graph A, and to whom a law enforcement officer is authorized to deliver a summons pursuant to subsection 1, who intentionally fails or refuses to provide to that officer reasonably credible evidence of his name and address is guilty of a Class E crime, provided that he persists in the failure or refusal after having been informed by the officer of the provisions of this subsection. If that person furnishes the officer evidence of his name and address and the evidence does not appear to be reasonably credible, the officer shall attempt to verify the evidence as quickly as is reasonably possible. During the period the verification is being attempted, the officer may require the person to remain in his presence for a period not to exceed 2 hours. During this period, if the officer reasonably believes that his safety or the safety of others then present so requires, he may search for any dangerous weapon by an external patting of that person's outer clothing. If in the course of the search he feels an object which he reasonably believes to be a dangerous weapon, he may take such action as is necessary to examine the object, but he may take permanent possession of any such object only if it is subject to forfeiture. The requirement that the person remain in the presence of the officer shall not be deemed an arrest. After informing that person of the provisions of this subsection, the officer may arrest the person either if the person intentionally refuses to furnish any evidence of his name and address or if, after attempting to verify the evidence as provided for in this subsection, the officer has probable cause to believe that the person has intentionally failed to provide reasonably credible evidence of his name and address.

3. If, at anytime subsequent to an arrest made pursuant to subsection 2, it appears that the evidence of the person's name and address was accurate, he shall be released from custody and any record of that custody shall show he was released for that reason. If, upon trial for violating subsection 2, a person is acquitted on the ground that the evidence of his name and address was accurate, the record of acquittal shall show that was the ground.

4. Any person who fails to appear in court, as directed by a summons served on him pursuant to subsection 1, is guilty of a Class E crime. Upon failure to appear, the court may issue a warrant of arrest. It is an affirmative defense to prosecution under this subsection that the failure to appear was neither intentional nor knowing.

Effective September 29, 1987.
