eries management program and to report its findings to the Legislature by February 15, 1988; and

Whereas, the commission's assignment is a very extensive and time consuming one involving, among other issues, the question of the capacity of Maine's waters, angler desires, current hatchery capabilities, state-of-the-art hatcheries and innovative funding; and

Whereas, the commission has determined that specialized advice will be required to assist it in its endeavors and time is required to identify the resource personnel, to determine methods of funding their participation and to obtain time on their schedules; and

Whereas, the Commission to Study the Impact of Game and Nongame Species on Maine's Economy is dealing with material of value to the commission and will have quarterly reports during 1988 and a formal interim report December 1, 1988; and

Whereas, because of these reasons, the commission requires additional time to complete its study; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

Report of commission. Resolved: That, notwithstanding Resolves 1987, chapter 39, the Commission on Sport Fisheries shall continue its study and report its findings, together with any necessary legislation, to the Legislature no later than December 1, 1988; and be it further

Nonlapsing funds. Resolved: That the funds appropriated by Resolves 1987, chapter 39, shall not lapse on February 15, 1988, but shall carry forward until the purposes of this study have been completed; and be it further Allocation. Resolved: That the following funds are allocated from dedicated revenue of the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife to carry out the purposes of this resolve.

	1988-89
LEGISLATURE
Commission on Sports Fisheries
All Other	$1,000
Provides funds for the remaining anticipated costs of the commission.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this resolve shall take effect when approved.

Effective April 20, 1988.
