CHAPTER 10H.P. 776 - L.D. 1020*Resolve, to Assess the Condition of Historical Records in Maine
Historical Records Repositories

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, historical records in historical records repositories must be protected and preserved; and

Whereas, access to those records must be ensured; and

Whereas, the condition of historical records in historical records repositories throughout the State must be assessed in order to provide for their protection, preservation and access; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

Sec. 1. Assessment. Resolved: That the Secretary of State and the University of Maine System, in consultation with professionals with expertise in the preservation of documents, shall develop a comprehensive plan for assessing:

1. The condition of historical records in the State;
2. Threats to the integrity of those records; and
3. Accessibility of those records.

For the purposes of this resolve, the term "historical records" includes rare books and other published materials with unique historical value as well as original records with historical value. The plan must include an educational component that provides assistance to historical records repositories in protecting, preserving and providing access to those historical records; and be it further

Sec. 2. Report. Resolved: That the Secretary of State and the University of Maine System, in cooperation with the Maine Historical Records Advisory Board and other organizations and individuals concerned with historical records, shall submit a report along with any recommended legislation to the Joint Standing Committee on Education and Cultural Affairs no later than February 1, 2002. The Joint Standing Committee on Education and Cultural Affairs may report out a bill to the Second Regular Session of the 120th Legislature pertaining to the preservation and protection of historical records and access to those records.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this resolve takes effect when approved.

Effective May 8, 2001.

CHAPTER 11H.P. 259 - L.D. 308*Resolve, to Regulate the Harvesting of Horseshoe Crabs

Sec. 1. Regulate harvesting of horseshoe crabs. Resolved: That the Department of Marine Resources shall assess the size of the horseshoe crab resource to the greatest extent practicable, by using volunteer data collectors under the supervision of the department, by October 1, 2002. The department also shall determine by October 1, 2002 whether additional rules and a system of licensing for the harvest of horseshoe crabs are required to protect the horseshoe crab resource; if the department determines that additional rules are needed, it may adopt those rules. Rules adopted pursuant to this resolve are routine technical rules as defined in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II-A.

See title page for effective date.

CHAPTER 12H.P. 1002 - L.D. 1339*Resolve, to Amend Certain Dates for the Issuance of Bonds
