REPORTS FROM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND COUNCIL OFFICES

Fiscal Report

Chris Nolan, Director, Office of Fiscal and Program Review, presented the following report.

1. General Fund Revenue Update

Total General Fund Revenue - FY 2021 ($'s in Millions)
	Budget	Actual	Var.	% Var.	Prior Year	% Change
April	$379.5	$492.9	$113.3	29.9%	$535.5	-8.0%
FYTD	$3,062.3	$3,453.7	$391.4	12.8%	$3,301.3	4.6%

General Fund revenue was over budget by $113.3 million (29.9%) for the month of April and over budget by $391.4 million (12.8%) for the fiscal year to date. These positive variances do not reflect the May 2021 revenue forecast, which increased budgeted General Fund revenue by $479.4 million for FY 2021.

Individual income tax revenue was over budget by $5.0 million for the month and over budget by $177.6 million for the fiscal year to date. Individual income tax payments in April were below budget by $73.4 million as a result of the delay in the tax filing deadline to May 17th. Individual income tax refunds were $43.4 million less than budget (positive impact on revenue) for the month and $69.3 million less for the fiscal year to date, also continuing to reflect the delay in the filing deadline. Corporate income tax revenue was over budget by $44.2 million for the month and by $70.3 million for the fiscal year to date. The positive variance for the month was largely the result of final payments exceeding budget by $27.3 million and for the fiscal year to date, was largely the result of estimated payments exceeding budget by $39.6 million.

Sales and use tax revenue (March sales) was over budget by $35.9 million for the month and by $110.5 million for the fiscal year to date. Estate tax revenue was over budget by $20.4 million for April.

2. Highway Fund Revenue Update

Total Highway Fund Revenue - FY 2021 ($'s in Millions)
	Budget	Actual	Var.	% Var.	Prior Year	% Change
April	$26.6	$29.4	$2.8	10.6%	$25.0	17.9%
FYTD	$272.0	$278.9	$6.9	2.6%	$282.3	-1.2%

Highway Fund revenue was over budget by $2.8 million (10.6%) for the month of April and over budget by $6.9 million (2.6%) for the fiscal year to date. These positive variances do not reflect the May 2021 revenue forecast, which decreased budgeted Highway Fund revenue by $0.2 million for FY 2021.

Fuel taxes were under budget by $1.4 million for the month and by $3.3 million for the fiscal year to date. Motor vehicle registrations and fees were over budget by $3.7 million for the month and by $9.4 million for the fiscal year to date.

3. Cash Balances Update

The average balance in the cash pool for April was $2,578.3 million a decrease from March's average of $2,644.5 million. The decrease was largely the result of the continued decrease in the average balance from federal Coronavirus Relief Fund (CRF) payments (from $274.3 million in March to $240.6 million in April), and a decrease in the General Fund balance which is typical in the months prior to the individual income tax filing deadline. The average Highway Fund balance in April was $63.9 million, an increase from March's average of $58.0 million.

Protocols for Review of Legislative Study Proposals
130th Legislature
Legislative Council Meeting
June 24, 2021

Background: Requirements Relevant to Studies in the First Regular Session

Under the terms of the Joint Rules of the 130th Legislature, section 353, all joint orders and legislation proposing legislative studies regardless of funding source must be placed on a special study table. The Legislative Council must review proposed studies and establish priorities for allocation of budgetary and staffing resources.

For studies authorized by the Legislative Council, the Legislative Council must provide funds sufficient to enable the committee to reasonably conduct and complete the requirements of the studies.

Also under the Joint Rules, the Legislative Council must adopt a policy relating to preparing study legislation. On March 25, 2021, the Legislative Council unanimously adopted a policy on legislative studies for the 130th Legislature. Joint Rules and the related council policy specify the manner of appointment, selection of chair, compensation of members, report date and other relevants as part of study legislation. Copies of the Joint Rules and the adopted policy are in your notebook (see appendices).

Decision: Suggested Protocol for Authorizing Legislative Studies

- The Legislative Council will review study requests in LD order grouped by funding source.
- Voting will be by a roll call vote, and each Legislative Council member's vote on each bill will be recorded. The record of each vote will be made available for public inspection following the meeting.
- Discussion of the requests will be confined to council members. However, if committee chairs and other legislators are present in the meeting, Legislative Council members may ask questions of committee chairs and other legislators regarding the proposed study if needed.
- The Legislative Council shall specifically review those studies that do not conform to applicable standards and policies approved by the Council. The Council will include as part of its motion to authorize a study acceptance of any non-conforming elements of the study. Floor amendments to authorized studies making Council-authorized changes will be prepared in the name of the Senate Majority Leader, except for studies tabled in the House which will be in the name of the House Majority Leader.

Issues: Policy Issues Needing Decision

1. Number of authorized meetings and meeting location-Recommendation: Unless otherwise specified by the Legislative Council, the number of study meetings is not to exceed four (4) and meetings are to be held in the Augusta area.
2. Studies conducted using non-General Fund sources-Recommendation: When a study committee is required to be funded by outside funds, the study committee may not convene until sufficient funds are received to pay for the study.
3. Interim committee meetings-Recommendation: Unless authorized by law or joint order or approved jointly by the presiding officers, joint standing and joint select committees may not meet during the legislative interim. The number of authorized days may not exceed availability of budgeted funds. Committee clerks are not authorized to staff interim committee meetings or studies. Joint standing and joint select committees must complete all assigned work within their authorized meeting days.

Joint Rules, Rule 353. Legislative Studies.

To assist in the exercise of its duties, the Legislature may establish legislative study committees or may alternatively refer matters to joint standing committees or subcommittees of joint standing committees for study. This Joint Rule establishes standards that govern the drafting of legislative study instruments and the authorization of legislative studies. All legislative studies must be consistent with this Joint Rule and with Legislative Council policies adopted under this Joint Rule. Any bill, resolve or joint order proposing a legislative study that is inconsistent with this rule must be reviewed and approved by the Legislative Council.

1. Definitions. For the purposes of this Joint Rule, the following terms have the following meanings:

- A. The term 'legislative study' or 'legislative study committee' means any group of individuals established in an Act, Resolve or Joint Order or by the Legislative Council, except those exempted under policies adopted by the Legislative Council, whose duties include studying and reporting to the Legislature on any matter or advising the Legislature on any matter and that requires the use of legislative resources;
- B. The term 'legislative resources' means the expenditure of any funds appropriated or allocated to the Legislative Account, the appointment of one or more persons by the Legislature, the inclusion of one or more legislators as members of the legislative study committee or the use of Legislative Council staff; and
- C. The term 'non-legislative study' or 'non-legislative study group' means any group of individuals directed by legislation to report back to the Legislature on any issue but that is not otherwise a legislative study.

2. Establishing legislative studies. A legislative study may only be created by joint study order, unless the instrument directs an agency or a person who is not a legislator to take an action or has an existence that extends beyond the Legislature in which it is introduced. A joint standing committee may report out a joint study order requesting that a study be conducted.

3. Appointment of members. A majority of legislative study members must be legislators and the legislative study committee must be chaired by legislators appointed in a manner consistent with subsection 4. The legislative study committee must include members of the 2 parties holding the largest number of seats in the Legislature. All members of legislative study committees established by joint study order must be appointed by the presiding officers: Senate members by the President and House members by the Speaker. Members of a legislative study created by joint study order who are not legislators must be appointed either by the President or the Speaker. Legislative studies may include a minority of non-legislative members appointed by someone outside the Legislature. Joint appointment of members is not permitted.

4. Appointment of chairs. Legislative studies having more than 5 members must be cochaired by legislators. The first appointed Senate member must be the Senate chair and the first appointed House member must be the House chair. Legislative studies having 5 or fewer members must have a single legislative chair appointed by the presiding officer of the body of the originating study order or legislation. The chair of a legislative study having 5 or fewer members shall appoint a chair pro tem from among the appointed members to serve in the chair's absence.

5. Committee size. Legislative study committees may consist of no fewer than 3 and no more than 13 members.

6. Staffing. Unless the Legislative Council directs otherwise, Legislative Council staff will only be assigned to legislative studies that conform to this Joint Rule.

7. Reporting dates. All reports of legislative study committees that are to be submitted to a first regular session must be completed and submitted not later than the first Wednesday in November preceding the convening of the first regular session of the next legislature. All reports of legislative study committees that are to be submitted to a second regular session must be completed and submitted not later than the first Wednesday in December preceding the convening of the second regular session. Upon request of the study committee, the Legislative Council may extend the reporting date, except that the extension may not go beyond December 15th in odd numbered years or beyond the first Wednesday of December in even numbered years.

8. Legislation may not be introduced by legislative studies or non-legislative study groups. Legislative and non-legislative study committees or groups may include proposed legislation in their reports to the Legislature, but are not authorized to introduce legislation. Upon receipt of a report submitted by a legislative or non-legislative study committee or group, the joint standing committee to which the report is submitted, or the appropriate joint standing committee of jurisdiction in the event that the report is submitted to the Legislature as a whole, may introduce a bill during the session to which the report is submitted to implement its recommendations on matters relating to the study.

9. Compensation. Legislative members are entitled to receive the legislative per diem and reimbursement of necessary expenses for their attendance at authorized meetings of a study committee. Public members not otherwise compensated by their employers or other entities whom they represent are entitled to receive reimbursement of necessary expenses and, upon demonstration of financial hardship, a per diem equal to the legislative per diem for their attendance at authorized meetings of a study committee.

10. Study table. All joint study orders or legislation proposing legislative studies must be placed on a special study table in the Senate or House. The Legislative Council shall review the proposed studies and authorize the allocation of budgetary and staffing resources for those studies.

11. Legislative Council study policies. The Legislative Council shall adopt policies governing legislative studies at the beginning of each legislative biennium. Those policies may include conditions on the funding of legislative studies, exceptions to this Joint Rule, drafting standards or other provisions necessary to satisfy the requirements of this Joint Rule.

Pursuant to Joint Rule 203, the Legislative Council is charged with establishing the cloture date and procedures for submission of legislation for each second regular session. Attached for your review and consideration is a proposed schedule that establishes dates and deadlines for cloture and related events for the Second Regular Session of the 130th Legislature; this schedule is based on the schedule used for at least the last 3 second regular sessions to align with the previously scheduled 2019 Council meetings.

Consistent with the Joint Rules and past Legislative Council practice and policy, the schedule requires that:

- Bill requests be accompanied on or before the cloture date by sufficient instructions from which a bill may be fully drafted;
- If a bill is to be drafted by an outside source, the final draft must be submitted to the Revisor's Office by the cloture date; and
- Departments and agencies must submit final drafts by the cloture date.

During the time between cloture and the meeting of the Legislative Council to undertake the initial screening of Legislators' bill requests, the Revisor's Office will prepare and distribute a packet that lists all of the requests filed by Legislators that are subject to the Council's vote. Each request to be voted upon will be indexed by subject matter and given a brief summary by the Revisor's Office. The office, with the assistance of the Office of Policy and Legal Analysis and the Office of Fiscal and Program Review, will also identify requests that appear to be closely related to other requests, to bills carried over to the Second Regular Session, or to bills that might be considered finally rejected in the First Regular Session. The packet also includes a list of those bills carried over and a list of bill titles submitted by executive and independent agencies, which, traditionally, have not been subject to the screening process.

After the initial screening of Legislators' requests and decision by the Legislative Council, the Revisor's Office will compile the results and notify each individual Legislator of the Council's actions and provide instructions on the procedure to follow if a Legislator wishes to appeal a decision of the Legislative Council.

A supplemental volume will be prepared and distributed between the appeal deadline and the meeting of the Council to hear those appeals.

The schedule also includes the option of a bill signing day, which is traditionally scheduled in mid-December prior to the convening of the Second Regular Session to ensure that all bills that have been drafted will be signed and ready for introduction when the Legislature convenes in January. I have suggested two alternative days in order to enable the coordination of this year's bill signing day with any Legislator training sessions that may be scheduled.

In the 129th Legislature, out of 397 pre-cloture Legislator-filed bill requests, the Legislative Council accepted a total of 159. In the 128th Legislature, out of 289 pre-cloture Legislator-filed bill requests, the Legislative Council accepted a total of 96. In the 127th Legislature, out of 414 pre-cloture Legislator-filed bill requests, the Legislative Council accepted a total of 91. For all of those years, most of the bills were completed and signed on the applicable bill signing day and transmitted to the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House for printing and referral to committees before the Second Regular Session convened. Departments and agencies were also subject to the bill signing day, and most of their pre-cloture bill requests were also completed and sent to the chambers before the session convened.

If I can provide you any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Honorable Members of the Legislative Council for the 130th Legislature

Honorable Janet T. Mills
Governor of the State of Maine

In accordance with Title 5 § 243(9), we are conducting the Single Audit of the State of Maine for the year ended June 30, 2021. The Single Audit is an audit of the State's financial statements and major Federal assistance programs. Professional standards require that we provide you with the following information related to our audit. We would also appreciate the opportunity to meet with you to discuss this information further since a two-way dialogue can provide valuable information for the audit process.

Our Responsibilities under U.S. Generally Accepted Auditing Standards, Government Auditing Standards and the Uniform Guidance

As stated in our engagement letter to Commissioner Figueroa dated May 27, 2021, our responsibility, as described by professional standards, is to express opinions about whether the financial statements prepared by management with your oversight are fairly presented, in all material respects, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of your responsibilities.

In planning and performing our audit, we will consider the State of Maine's internal control over financial reporting in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinions on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control over financial reporting. We will also consider internal control over compliance with requirements that could have a direct and material effect on a major Federal program in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on compliance and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance.

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the State of Maine's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we will perform tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions is not an objective of our audit. Also in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, we will examine, on a test basis, evidence about the State of Maine's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Compliance Supplement applicable to each of its major Federal programs for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the State of Maine's compliance with those requirements. While our audit will provide a reasonable basis for our opinion, it will not provide a legal determination on the State of Maine's compliance with those requirements.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide for certain required supplementary information (RSI) to supplement the basic financial statements. Our responsibility with respect to management's discussion and analysis, budgetary reporting, state retirement plans, other post-employment benefit plans, and information about infrastructure assets reported using the modified approach, which supplement the basic financial statements, is to apply certain limited procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. However, the RSI will not be audited and, because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance, we will not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the RSI.

We have been engaged to report on supplementary information such as the combining statements, individual nonmajor fund statements and schedules, which accompany the financial statements but are not RSI, and the Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards. Our responsibility for this supplementary information, as described by professional standards, is to evaluate the presentation of the supplementary information in relation to the financial statements as a whole and to report on whether the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

We have not been engaged to report on the introductory section and statistical section, which accompany the financial statements but are not RSI. Our responsibility with respect to this other information in documents containing the audited financial statements and auditor's report does not extend beyond the financial information identified in the report. We have no responsibility for determining whether this other information is properly stated. This other information will not be audited and we will not express an opinion or provide any assurance on it.

Planned Scope and Timing of the Audit

An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements; therefore, our audit will involve judgment about the number of transactions to be examined and the areas to be tested.

Our audit will include obtaining an understanding of the entity and its environment, including internal control, sufficient to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements and to design the nature, timing, and extent of further audit procedures. Material misstatements may result from (1) errors, (2) fraudulent financial reporting, (3) misappropriation of assets, or (4) violations of laws or governmental regulations that are attributable to the entity or to acts by management or employees acting on behalf of the entity. We will generally communicate our significant findings at the conclusion of the audit. However, some matters could be communicated sooner, particularly if significant difficulties are encountered during the audit where assistance is needed to overcome the difficulties or if the difficulties may lead to a modified opinion. We will also communicate any internal control related matters that are required to be communicated under professional standards.

The State of Maine's financial statements are required to include information related to certain component units. Because the financial statements of these component units have been audited by other auditors, and we plan to rely on the audits conducted by the other auditors, we will refer to these other auditors in our audit opinion.

The Office of the State Auditor started the audit in May 2021 and plans to issue our reports no later than March 31, 2022. State Auditor Matthew Dunlap is responsible for supervising the engagement and signing the reports or authorizing another individual to sign them.

This information is intended solely for the use of the Governor, the Legislative Council members, and management of the State of Maine and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Sincerely,

Matthew Dunlap
State Auditor
