D. Whether the consumer was represented by an attorney;

E. The dates the provider received the request for consumer arbitration, the arbitrator was appointed and the disposition of the consumer arbitration was rendered;

F. The type of disposition of the consumer arbitration, including withdrawal, abandonment, settlement, award after hearing, award without hearing, default and dismissal without hearing;

G. The amount of the claim and the amount of any award or relief granted unless a settlement agreement prohibits the disclosure of this information; and

H. The percentage of the arbitrator's fee allocated to each party.

2. Confidentiality. Except for the name of the provider and of individual arbitrators, the information reported to the administrator by a provider pursuant to subsection 1 related to each consumer arbitration is confidential and may not be disclosed by the administrator unless the information is disclosed in aggregate form.

3. Liability in providing information. A provider has no liability related to providing the information required to be provided under this section.

4. Violation. If a provider violates this section, the administrator may compel compliance pursuant to the provisions of Title 9-A, section 6-108 or, if the provider is an attorney, refer the violation to the Board of Overseers of the Bar.

Sec. 2. Report to the Legislature. On or before April 1, 2009, the Director of the Office of Consumer Credit Regulation within the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation shall compile the information reported by arbitration providers pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 10, chapter 212-B and submit a report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over insurance and financial services matters. The joint standing committee may submit legislation based on the report to the First Regular Session of the 124th Legislature.
