CHAPTER 126

H.P. 28 - L.D. 53

An Act to Ensure Accountability for Workplace Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault by Removing Certain Intentional Torts from Workers' Compensation Exemptions

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 39-A MRSA §104, first ¶, as amended by PL 2017, c. 402, Pt. C, §109 and affected by PL 2019, c. 417, Pt. B, §14, is further amended to read:

An employer ~~who~~ that has secured the payment of compensation in conformity with sections 401 to 407 is exempt from civil actions, either at common law or under sections 901 to 908; Title 14, sections 8101 to 8118; and Title 18-C, section 2-807, involving personal injuries sustained by an employee arising out of and in the course of employment, or for death resulting from those injuries. An employer that uses a private employment agency for temporary help services is entitled to the same immunity from civil actions by employees of the temporary help service as is granted with respect to the employer's own employees as long as the temporary help service has secured the payment of compensation in conformity with sections 401 to 407. "Temporary help services" means a service where an agency assigns its own employees to a 3rd party to work under the direction and control of the 3rd party to support or supplement the 3rd party's ~~work force~~ workforce in work situations such as employee absences, temporary skill shortages, seasonal ~~work load~~ workload conditions and special assignments and projects. ~~These~~ Except as provided in section 104-A, these exemptions from liability apply to all employees, supervisors, officers and directors of the employer for any personal injuries arising out
