H.P. 1523 — L.D. 2076

AN ACT Relating to the Tax-Exempt Status of Anson Academy Association.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the Anson Academy Association is now existing as a charitable and benevolent corporation; and

Whereas, the United States Internal Revenue Service will not recognize the tax-exempt charitable and educational status of the Anson Academy Association unless certain changes are made to the charter of the Anson Academy Association; and

Whereas, lack of such recognition by the United States Internal Revenue Service will hamper the association's fund-raising efforts and reduce the ability of the association to provide educational assistance and scholarships to needy students; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. P&SL 1823, c. 201, §1-B, first ¶, as enacted by PL 1971, c. 157, §3, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. P&SL 1823, c. 201, §7 is enacted to read:

7. Limitations. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the following purposes: Religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary

No part of the net earnings of the corporation may inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation, and no member, trustee or officer may be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon dissolution of the corporation.

The corporation may not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation, except as otherwise provided by the United States Internal Revenue Code, Section 501(h), or participate in or intervene in any political campaign, including the publication or distribution of statements, on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets must be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of the United States Internal Revenue Code, Section 501(c)(3), or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or must be distributed to the Federal Government or to a state or local government for a public purpose.
