undertake a demonstration project to review the financial impact of departmental requirements imposed on providers of services. The demonstration project must consist of:

1. A review of the financial implications of all new requirements imposed by the department on or after January 1, 2002 on agencies that provide services to persons through contracts or agreements with the department that may increase the cost of providing those services. This provision applies to services provided by agencies on or after January 1, 2002 whenever funding sufficient to meet the cost of the requirement is not provided. This provision does not apply to new requirements imposed pursuant to federal law or regulation;

2. The development of strategies for achieving savings. By December 15, 2002, the Department of Behavioral and Developmental Services shall develop strategies for achieving savings for the agencies that will incur the cost increases identified pursuant to subsection 1, including cost mitigation and simplification of administrative requirements. In developing strategies pursuant to this resolve, the department shall collaborate with agencies that provide services to persons through contracts or agreements with the department;

3. A review of rules, contracts and other requirements. The Department of Behavioral and Developmental Services shall review existing rules and contracts and other requirements that impose costs on providers of services to identify requirements that may be modified or eliminated in order to minimize costs for the providers. This review must be conducted in consultation with the providers; and

4. A report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over health and human services matters. By January 15, 2003, the Department of Behavioral and Developmental Services shall report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over health and human services matters on the results of the reviews conducted under subsections 1 and 3 and the strategies for achieving savings under subsection 2.

Resolve, to Study the Design and Funding of a Household Hazardous Waste and Universal Waste Collection Program

Sec. 1. Feasibility and design review. Resolved: That the Department of Environmental Protection, in cooperation with the Executive Department, State Planning Office and the Department of Agriculture, Food and Rural Resources, shall report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over natural resources matters by January 15, 2003 on the feasibility and design of a long-term funding mechanism to provide state cost-sharing support to municipalities and regions for the operational costs of a statewide household hazardous waste and universal waste collection program. The report must include an analysis of a proposed funding mechanism based on the imposition of fees at the point of retail sale on paint and pesticide products sold within the State. The report must also include proposed legislation necessary to establish and implement the proposed funding mechanism; and be it further

Sec. 2. Authority to report out legislation. Resolved: That the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over natural resources matters may report out legislation to the First Regular Session of the 121st Legislature to establish a statewide household hazardous waste and universal waste collection program and to provide funding for the operating costs of the program.

H.P. 1437 - L.D. 1934

Resolve, to Provide Access to Personal Care Assistant Home Care Services

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts and resolves of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, this resolve must take effect before the expiration of the 90-day period in order to alleviate the crisis in recruiting and retaining personal care assistants for home care services that negatively impacts access to these services; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

Sec. 1. Department of Human Services review rules for personal care assistant home care services. Resolved: That, by October 1,
