Mr. MARDEN of Kennebec: Mr. President, I believe with relation to Item 3 that the reference could be improved upon. I think there is a distinction between a resolve in favor of a claimant and a bill asking for authorization to bring suit against the State, with various legal technicalities involved, including by whom the suit is to be heard and the amount of money involved and so forth. It seems to me that this item should be referred to a committee with legal counsel on it, either Judiciary or Legal Affairs, and I so move.

The PRESIDENT: The Senator from Kennebec, Senator Marden, moves that we refer Item 3, "Resolve authorizing Charlotte Alex to Bring Action Against the State of Maine" (S. P. 4) (L. D. 4) to the Committee on Judiciary instead of the Committee on Claims. Is this the pleasure of the Senate?

Orders of the Day

Mr. PARKER of Piscataquis: Mr. President, just to clear up a thought in some of the new members' minds perhaps, it seems to me it would be a wise thing at the next legislative day to have the actual cost of these three orders: "This is Your Legislature," "How a Bill Becomes a Law" and the "Number of Inhabitants" printed in our next Senate calendar.

The PRESIDENT: That is a good suggestion, Senator Parker, and we will try to have that information.

Mr. NOYES of Franklin: Mr. President, before we recess I would like to announce that at eleven o'clock we will have a Republican caucus in the Judiciary room.

On motion by Mr. Noyes of Franklin, the Senate recessed until 2:00 p.m.

After Recess

The Senate was called to order by the President.

On motion by Mr. Erwin of York ORDERED, the House concurring, that the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee be authorized to employ the services of an attorney for the duration of the 100th Legislature to act in the capacity of Research Assistant. (S. P. 86)

Which was Read and Passed.

The PRESIDENT: The Chair would like to take this opportunity to replace two members of the Interstate Cooperation Committee, the vacancies having been caused by the fact that the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Woodcock, and the Senator from Aroostook, Senator Rogerson did not choose to run again; and to that committee the Chair will appoint the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Davis and the Senator from Somerset, Senator Carpenter.

On motion by Mr. Noyes of Franklin,
