceeding under this section may be included in the order or sentence of the judge. If the respondent fails to pay the same, he may be committed to jail for not more than 30 days additional to any imprisonment otherwise imposed upon him. Court costs shall be taxed as in ordinary proceedings upon complaint.
