

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied
(searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD OF THE
One Hundred And Fourteenth Legislature
OF THE
State Of Maine

VOLUME V

SECOND REGULAR SESSION
March 20, 1990 to April 14, 1990
Index

HOUSE & SENATE LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS
December 7, 1988 to April 14, 1990

LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS

OF THE

One Hundred And Fourteenth Legislature

OF THE

Senate

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
114TH MAIN LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment appeared on the 1st Regular Session Senate Calendars of December 7, 1988 to July 1, 1989, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Mr. & Mrs. Leslie F. Paige, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on November 26, 1988; (SLS 1)

Laurent C. Pinette, of Brunswick, director of the Bowdoin College dining service, who received the 26th Annual Alumni Award for Faculty and Staff from the Bowdoin College Alumni Council; (SLS 2)

Anne Brown, of Sebago, for 25 years of service as Secretary to the Superintendent of Schools in Sacopee Valley School District, which includes the towns of Baldwin, Cornish, Hiram, Parsonfield and Porter; (SLS 3)

Jonathan C. Robinson, of Freeport, who has been elected President of the Maine Insurance Agents' Council; (SLS 4)

Robert J. Carrigan, Jr., of Orrington, a teacher at Hermon High School, beloved by his family and students; (SLS 5) (in Memoriam) the Most Reverend Joseph J. Gerry, a native of Millinocket, on being appointed Bishop of the Diocese of Portland by Pope John Paul II; (SLS 6)

Assistant Chief Horace Benner, on the occasion of his retirement after 27 years of dedicated service to the Rockland Fire Department and for his commitment as an active participant in several fire service organizations; (SLS 7)

John P. Cullinan, of Norway, successful businessman, beloved family member and highly respected citizen of the Oxford Hills Community; (SLS 8) (in Memoriam)

Hammond Lumber Company, honored as the Business of the Year by the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 9)

the Norway Memorial Library on the occasion of its 50 year celebration and in acknowledging the patrons and fine staff who have helped to make the library the outstanding community resource that it is today (SLS 10)

Gregory D. Violette, of Scout Troop #124 Lisbon, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. Gregory is a sophomore at St. Dominic Regional High School where he is a member of several teams and clubs. He is also a member of the St. Matthew's Episcopal Church and is active as an acolyte, teaching Sunday School; (SLS 11)

Frank W. Anderson Jr., of Amherst, highly respected and loved by family and friends, well-known by the community for his participation in several fraternal and public service organizations. Mr. Anderson, in addition to 21 years of combined military service, held positions as a warden of the Maine Inland Fish and Game and Deputy Sheriff of Hancock County; (SLS 12) (in Memoriam)

Christopher W. Arata, of Scout Troop #48 Orono-Veazie, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 13)

T. Tarpy Schulten, a retired banker and gentleman farmer of Woolwich who was a member of the House of Representatives during the 100th Legislature and served in the Senate during the 105th and 106th Legislatures. Mr. Schulten was also a very active participant in fraternal and service organizations in the greater Bath-Brunswick area; (SLS 14) (in Memoriam)

Lloyd and Iva Dyer, of Newport, and in extending them best wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, December 31, 1988; (SLS 15)

Mark A. Babcock, of Scout Troop #93, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 16)

David A. Babcock, of Scout Troop #93, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 17)

Tom Fairfield, a student at Camden-Rockport High School, who scored his 1,000th career point as a player on the basketball team, January 10, 1988; (SLS 18)

Michael Curtis, well-known and highly respected businessman and former chairman of the Bar Harbor Town Council. Mr. Curtis and his wife, Pat, are known throughout the community for their successful book and gift store business; (SLS 19) (in Memoriam)

Velana Dainys, of South Casco, who is resigning from her position as Maine State Director for the American Association of Retired Persons after several years of dedication and commitment to the organization. Velana will be pursuing other avenues of involvement with seniors; (SLS 21)

H. Allen Ryan, president and owner of NorthCenter Foodservice Corporation, of Augusta, who has been named the 1989 "Business person of the Year" by the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 22)

Vernon A. Cunningham, Jr., former Town Clerk and selectman in Milford, who will long be remembered for his active participation in community service work; (SLS 23) (in Memoriam)

Nancy Sutton, of Norway, who has been presented with the 1989 Community Service Award for her commitment to the welfare of others as shown through participation in the Oxford Hills Food Pantry, the Child Health Center, the Girl Scouts of America and other numerous civic and church organizations; (SLS 24)

Robert Bizier, of Norway, who has been presented with the 1989 Community Service Award for his active participation in numerous organizations in the Oxford Hills area such as the UMCA, Knights of Columbus, Kiwanis Club and the United Way; (SLS 25)

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grover, of Freeport, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on January 9, 1989 (SLS 26)

Fred A. Drake, who has comforted and supported in many times of grief during his 40 years as a licensed funeral service practitioner and in extending our best wishes on his retirement from Knowlton & Hewins Funeral Home of Augusta, Hallowell and Winthrop, March 1, 1989; (SLS 27)

Ryan G. Bradeen, of Milo, on being selected to attend the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation International Leadership Seminar in the Soviet Union, where he will meet with Soviet leaders in Government, Industry and Education; (SLS 28)

Raymond "Red" Nadeau, whose 8 years of dedicated service as a York County Commissioner exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 29)

Raymond Alley, of Vinalhaven High School, who scored his 2000th point in basketball; (SLS 30)

Dr. George F. Higgins, of Presque Isle, on his retirement after 30 years as a dedicated physician to the people of Presque Isle; (SLS 31)

State Senator Donald F. Collins, a successful businessman, an involved civic leader and a dedicated public servant for the citizens of Aroostook County, who has been named the "Maine Chamber of Commerce 1989 Business Leader of the Year"; (SLS 32)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Harold Canwell, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of his 83rd birthday, February 4, 1989; (SLS 33)

Anita Moulton, on the occasion of her retirement after 25 years of dedicated service as Town Clerk to the citizens of Oxford; (SLS 34)

Donald A. "Pete" Ouellette, of Brunswick, owner of Day's News and Variety Store on Maine Street for 34 years. A dedicated, hardworking man whose friendly sincere smile won him many friends; (SLS 35) (in Memoriam)

Stephens Memorial Hospital on the occasion of its 32nd anniversary, February 4, 1989, and in extending our best wishes for its continued success in serving the citizens of the Oxford Hills community; (SLS 36)

Norman Lamphere, honored as the Citizen of the Year by the Lisbon Rotary Club; (SLS 37)

Douglas H. Brown, on the occasion of his retirement after 29 years as a successful business and community leader which earned him the respect of employees and citizens throughout the State; (SLS 38)

North Yarmouth Academy, a college preparatory, coed day school in Yarmouth, on the occasion of the 175th anniversary of its incorporation on February 4, 1914; (SLS 39)

Robert and Dorothy Watts, of Millinocket, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 40)

Dr. Richard J. Corbett, for his dedication and commitment toward the well-being of adolescents recovering from drug and alcohol problems and whose efforts have been instrumental in helping to establish the Adolescent Recovery Center at Mid-Maine Medical Center's Seton Unit; (SLS 41)

Tyson Curtis, of Lisbon Falls, who has been chosen as an "Outstanding High School Student of America." Tyson is a junior at Lisbon High School where he is active as President of Peer Counselors, Treasurer of the Student Council and participates in varsity football, track and field and is on several school committees; (SLS 42)

John Douzepis, a senior at Thornton Academy, who has been named a "Lineman of the Year" by the Touchdown Club of Atlanta, Georgia; (SLS 43)

the cheerleaders of Central Aroostook High School, of Mars Hill, winners of the State Cheerleading Championship for Class C; (SLS 44)

Molly Nealy, resident of Brunswick Manor and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 101st birthday, January 31, 1989; (SLS 45)

Karen Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clark of Orland, on of the 12 winners in the Maine Developmental Disabilities Council's 1988 Annual Awareness Contest; (SLS 47)

Ruby Eastman, of Fairfield, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, April 4, 1989; (SLS 48)

Arthur and Hattie Cousins, of Sedgwick, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, February 19, 1989; (SLS 49)

Eva G. Stone and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, February 22, 1989; (SLS 50)

Ralph L. Kinney, formerly of Brunswick and now a resident at the Freeport Nursing Home, on the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of his birth, March 15, 1989; (SLS 51)

William Silliker, Jr., Saco, founder and leader of the Saco Citizens' Coalition, the Saco Bay Federation and the Friends of Rachel Carson; for his tireless efforts in conserving the environment for future generations; (SLS 52)

the clients and staff of Opportunity Housing, Inc., of Bangor, recipients of the National Association of Private Residential Resources' 1988 Residential Services Award. Opportunity Housing has enabled hundreds of Bangor area citizens with developmental disabilities to find dignity and achieve growth and independence in noninstitutional community-based settings; (SLS 53)

Joan Knight, artistic director of the Perth Theatre Company, Perth, Scotland, on her participation in the International Director Program, with support from the Maine Arts Commission and the Scots Art Council, in directing "Absent Friends" at the Penobscot Theatre in Bangor; (SLS 54)

Gail Bowditch, of Sebago, who is retiring after many years of dedicated service as a School Board member of School Administrative District #61; (SLS 55)

Norman Mee, of Newfield, for his unselfish devotion to the members of his community, whose generosity exemplifies the spirit of "Good Neighbor"; (SLS 56)

Earl F. Silver, Sr., former Chief of the Freeport Fire Department and beloved family member, fondly remembered for his contributions, effective leadership and many years of dedicated service to the citizens of his community; (SLS 57) (in Memoriam)

Deer Isle-Stonington, winners of the Eastern Maine Class D boys basketball championship; (SLS 58)

Patrolmen Michael Thornton and Patrick Flood, for their quick response and rescue of a youngster who had fallen through the ice into the frigid waters of Number 1 Pond in Sanford; (SLS 59)

John Wickenden, winner of the State Class A Slalom Skiing championship; (SLS 60)

Max Micoeau, winner of the State Class A giant Slalom championship; (SLS 61)

Jason Jones, winner of the gold medal in the 130-pound class of the Class B State Wrestling Final; (SLS 62)

Eva Bearce, of South Paris, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 108th birthday; (SLS 63)

Yarmouth High School, winner for the second consecutive year of the Class B State of Maine High School Ski Championship, 1989; (SLS 64)

John R. Weinrich, of Moore/Weinrich Architects in Brunswick, who has been elected president of the Maine Chapter of the American Institute of Architects' (SLS 65)

Iris Hoffman, 1989 Jefferson Award winner for outstanding public service as a court-appointed special advocate for child abuse; (SLS 66)

the Rockland District High School Boys Basketball Team, runner-up in the State Class B Basketball Championship, on a tremendous season; (SLS 67)

Raymond Alley, of Vinalhaven High School, whose sensational schoolboy basketball career includes scoring 2306 points to break the state record of 2281 set in 1983-85, recipient of the Gatorade Circle of Champions "Maine High School Basketball Player of the Year" award and on being selected to play in the East/West Senior All-Star Basketball Tournament at Colby College; (SLS 68)

the members of the Noble High School Girls Gymnastic Team, winners of the Class A Gymnastics Championship; (SLS 69)

Dr. Kenneth Hamilton, of Paris, founder and Medical Director of the Healing of Persons Exceptional group in Norway, winner of the 1989 Jefferson Award for outstanding public service; (SLS 70)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

John Roberts, whose dedication and commitment to the community of Waterford as a Selectman exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 71)

Josephine "Jo" Stone, of Norway, on being named "Restaurateur of the Year" by the Maine Restaurant Association. Jo has prepared and cooked meals for her customers at Bargo's Restaurant for 57 consecutive years; (SLS 73)

Ralph Snyder, on the occasion of his retirement after having served for 36 years as a dentist in the Belfast community; (SLS 74)

James Chandler, Executive Director of the Biddeford-Saco Chamber of Commerce & Industry, on the occasion of this retirement after 3 1/2 years of dedicated service; (SLS 75)

Fred Hale, of South Portland, at the age of 98 the oldest beekeeper in the State of Maine, and one of the oldest active beekeepers in the United States. Mr. Hale is fondly known as the "Dean of Maine Beekeepers" and is widely recognized for his willingness to share his apiary skills with beginning beekeepers. Mr. Hale served as a railway mail clerk for nearly 43 years on the Bangor to Boston run, is an avid gardener, enjoys smelt fishing and is known in the community for keeping an eye out for the needs of the elderly; (SLS 76)

Leroy Haskell, a resident of the Rockland Methodist Home, on the occasion of his 90th birthday, March 18, 1989; (SLS 77) (Dead)

Yvette L. Houle, upon her retirement as Clerk of the Maine District Court, Division of Southern Androscoggin, in Lewiston, after 30 years of public service, for her fairness, compassion, integrity and commitment to improvement of the judicial system of the benefit of all Maine people; (SLS 79)

Joseph G. Donahue, for ten years of dedicated service on behalf of the citizens of Maine as Attorney Examiner and General Counsel at the Maine Public Utilities Commission; (SLS 80)

Craig Turgeon, of Sanford, a brave young man who was named 1989 Daffodil Child for the American Cancer Society in Maine. This is the 12th year the Maine Division of the American Cancer Society has celebrated spring with the flower of hope, the daffodil. The funds raised during Daffodil Days help to ease the burden of cancer for families throughout Maine; (SLS 81)

Beulah Brown, of Hartford, who is retiring after 19 years of dedicated service to the town and its citizens as Town Clerk; (SLS 82)

Elroy Haskell, of Rockland, and his twin brother Leroy, of Stonington, who were born on Tea Hill, in the coastal community of Stonington on March 18, 1899. In honor of their 90th birthdays, we join the Haskell family in wishing the twins a very Happy Birthday; (SLS 83)

Lisa Cote, of Sanford, who has been named to the 1988-89 Southern Maine Activities Association All-Star Basketball Team; (SLS 84)

Janet Kalman, of Springvale, recipient of a Jefferson Award for her dedicated work with Cambodian refugees in their quest for resettlement in the Sanford-Springvale area; (SLS 85)

Roland Cote, a member of the coaching staff at Sanford High School, who has been named "Co-Coach of the Year" by fellow coaches in the Southern Maine Activities Association; (SLS 86)

Opportunity Housing, Incorporated, on the occasion of its tenth Anniversary in providing community-based residential and day services to people with mental retardation in the Bangor area; (SLS 87)

the Jackson Brook Institute, of South Portland, for 5 years of providing mental health services of the highest quality to people with mental illnesses and substance abuse problems in Maine. The Jackson Brook Institute's programs for children and adolescents with mental illnesses have helped to fill a great gap in the spectrum of services for troubled youth in Maine; (SLS 89)

Herbert Dunham, of Greenwood, for his dedication to public service and commitment to the people and town of Greenwood as a Selectman for 19 years; (SLS 90)

L. Chandra Lull, of Brunswick High School, who has been named a finalist in the 1989 National Merit Scholarship Program; (SLS 91)

Joshua Rosenzweig, of Brunswick High School, who has been named a finalist in the 1989 National Merit Scholarship Program; (SLS 92)

Leslie Bennett, of Brunswick High School, who has been named a finalist in the 1989 National Merit Scholarship Program; (SLS 93)

R. Will Kilbreth, of Brunswick High School, who has been named a finalist in the 1989 National Merit Scholarship Program; (SLS 94)

the following members of the Cony High School Girl's Basketball Team, winners of the Class A State Championship: Meaghan Lane, Marcie Lane, Lisa Sampson, Holly Washburn, Amy Parent, Becky Demos, Kari Goraj, Lisa Morang, Chrisanne Burns, Christine Tschamler, Donna Gilbert, Coach Paul Vachon and manager Rusty Hopkins. This is the teams second championship in three years; (SLS 95)

Bernard H. DeHaven, for 27 years of devoted service as Town Clerk of Alfred; (SLS 96)

Bessie Merrill, of Naples, in honor of her being presented the "Winnie Moore Award" for outstanding nursing service at the Cumberland Memorial Hospital for over 25 years; (SLS 97)

Elizabeth Montgomery, of Rockland District High School, who has been named Class Salutatorian for 1989; (SLS 98)

Paul Will, of Rockland District High School, who has been named the Class Valedictorian for 1989; (SLS 99)

Meda Hilton, of Dover Foxcroft, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 100th Birthday; (SLS 100)

John P. Bibber, known statewide as the "Dean of Town Managers" on the occasion of his retirement after decades of thoughtful, dedicated service as Brunswick's Town Manager. Recipient of an honorary doctorate of Civil Laws from Bowdoin College, Mr. Bibber served the people of Brunswick with the patience, tact and wisdom that have endeared him to all; (SLS 101)

Phil Guy, for his many years of unselfish service as Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 97 in Blue Hill; (SLS 102)

Marquerite Orcutt, recently honored by the community of Swans Island with their Boston Post cane, presented in recognition of her status as the town's oldest living resident, as she looks forward to celebrating her 90th birthday on May 19, 1989; (SLS 103)

the Belfast Area High School "Lady Lions" winners of the State Class B Gymnastics Championship and for setting a new state record score; (SLS 104)

Aaron Fox, a student at Belfast Area High School, who won the Class B Wrestling State Championship in the 119-pound Class; (SLS 105)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Stacey Bay, Bowdoin College freshman, who was voted the Eastern College Athletic Conference Division III Women's Rookie of the Year by ECAC basketball coaches; (SLS 106)

the Mid-Coast Youth Hockey Association Pee Wee travel team, winners of the Tier 2 State Championship; (SLS 107)

Kenneth Young, an honored and respected citizen of Calais, for his outstanding service as the 6th District Commander of the American Legion, Department of Maine, for the years 1988 and 1989; (SLS 108)

Laurence I. Davis, on the occasion of his retirement after 41 years as Town Clerk of Edgecomb. In serving the people of Edgecomb dutifully and faithfully, Mr. Davis followed a tradition of his family's dedicated service, a tradition stretching back to 1770 when Moses Davis became Edgecomb's first Town Clerk and continuing through the generations with Moses Davis, Jr., a carpenter; Lincoln Davis, a blacksmith; and Laurence's father, Irving Davis, the Town Clerk whom Laurence so admirably succeeded; (SLS 109)

Richard Dill, of Phillips, of Troop #592, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 110)

Edward L. Thomas, of Orono, whose warmth, insight and dedication to this community endeared him to all of those whose lives he touched. Mr. Thomas will be remembered for his business and community work, including his service as a member of the Board of Selectmen for the Town of Veazie and his efforts as a Trustee of the United Methodist Church of Orono; (SLS 111) (in Memoriam)

the University of Maine "Black Bears" Hockey Team, and in extending our pride on their exciting 4-3 double-overtime victory in the best-of-3 NCAA quarterfinals series against Providence College on March 26, 1989 at the Alfond Arena in Orono; (SLS 112)

Samuel Sezak, beloved husband of Ethel (Thomas) of Orono, Professor Emeritus of Physical Education and Athletics at the University of Maine, a dedicated teacher, who will long be remembered for his devotion and commitment to the youth of Maine; (SLS 113) (in Memoriam)

Adam Beeler, of South Freeport, recipient of the first Junior Sailor of the Year Award if Naube Boats and Harbors magazine; (SLS 114)

Myrtie Ellis, of Skowhegan, on her retirement from a long, distinguished career serving the elderly of Maine, and for her outstanding efforts in providing services to the shut-ins and to congregate care facilities in the is State. She has been recognized on the state and national level for her service to senior citizens and has been nominated for the Jefferson Award. We wish her the very best in her retirement and we know she will carry on her efforts for the senior citizens of Maine; (SLS 115)

Neil "Harry" Packard, of Millinocket, on the occasion of his retirement after 27 years of distinguished service at Great Northern Paper Company; (SLS 116)

Nathaniel T. Cobb, Department Adjutant of the Maine American Legion, a dedicated leader who has served his City, State and Nation with distinction, who has stood every ready to support and defend those rights of freedom that make our nation such a great place in which to live; (SLS 117)

Brian Touchette, a senior at Oxford Hills High School, recipient of the 1989 Prinicipal's Award for academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 118)

Kenneth L. Matthews, of Caribou, longtime member of the House of Representatives and Public School Music Educator, recipient of the Rotary International Paul Harris Fellowship; (SLS 119)

the members of the Lewiston-Auburn Chamber of Commerce, for their excellence as leaders in the commercial educational and cultural successes of the Lewiston and Auburn area and in expressing support and encouragement for the organization's continued growth in the twin cities; (SLS 120)

Fredrick and Dorothy Hadley, of Town Hill, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 121)

Lisa Bailey, of Westbrook, who was chosen 1989 Miss Maine Teen USA and who will represent Maine in the 1989 Miss Teen USA Pageant in July; (SLS 122)

Nicole Boisvert, of Noble High School, who has been named to the Telegram All-State Class A Gymnastics 1st team in vault, bars, beam and all-around competition; (SLS 123)

Heather Jameson, of Noble High School, who has been named to the Telegram All-State Class A Gymnastics 2nd team in floor competition; (SLS 124)

Hilary Jameson, of Noble High School, who has been named to the Telegram All-State Class A Gymnastics 1st team in floor competition and the 2nd team for bars, beam and all-around; (SLS 125)

Tricia Scholtz, of Noble High School, who has been named to the Telegram All-State Class A Gymnastics 2nd team in vault competition; (SLS 126)

Gordon McKenney of Monmouth, who has served as a member of the Monmouth Fire Department for over 40 years; (SLS 127)

the Norway Baptist Church on Cottage Street and in extending our best wishes on its celebration of one hundred years of worship; (SLS 128)

Jimmy Burrill, whose years of dedication and commitment to the youth of the greater Westbrook area as a Coach for the Manchester Post American Legion Baseball Team exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 129)

Luther Small, whose years of dedication and commitment to the youth of the greater Westbrook area as General Manager of the American Legion Manchester Post Baseball Team exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 130)

Cheryl Echols, of Westbrook High School, on being named to the All-State Drama Cast; (SLS 131)

Scott Profenno, of Westbrook High School, on being named to the All-State Drama Cast; (SLS 132)

Heather Connolly, of Westbrook High School, on being named to the All-State Drama Cast; (SLS 133)

Tom Trecartin, of Westbrook High School, on being named a State Champion Wrestler; (SLS 134)

Daniel Juers, of Westbrook High School, on being named a State Champion Swimmer; (SLS 135)

Adam Mason, of Westbrook High School, on being named a State Champion Swimmer; (SLS 136)

Kelly McCullough, of Westbrook High School, on being named a State Champion Diver; (SLS 137)

Geoffrey Parks, of Westbrook High School, on being named to the All-Eastern Choir and on being selected as a State Champion Soloist; (SLS 138) the Westbrook High School Jazz Choir, on being named the 1989-90 State Champions; (SLS 139)

Philip Spiller, of Westbrook High School, on being named an All-State Champion trumpet player; (SLS 140)

the Westbrook High School Jazz Band, on being named State Champions for the 1989-90 school year; (SLS 141)

Leslie Bennett, a senior at Brunswick High School, who has been selected to receive the 1989 Principal's Award sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principal's Association in recognition of academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 142)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Richard Bancroft, owner of the Pierce Studio in Brunswick, who received a Court of Honor Award, the Kodak Gallery Award for Create Photography, the President's Cup Award, the Judges Award and the Best in Show Award at the 1989 Maine Professional Photographers Association convention; (SLS 143)

Rebecca E. Zorach, of Brunswick and a junior at Harvard University, who has been named a National Endowment for the Humanities Younger Scholar for 1989; (SLS 144)

Tom Jones, owner of Tom Jones Photography in Brunswick, who received First Place and Court of Honor Awards, a Kodak Gallery Award, the Hallmark Award for the best color portrait and other awards, including four blue ribbons, at the 1989 Maine Professional Photographers Association convention; (SLS 145)

George Hooper, whose dedication and commitment as a selectman for the Town of Woodstock exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 146)

Michael Hogan, of Clemons Marine Supply in Brunswick, one of 178 Yamaha dealership sales personnel who received Customer's Choice Awards for 1989; (SLS 147)

Carrie Swan, a freshman at Freeport High School, who won the 50-yard freestyle at the 1989 Girl's Class B State Swimming and Diving Championships at the University of Maine; (SLS 148)

David S. Patterson, owner of the Hi-Hat Restaurant in Lisbon, who has been named the Lisbon Area Chamber of Commerce 1989 "Business person of the Year"; (SLS 149)

the Sanford High Math Team, which won its third consecutive York County Math League Title; (SLS 150)

Joseph Torras, of Lincoln, President of Lincoln Pulp and Paper, whose dedicated leadership has led to the economic revitalization of the Town of Lincoln; (SLS 151)

Officer Jeffrey McLaughlin, of the Rockland Police Department, who was shot while on duty February 13, 1989 and whose actions on that day have earned him a commendation for efforts above and beyond the normal line of duty; (SLS 152)

Officer Stephen Johnson, of the Rockland Police Department, who was shot while on duty February 13, 1989 and whose actions on that day have earned him a commendation for efforts above and beyond the normal line of duty; (SLS 153)

Martha Crowell, of Ellsworth, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (SLS 154)

Mr. and Mrs. G. David Cunningham, of Freeport, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, April 22, 1989; (SLS 155)

Margaret Graig Stone, of Belfast, who has been selected as an "Outstanding Citizen" by Modern Woodmen of America in appreciation of her many years of outstanding service and dedication to the citizens of Belfast and Waldo County; (SLS 156)

Ramona Brown, of Belfast, who outlasted 15 other county winners to become Maine's 1989 Spelling Champion; (SLS 157)

Professor Otto Mihaly, Director of the Center of School Research, National Institute of Education, Budapest, Hungary, for his contribution to the International Education of Maine Students and join in welcoming him to our State; (SLS 158)

The Maine Studies Institute and the students and teachers of Lake Region High School, Katahdin High School and Mt. Desert High School and the surrounding communities participating in the "Close Up Europe Program"; (SLS 159)

Charles Hendershott, of Sanford, and in extending our best wishes on his retirement after 37 years of service to Cyanamid and CYRO; (SLS 160)

Scott Cyr, of Boy Scout Troop #189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 161)

Michael Cyr, of Boy Scout Troop #189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 162)

Benjamin Tao, of Boy Scout Troop #189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 163)

Roderick Charette, of Boy Scout Troop #189 of Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 164)

Brian Charette, of Boy Scout Troop #189 of Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 165)

Peter Nelson, Tanya Sheard and Robert Boisbert, students at Kents Hill School in Readfield, and Tom Molloy, a student at Hall Dale High School in Hallowell, first place winners in the Maine Federation of Woman's Clubs Art Show; (SLS 166)

Ida McDonald, of Holden, on the occasion of her retirement after 14 years of dedicated service as caseworker for U.S. Senator Edmund S. Muskie and U.S. Senator George J. Mitchell; (SLS 167)

H.F. "Sparky" Gierke, National Commander of the American Legion, on the occasion of his visit to Maine; (SLS 168)

William Purington, of Gardiner, who has been named The Maine Small Business Person of the Year by the United States Small Business Administration; (SLS 169)

Antoinette Gagne, of Lewiston, a dedicated leader who has served with distinction, member of Le Paresseux and Dames Jacques Cartier for 50 years, who served as Presidente of her club, Vice-Presidente Union Locale, Secretary Union Locale and Assistant Secretary-Treasurer du Comite International; (SLS 170)

Dominique Gagne, of Lewiston, a member of Le Club Jacques Cartier for 58 years who served as its president for many years.. Mr. Gagne is a dedicated leader who has served his City, State and Nation with distinction and has always stood ready to support and defend those rights of freedom that make our nation such a great place; (SLS 171)

Eugene R. Keene, recipient of Auburn's "1989 Citizen of the Year" Award. Mr. Keene's dedication and community involvement for over 20 years as an employee of the City's Recreation Department have made a significant impact on the youth of Auburn which has spread well beyond the City's boundaries. The members of the 114th Legislature salute the Auburn Business Association's choice for this most distinguished honor; (SLS 172)

the Salvation Army Golden Age Center, which has provided 25 years of service to senior citizens in Portland; (SLS 173)

Scott Grant, of North Edgecomb, recipient of the "Award for Excellence in Social Studies Education" sponsored by the Maine Council for the Social Studies. Mr. Grant is presently Coordinator of Graduate Education at the University of Southern Maine and received the award because he has been a positive influence on Maine students and fellow teachers; (SLS 174)

Maryanne Vitalius, of Yarmouth, recipient of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers' Outstanding Student Award. A 4.0 Social Work Master's degree student and a student at the University of New England, Ms. Vitalius has done significant volunteer work in the field of substance abuse with adolescents in her community; (SLS 175)

Representative Charlene Rydell of Brunswick, who has been named Legislator of the Year by the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers, in appreciation of her tireless advocacy on behalf of special needs children, people with AIDS, commitment to quality health care and social services for Maine's citizens and for her long standing support of the social work profession; (SLS 176)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Irma Pelletier, on the occasion of her retirement as a teacher at the Patrick Therriault School in Sinclair, whose dedication and commitment have endeared her to students and teachers alike; (SLS 177)

Anne Pomroy of Old Orchard Beach, who has been named Public Citizen of the Year by the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers, for her relentless advocacy as a guardian add litem to make the social service system responsive to the best interests of children; (SLS 178)

the following students of Old Orchard Beach High School: Shawn Hall, David Hostetler, David Michaud, Don Plummer, Andrew Gushee, Kelly Brown, Wendy Noel, J.J. Johnson, Tammy Lee, Betsy Cross, Ron Blanchette, David Begin, Bruce Skillin, Andrew Doyle and Susan Smith and faculty advisory Mike Angelosante, the State of Maine representatives in the National Bicentennial Competition on the Constitution and the Bill of Rights; (SLS 179)

Peggy A. Day, of Old Town, a social work student at the University of Maine and recipient of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers' Ray Dow Memorial Award, for her work to alleviate family violence; (SLS 180)

Penthea Burns, of Portland, child welfare worker for the Department of Human Services and recipient of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers' Special Merit Award, for her efforts to increase public and private attention to the needs of young people in the protective custody of the State; (SLS 181)

Claire Hall, of Sanford, a social work major at the University of Southern Maine and recipient of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers' Ray Dow Memorial Award, for her leadership among social work students and her outstanding field work on behalf of families and isolated elderly people; (SLS 182)

Linda J. Sattler, a senior social work major at the University of Maine and recipient of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers' Outstanding Student Award, for her outstanding academic record; (SLS 183)

Janet Rensink, of Auburn, who has been named Social Worker of the Year by the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers. Currently serving as Director of Social Services at Central Maine Medical Center, Ms. Rensink has devoted her career to creating new services, providing social work leadership and contributing to the community through a variety of volunteer activities; (SLS 184)

Erika Thiele, of Fort Kent, who was crowned "Miss Talented" at the Special Talent and Ball held at the Caribou Performing Arts Center; (SLS 185)

Peter LaGassie, of Madawaska, who was crowned "Mr. Talented" at the Special Talent and Ball held at the Caribou Performing Arts Center; (SLS 186)

Allyson A. Layman, a very special 11-year old whose strength and determination helped her win a long battle against leukemia; (SLS 187)

Sandi Jo Healy, of Millinocket, on being selected as "Miss Maine National Teenage"; (SLS 188)

Richard L. Gardiner, Athletic Director at Washington Academy, on being named Athletic Director of the Year by the Maine Interscholastic Athletic Directors Association; (SLS 189)

David Cyr, son of Irvine and Rachel Cyr, who has the distinction of being named the Valedictorian for the 1989 graduating class at Caribou High School; (SLS 190)

William Collins, son of David and Patricia Collins, who has the distinction of being named the Salutatorian for the 1989 graduating class at Caribou High School; (SLS 191)

Richard Verre, of Portland, a social work student at the University of Southern Maine and recipient of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers' Outstanding Student Award, for over 15 years of community service in York County and in Portland; (SLS 192)

the laudable efforts of James Dundas and his schoolmates from Cordova, whose concern for and inexhaustible drive to bring environmental harmony to coastal Alaska in the wake of the Prince William Sound tragedy is a source of pride and inspiration for their community, state and nation; (SLS 193)

Margaret Goodspeed, of Hollis, child welfare worker for the Department of Human Services and recipient of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers' Special Merit Award, for her efforts in increasing public and private attention to the needs of young people in the protective custody of the State; (SLS 194)

Paris "Pat" Snow, who has been awarded an Honorary Doctorate Degree by the University of Maine at Presque Isle for a distinguished career in public service spanning half a century; (SLS 195)

Elizabeth M. Spruce, of Clifton, beloved wife, daughter, mother and grandmother, whose untimely death has shocked and saddened family and friends; Mrs. Spruce was a respected member of the community and enjoyed membership in church and community organizations; (SLS 196)

Darrell Morrow, of Millinocket, recipient of the Sportsman's Alliance of Maine's 1988 "Doc Garcelon Sportsman of the Year" award; (SLS 197)

Merle and Linnette Pert, of Blue Hill, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 198)

Philip Foss, of Weston, recipient of the "Community Citizen Award" given by the Grand Lake Grange; (SLS 199) and honoring Frederic C. Wall, Jr., of South Portland, for his heroism and personal sacrifice during combat and as a prisoner of war in the European theater of World War II for which he received this year the POW Medal, the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart; (SLS 200)

Dale McIntosh, a member of the Lisbon Falls Fire Department, whose 25 years of dedication to public service and commitment to the welfare of others exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 201)

Carrie Landrith, who has the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1989 graduating class at Camden-Rockport High School; (SLS 202)

Trevor Johnson, who has the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1989 graduating class at Camden-Rockport High School; (SLS 203)

Richard Spear, on the occasion of his retirement after 30 years of dedicated public service as Manager of the Maine State Ferry Terminal in Rockland; (SLS 204)

Karen Hayes, of South Portland, child welfare worker for the Department of Human Services and recipient of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers' Special Merit Award, for her efforts in increasing public and private attention to the needs of young people in the protective custody of the State; (SLS 205)

Margaret and Dennis Carter, of Sedgwick, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 206)

Heidi Girardin, first place winner in the Bridge Building and Rocks and Fossils Categories at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 207)

Dominic Mancine, first place winner in the Anatomy Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 208)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Jason Stevens, first place winner in the Bridge Building, Picture This and Science Bowl Categories at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 209)

Todd Howatt, first place winner in the Science Bowl Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 210)

Jason Mancine, first place winner in the Picture This Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 211)

Seth Brown, first place winner in the Science Bowl and Picture This Categories at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 212)

Mike Desjardins, first place winner in the Computer Programming and Science Bowl Categories at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 213)

Kirk Riley, first place winner in the Computer Programming Category at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 214)

Teresa Cornelio, first place winner in the Balloon Race Categories at the Science Olympiad State Competition; (SLS 216)

the following members of the Jay Junior High School Science Olympiad Team, and their Coach Ray Chase, winners of the State competition for the 2nd year in a row: Heidi Girardin, Dominic Mancine, Jason Stevens, Todd Howatt, Jason Mancine, Seth Brown, Mike Desjardins, Kirk Riley, Teresa Cornelio, Jason Bor, Rachel Desjardins, Chris Turner, Zane Goodwin, Scott Luciano, Rhonda Corson, Jason LaPlante, Seth Towle, Jason Mayo and Brent Bilodeau; (SLS 217)

Edward J. Roach, Jr., Grand Chef de Gare du Maine La Society Des 40 Hommes ET 8 Chevaux, a dedicated leader who has served his State and Nation with distinction and has always been ready to defend those freedoms that make America such a great place in which to live; (SLS 218)

Dawn Strout, a senior at Central High School, who has been selected to receive the 1989 Principal's Award in recognition of outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 219)

John F. Smith, of Lyman, whose determination and commitment to the principle of democracy make him a real American hero; (SLS 220)

Richard S. Ladner, upon the occasion of his retirement after 26 years of dedicated service as Superintendent of Schools in School Union 30, Lisbon and Durham. Superintendent Ladner never lost sight of the fact that, in the business of education, students come first; (SLS 221)

Larry Todd, on his retirement as Town Manager of Norway, whose untiring and dedicated service and effective hard work during the past years have contributed greatly to the Town's positive growth; (SLS 222)

the historic and beautiful coastal Town of Deer Isle, and in extending best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate the Town's Bicentennial Year; (SLS 223)

the Town of Gouldsboro, and in extending be wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate the Town's Bicentennial Year; (SLS 224)

Dr. Edward B. Kitfield, III, of Edgecomb, who has been named the Family Doctor of the Year by the Maine Academy of Family Physicians; (SLS 225)

the Reverend Alphonse Marquis, of Fort Kent, for his 50 years as a devoted priest and for his 31 years of dedicated service to the Boy Scouts of America; (SLS 226)

Mark Candage, who has earned the distinction of being the Valedictorian of the 1989 graduating class at Lincoln School in Vinalhaven; (SLS 227)

Christine Young, who has earned the distinction of being the Salutatorian of the 1989 graduating class at Lincoln School in Vinalhaven; (SLS 228)

Jennifer Brown, who has earned the distinction of being the Salutatorian of the 1989 graduating class at North Haven High School; (SLS 229)

Daniel Littlefield, of Camden, who has been named to the All New England NAIA Second Team and voted as offensive player of the year and Most Valuable Player by his teammates; (SLS 230)

Aimee Little, who has the distinction of being the Salutatorian of the 1989 graduating class at Georges Valley High School; (SLS 231)

Brandon Erickson, who has the distinction of being the Valedictorian of the 1989 graduating class at Georges Valley High School; (SLS 232)

Charles Merrill, owner of Merrill's Carpet "N Color Center in Brunswick, recipient of the 1989 "Small Business of the Year" award from the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 233)

J. Collin Sample, a junior at Bowdoin College in Brunswick, who has been named a National Endowment for the Humanities Younger Scholar for 1989; (SLS 234)

Susan Tarpinian, owner of the Morning Glory Natural Foods in Brunswick, recipient of the 1989 "Most Valuable Member of the Year" Award from the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 235)

Julie M. Powers, a senior at Yarmouth High School, winner of the 1989 Woman's Literary Union Scholarship, for academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 236)

Vaughndella Curtis, of Freeport, whose dedication and commitment as a member, vice-chairperson and chairperson of the Freeport Town Council from 1975 to 1987 exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 237)

Brunswick School bus driver, Brian Thibeault, who won the first place trophy for the second year in a row in the 1989 Cumberland County Regional Road-e-o; (SLS 238)

the Town of Brunswick School Bus driving team, which won the first place team trophy for the second year in a row in the 1989 Cumberland County Regional Road-e-o; (SLS 239)

the ability, integrity, perseverance, and quiet, effective style of John P. Bibber, Town Manager of Brunswick for nearly 28 years, who received the 1989 "Citizen of the Year" Award from the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 240)

Eric Blakeman, a junior at North Yarmouth Academy, who won the 1989 State Singles Tennis title for the third year in a row; (SLS 241)

Reverend and Mrs. Norman F. Rust, of North Waterford, on the occasion of their 25th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 242)

Dr. Leonard G. Saulter, director of the Saulter Chiropractic Center of Falmouth and Yarmouth, who received the 1989 Distinguished Service Award given by the Maine State Chiropractic Association; (SLS 243)

Lisa Kelly, a sophomore at Brunswick High School and the reigning Brunswick Teen Queen, who was crowned the 1989 Miss Maine U.S. Tee; (SLS 244)

John P. Bibber, Town Manager of Brunswick for 28 years, recipient of the 1989 Joshua Chamberlain Award given by the Military-Community Council of Bath, Brunswick and Topsham; (SLS 245)

Wilma B. Moses, on the occasion of her retirement as Belfast City Manager, whose dedication and commitment of 30 years to the Belfast community has included service as Deputy Clerk, Clerk, Auditor, Acting Manager, member of several professional boards including membership in the Municipal Records Board and the Executive Board of the Maine Municipal Association; (SLS 246)

the Village of Clair, New Brunswick on the occasion of its 100th birthday; (SLS 247)

Daniel Bouthot, whose act of heroism led to the safe rescue of his grandfather during a fire that destroyed the family's home; (SLS 248)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

John Bragoli, on his retirement as Assistant Principal at Gardiner Area High School, whose effective hard work during the past years has contributed to the young people of the Gardiner area; (SLS 249)

Alex Somerville, on his retirement as Principal at Gardiner Area High School, whose dedicated service during the past years has contributed greatly to the young people of the Gardiner area; (SLS 250)

the following winners in a state-wide environmental poster contest sponsored by the People Organized to Win Environmental Rights: Rachel Rivard, a kindergartner at Russell School in Gray; Katie Nolan, a 1st grader at Breakwater School Inc. in Portland; Lee Boynton, a 2nd grader at Ella Lewis School in Steuben; Lauren Ulman, a 3rd grader at Monson Elementary School in Monson; Carey Newman, a 4th grader at Waterboro Elementary School in Waterboro; Louis Ward, a 5th grader at Baldwin Consolidated School in Cornish; Sherrie Pelletier, a 6th grader at St. Francis Elementary School in St. Francis; April Burke, a 7th grader at J.A. Leonard Junior High School in Old Town; Daniel Lavois, an 8th grader at Jay Junior High School in Jay; Carrie Moores, a 9th grader at J.A. Leonard Junior High School in Old Town; Denise Fogg, a 10th grader at Gray-New Gloucester High School in Gray; Judi Yanik an 11th grader at Bonny Eagle High School in West Buxton and Deanna Cook, a 12th grader at Mattanawcook Academy in Lincoln; (SLS 251)

Dr. Vincent J. Gallucci and the members of the Political Affairs Society, of SAD #57 in Waterboro, whose organization was one of the 8 national winners chosen by Time Magazine for displaying creative leadership in voter education during the 1988 National Student-Parent Mock Election; (SLS 252)

Albert Smith, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #518 in Wilton, for obtaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 253)

Karen Fields, a member of the Searsport High School Track Team, the 1989 Track & Field Class C Champion in the one-mile run; (SLS 254)

Andrew Spaulding, a member of the Searsport High School Track Team, the 1989 Track & Field Class C1 Champion in the two-mile run; (SLS 255)

Jennifer Curtis, a member of the Belfast Area High School Track Team, the 1989 Track & Field Class B Champion in the 100-meter dash; (SLS 256)

Frances "Fran" Seaman, humanitarian and distinguished citizen of Waterville, whose personal contribution of time, care and concern for others as demonstrated by her active involvement in the area of mental health exemplifies her truly generous and kindly nature; (SLS 257)

Gerald C. "Gad" Robertson, beloved family member and respected citizen, whose service to his community of Blue Hill included 47 years on the Blue Hill Fire Department, having held all offices, including Fire Chief from 1952-1965. He was also past president of the Hancock County Fireman's Association and a charter instructor for Maine Fire Service training; (SLS 258)

Peter Gorman, who has served the State Lottery Commission since its inception in 1974, whose guidance and strong management have resulted in the lottery's present prominence among citizens and as a source of positive revenue to the State; (SLS 259)

the Samoset Resort on the ocean in Rockport on the occasion of its centennial celebration July 1st - July 4th and in extending our best wishes as it celebrates 100 years of Maine hospitality; (SLS 260)

Richard B. Lewis, of Yarmouth, world-class carver and the nation's premier carver of eiders, who received 2 top awards, a 1st and 3rd in the Eider Drake category, in the 1989 World Championship Wildfowl Carving Competition sponsored by the Ward Foundation; (SLS 261)

the Rockland District High School Boys Baseball Team on their victory in the Class B State Baseball Championship; (SLS 262)

Harold and Angelie Seekins, of St. Albans, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 263)

Helen Wing, of Winthrop, on the occasion of her retirement, a woman whose many years of dedicated and tireless service as a stenographer for the Senate exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens (SLS 264)

the High School Wrestling teams from the State of Nebraska and the Province of New Brunswick, and in extending best wishes to the teams as they participate in the wrestling cultural exchange hosted by High School Wrestling teams throughout Maine; (SLS 265)

Samuel Shapiro, State Treasurer, recipient of the "Treasurer of the Year" Award sponsored by the Northeast Regional Meeting of the National Association of State Treasurers; (SLS 266)

Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth Wessel, of Brooksville, and in extending best wishes on their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 267)

Conan Higgins, of Waterville, who has been selected Speaker of the House for Boy's State; (SLS 268)

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Johnson, of Portland, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 269)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD FIRST REGULAR SESSION 114th MAINE LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment were received in the interim of July 2, 1989 to August 21, 1989, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Chad William Chubbuck, of Boy Scout Troop #64 in Enfield, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 270)

Dawn R. Strout, daughter of Donald and Lorayne Strout, a student at Central High School in Corinth, on being named to the 1989 Class C All-State Field Hockey Team and the 1989 Class C Softball Team; (SLS 271)

Harold Alfond, a long time Waterville resident, well known for his dedication to the community's economic future and quality of life, philanthropist, benefactor to the University of Maine and Colby College, who has given so much to the people of Maine by his hundreds of wonderful charitable deeds and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of his 75th birthday; (SLS 272)

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald L. Totten, Jr., of Brunswick, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 9, 1989; (SLS 273)

Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Alexander, of Brunswick, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 27, 1989; (SLS 274)

Larry Poulin, of Falmouth, winner of the 1989 National Pairs Driving Championship at the Rolex-Myopia Driving Event, who will lead the U.S. Equestrian Team in the World Championship in Budapest, Hungary; (SLS 275)

Scott L. Thibodeau, of Boy Scout Troop #312 in North Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 276)

Mr. and Mrs. Matson M. Lord, of Yarmouth, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on June 24, 1989; (SLS 277)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

James B. Donahue, D.O., who, having served the Yarmouth community since 1975, has been named "General Practitioner of the Year" by the Maine Osteopathic Association; (SLS 278)

Mildred C. Webb, of Portland and Freeport, who celebrates the 100th anniversary of her birth on August 2, 1989; (SLS 279)

Jeffrey Vlach, United States Presidential Scholar, math award recipient and graduate of Yarmouth High School, who is one of only two Maine delegates to the 1989 National Youth Science Camp; (SLS 280)

Floyd and Eleanor Cunningham, of Wade, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 7, 1989; (SLS 281)

Ralph and Marge Goodrich, of Edgecomb, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, August 26, 1989; (SLS 282)

Ralph E. Folsom, of Scout Troop #609 in Windsor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 283)

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred J. Duval, of Brunswick, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 70th Wedding Anniversary, July 14, 1989; (SLS 284)

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Batchelor, of Yarmouth, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 6, 1989; (SLS 285)

Clayton Carlin, sixth grade teacher at the Freeport Middle School, who has been named the "top educator" in New England by the FAA, a "championship" award presented by the New England FAA administrator for excellence in aviation education; (SLS 286)

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hughes, of St. Albans, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 287)

Sadie Graves, of Merrill Manor in Gardiner, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday. She was born in Medway, Maine on August 14, 1889. She is the niece of Hannibal Hamlin and is the oldest of six generations; (SLS 288)

Mary Ouellette, of Millinocket, winner of the Women's Maine State Golf Association Championship, her 7th title in 9 years; (SLS 289)

Eric Treadwell, of Boy Scout Troop #73 in Old Town who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 290)

Erik Oberg, of Boy Scout Troop #73, in Old Town who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 291)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD FIRST SPECIAL SESSION 114TH LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment appeared on the 1st Special Session Senate Calendars of August 21, 1989 to August 20, 1989 pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Arrow Hart Wiring Devices Division of Cooper Industries in Brunswick on the celebration of their 100th Anniversary, August 19, 1989; (SLS 292)

Norman Currier, of Caribou, retired businessman, community leader and former member of the House of Representatives, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of his 90th birthday; (SLS 293)

the Bowdoin Summer Music Festival, one of the most prestigious chamber music festivals in the United States, and MusicFest '89, which celebrated the Festival's 25th Anniversary with glorious music; (SLS 294)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD FIRST REGULAR SESSION 114TH LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment were received in the interim of August 23, 1989 to January 3, 1990, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Edgar "Gene" Gammon, of Dover-Foxcroft, who has been elected Governor of the New England District of Kiwanis Clubs; (SLS 295)

Corey James Theriault, of Boy Scout Troop #64, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 296)

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Curtis, of Freeport, who celebrated the 55th anniversary of their marriage on August 24, 1989; (SLS 297)

Claire and Kern Ulrich, of Brunswick, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 6, 1989; (SLS 298)

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Benson, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on June 17, 1989; (SLS 299) the Dragon Products Company on the occasion of the 100th year anniversary of Dragon Cement and in extending best wishes for continued success as one of the best known brand names in the construction industry; (SLS 300)

Roxane Cole, recipient of the 1989 "Distinguished Member of the Year" award by the Freeport Merchants Association; (SLS 301)

Robert K. Beckwith, of Brunswick, music professor emeritus at Bowdoin College and co-founder and past director of the Bowdoin College Summer Music School and Festival, who is remembered best for enriching the lives of so many with his music; (SLS 302) (in Memoriam)

William Downey, who has been named the Kittery Citizen of the Year for 35 years of public service to the community; (SLS 303)

Beverly Holman Joyce, on the occasion of her retirement after 21 years of dedicated service as a member of the staff at the Portland Y.W.C.A.; (SLS 304)

Rachel Ann Main, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Main of Brunswick, who was crowned "Little Miss Deering Oaks 1989" at the Deering Oaks Festival; (SLS 305)

Mr. and P. Everett Hatt, of Freeport, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, August 31, 1989; (SLS 306)

Laurina C. Albert, of Fort Kent, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her retirement after 36 years as a dedicated teacher; (SLS 307)

Albert L. Foster, a well-loved and respected member of the Machias area, who was a past president of the Maine Pharmacist Association, a communicant of the Holy Name Church and an honorary lifetime member of the Maine Board of Basketball Officials; (SLS 308) (in Memoriam)

Captain Thomas H. Ring, of South Freeport, honored recipient of the esteemed Merchant Marine Gallant Ship Award bestowed by the Maritime Administration for his heroic actions as a crew member of the tugboat "Stamford" which prevented a burning gasoline barge from exploding in New York harbor in 1986; (SLS 309)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Leo Cloutier, 80, of Brunswick, who set a national record of 17.64 seconds in the 80-plus category of the 100-meter dash in the third annual Maine Senior Games, 1989; (SLS 310)

Raymond and Bernice Whitney, of North Vassalboro, and in extending congratulations on the occasion of their 70th Wedding Anniversary, September 15, 1989; (SLS 311)

Russell R. Day, a well-loved and respected citizen of the Westbrook area, whose contributions to his community included active participation in civic and fraternal organizations and membership in the 110th and 111th Maine State Legislatures; (SLS 312) (in Memoriam)

Brunswick dentist, Wilferd Boyce Vachon, Jr., D.M.D., who received the Mastership Award at the annual meeting of the Academy of General Dentistry; (SLS 313)

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gallant, of East Millinocket, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 6, 1989; (SLS 314)

the dedication and commitment extended by the Katahdin Area Women's Association in providing photo identification to high school students; (SLS 315)

Mr. and Mrs. Archie S. Wing, of Freeport, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 16, 1989; (SLS 316)

the Oxford Hills area Service Corps of Retired Executives, SCORE chapter #479, and in extending congratulations on the organization's 25th year of national service; (SLS 317)

Darrin Riley, of Boy Scout Troop #27 in Belfast, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 318)

Ellen Benson, a senior at North Yarmouth Academy, recipient of the September, 1989, Rotary Student of the Month Recognition Award for best exemplifying the qualities of leadership, good citizenship and service to the community; (SLS 319)

Edmund "Ned" McCann, for his years of dedicated service in the office of the Senate President; (SLS 320)

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis R. Goud, of Freeport, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 25, 1989; (SLS 321)

Roger Howell, Jr., president emeritus of Bowdoin College, distinguished author, scholar and teacher and an internationally recognized historian; (SLS 322) (in Memoriam)

Mary Parker on the occasion of her 96th birthday, October 25, 1989; (SLS 323)

Miles S. Epling, National Commander of the American Legion, member of Post #23 in Point Pleasant, West Virginia and a dedicated leader, who served his state and nation with distinction and stood ever ready to support and defend those rights of freedom that make our nation such a great place to live; (SLS 324)

Richard Lacadie, former Public Works Director for Old Town, who will long be remembered for his dedicated public service to the community; (SLS 325) (in Memoriam)

Hermia E. Toothaker, a retired Brunswick teacher, on the 85th anniversary of her birth, November 17, 1989; (SLS 326)

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bernier, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 25, 1989; (SLS 327)

the creation of the Eastern Maine Chapter of the National Association of Women in Construction, and in extending best wishes on its November 18, 1989 induction as Chapter #329; (SLS 328)

Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton Hoppe of West Rockport, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 329)

William A. Macleod, of Yarmouth, recipient of the Town of Yarmouth's 10th annual Latchstring Award for dedication to the Merrill Memorial Library and involvement with town affairs; (SLS 330)

Jeffrey R. Verrill, of Boy Scout Troop #58 in Cumberland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 331)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Laberge, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 28, 1989; (SLS 332)

William C. Burns, of Boy Scout Troop 509 in Rumford Point, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 333)

Jason Sellick, of Scout Troop #87 in Westbrook, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 334)

Rose A. Maheu, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of her 95th birthday, November 29, 1989; (SLS 335)

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Davis, of Milo, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on November 11, 1989; (SLS 336)

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, of Sangerville, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 21, 1989; (SLS 337)

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Waterman, of Freeport, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on November 11, 1989; (SLS 338)

Laura Presby, a senior at Jay High School and co-captain of the field hockey team, who has been named to the 1st Team All-State Field Hockey Team by the Maine State Field Hockey Coaches Association. Laura's impressive season also includes being named to the Mountain Valley Conference All-Star Team, winning Jay's Most Valuable Player award and being the leading scorer for her team; (SLS 339)

Charles F. Keegan, Sr., of Yarmouth, who has been named the 1989 Innkeeper of the Year by the Maine Innkeepers Association; (SLS 340)

Mr. and Mrs. Bernis Beane, and in extending our best wishes on their 72nd Wedding Anniversary, December 1, 1989; (SLS 341)

Geoff Atherton, of Scout Troop #97 in Blue Hill, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 342)

Frances Stackhouse Bruen, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of her 65th birthday, February 4, 1990; (SLS 343)

the following students from Monson Elementary School: Kyle Cloutier, Michael Johnson, Jacob Leger, Joey Busque, Andrew Hunt, Seth Kimball, Chad Wallace, Sabrina Erickson, Victor Anderson, Kylie Kimball, Deanna Salisbury, Angela Pratt, Shana Snell and Jessica Anderson, winners of the 1989 Presidential Award for physical fitness for the 3rd consecutive year; (SLS 344)

Mr. and Mrs. Gerard R. Racine, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on November 30, 1989; (SLS 345)

Michelle Pooler, a Belfast Area High School senior, who received the distinguished Gold Award in Girl Scouting. The award recognizes personal development and community service achievements; (SLS 346)

Shane Littlefield, of Boy Scout Troop #36 in Brooks, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 347)

Mr. and Mrs. Sarto Allard, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on December 2, 1989; (SLS 348)

Mr. and Mrs. Merle L. Oak, of Brunswick, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage, December 24, 1989; (SLS 349)

William Bennett, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 100th anniversary of his birth on December 1, 1989; (SLS 350)

Brian Frizzle, a forward for the Brunswick High School Boys Soccer Team, who has been named to the 1989 Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference "A" Division All-Star Soccer 2nd Team; (SLS 351)

Jon Shepherd, a back for the Brunswick High School Boys Soccer Team, who has been named to the 1989 Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference "A" Division All-Star Soccer 2nd Team; (SLS 352)

Laura Ranger, a forward for the Brunswick High School Girls Soccer Team, who has been named to the 1989 Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference "A" Division All-Star Soccer 2nd Team; (SLS 353)

Emily Wilkoff, a midfielder for the Brunswick High School Girls Soccer Team, who has been named to the 1989 Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference "A" Division All-Star Soccer 2nd Team; (SLS 354)

David Domingos, a forward for the Brunswick High School Boys Soccer Team, who has been named to the 1989 Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference "A" Division All-Star Soccer 1st Team; (SLS 355)

the Brunswick High School Boys Soccer Team, on being named the 1989 Eastern Maine Class A Soccer Champions; (SLS 356)

Kevin Wiercinski, a midfielder for the Brunswick High School Boys Soccer Team, who has been named to the 1989 Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference "A" Division All-Star Soccer 1st Team; (SLS 357)

Christa Kelley, a back for the Brunswick High School Girls Soccer Team, who has been named to the 1989 Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference "A" Division All-Star Soccer 1st Team; (SLS 358)

Yarmouth Intermediate School, winner of both the Grade 6 and overall Championship titles in the 1989 Yarmouth Intermediate School's 10th annual Christmas Math Meet; (SLS 359)

Steven P. Gooch, of Explorer Troop #555 in Wilton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 360)

Marcella Morin, of Milford, named the Maine Law Officer of the Year by the American Legion and the Outstanding Young Mainer by the Maine Jaycees; (SLS 361)

Brunswick High School's standout soccer player, Kevin Wiercinski, who has been named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America/Met Life All-America team; (SLS 362)

Mr. and Mrs. Rodgeron, of Patten, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 16, 1989; (SLS 363)

Coaches Allen Holmes, Bob Brown and Rhonda Robertson Clark and the Belfast High School "Lady Lions" field hockey team: tri-captains Lisa Dutch, Lori Miklovich and Dee Henderson; and team members Tonya Paul, Heather Leary, Jeanette "Jet" McTaggart, Karen Schaffer, Shelley Littlefield, Cathy Reny, Kirsten Woods, Tina Dudley, Allison Abbott, Lorie Robbins, Jan Holmes, Tammy Larrabee, Amy Dyer and Ramona Brown who have been named 1989 State Class "B" Field Hockey Champions; (SLS 364)

University of Maine head football coach Tom Lichtenberg, who has been named New England Division I Coach of the Year by the New England Sports Writers Association; (SLS 365)

James B. Coffey, Jr., Vice-president of Eastern Maine Healthcare of Bangor since 1982, whose service to the people of the greater Bangor community will be as sadly missed as his friendship; (SLS 366) (in Memoriam)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
114TH LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment appeared on 2nd Regular Session Senate Calendars of January 3, 1990 to April 12, 1990, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Frank W. Hussey, of Presque Isle, who has been selected for high-honor induction into the Cooperative Hall of Fame by the Board of Directors of the National Cooperative Business Association. The awards are made each year to honor and perpetuate the memory of those individuals whose contributions to cooperative business have been genuinely heroic; (SLS 367)

Robert Butters, of Norway, who has received the Community Service Award presented by the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce to individuals for exemplary devotion and commitment to the community; (SLS 368)

Cotton Damon, who has received the Community Service Award presented by the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce to individuals for exemplary devotion and commitment to the community; (SLS 369)

John Cullen, coach of the Bowdoin College Women's Soccer Team, who was voted the 1989 New England Coach of the Year by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America; (SLS 370)

Peter Gardner, coach of the Brunswick High School Boys Soccer Team, who was voted the 1989 Maine Coach of the Year by the soccer coaches of Maine; (SLS 371)

Pfc. Bradley I. Drummond of Boothbay Harbor, a paratrooper with the 82nd Airborne Division, who received the Purple Heart for injuries sustained during his involvement as a member of the first-strike battalion of United States forces which secured the Panama City International Airport during the December 20, 1989 invasion of Panama; (SLS 372)

Leslie Sumner Daly, of Freeport, on the occasion of his 101st birthday, January 13, 1990; (SLS 373)

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Mitchell, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, January 27, 1990; (SLS 374)

Les Otten, of Newry, who has been named the Turnaround Entrepreneur of the Year by Inc. Magazine; (SLS 375)

Assistant Chief Leonard "Lennie" Bates, of Monmouth, who is retiring after 25 years of service as monitor of the North Monmouth Volunteer Fire Department; (SLS 376)

Captain Oliver "Ollie" Wheeler, of Monmouth, who is retiring after 20 years of dedicated service to the Monmouth Volunteer Fire Department; (SLS 377)

Noel "Jack" William Tomer, a well-known and respected member of the Greenville community and the Penobscot Indian Nation, who will long be remembered as a registered Maine Guide and legendary adventurer, having logged more than 100 Allagash Wilderness Waterway canoeing trips; (SLS 378) (in Memoriam)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

J. Sanders and Evelyn (Babb) Russell, who observed the 50th anniversary of their October 14, 1939 marriage by renewing their vows in a ceremony officiated by the Reverend Fred A. Russell Jr., and in celebrating the occasion with family and many friends; (SLS 379)

Thomas Warner, Second District Commander and a member of Rumford Post 24 of the American Legion, a dedicated leader who has served his town, state and nation with distinction and has always been ready to defend those freedoms that make America such a great place in which to live; (SLS 380)

Ruth and Frank Glazer, of Kezar Falls, for their commitment, leadership and vision that brought classical music to the children of Kezar Falls; (SLS 381)

Patrick Harrington, of Troop #565 in Bethel, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 382)

Matthew Morin, of Boy Scout Troop #8 in Bangor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 384)

Mr. and Mrs. Winship S. Reed, Jr., of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 20, 1989; (SLS 385)

Fred Brown, of Waterville, on his retirement after 35 years of service to the Waterville Fire Department, the last 9 years of which he served as its Fire Chief. His dedication and commitment to the safety of the citizens of Waterville typify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 386)

Adam M. Hutton, of Boy Scout Troop #100 in Dover-Foxcroft, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 387)

Richard H. Curtis, of Boy Scout Troop #100 in Dover-Foxcroft, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 388)

Everett M. Fairbrother, of Boy Scout Troop #100 in Dover-Foxcroft, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 389)

Eva Bearce, a resident at the Norway Convalescent Center, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 109th birthday, March 14, 1990; (SLS 390)

Judge Alan C. Pease, who has been named chief of Maine's district court system; (SLS 391)

Carroll Look, of Jonesboro, a highly respected businessman and devoted husband of the Honorable Theone Look; (SLS 392) (in memoriam)

J. Eugene Boivin, chief of the Rumford Fire Department, who is retiring after 28 years of dedicated service to the people of the greater Rumford area; (SLS 393)

Michael C. Noyes, of Levant, who has been named the 55th daily "Point of Light" by President Bush. The "Points of Light" recognition program is a national tribute of the highest order to Americans who make a difference in the life of someone in need. Mr. Noyes runs a counseling service for adults, coaches children in archery, riflery and soccer and has instructed children on coping with disability; (SLS 394)

Grace Emmerton, on the occasion of her retirement after years of thoughtful, dedicated service to the town governments of Norway and Paris; (SLS 395)

Vaughn Brewer, of Caribou, who is retiring after 41 years of service with Maine Public Service; (SLS 396)

Raphael Guerrette, of Caribou, who is retiring after 37 years of service with Maine Public Service; (SLS 397)

Richard Mazurek, of Rockland High School, who reached the 1000-point mark in scoring in high school basketball; (SLS 398)

Joseph Barrett, of South Paris, who is retiring after 18 years as a selectman for the Town of South Paris. His dedicated service to the community exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 399)

the Brunswick High School cheerleaders, first place winners in the 1990 Western Maine regional semifinal cheerleading competition; (SLS 400)

the following Brunswick High School cheerleading squad members, who won the 1990 State Class A Championship title: Jen Singleton, Heather Wilkes, Mindy Creech, Chris Mahon, April Logan, Amy Miller, Heather Purinton, Crystal Hurd, Erin Manter, Jenn High, Heidi Logan, Jessie Safford, alternate Helena St. Michel and Coach Debbie Purinton; (SLS 401)

Raymond E. Gross, publisher of the Courier-Gazette of Rockland, who has been named Chamber Person of the Year by the Rockland Area Chamber of Commerce; (SLS 402)

Bill and Barbara Niehoff, on the occasion of their retirement as directors of the Maine Childrens Home for Little Wanderers, whose combined service of 62 years exemplifies the dedicated and generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 403)

George M. Jabar, of Waterville, beloved patriarch of the prominent Jabar family, whose accomplishments as a labor leader are well-known throughout the state and nation; (SLS 404) (in Memoriam)

Craig McEwen, Daniel B. Fayerweather Professor of Political Economy and Sociology at Bowdoin College, who is the co-recipient of the 1989 Center for Public Resources Award for Excellence and Innovation in Alternative Dispute Resolution for his book, "Mediation: Law, Policy and Practice"; (SLS 405)

the Old South Congregational Church in Hallowell, on the 200th Anniversary of its incorporation on February 25, 1990; (SLS 406)

the Camden-Rockport High School Boys Ski Team, winners of the State Class B Championship held at Saddleback Mountain, February 17, 1990; (SLS 408)

the Camden-Rockport High School Wrestling Team, on their victory in the Class B State Championship held in Rumford, February 17, 1990; (SLS 409)

Joseph G. Walker, of Norway, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of his retirement after many years as a dedicated leader who has served this State and its citizens as a Representative; (SLS 410)

Edgar E. Erwin, of Rumford, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of his retirement after many years as a dedicated leader who has served this State and its people as a Senator; (SLS 411)

Joseph and Jennie Burton, of Brunswick, on the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of their marriage, May 4, 1990; (SLS 412)

the Brunswick High School Girls Track Team, winners of the 1990 Central Maine Indoor Track League Championship; (SLS 413)

the Brunswick High School Boys Track Team, winners of the 1990 Central Maine Indoor Track League Championship; (SLS 414)

Aaron Kane Lincoln, of Union, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 415)

Edward D. Menchen, beloved husband of Edna (Snow) Menchen of Pownal, for 45 years a dedicated town official, whose warmth, insight and outstanding service to his community endeared him to all of those whose lives he touched. In addition to civic duties, Mr. Menchen was a member of several fraternal organizations and was a Trustee and Deacon of the Pownal First Parish Congregational Church; (SLS 416)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Ashley Harbin, of Lewiston, who has been named the 1990 Daffodil Child for the American Cancer Society, Maine Division, Inc. This is the 13th year the cancer society has celebrated spring with the flower of hope, the daffodil; (SLS 417)

Candy Hamilton, Jamie Hamilton, Tim Hamilton and Kenneth Grumann, youths from the Sanford area, who have been honored by the Sanford Police Department for their quick actions which led to the identification of a purse snatcher; (SLS 418)

Coach Chris Elkington, Assistant Coaches Robert Morrill, Larry Terrio and Carl Woodman, Managers Cathy Curtis, Amy McLain and Lois McClure, Scorekeepers Greg Lemoine and Michael Smith and the Rockland District High School "Tigers" boys basketball team members: Jim Montgomery, Aaron Crossman, Kevin Sprague, Sean Kalloch, Shane LeBlanc, Rich Mazurek, Jesse Smith, Jim Mooney, Jeff Woodman, Jamie Lamb, Billy Stinson and Lincoln McRae who won their second straight Eastern Maine Class B Basketball Championship; (SLS 419)

the Houlton High School "Lady Shires" Girls Basketball Team, winners of the 1990 Eastern Maine Class B Basketball Championship; (SLS 420)

Nikki Neal, who has earned the title of Valedictorian of the 1990 graduating class at the East Grand High School in Danforth; (SLS 421)

the City of Old Town on the 150th Anniversary of its incorporation and in extending best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate the sesquicentennial year; (SLS 422)

Timothy McDonald, of Boy Scout Explorer Post #555 in Wilton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 423)

Billie Jean Huntley, who has earned the title of Valedictorian of the 1990 graduating class at Portland High School; (SLS 424)

Durham "Tigers" Boys Basketball Team, which finished first in the West Division and won the 1989-90 Basketball Championship in the Pine Tree League playoffs; (SLS 425)

the Durham "Tigers" Girls Basketball Team, which finished first in the West Division and won the 1989-90 Basketball Championship in the Pine Tree League playoffs; (SLS 426)

Norman J. Cyr, superintendent of the Brunswick-Topsham Water District, recipient of the first annual Sid Anthony award of merit by the Maine Water Utilities Association; (SLS 427)

the 1990 State Class B Ice Hockey Champions, the Yarmouth High School "Clippers" and Coach Jack O'Brien, the first Class B team to win four consecutive state championships; (SLS 428)

the Standish Citizens Opposed to Pollution "S.T.O.P." organization for their deep commitment and exceptional performance in defense of the environment; (SLS 429)

Sally Dunning, who has been selected as the "Winnie Moore" Nursing Award recipient for her outstanding and committed service at the Northern Cumberland Memorial Hospital; (SLS 430)

Mariam Cowger, who has earned the title of Salutatorian of the 1990 graduating class at the East Grand High School in Danforth; (SLS 431)

Frances Speed, who is retiring after 12 years as Town Manager for the Town of Bradford. Her dedicated service to the community exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 432)

Coach Jack O'Brien and the Yarmouth High School Ice Hockey Team, winners for the fourth consecutive year of the 1990 Western Maine Class B Hockey Championship; (SLS 433)

the month of March as Women's History Month, a time to reflect on the significant contributions that American women have made toward the economic, cultural and social development of our nation; (SLS 434)

Leslie Wilhelmsen, First District President of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Maine, a dedicated leader who has served her community, state and nation with distinction; (SLS 435)

Helen Austin, of Dover-Foxcroft, Field Director for the Girl Scouts in Piscataquis County, whose 5 years of dedicated service and commitment to the ideals of Girl Scouting exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 436)

Rhonda J. Harvey, on her retirement as Town Manager of Patten. Her dedicated service to the community exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 437)

Charles Butt, swimming coach at Bowdoin College, who was voted Swimming Coach of the Year at the 1990 New England Division III Men's Swimming and Diving Championships; (SLS 438)

Harvey B. Wheeler, diving coach at Bowdoin College, who was voted Diving Coach of the Year at the 1990 New England Division III Men's Swimming and Diving Championships; (SLS 439)

Michelle Lee Grenier, of Bangor, winner of the 1990 Miss Maine Teen-USA title; (SLS 440)

Lisa West, who has earned the distinction of being the Salutatorian of the 1990 graduating class at Rockland District High School; (SLS 441)

Karen Miller, who has earned the distinction of being the Valedictorian of the 1990 graduating class at Rockland District High School; (SLS 442)

Alfred A. Plourde, of Lewiston, an outstanding citizen, dedicated family man, city treasurer and mayor, who will long be remembered for his 25 years of loyalty and devotion to public service that contributed immeasurably to the Lewiston community; (SLS 443) (in Memoriam)

the members of the Lewiston-Auburn Chamber of Commerce, for its significant contributions to the economic, social and cultural well-being of Androscoggin County and its commitment to assisting Androscoggin County in meeting the challenges of the future; (SLS 444)

Lorraine Yeaton, of Acton, for her outstanding service, commitment and caring to the people of Acton; (SLS 445)

the Colby College Men's Basketball Team, winners of the Northeast Division 3 Championship. The team had a record of 26 wins in 27 games. The 16-man roster includes 10 of whom are from Maine. The head coach is Dick Whitmore, who is an adopted son of Maine, and the assistant coach is John Mitchell, a leading light in a proud Maine family. These accomplishments have been achieved in an atmosphere of academic integrity; (SLS 446)

Melissa Oliver, of Westbrook, winner of the 1990 Miss Maine-USA title; (SLS 447)

Allison Fox, of Eddington, who celebrated his 90th birthday on March 11, 1990; (SLS 448)

Harriet Stephenson, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, April 9, 1990; (SLS 449)

Allison Hewett, daughter of Nancy and Jay Hewett and a sixth grade student at Pownal Elementary School, district winner (Lions District 41: Maine, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick) in the second annual international poster competition on world peace sponsored by the Lions Club; (SLS 450)

Jack O'Brien, coach of the Yarmouth High School hockey team, who received the 1990 New England Division II Coach of the Year award; (SLS 451)

Shawn McDonough, Yarmouth High School hockey team star, winner of the 1990 Class B Most Valuable Player Award for Maine; (SLS 452)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Kevin Wiercinski, Brunswick High School senior, who has been named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America All-America squad, and who is the recipient of the coveted Gatorade Player of the Year Award, given to the top soccer player in Maine; (SLS 453)

Robert Douglas Hartford, of Boy Scout Troop #64 in Enfield, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 454)

Rebecca A. Murray, of Greely High School, for her meritorious achievement on the Maine Educational Assessment Program tests. Rebecca was among the 10 highest scoring students; (SLS 455)

Millie Simpson Stewart, of Brunswick, named the 1990 Citizen of the Year by the Brunswick Area Chamber of Commerce for her limitless energy, pride in her community, confidence in the future and her skill in organizing Brunswick's year-long 250th anniversary celebration; (SLS 457)

Kevin Wiercinski, a senior at Brunswick High School, who was named to play in the annual McDonald's East-West Senior Basketball All-Star game; (SLS 458)

the Most Reverend Donald Pelotte, who has been appointed by Pope John Paul II to become Bishop of the diocese of Gallup, New Mexico. Bishop Pelotte, formerly of Waterville and a descendant of the Abenaki Tribe of the Algonquin Indians has attracted headlines in religious circles throughout his career, having been elected the youngest major superior of a religious order in the nation, appointed one of the youngest coadjutor bishops to a diocese and distinction as the first bishop of Native American descent; (SLS 459)

Robert L. Berry III, of Boy Scout Troop #496 in Embden, who attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 460)

Grace Cox, of Liberty, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday; (SLS 461)

Ben Vail, a Brunswick High School sophomore, who won the Lincoln-Douglas debate category and first place in the 1990 National Forensic League District Finals; (SLS 462)

Olympic Gold Medalist Joan Benoit Samuelson, of Freeport, who is the 1990 recipient of the Kipthuth Fellowship at Yale University; (SLS 463)

Carrie Swan, a sophomore at Freeport High School, winner of the 50 and 100-yard freestyle events at the 1990 State Class B Swimming and Diving Championships held at Bowdoin College; (SLS 464)

the Brunswick High School Debate Team and Coach Roger Hoy, winners for the second consecutive year of the 1990 National Forensic League District Finals competition sweepstakes; (SLS 465)

Burton V. Thomas, of Freeport, recipient of the Melvin Jones Fellowship from the Lions Club International in recognition of his many years of service and deep commitment to serving others; (SLS 466)

Frances F. Seaman, first Dean of Students at Colby College in Waterville, accomplished pianist, educator and humanitarian, whose efforts as an advocate for women, the needs of low-income families and improved treatment for the mentally ill are known throughout Maine; (SLS 467) (in Memoriam)

Robert W. Long, District Representative of the Service Corps of Retired Executives for the State of Maine, a dedicated leader who has served the Service Corps of Retired Executives and his town, state and nation with distinction for many years; (SLS 468)

Camille Schuler, a senior at Buckfield High School, who has been selected to receive the 1990 Principal's Award in recognition of outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 469)

Sarah B. Herlihy, a senior at Sanford High School, who has been selected to receive the 1990 Principal's Award in recognition of outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 470)

Coaches Denise Loper and Jane Robertson, Manager Ginger Tripp and the Belfast Area High School "Lady Lions" Gymnastic Team members: Captain Rhonda Hannington, Lisa Dutch, Julie Butler, Monica Sprague, Maura Salvatore, Sherrye Macleod, Sandra Sneiderman, Heather Ross, Carrie Hall Diahanne Morse, Kirsten Woods, Leah Higer, Lorie Robbins, Tammy Larrabee, Catherine McLaughlin and Allison Abbott, winners of the 1990 State Class B Gymnastic Championship; (SLS 471)

the Gardiner High School Cheerleaders, 2nd place winners of the 1990 Class A State Championship; (SLS 472)

Ryan Bradeen, of Milo, a senior at Penquis Valley High School and recipient of a first place award for his project "Modeling Wave Power Electricity" in the New England Science Fair; (SLS 473)

Matt Hancock, of Casco, a record-setting senior forward on the Colby College basketball team, who has been named the 1990 National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III Player of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches; (SLS 474)

the 1990 University of Maine "Black Bear" Hockey Team, on an impressive 33-11-2 season of play, marked by the following highlights: Shawn Walsh was named Hockey East Coach of the Year; Scott King and Keith Carney were named as Hockey East All Stars; Maine was named runner-up in Hockey East regular and league playoff games; Maine's 98 wins over the last 3 seasons are the most wins of any eastern school; this is the 4th consecutive year in which the "Black Bears" have advanced to the NCAA Tournament; and the 4th straight year for participation in the Hockey East Championship; (SLS 475)

Robert E. Walker, Headmaster of Bridgton Academy, on the occasion of his retirement after more than 20 years of service to the Academy. As coach, educator, administrator, counselor, musician, and most of all, friend, he has touched the lives of numerous people. He will be genuinely missed by all who have had the pleasure of knowing him; (SLS 476)

the Westbrook Fire Department, on the 100th year of dedicated service to the City of Westbrook; (SLS 477)

Stephanie Zendzian, of Brunswick High School, one of three students in the State of Maine to receive the FLAME Award for Outstanding Achievement in Foreign Languages, based on teacher nominations, grades, achievement test scores, written narrative, and the submission of an audiotape in French; (SLS 478) and commending the numerous organizations, businesses, professionals and individual citizens for their support and participation in "Nurturing Maine's Children in Need: A Conference on Child Abuse and Neglect" to increase awareness and prevention of child abuse and neglect; (SLS 479)

Emily Donovan, a senior at Brunswick High School, recipient of the 1990 Principal's Award in recognition of outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 480)

Hilary Williams, fifth grade student at Yarmouth Intermediate School and daughter of Lisa and Rick Williams, State of Maine and Eastern Region poster and essay winner in a nationwide contest sponsored by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service, "What being an American means to me."; (SLS 481)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Edna Triehey, of Belfast, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, June 14, 1990; (SLS 482)

Vaughn Marshall, on the occasion of his retirement as administrator of the Marshall Health Care Facility in Machias, after many years of dedicated service to the elderly; (SLS 483)

Frankie Kelley, on the occasion of his retirement after 19 years of safely transporting children to and from schools in the Machiasport and Bucks Harbor communities; (SLS 484)

Frank Dowling, Josie "Gram" Butler and Eva Woodman, residents at the Marshall Health Care Facility, who have celebrated birthdays beyond the century mark; (SLS 485)

Clarence M. Randall, of Cutler, on the occasion of his 80th birthday, December 28, 1989; (SLS 486)

the Washington Academy Cheerleaders, winners of the 1990 Class C State Cheerleading Championship; (SLS 487)

Richard "Jake" and Ruth Lawless, of Belfast, recipients of the 1990 Outstanding Citizen Award by the Modern Woodmen of America in appreciation of their years of charity work; (SLS 488)

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD SECOND REGULAR SESSION 114TH LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Senate Legislative Sentiment were received in the interim of April 13, 1990 to December 5, 1990, pursuant to Joint Rule 34:

Amy Huff, a senior at Freeport High School, recipient of the 1990 Principal's Award sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association in recognition of academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 489)

Heather Wilkes, a senior at Brunswick High School, who placed second in the 1990 Miss U.S. Teen Maine Pageant; (SLS 490)

Alice V.P. Read, of Raymond, on the occasion of her 80th birthday, May 27, 1990; a happy birthday to a kind and gentle woman to whom we send best wishes for a wonderful day, a wonderful year and many wonderful memories; (SLS 491)

Adrian N. Marden, of Freeport, a student at Wayne School in Portland, twice winner of the Margaret Chereny Award for excellence in mathematics and Wayne School's faculty award, and the one Maine student among 1,300 in the nation to win a corporate-sponsored Merit Scholarship, the Stanley Works Merit Scholarship; (SLS 492) and welcoming the Soviet Delegation from Kotlas, sister city of Waterville, on the occasion of its visit to the Maine State Capitol; (SLS 493)

Adelle Belisle, daughter of Charles and Mary Belisle of Yarmouth, Portland Press Herald carrier for 8 years and 3rd ranking student in her senior class at Yarmouth High School with a grade point average of 95, who has been chosen as a recipient of the Portland Newspapers' 1990 scholarship award for scholastic achievement, community activity and newspaper route management; (SLS 494)

Amy Belisle, daughter of Charles and Mary Belisle of Yarmouth, Portland Press Herald carrier for 10 years and Valedictorian of her senior class at Yarmouth High School, who has been chosen as a recipient of the Portland Newspapers' 1990 top scholarship award for scholastic achievement, community activity and newspaper route management; (SLS 495)

Herman Wright, Jr., of Caribou, on the occasion of his retirement after 46 years of service with the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad; (SLS 496)

Alton L. Howe, on the occasion of his retirement after 18 years of dedicated service as Sheriff of Oxford County; (SLS 497)

Michael J. Carrie, of Randolph, on the occasion of his retirement as a Field Training Supervisor, whose 30 years of dedicated service to the Department of Labor and 18 years as a board member of Maine School Administrative District #11 exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 498)

Alden Forrester, a senior at Pine Tree Academy in Freeport and son of Ron and Jan Forrester of Durham, who has been named a 1990 National Merit Scholarship finalist; (SLS 499)

Bobbi-Jo Hutchinson, of Dixfield, whose academic achievements have earned her the distinction of being named a 1990 National Merit Scholar and recipient of a $2,000 National Merit Scholarship; (SLS 500)

Michael T. Bigos, a member of Boy Scout Troop #307 in Kittery, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 501)

Shawn Pomroy, of Boy Scout Troop #201 in Wiscasset, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 502)

Dean Smith, of Dover-Foxcroft, former University of Maine basketball player and GTE Academic All-American, recipient of the Walter Byers Award presented annually to a collegiate senior athlete excelling in academics; (SLS 503)

Charles R. Rudelitch, a student at Narraguagus High School in Harrington, whose academic achievements have earned him the distinction of being named a 1990 National Merit Scholar; (SLS 504)

Jonathon S. Beal, a student at Narraguagus High School in Harrington, whose academic achievements have earned him the distinction of being named a 1990 National Merit Scholar; (SLS 505)

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Burton, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on May 4, 1990; (SLS 506)

Mrs. Priscilla Newgarden, an active volunteer for almost half a century in numerous organizations, who received the Military Community Council's 1990 Honorary Award; (SLS 507)

Kerri Gitchell, a senior at Brunswick High School, who has been named by the Maine Section of the American Chemical Society as one of the top five chemistry students in Maine, based on her performance on the 1990 National Chemistry Olympiad Exam; (SLS 508)

Aviation Safety Officer Lt. Duncan Hopkins, winner of the Military Community Council's 1990 Joshua Chamberlain Award; (SLS 509)

Jacob J. Theriault, of Boy Scout Troop #189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 510)

Timothy W. Young, of Corinna, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 511)

Leslie J. Bolstridge III, of Corinna, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 512)

Elmhurst Association for Retarded Citizens, of Bath, on the May 22, 1990 celebration of its 30-year involvement with handicapped persons in the areas of education, community service, and employment which has helped to strengthen and enrich the lives of handicapped persons and their families; (SLS 513)

Greta Ross, of Camden, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 90th Birthday, May 19, 1990; (SLS 514)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Harland Turner, who has served as Administrative Director of the Maine Home for Little Wanderers for 28 years with great distinction. Mr. Turner has also been a volunteer for the Waterville and Augusta United Way for many years; (SLS 515)

Ron Sailor, State Commander of the American Legion, member of Post #84 and a dedicated leader who has served his town, state and nation with distinction and has always stood ready to defend the freedoms that make this country such a great place in which to live; (SLS 516)

Christopher A. Snow, of Boy Scout Troop #301 in York, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 517)

Kittery School Superintendent Patrick L. Donahue, on the occasion of his retirement after 38 years as teacher, principal and superintendent, whose dedication, service and contribution to public education exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 518)

Russell W. Alexander, of Boy Scout Troop #301 in York, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 519)

Daryl Brown, a junior at Freeport High School, who has been named by the Maine Section of the American Chemical Society as one of the top five chemistry students in Maine, based on his performance on the 1990 State Chemistry Olympiad Exam; (SLS 520)

Adolphus Dugas, of Yarmouth, who celebrates the 100th anniversary of his birth on May 27, 1990; (SLS 521)

Joel H. Thompson, a student at North Yarmouth Academy and son of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Thompson, recipient of the Topsham-Brunswick Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution 1990 Good Citizen Award; (SLS 522)

Darren A. Spehr, of Yarmouth High School, who received the Topsham-Brunswick Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution 1990 Good Citizen Award; (SLS 523)

Emily K. Donovan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Donovan of Brunswick, recipient of the Topsham-Brunswick Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution 1990 Good Citizen Award; (SLS 524)

the top ten students from the class of 1990 at Oxford Hills High School: Lynette I. Millett, Christopher Shawn Fortier, Ian Bristol, Paul C. Bickford, Cory D. Dabrowski, Kevin Touchette, Grace Coulombe, Heather Smith, Debra J. Maxfield and Kursten M. Haggett; (SLS 525)

Paul C. Bickford, of South Paris and a senior at Oxford Hills High School, who has been selected to receive the 1990 Principal's Award in recognition of outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (SLS 526)

the Knox County Head Start, on the occasion of its 25th anniversary in offering a quality preschool program to the community; (SLS 527)

Political Science Professor Eugene Mawhinney, on the occasion of his retirement after 31 years of dedication to the University of Maine serving as department chair, teaching constitutional law and developing the prelaw advising program; (SLS 528)

Lucinda Hebert, of Caribou, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1990 graduating class of the University of Maine at Presque Isle; (SLS 529)

Lorelei Locke, of Caribou, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1990 graduating class of the University of Maine at Presque Isle; (SLS 530)

James (J.J.) Dugal, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #270 in Ste. Agathe, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 531)

the 10th anniversary of the Dead River Area Museum and in extending best wishes to the members and friends of the Dead River Area Historical Society as they celebrate this special occasion; (SLS 532)

Michael F. Hutchins, of Brewer, recipient of the 1990-91 Christa McAuliffe Fellowship for excellence in teaching; (SLS 533)

the Honorable Thomas R. Perkins, of Hancock County, on the occasion of his retirement from the Maine Senate, whose years of dedicated service and commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 534) the Honorable Robert G. Dillenback, of Cumberland County, on the occasion of his retirement from the Maine Senate, whose years of dedicated service and commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 535)

the Honorable R. Peter Whitmore, of Androscoggin County, on the occasion of his retirement from the Maine Senate, whose years of dedicated service and commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 536)

Harold B. Higgins, of Eddington, beloved husband of Lou (Brown) Higgins, and a well-known and respected member of the community who actively participated in civic, social and fraternal organizations, having served on the school committee, board of selectmen and as an aide to the potentate of the Anah Temple Shrine; (SLS 537) (in Memoriam)

Maurice Bouchard, on the occasion of his retirement, whose 25 years of teaching the youth from the Sacopee Valley area exemplify the spirit of Maine and its dedicated teachers; (SLS 538)

Marilyn Johnson, on the occasion of her retirement, whose 20 years of teaching the youth of the Sacopee Valley area exemplify the spirit of Maine and its dedicated teachers; (SLS 539)

Eleanor Clinch, of Gorham, who is retiring from 36 exceptional years of teaching and commitment to the children of the Baldwin Consolidated School; (SLS 540)

William O'Brien, for the academic excellence for which he has been named the Valedictorian of the 1990 graduating class of Camden-Rockport High School; (SLS 541)

Kathy Merry, for the academic excellence for which she has been named the Valedictorian of the 1990 graduating class of Georges Valley High School; (SLS 542)

Alison Faulkingham, for the academic excellence for which she has been named the Salutatorian of the 1990 graduating class of Georges Valley High School; (SLS 543)

Gian Gallace, for the academic excellence for which he has been named the Salutatorian of the 1990 graduating class of Camden-Rockport High School; (SLS 544)

Jennifer Young, for the academic excellence for which she has been named the Valedictorian of the 1990 graduating class of Lincoln School in Vinalhaven; (SLS 545)

Robert Jenner, for the academic excellence for which he has been named the Salutatorian of the 1990 graduating class of Lincoln School in Vinal Haven; (SLS 546)

Carroll E. Webster, on the occasion of his retirement from the Department of Transportation after 54 years as a highway employee; (SLS 547)

the dedicated individuals of the Retired Service Volunteer Program who provide their services to the residents of the Katahdin Nursing Home; (SLS 548)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Harry G. True, Headmaster of Fryeburg Academy, on the occasion of his retirement after years of dedicated service to the Academy. As an educator, administrator, coach, former Dean of Students and most of all, friend, he has touched the lives of numerous people and will be genuinely missed by all who have had the pleasure of knowing him; (SLS 549)

Irene Babin, of Fort Kent, who has been named the 1990 Mother of the Year for the Fort Kent area; (SLS 550)

Condy and Jeannette Lizotte, of Fort Kent, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (SLS 551)

Jennie M. Larsen, who has dedicated 30 years of hard work, exceptional commitment and excellence to the people of the Town of Naples in her service as both Town Clerk and Town Advisor; (SLS 552)

Mr. and Mrs. Irene J. Berube, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on June 15, 1990; (SLS 553)

Gilfred and June Vickers, of Brownville Junction, who celebrated the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary with family and friends on May 26, 1990; (SLS 554)

the Greenville High School "Lakers" Baseball Team, winners of the 1990 Class D State Baseball Championship; (SLS 555)

Douglas J. Symes, of Boy Scout Troop #677 in Farmingdale, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 556)

Darren J. Heald, of Boy Scout Troop #677 in Farmingdale, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 557)

Dan Ladd, of Oxford Hills High School, recipient of the 1990 Maine Sunday Telegram's Male Athlete of the Year award; (SLS 558)

Teresa Bailey, of Belfast, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 92nd Birthday; (SLS 559)

the Piscataquis Community High School "Pirates" Baseball Team, winners of the 1990 Class C State Baseball Championship; (SLS 560)

Mr. Lloyd Treworgy, Master of the Pleasant River Grange in Milo, whose many years of devoted service to his community as an active member of civic and church organizations and as a local historian exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 561)

the residents of New Sweden, on their 120th Founders Day, for the major contribution they have made to the cultural and historical heritage of the State of Maine; (SLS 562)

Mr. and Mrs. Andre J. Ouellette, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage on June 23, 1990; (SLS 563)

Vietta Plaisted, whose 11 years of commitment and dedication to individuals in her community involved in the Displaced Homemakers Program has helped to improve the quality of life for so many in Maine; (SLS 564)

Sharon Libby Jones, whose 3 years of legislative service for the Piscataquis County Delegation typify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (SLS 565)

the Yarmouth Junior-Senior High School, recipient of a State of Maine award for its drug and alcohol awareness programs under the auspices of the Community Health Alcohol and Drug Resource Team (CHART); (SLS 566)

Crystal Hurd, a senior at Brunswick High School, who has been named Miss Teen Brunswick 1990; (SLS 567)

Heather Wilkes, a 1990 Brunswick High School graduate, who has been named Miss Brunswick 1990; (SLS 568)

David Domingos, Brunswick High School senior, who set a state record in the triple jump, added another in the 100-meter dash, won the long jump and anchored Brunswick's winning 4 x 100-meter relay team in the 1990 Maine Class A Track Championship meet; (SLS 569)

Eric Blakeman, of North Yarmouth Academy, winner of his fourth consecutive State of Maine Tennis Singles Championship; (SLS 570)

Alfred L. Austin, President of the Board of Directors of Shoreline Care Systems, who has been chosen Volunteer of the Year by the State of Maine Bureau of Mental Health; (SLS 571)

John Martin, Yarmouth Intermediate School teacher, one of twelve Maine teachers recognized as an "excellent teacher in elementary mathematics teaching" and nominee for a Presidential Award for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching; (SLS 572)

Deane Jordan, a Pownal native and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan, who won two honorable mentions in fiction for a literary short story and for competition limited to the first chapter of a book at the annual convention of the Florida Free-lance Writers Association; (SLS 573)

Eleanor Carolan, of Freeport, who has been named Realtor of the Year 1990 by the Portland Board of Realtors; (SLS 574)

Celestia Tukey, of Milo, on the occasion of her 80th birthday, August 6, 1990. Mrs. Tukey is a lifelong citizen of northern Maine and served for many decades as Town Clerk of Brownville Junction in addition to raising and caring for her family; (SLS 575)

Aaron Phelps, of Pownal, a 1990 graduate of Greely High School and the Portland Regional Vocational Technical Center, who placed second in the National Leadership Conference and United States Skill Olympics program sponsored in part by Westinghouse and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; (SLS 576)

the York Beach Fire Department, on the occasion of its 100th Anniversary in the firefighting service; (SLS 577)

Millie S. Stewart, of Brunswick, the first recipient of the Silver Bowl Person of the Year Award given by the Bath-Brunswick branch of the American Association of University Women, for outstanding achievements as chairperson of Brunswick's 250th Anniversary celebration; (SLS 578)

Bethany Fournier, of Sidney, who, with her sisters, saved the life of her mother on May 17, 1990, by resuscitating her after a severe asthma attack; (SLS 579)

Hannah Fournier, of Sidney, who, with her sisters, saved the life of her mother on May 17, 1990, by resuscitating her after a severe asthma attack; (SLS 580)

Erin Fournier, of Sidney, who, with her sisters, saved the life of her mother on May 17, 1990, by resuscitating her after a severe asthma attack; (SLS 581)

Pleasant Pond Grange #531 in West Sumner, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of its 75th anniversary; (SLS 582)

Charles and Margaret Hatch, on the celebration of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, July 30, 1990; (SLS 583)

Phil Tarr, on the occasion of his retirement as Town Manager of Bridgton, whose untiring and dedicated service and effective hard work during the past years have contributed greatly in the towns' positive growth; (SLS 584)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

John and Jennie Joyce, of South Portland, on the 50th anniversary of their marriage, August 30, 1940; (SLS 585)

Roland and Lula Wentworth, on the 50th anniversary of their marriage, October 12, 1990; (SLS 586)

Seboeis Plantation in Penobscot County on the observance of its 100th anniversary and in extending best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate this special occasion; (SLS 587)

Copyset, recipient of the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce 1990 Business of the Year award for its continuous achievements and contributions to the Oxford Hills business climate; (SLS 588)

Hancock Lumber Company, recipient of the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce 1990 Business of the Year award for its continuous achievements and contributions to the Oxford Hills business climate; (SLS 589)

Richard S. Morris, Jr., of Boy Scout Post #201 in Wiscasset, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 590)

Lena Guy, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 80th Birthday; (SLS 591)

Freeman and Betty Webb, of Corinna, on the 50th anniversary of their marriage, December 25, 1990; (SLS 592)

John and Alice Bird, of Corinna, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage, September 1, 1990; (SLS 593)

Martin B. Friedman, Vice President of External Affairs for American Cyanamid, a Maine-based company, on the occasion of his retirement after 36 years of dedicated service and contribution to the company and his community; (SLS 594)

Jame Murhpy, on the occasion of his 100th birthday, August 15, 1990; (SLS 595)

the dedicated Certified Nurse Assistants, who routinely provide quality patient care to citizens throughout the State, on this day proclaimed by the Governor as "Maine CNA Appreciation Day", September 7, 1990; (SLS 596)

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tracy, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 2, 1990; (SLS 597)

Leah Tondreau, of Brunswick, seven-year-old daughter of Lawrence and Pamela Tondreau, who won the 1990 Miss Northern New England American Princess and Northern New England Talent titles; (SLS 598)

L. Frances Booth, of South Portland, who has been elected the National President of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; (SLS 599)

Florence Latno, of Old Town, a remarkably talented, religious and gracious woman who will be remembered by her family and many friends as an inspiring teacher of piano, an effective leader, and active participant in community activities. Mrs. Latno's public service includes membership in the State of Maine Legislature from 1935 to 1939 and the Old Town School Board for over 20 years; (SLS 600) (in Memoriam)

Bobcat Glossian, of the Penobscot Indian Nation, who will be remembered for a lifetime of dedication to the service of his community, having served as a tribal council member and founder of the Penobscot Indian Historical Society. He was a highly regarded counselor in alcohol and substance abuse treatment and was appointed to the Maine Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention and Treatment (SLS 601) (in Memoriam)

Dr. Russell and Dorothea Black, of Belfast, on the 60th anniversary of their marriage, September 27, 1990; (SLS 602)

Katie Lynn Hall, of Sangerville, who won the title of National Baby Little Miss of America 1990; (SLS 603)

Donald E. Dyer, of South Portland, a community leader who served the citizens of Maine as a Member of the House of Representatives during the 107th Legislature; (SLS 604) (in Memoriam)

Seaside Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 90th anniversary, September 1990-1991; (SLS 605)

Sarah Cox, of Bangor, a longtime teacher in the Bangor Public Schools, who was selected to compete nationally on Jeopardy. Ms. Cox successfully competed on 4 consecutive nights, and did a fine job representing the City of Bangor and the State of Maine; (SLS 606)

Peter D'Errico, of Bangor, on the occasion of his retirement after 20 years as a dedicated public servant to the City of Bangor. In those 20 years, he served as Economic Development Manager and Airport Manager; (SLS 607)

Debra Seneca, for her many years of service to residents of Maine's nursing homes as a volunteer for the Long-term Care Ombudsman Program of the Maine Committee on Aging; (SLS 608)

Bernice Jenuskevici, for her many years of service to residents of Maine's nursing homes as a volunteer for the Long-term Care Ombudsman Program of the Maine Committee on Aging; (SLS 609)

Bea Dorbacker, for her many years of service to residents of Maine's nursing homes as a volunteer for the Long-term Care Ombudsman Program of the Maine Committee on Aging; (SLS 610)

The People of Taiwan and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of the 79th Anniversary of the founding of the Republic of China and in tribute to the memory of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen and his devotion to freedom and justice for the Chinese People; (SLS 611) the St. John's Catholic School in Brunswick, founded in 1882, on the occasion of its First Annual Homecoming Reunion on July 28, 1990. From its proud French heritage, St. John's Catholic School continues to enrich and contribute significantly to the religious, cultural and educational environment of the youth of its are communities; (SLS 612)

Blanche "Minnie" Hartley, of Millinocket, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 80th Birthday, October 18, 1990; (SLS 613)

Stanley Knox, on the occasion of his retirement as Sheriff of Waldo County, whose 45 years of service in the law enforcement field exemplify the dedicated spirit of Maine's citizens; (SLS 614)

David Carey, of Boy Scout Troop #604 in Monmouth, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 615)

Brunswick Police Officer Jimmy Swint, of Topsham, who died in the line of duty on October 1, 1990; (SLS 616) (in Memoriam)

Ted and Odile Bishop, of Caribou, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, October 21, 1990; (SLS 617)

Mr. and Mrs. Garold C. Mitton, of Yarmouth, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 12, 1990; (SLS 618)

the Town of New Vineyard, whose efforts to build a library to benefit the community's future and quality of life exemplify the spirit of Maine and its dedicated citizens; (SLS 619)

Edna McLean, of Millinocket, on the occasion of her 70th birthday; (SLS 620)

Troy Paul Nelson, of Palermo, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (SLS 621)

Beverly J. MacKerron, on the occasion of her retirement after 25 years of dedicated service as Clerk of Courts for the Maine District Court in Bridgton; (SLS 622)

SENATE SENTIMENTS APPENDIX

Mary Giard, of Bangor, a first grade teacher at the Abraham Lincoln School, recipient of the Barry Sherman Outstanding Teacher Award, an international award given annually by the Center for the Expansion of Language and Thinking to teachers who distinguish themselves in and out of the classroom in their approach to education and literacy; (SLS 623)

Vincent and Vera Whirty, who celebrated the 70th anniversary of their marriage on October 18, 1990; (SLS 624)

Wilma Irish, on the occasion of her retirement after nearly 20 years providing cheerful service to customers of the Central Maine Power Company; (SLS 625)

Renee Heath, of Brunswick, 9-year-old daughter of Jim and Tessa Heath, who is among seven young people in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts selected to receive the R.G. Canning Youth Achievement Award for her personal outlook on world affairs and scholastic achievements; (SLS 626)

Theo Morrill, of Freeport, recipient of the 1990 Freeport Lions Club annual Citizenship Award honoring her long years of service as a true "Santa Claus elf" and helping hand to people in need; (SLS 627) the Brunswick High School Boys Soccer Team, winners of the Eastern Maine Class A Soccer title and the 1990 Maine Class A Soccer Championship; (SLS 628)

Gloria Hendsbee, of East Millinocket, on the occasion of her retirement after more than 22 years at Katahdin Friends; (SLS 629)

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Thibeault, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage on October 27, 1990; (SLS 630)

Robert S. Turner, member of Post 15 Decatur, Georgia, National Commander of the American Legion and a dedicated leader who has served his state and nation in an outstanding manner and has always stood ready to defend the freedoms that make this country such a great place in which to live; (SLS 631)

the Maine District Court, District Nine, Division of Northern Cumberland, on the occasion of its 25th anniversary; (SLS 632)

Mr. and Mrs. Adelard A. Coulombe, of Brunswick, who celebrated the 60th anniversary of their marriage on November 10, 1990; (SLS 633)