D. Handles any such substance or material at any location knowing or consciously disregarding a risk that such location does not have a proper license or permit as may be required under this subchapter for such treatment, storage or disposal.

Notwithstanding Title 17-A, section 1301, subsection 1, paragraph A-1, or subsection 3, paragraph C, the fine for such violation shall not exceed $50,000 for each day of such violation. In a prosecution under paragraph B or paragraph D, the conscious disregard of the risk, when viewed in light of the nature and purpose of the person's conduct and the circumstances known to him, must involve a gross deviation from the standard of conduct that a reasonable and prudent person would observe in the same situation.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective October 15, 1987.

CHAPTER 546

H.P. 1393 — L.D. 1891

AN ACT to Resolve Conflict Resulting from Repealing the Exemption of State Lottery Winnings from State Income Tax and Simultaneous Recodification of the Lottery Law.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, changes in the state law are necessary in order to improve the fairness of the state tax system; and

Whereas, it is necessary to enact these changes without delay in order to avoid continuation of unnecessary inequities and statutory conflicts; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

8 MRSA §388, as enacted by PL 1987, c. 505, §2, is repealed.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall apply to tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

Effective October 15, 1987.

CHAPTER 547

H.P. 1382 — L.D. 1884

AN ACT Amending the Law Concerning "Beano" or "Bingo" on Indian Reservations.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, an immediate change in the law concerning "beano" or "bingo" on Indian reservations is needed for clarification and for the efficient conduct of the bingo games; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 17 MRSA §314-A, sub-§1, ¶A is enacted to read:

A. The Chief of the State Police may also issue, to any federally recognized tribe, licenses to sell lucky seven or other similar sealed tickets in accordance with section 324.

Sec. 2. 17 MRSA §314-A, sub-§7, as enacted by PL 1987, c. 197, §3, is amended to read:

7. Payment for services. Except as provided in paragraph A, an organization licensed under this section may pay the persons operating the high-stakes beano games for the organization no more than the minimum wage as established by Title 26, chapter 7, subchapter III. The persons need not be members of an organization licensed under this section.

A. An organization licensed under this section may contract for provision of professional legal, advertising, accounting and auditing services. The persons employed under a contract entered into under this paragraph may receive reasonable professional fees at a rate higher than minimum wage.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective October 19, 1987.
