economic development in member states. The information may be gathered from any source, including the governors' offices and the departments with jurisdiction over economic development of each member state.

2. Tourism. The commission shall gather and review information regarding the promotion of tourism and methods of expanding access to travel opportunities among the member states.

3. Legislation. The commission may develop and recommend legislation for introduction in each member state that promotes economic development and tourism.

Sec. 2. Effective date. This Act takes effect when the Attorney General notifies the Office of the Revisor of Statutes that New Hampshire and Vermont have enacted concurrent legislation establishing the Interstate Economic Development Commission for the Northern New England States. Initial members of the commission must be appointed within 30 days after this Act takes effect. The governors of the member states shall set the date for the first meeting of the commission.

See title page for effective date, unless otherwise indicated.

CHAPTER 255

H.P. 199 - L.D. 252

An Act Regarding Destruction of Fish Populations

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 12 MRSA §7771, sub-§3, as enacted by PL 1979, c. 420, §1, is amended to read:

3. Taking of certain fish. After hearing pursuant to section 7035, subsection 1, the commissioner may permit the taking of pickerel, perch and other fish in specified waters, subject to such conditions as ~~he~~ the commissioner may prescribe, whenever it appears that those fish seriously injure the propagation of or the fishing for any game fish. The commissioner shall solicit bids prior to issuing a permit under this subsection to take fish for reclamation purposes and may solicit bids prior to issuing any other permit issued under this subsection.

See title page for effective date.

CHAPTER 256

H.P. 569 - L.D. 760

An Act to Increase Penalties for Subsequent Violations of the Laws Prohibiting Indecent Conduct

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 17-A MRSA §854, sub-§3, as amended by PL 1995, c. 72, §2, is further amended to read:

3. Indecent conduct is a Class E crime, except that it is a Class D crime and the authorized probationary period may be doubled if the defendant has 2 or more prior convictions for violation of this section or section 256. For purposes of this subsection, the dates of the prior convictions may not precede the commission of the offense by more than 10 years, although the prior convictions may have occurred on the same date. The date of a conviction is deemed to be the date that sentence is imposed, even though an appeal is taken. The date of commission of the offense being enhanced is presumed to be that date stated in the complaint, information or indictment, notwithstanding the use of the words "on or about" or the equivalent.

See title page for effective date.
