similar insurance terms are not by themselves acceptable explanations of an insurer's rejection.

The insurance shall be offered without discrimination against any eligible member of the plan as to rates, forms or coverages. Nothing in this section shall preclude the establishment of different classes of risk.

Insurers may not cancel, fail to renew or change the rating classification of insureds who have coverage in force under existing plans as of the effective date of this section for the sole reason that the insured fails to meet underwriting standards which are applicable to persons enrolling in the plans after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 5. Report. The Superintendent of Insurance shall report to the Joint Standing Committee on Banking and Insurance by April 1, 1991, regarding the operation of mass marketing plans in the State, including such matters as the number of mass marketing plans, a brief description of the underwriting standards used in the plans and a description of complaints received by the Bureau of Insurance relating to rejection of applicants for coverage under a mass marketing plan.

CHAPTER 194

H.P. 213 - L.D. 293

An Act Relating to Agricultural Awareness

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

7 MRSA c. 8-D is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 8-D

AGRICULTURAL AWARENESS

§241. Awareness program

The Commissioner of Agriculture, Food and Rural Resources shall:

1. Public awareness. Produce audio-visual materials, facilitate public service programming, prepare written materials, organize a speakers' bureau and otherwise educate the public. The commissioner, in carrying out these duties, shall address the following needs: maintaining a lasting and sustainable agriculture; protecting our critical rural infrastructures; guaranteeing continued and effective production and marketing of fresh fruits, vegetables and livestock; preserving prime farmland; conserving our soils and water; and generally ensuring the quality of life in rural Maine.

2. Agricultural literacy. Cooperate with the Department of Educational and Cultural Services to develop instructional materials, train teachers and teacher trainers and otherwise complete actions for utilizing agriculture as an exciting medium for educating students both about society and the natural world, while increasing their literacy by infusing basic agricultural concepts such as agriculture and economics, the dynamics of world hunger, agriculture and history within present subjects taught in Maine schools.

3. Cooperation. Cooperate with appropriate local, state, and federal agencies and institutions, educational and farm organizations and interested individuals, including the Maine Ag in the Classroom Association, the Department of Educational and Cultural Services and the Cooperative Extension Service in carrying out this chapter.
