evidences of indebtedness, and each authorized issue shall constitute a separate loan. All bonds, notes and evidences of indebtedness issued by the utility shall be legal investments for savings banks in the State and shall be free from taxation.

Sec. 12. Rates; application of revenue; sinking fund. Individuals, firms and corporations, whether private, public or municipal, shall pay to the treasurer or other designated officer of the utility the rates established by the board of trustees for the water used by them. The rates shall be established in accordance with the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 35-A, chapter 3 or 61, to provide for the purposes set forth in that chapter.

Sec. 13. Existing statutes not affected; rights conferred subject to provisions of law. Nothing contained in this Act is intended to repeal, or may be construed as repealing, the whole or any part of any existing law, and all the rights and duties mentioned in this Act shall be exercised and performed in accordance with all the applicable provisions of the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 35-A, and all acts amendatory and additional to Title 35-A, to the extent that these laws affect the operations of the utility.

Sec. 14. Severability clause. If any section or part of a section of this Act shall be held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the holding shall not affect the remainder of this Act, with the intention that the remaining portion of this Act shall stand, notwithstanding, the unconstitutionality or invalidity of any section, sentence, clause or phrase.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective June 23, 1989.

CHAPTER 56

H.P. 1266 - L.D. 1761

An Act Transferring Concurrent Legislative Jurisdiction over Brunswick Naval Air Station

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. Brunswick Naval Air Station; approval of transfer of legislative jurisdiction. The United States Department of the Navy having filed with the Governor by letter dated May 10, 1989, its notice of intention to both acquire concurrent legislative jurisdiction from the State of Maine over all areas of Brunswick Naval Air Station in which the United States presently holds a proprietary interest and to relinquish to the State of Maine that measure of its exclusive legislative jurisdiction over areas of Brunswick Naval Air Station in which the United States presently holds exclusive legislative jurisdiction necessary to establish concurrent legislative jurisdiction between the State of Maine and the United States, pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 1, section 8, the State of Maine hereby approves the transfers of legislative jurisdiction as proposed in the notice of intention.

Sec. 2. Brunswick Naval Air Station; description of land. The existing land so affected is the Brunswick Naval Air Station, inclusive of all land within the present boundaries of that station in the Towns of Brunswick and Topsham in Cumberland County.

Sec. 3. Brunswick Naval Air Station; concurrent legislative jurisdiction. This Act confers concurrent legislative jurisdiction between the State of Maine and the United States over all lands currently comprising Brunswick Naval Air Station as of the date of recordation of both this Act and the notice of intention.

See title page for effective date.

An Act Modifying the Territory of the Lucerne-in-Maine Village Corporation

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, it is the purpose of this legislation to transfer property that is located within the territorial limits of Lucerne-in-Maine Village Corporation to the Town of Dedham; and

Whereas, the Lucerne-in-Maine Village Corporation has already agreed to remove the school lot from Lucerne-in-Maine Village Corporation at its annual meeting on July 30, 1988; and

Whereas, the Town of Dedham would like to have the property transferred as soon as possible before the school year starts in September; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Lucerne-in-Maine Village Corporation; territory amended. Private and Special Laws of 1927, chapter 43, as amended by Private and Special Laws of 1951, chapter 94, is further amended by removing and excluding the following described parcel of land from the territorial limits of Lucerne-in-Maine Village Corporation:
