holder. The fee therefor shall be $600 a year for malt liquor only, $600 a year for table wine only and $600 a year for distilled spirits only.

All liquors stored in special warehouse storage facilities shall not be subject to state liquor taxes until such time as they are withdrawn from the special warehouse storage facilities.

Malt liquors and table wines withdrawn from the special warehouse storage facilities by licensed Maine wholesale distributors shall immediately become subject to the same tax and premiums as malt liquor and table wine imported into this State from out-of-state certificate of approval holders. All malt liquor and table wine products withdrawn for distribution within this State shall be accomplished by the procedure established in section 652.

Distilled spirits may be withdrawn from special warehouse storage facilities by the State Liquor Commission.

Malt liquor, table wines or distilled spirits may be withdrawn from special warehouse storage facilities by authorized out-of-state purchasers and that certificate authorizes the direct transportation of these products to the state border for delivery to such out-of-state purchasers. Products withdrawn by authorized out-of-state purchasers for delivery outside of this State shall not be subject to the state excise tax or premium.

Effective July 13, 1982.
