PUBLISHED BY THE REVISOR OF STATUTES
IN ACCORDANCE WITH MAINE REVISED STATUTES ANNOTATED,
TITLE 3, SECTION 163-A, SUBSECTION 4.

J.S. McCarthy Company
Augusta, Maine
1999

Services set out in section 1 include, but are not limited to:

1. Reviewing all constitutional, statutory and executive order authority guiding the State's capital planning process;
2. Defining capital expenditures;
3. Defining or distinguishing routine maintenance and major maintenance expenditures;
4. Reviewing the present system for rating maintenance, repair and other capital projects;
5. Reviewing the State's leasing practices;
6. Reviewing the State's fixed asset inventory system;
7. Reviewing the State's debt policies;
8. Developing a debt policy that integrates capital planning and debt affordability;
9. Reviewing the feasibility of developing a 4-year capital plan including a project tracking system; and
10. Developing and presenting a capital budget to policy makers separate from the operating budget; and be it further

Sec. 3. Recommendations. Resolved:

That the Department of Administrative and Financial Services shall make recommendations about the State's capital planning process to the Joint Standing Committee on Appropriations and Financial Affairs in such time as will allow legislation to be submitted to the next regular legislative session. The Joint Standing Committee on Appropriations and Financial Affairs may report out legislation as necessary to implement the recommendations of the department to the Second Regular Session of the 119th Legislature.

See title page for effective date.

CHAPTER 36

H.P. 548 - L.D. 769

Resolve, Regarding Legislative Review of Chapter 304: Standard of Conduct for Transmission and Distribution Utilities and Affiliated Competitive Electricity Providers, a Major Substantive Rule of the Public Utilities Commission

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the Maine Administrative Procedure Act, Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II-A, requires legislative authorization before major substantive agency rules may be finally adopted by the agency; and

Whereas, the above named major substantive rule has been submitted to the Legislature for review; and

Whereas, immediate enactment of this resolve is necessary to record the Legislature's position on final adoption of the rule; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

Sec. 1. Adoption with amendment. Resolved: That final adoption of Chapter 304: Standard of Conduct for Transmission and Distribution Utilities and Affiliated Competitive Electricity Providers, a provisionally adopted major substantive rule of the Public Utilities Commission and submitted to the Legislature for review pursuant to the Maine Administrative Procedure Act, is authorized only if the rule is amended as follows:

1. Section 2, paragraph F is deleted;
2. Section 3, paragraph I is deleted; and
3. A provision is added that clarifies that nothing in the rule prevents a distribution utility from entering into a special contract offering a special rate to a customer or group of customers pursuant to a rate flexibility program approved by the Public Utilities Commission under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 35-A, section 3195, subsection 6.

The Public Utilities Commission is not required to hold hearings or conduct other formal proceedings prior to finally adopting the rule in accordance with this resolve.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this resolve takes effect when approved.

Effective May 18, 1999.
