ployee pension plan that is in compliance with the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, as these provisions relate to simplified employee pension plans.

§892. Individual retirement and pension plans

The State or any county, municipality or other political subdivision may enter into an agreement with an employee under which all or a portion of that employee's compensation may be transferred into an individual retirement account or simplified employee pension plan in accordance with the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended. The State or any county, municipality or other political subdivision may make payroll deductions for individual retirement accounts or simplified employee pension plans from a financial institution as defined in Title 9-B, section 131, subsection 17-A, or any insurance company or investment company licensed to contract business in this State.

§893. Administration

Payroll deductions shall be made by the appropriate payroll officer of each county, municipality or other political subdivision. The Commissioner of Finance and Administration shall be responsible for the administration of this chapter as it applies to state employees. Any costs incurred by the Commissioner of Finance and Administration to administer the state program shall be borne equally by state employee participants, and these costs may be compensated by means of payroll deductions.

§894. Liability limited

The State, any county, municipality or other political subdivision which transfers employee compensation to an individual retirement account shall have no liability for the funds once a proper transfer has been made.

Effective July 25, 1984.

CHAPTER 793

H.P. 1697 - L.D. 2251

AN ACT to Amend the Restitution
Provisions of the Victims' Bill of Rights.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 17-A MRSA §1323, sub-§1, as repealed and replaced by PL 1983, c. 352, §3, is amended to read:

1. Inquiry as to victim's financial loss. The court shall, whenever practicable, inquire of a prosecutor, police officer or victim with respect to the extent of the victim's financial loss, and shall order restitution where appropriate. The order for restitution shall designate the amount of restitution to be paid and the person or persons to whom the restitution will be paid.

Sec. 2. 17-A MRSA §1330, sub-§§1 and 2, as enacted by PL 1983, c. 352, §4, are repealed and the following enacted in their place:

1. Work program; payment of restitution. No prisoner who has been ordered to pay restitution may be released pursuant to a work program administered by the Department of Corrections under Title 34-A, section 3035, or a sheriff under Title 30, section 1804, unless he consents to pay at least 25% of his gross weekly wages to the victim until such time as full restitution has been made. The chief administrative officer of the correctional facility where the prisoner is incarcerated shall collect and disburse to the victim or victims that portion of the
