CHAPTER 308
H.P. 284 - L.D. 354

An Act Regarding the Reporting Requirements of Conservators

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 18-A MRSA §5-419, sub-§(a), as amended by PL 2001, c. 280, §2, is further amended to read:

(a). Every conservator shall account to the court for the administration of the trust as specified by the court at the time of the initial order or at the time of a subsequent order or as provided by court rule and upon resignation or removal. ~~On termination of the protected person's minority or disability, a conservator may account to the court or may account to the former protected person or that person's personal representative. Prior to the termination of the protected person's minority, the conservator shall account to the court and the protected person. Notwithstanding any other duty to render an accounting, a private conservator appointed after January 1, 2008 shall file an annual account with the court for approval. The court, for good cause shown by a conservator who is the spouse or domestic partner of the protected person, may waive or modify the duty to file an annual account. The annual account must be approved by the court before the conservator's obligation to file the annual account ends.~~

Prior to the termination of the protected person's minority, the conservator shall account to the court and the protected person. On termination of the protected person's minority or disability, a conservator shall file a final accounting with the court and that accounting must be approved by the court before the conservator's obligation to account ends. The conservator shall provide a copy of the final accounting to the former protected person or that person's personal representative at the time it is filed with the court.

Sec. 2. 18-A MRSA §5-430, as enacted by PL 1979, c. 540, §1, is amended to read:

§5-430. Termination of proceeding

The protected person, ~~his~~ the protected person's personal representative, the conservator or any other interested person may petition the court to terminate the conservatorship. A protected person seeking termination is entitled to the same rights and procedures as in an original proceeding for a protective order. The court, upon determining after notice and hearing that the minority or disability of the protected person has ceased, ~~may~~ shall terminate the conservatorship upon approval of a final account. Upon termination, title to assets of the estate passes to the former protected person or to ~~his~~ the former protected person's successors subject to provision in the order for expenses of administration or to conveyances from the conservator to the former protected ~~persons~~ person or ~~his~~ the former protected person's successors, to evidence the transfer.

Sec. 3. Guardian annual report working group. The Commissioner of Health and Human Services shall convene a working group consisting of staff from the Department of Health and Human Services, Adult Protective Services and interested parties, including, but not limited to, representatives of registers of probate, Legal Services for the Elderly, Disability Rights Center, attorneys in private practice, members of the public and such other persons as may be necessary to review the need for a practice requiring private guardians to make a detailed annual report to the Probate Court of the financial circumstances of the ward. The working group shall report its findings and recommendations to the Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary by January 11, 2008.

See title page for effective date.

CHAPTER 309
H.P. 1256 - L.D. 1801

An Act To Clarify the Definition of Autism

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 34-B MRSA §6002, as enacted by PL 1983, c. 824, Pt. U, is repealed and the following enacted in its place:

§6002. Autism defined

1. Generally. Autism refers to a developmental disorder characterized by a lack of responsiveness to other people, gross impairment in communicative skills and unusual responses to various aspects of the environment, all usually developing within the first 30 months of age.

2. Adult with autism. An adult with autism is an adult who:

A. Has received a diagnosis that falls within the category of Pervasive Developmental Disorders, as defined in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, Fourth Edition, published by the American Psychiatric Association and as may be updated by rule adopted by the department in response to updates or changes in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders; and
