CHAPTER 733

An Act Allowing Water Utilities to Sue for Injunctive Relief Regarding Lake Water QualityBe it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:*Sec. 1. 35-A MRSA §6109 is enacted to read:§6109. Injunctive relief for violations of municipal shoreland zoning ordinances

Pursuant to Title 38, section 444-A, any water utility may commence a civil action for a violation of municipal shoreland zoning ordinances.

Sec. 2. 38 MRSA §444-A is enacted to read:§444-A. Civil suit

1. Suit authorized. Any water utility, as defined in Title 35-A, section 102, may commence a civil action for injunctive relief against an owner of property in the shoreland zone when the following conditions are met.

A. A violation of a municipal shoreland zoning ordinance is alleged to have occurred.

B. The water utility bringing the civil action has a water supply that is directly affected by the alleged violation.

2. Suit prohibited. An action may not be brought under this section if the Federal Government, State Government or a municipality of the State has commenced and is pursuing an administrative, civil or criminal action to remedy the alleged violation.

3. Notice. An action may not be commenced under this section unless the plaintiff has given at least 60 days' notice to the alleged violator, the department, the Attorney General, and the municipality or municipalities in which the violation is alleged to have occurred. If the violation occurs within the jurisdiction of the Maine Land Use Regulation Commission, the commission must be given notice in place of the department and the municipality.

4. Jurisdiction. An action may be commenced in the District Court or Superior Court in the county in which the violation is alleged to have occurred.

5. Intervention. The Attorney General may intervene in any case brought under this section.

CHAPTER 735

H.P. 1512 - L.D. 2092

An Act Concerning the Travel Information Advisory Council

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, this Act requires a study with a report to the First Regular Session of the 115th Legislature; and

Whereas, commencing the study as soon as possible will facilitate its completion in a timely fashion; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 23 MRSA §1904, sub-§3, as amended by PL 1983, c. 812, §141, is repealed and the following enacted in its place:

3. Membership. The Travel Information Advisory Council is composed of 9 members appointed by the Governor as follows:
