Sec. 2. Appropriation. The sum of $3,200 is appropriated from the General Fund to the Legislative Account to carry out the purposes of this Act. Any unexpended funds shall remain in the Legislative Account. These funds are to be used to hold 3 meetings in fiscal year 1986-87.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective April 16, 1986.

CHAPTER 113

AN ACT to Continue Protection and Advocacy Services at the Current Level.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the current fiscal year may end before the 90-day period; and

Whereas, certain expenditures will be due and payable during the current fiscal year in order to maintain current protection and advocacy services; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Appropriation. The following funds are appropriated from the General Fund to carry out the purposes of this Act.

H.P. 1601 - L.D. 2255

AN ACT to Study Establishment of an Emergency
9-1-1 System in Heavily Populated
Areas.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. Findings. A preliminary study in one part of the State has found that a 9-1-1 system has tremendous potential to provide and bring forth efficiencies to municipal public safety department emergency response and public access to public safety assistance in emergency situations.

The preliminary study found that the 9-1-1 system is nationally recognized and is presently in use by about a dozen communities in Maine.

The preliminary study found that a computerized enhanced 9-1-1 service is now available which can solve some of the problems with using standard 9-1-1 in heavily populated areas.

Sec. 2. Study commission established; sunset. A 9-1-1 study commission is established to study the
