1. Waiver. The person has signed a prior waiver of extradition as a term of his current probation, parole, bail or other release in the demanding state; and

2. Authenticated copy. The law enforcement agency holding the person has received an authenticated copy of the prior waiver of extradition signed by the person and photographs or fingerprints or other evidence properly identifying the person as the person who signed the waiver.

Sec. 13. 15 MRSA §226-A is enacted to read:

§226-A. Delivery of fugitive to agents

Whenever a person held as a fugitive in this State has exhausted his remedies under this chapter to challenge his extradition or has waived extradition, the district attorney shall promptly notify the agents of the demanding state that the fugitive is available to be returned to that state. If no agent appears within 30 days after such notification, the fugitive may be discharged from custody, provided that after the discharge the fugitive may be rearrested and delivered to the agent for return to the demanding state, unless the Governor's warrant has been recalled.

Effective July 25, 1984.

CHAPTER 844

AN ACT to Assure Appropriate Placement and Service Provision to State Assisted Residents of Boarding Homes and Adult Foster Homes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 22 MRSA §7910 is enacted to read:

§7910. Assessment of and care planning for adult boarding home and foster home residents who receive state assistance; rules

Every individual who is eligible to receive state assistance for a portion of the costs of adult boarding home or foster care and who is referred to or otherwise seeks admission to a boarding or foster care home shall have an assessment performed prior to admission. The agency of State Government or its agent performing the assessment shall, using a form approved by the department, indicate the need for boarding or foster home placement, develop a plan of care which meets the requirements of the department when placement is sought in a boarding or foster home, and provide periodic follow-up as necessary.

The department shall develop an intake and referral system to assist persons who seek admission by referring them to the appropriate agency for assessment and development of a plan of care.

The Department of Human Services and the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation shall report biennially to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over health and institutional services, commencing in January 1986, on the intake and referral system, the appropriateness of placements and the service needs which have been identified.

The department shall, pursuant to the Maine Administrative Procedure Act, Title 5, chapter 375, adopt reasonable rules to carry out the purposes of this section.
