CHAPTER 347

H.P. 1180 - L.D. 1572

AN ACT Relating to Attendants for Power Boilers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 26 MRSA §171, as amended by PL 1975, c. 771, §271, is further amended to read:

§171. Board of Boiler Rules

The board of appeals, as heretofore established, shall be known as the "Board of Boiler Rules," and shall consist of 5 7 members, 4 6 of whom shall be appointed by the director, with the approval of the Governor. At the expiration of their respective terms of office their successors shall be appointed for terms of 4 years each. In the event of a vacancy by reason of the death or resignation of any of said 4 the appointed members, or otherwise, the director shall fill such vacancy for the remainder of the term with a representative of the same class. Of these said 4 6 appointed members, 2 shall be representatives of labor within this State who are boiler makers or have boiler licenses, one shall be a representative of the owners and users of steam boilers within this State, one a representative of the boiler manufacturers within this State, one a representative of the operating steam engineers in this State and one a representative of a boiler inspection and insurance company licensed to do business within the State. The 5th 7th member shall be the director, who shall be chairman of the board. The board shall meet at least twice yearly at the State Capitol or other place designated by the board.

Sec. 2. 26 MRSA §218 is enacted to read:

§218. Attendants for power boilers

The Board of Boiler Rules shall gather data in order to determine if any rules on power boiler attendants are needed for safety purposes, and then shall promulgate any rules necessary to ensure that power boilers are checked by an attendant with the frequency and method best suited to safeguard life, health and property. All rules shall be promulgated pursuant to the Maine Administrative Procedure Act, Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II, by January 1, 1984, and a copy submitted to the Legislature for review.

Effective September 23, 1983.
