

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied (searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD OF THE
One Hundred And Sixteenth Legislature
OF THE
State Of Maine

VOLUME VII

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

Senate
April 7, 1994 to April 14, 1994

SECOND CONFIRMATION SESSION
May 11, 1994

THIRD CONFIRMATION SESSION
July 29, 1994

FOURTH CONFIRMATION SESSION
November 14, 1994

Index to 116th Legislative Record

HOUSE AND SENATE LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS

LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS

OF THE

One Hundred And Sixteenth Legislature

OF THE

House of Representatives

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
116TH MAINE LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Legislative Sentiment appeared in the House Calendar between December 2, 1992 and April 14, 1994 pursuant to Joint Rule 34: (These sentiments are dated December 2, 1992, through December 6, 1994.)

Nicki Umphrey, a member of the Future Farmers Organization in Washburn from School Administrative District #45, who attended the Future Farmers of America's annual meeting in Kansas City and won a Gold Medal for Dairy Showmanship; (HLS 1)

Amy O'Donnell, a member of the Future Farmers Organization in Washburn from School Administrative District #45, who attended the Future Farmers of America's annual meeting in Kansas City and won a Bronze Medal for Dairy Judging; (HLS 2)

the Stearns High School Minutemen Football Team, winners of the Class C Football State Championship; (HLS 3)

Faye Brown, for her heroic efforts in saving the lives of three people from a burning house; (HLS 4)

Scott E. Harriman, of Boy Scout Troop #609 in Windsor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 5)

Miles Brown, whose outstanding service and safety record as an Athens Elementary School bus driver have earned him a Certificate of Recognition from the Maine Association for Pupil Transportation; (HLS 6)

Dr. Bourcard Nesim, of Howland, a country doctor and friend to all, whose lifetime of dedicated service to the health, education and welfare of the people of the Penobscot Valley area will long be remembered; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 7)

the following members of the Livermore Falls High School Andies Football Team, who won the Western State Class C Football Championship: Mark Lessard, Billy Visconti, Tim Kennison, Jon Choate, Pierre Castonquay, Brian Berry, Glen Peel, John Chretien, Matt Brown, Travis Fitzherbert, Bryan Gerry, Brian Dube, Adam Castonguay, David Polky, Wil Chabot, Carey Norton, Ben Condon, Paul Blake, Alfred Castonquay, Brian Condon, Billy Koniak, Ryan Davis, Matt Jamison, Jason Chicoine, Jeremy Bamford, Jack Miniutti, Conan Michel, Ryan Crosby, Pat Lessard, Jason Hubbard, Jason Allen, Ray Libby, Warren Small, Jason Dalessandro, David Allen, Sam Powers, Heath Davis, Josh Moody, Jason Timberlake, Jake Losey, head coach Jim Hersom and assistant coaches John Beedy, Kevin Kezal, Jason Jacobs, Shawn Chabot and Rusty Mercier; (HLS 8)

William J. Ayoob, on the occasion of his retirement after more than 15 years of dedicated service as the Town Manager of Millinocket; (HLS 9)

Donald F. Collins, for years of dedicated service to the Maine Highway Safety Commission, whose significant contributions to highway safety are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 10)

Lloyd G. Drinkwater, for years of dedicated service to the Maine Highway Safety Commission, whose significant contributions to highway safety are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 11)

Francis M. Lamar, for years of dedicated service to the Maine Highway Safety Commission, whose significant contributions to highway safety are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 12)

Jennie Bearor, of Madison, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, December 29, 1992. Mrs. Bearor has 27 grandchildren, 52 great-grandchildren and 11 great-great-grandchildren; (HLS 13)

Robert Hofacker, upon his retirement after 11 years of dedicated service as Dispatcher for Rockland Public Safety; (HLS 14)

the following members of the Narraguagus High School Girls Cross Country Team, Class C State Champions: Jill Nicholas, Sara Cashman, Gladys Ganiel, Venice Bayrd, Jen Look, Kristin Polk, Erin Look, Lindsay Smith, Heather Dalton and Coach Ric Lamoureux; (HLS 15)

Gladys Ganiel, a member of the Narraguagus High School Girls Cross-country Team, on being the State Champion in the Girls Class C Cross-country State Championship; (HLS 16)

Jason R. Barnes, of Boy Scout Troop #684 in Augusta, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 17)

the following members of the Messalonskee Field Hockey Team, 1992 State Class B Champions: Heather Bilodeau, Alycia Breznyak, Jessica Desrosiers, Kristen Gilman, Tanya Grant, Caroline Hanley, Becky Higgins, Kathryn Mathias, Allyson Nye, Meghan O'Donnell, Angel Paradis, Jessica Pillsbury, Christena Pillsbury, Jessica Rancourt, Marsha Simpson, Heather Sprague, Tasha Stevens, Jaime Taylor and Sarah Wood; managers Amy Paradis and Tabitha Violette; and coaches Gwen Bacon and Allison Gervais; (HLS 18)

Isla Castenada, recipient of the Girl Scout Silver Award, for her efforts in a wide range of Girl Scout experiences and her commitment to bettering her life and the lives of others; (HLS 19)

Rachel Pilling, recipient of the Girl Scout Silver Award, for her efforts in a wide range of Girl Scout experiences and her commitment to working to better her life and the lives of others; (HLS 20)

Rebekah Pilling, recipient of the Girl Scout Silver Award, for her efforts in a wide range of Girl Scout experiences and her commitment to working to better her life and the lives of others; (HLS 21)

Virginia Marston, a resident at the Deer Isle Nursing Home, for her outstanding commitment and service as a Girl Scout Leader; (HLS 22)

William Keevan, a student at George Stevens Academy, for his outstanding academic achievement in being named a National Merit Scholar; (HLS 49)

Pauline Gallant, of South Rumford, for more than 30 years of dedicated volunteer service to persons with developmental disabilities and their families through her work with the Oxford County Association for Retarded Children; (HLS 50)

Chuck and Luella Warren, of Gray, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, January 17, 1993; (HLS 51)

Kathryn Knull, a senior at Thornton Academy in Saco, who has the distinction of being selected to participate in the 1993 All State Jazz Festival Choir; (HLS 52)

John Chandler, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #518 in Wilton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 53)

Jennifer Wright, of Orland, for her outstanding academic achievement as a winner of the National Merit Scholarship Program; (HLS 54)

Wendall "Chummy" Broomhall for his many years of dedication to the Chisholm Ski Club, who was inducted into the Maine Sports Hall of Fame after receiving the Bangor Daily News Sports Award in Skiing Achievements in 1952 and who was inducted into the National Ski Hall of Fame at Ispheming, Michigan in 1981. He is a legend in his own time and the people of the Greater Rumford Area are better off because he walked our way; (HLS 55)

Joan Morton Kelly, of Cape Elizabeth, for her caring contribution to the restoration of sculptor Franklin Simmons' historic bronze monument "Henry Wadsworth Longfellow," now on the National Register of Historic Sites in Portland, the poet's beloved "city by the sea"; (HLS 56)

The Chisholm Ski Club of Rumford, founded in 1921, whose loyal, dedicated members have made it possible for several generations of young people to develop into excellent skiers. They have hosted many events and must be recognized and honored for the outstanding teamwork they have demonstrated in successfully conducting the 1993 Subaru Cross-Country Championship Races at Black Mountain, January 8 - 15, 1993; (HLS 57)

John J. Morin, of Old Town, beloved husband and father, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Mr. Morin served in the U.S. Army, was a Little League coach for several years and was employed at the James River Corp. of Old Town; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 58)

Laura (Lajoie) Deveau who was born in Cyr Plantation, now resides at the Borderview Manor in Van Buren and is celebrating her 100th birthday on January 28, 1993. We extend our best wishes; (HLS 59)

The Limestone Rotary and Chamber of Commerce on the occasion of their 50th Annual Banquet on January 30, 1993; (HLS 60)

Jane E. and Leonard W. Allen, Jr., of Kittery, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 21, 1992; (HLS 61)

Kim Charles, of Corinna Junior High School, honored recipient of the Silver Award, the highest award for a Cadette Girl Scout; (HLS 62)

Vicki Jones, of Corinna Junior High School, honored recipient of the Silver Award, the highest award for a Cadette Girl Scout; (HLS 63)

Kenneth Jordan, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #187 in Turner, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 64)

Lt. Col. Dante E. Bulli, commander of the B-52C Stratofortress aircraft that crashed thirty years ago on Elephant Mountain, near Moosehead Lake, who miraculously survived and whose military service is appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 65)

Captain Gerald J. Adler, navigator of the B-52C Stratofortress aircraft that crashed thirty years ago on Elephant Mountain, near Moosehead Lake, who miraculously survived and whose military service is appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 66) the supreme sacrifice of the crew of the B-52C Stratofortress aircraft that crashed thirty years ago on Elephant Mountain, near Moosehead Lake who did not survive. This includes Lt. Col. Joe R. Simpson, Jr., Maj. William W. Gabriel, Maj. Robert J. Morrison, Maj. Robert J. Hill, Capt. Herbert L. Hansen, Capt. Charles G. Leuchter and T-Sgt. Michael F. O'Keefe; (HLS 67)

Reverend Vernon and Dorothy Jordan, of Warren, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on February 12, 1993; (HLS 68)

Augustus M. Plummer, of Raymond, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Mr. Plummer was retired from the Portland Pipeline Corporation and was well known as a caring and dedicated citizen who took an active role in civic, historical and religious affairs of the community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 69)

Bert Rich, of South Portland, who has received the prestigious James J. Fitzpatrick Trophy for his outstanding performance as a running back for the Class A South Portland High School football team; (HLS 70)

Eddie Griffin, of South Portland, genial host, philanthropist and youth sports promoter who has devoted a lifetime to generous community activism and to helping young people learn the challenge of cooperation and competition through the love of sports; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 71)

Mr. and Mrs. George L. King, of Stillwater, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 59th wedding anniversary; (HLS 72)

Martha B. Whitmore, of Milford, beloved wife and mother whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Whitmore was employed for many years at Bangor

Mental Health Institute, served as a member of the VFW Auxiliary of Old Town and was a communicant at St. Joseph's Catholic Church of Old Town; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 73)

Mark H. Bradbury, who is retiring after 27 years of dedicated service to the Eliot Elementary School, beloved by all for his fairness, compassion and commitment to the children of Eliot; (HLS 74)

Kevin DeWildt, of Boy Scout Troop #338 in South Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 75)

Emlen B. Harmon, of Boy Scout Troop #338 in South Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 76)

The men and women of Loring Air Force Base who participated in Operation Happy Christmas which raised over $8000 for needy children in Limestone, Caribou, Fort Fairfield and at Loring Air Force Base; (HLS 77)

Robert L. Charlton, of Portland, an educator, actor and community activist. As a librarian in the Portland school system, a founder of The Portland Lyric Theatre and for 45 years a mainstay of The Portland Players, one of the oldest community theatres in the nation, he devoted a lifetime to the entertainment of others, truly believing that "All the world's a stage"; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 78)

Howard and Cecile Brown, of Orono, and in extending our congratulations on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on December 13, 1992; (HLS 79)

Kimberly McGuffie, of Deer Isle-Stonington High School, recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award, presented on the basis of dependability, leadership, service and patriotism; (HLS 80)

The South Portland High School Football Team, winner of the 1992 Class A Football Championship; (HLS 81)

John Kobritz and Ellen Severence for their 39 years of caring for the students of the University of Maine through the Oronoka Restaurant by giving them free meals in hard times, driving them back to school after parties, providing a place for community meetings and helping them to continue in school so that they graduated and became our State's business people, doctors and Legislators. This Legislature joins all those students in saying thank you; (HLS 82)

Marie and Ralph Ardito, of Augusta, owners of the successful restaurant, Ardito's, who have been chosen to receive the Kennebec Valley Chamber of Commerce Presidential Award; (HLS 83)

Father John Civiello, upon his celebration of 25 years in the priesthood and for his devotion, dedication and love to his parishioners and to his profession; (HLS 84)

Coaches Paula Doughty, Cyndi Pratt, Erin Walsh, Tammy Veinotte, Pam Burns and Karen Kemball; Manager

Olivia Gray; and the following members of the Skowhegan Area High School Field Hockey Team: Andrea Devoe, Terri Foulkes, Destiny Demo, Heidi Stark, Skyla Hamilton, Mary Ann Thurlow, Meredith Bradley, Beth Gower, Karen Little, Cassie Sullivan, Jeni Turner, Beth Young, Sarah Poulin, Megan Burns, Heidi Parlin, Heidi Poland, Mandy Gleason, Amy Wentworth, Amanda Pomerleau, Margeux Belliveau, and Sarah Gordon, winners of the 1992 Class A State Field Hockey Championship; (HLS 85)

The South Portland High School Field Hockey Team, winner of the 1992 Class A Western Maine Field Hockey Championship; (HLS 86)

George E. Foster, of Hampden, respected businessman, who will be sadly missed by his family and many friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 87)

Irene Landry, of Buxton, respected member of the community, former employee of S.D. Warren Co., whose love of music and contribution to St. Anne's Church will be greatly missed; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 88)

the Honorable Lucia M. Cormier, whose remarkable career included 12 years in the Maine House of Representatives, representing Rumford. Representative Cormier had the distinction of being the first woman to serve as Floor Leader of the House in 1959. She was a dedicated teacher for many years, active on many boards and respected member of the business community. She completed her career with the appointment by President John F. Kennedy as District Collector of Customs. Her life of devoted service serves as an inspiration and model for us all; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 89)

Harriette May Short, of Buxton, a respected member of the community who was active in numerous community and church organizations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 90) the 4th, 5th and 6th grade students at Glenburn Elementary School, for their exemplary writing skills demonstrated in their writing campaign to President Clinton upon the occasion of his inauguration. We urge you to continue writing and expressing your concerns regarding issues important to yourselves and to the world; (HLS 91)

Kristin Fraizer, a sophomore at Gorham High School, who took first place in the 1992 State Indoor Track Meet 600-yard event; (HLS 92)

June Eaton, of Brooklin, on the occasion of her retirement after 30 years of thoughtful, dedicated service as Brooklin's town clerk. Mrs. Eaton has served the people of Brooklin with the patience, tact and wisdom that has endeared her to all; (HLS 93)

John Kobritz and Ellen Severence for their 39 years of caring for the students of the University of Maine through the Oronoka Restaurant by giving them free meals in hard times, driving them back to school after parties, providing a place for community meetings and helping them to continue in school so that they graduated and became our State's business people, doctors and Legislators. This Legislature joins all those students in saying thank you; (HLS 94)

Judy St. Pierre, for her quick thinking and heroic action that saved Melissa Duval from choking; (HLS 95)

Duane Davis, of Boy Scout Troop #524 in Jay, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 96)

Mary Doak, recipient of the Outstanding Volunteer of the Year Award, presented by the Fort Fairfield Chamber of Commerce, recognizing over 35 years of dedicated charitable work; (HLS 97)

Charles Lockhart, recipient of the Outstanding Citizen Award, presented by the Fort Fairfield Chamber of Commerce for his dedication to the growth, development and improvement of the community; (HLS 98)

Tom Leonard, whose heroic action saved Alice Prue, 84 years old, from her burning apartment; (HLS 99)

Trevor Spaulding, whose heroic action saved Alice Prue, 84 years old, from her burning apartment; (HLS 100)

the Marshwood High School Cheerleaders, who have won the State Class B Championship title; (HLS 101)

Oscar and E. Marion Gerry, of Troy, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, February 12, 1993; (HLS 102)

Robert Bowden, of Thornton Academy, who was inducted into the National Art Honor Society; (HLS 103)

Jason Lund, of Thornton Academy, who was inducted into the National Art Honor Society; (HLS 104)

Gary Desrochers, of Thornton Academy, who was inducted into the National Art Honor Society; (HLS 105)

Brie Brayley, of Thornton Academy, who was inducted into the National Art Honor Society; (HLS 106)

Jaica Kinsman, of Thornton Academy, who was inducted into the National Art Honor Society; (HLS 107)

Rick Leo, of Thornton Academy, who was inducted into the National Art Honor Society; (HLS 108)

Amber Howard, a senior at Searsport District High School, who recently scored her 1500th career point for the Girls Varsity Basketball Team; (HLS 109)

Vicki Lee Hughes, of Brewer, whose death has deeply saddened her family and many friends. She will be remembered for her beautiful smile and her love and devotion to her family; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 110)

Marion B. Badershall, of Orrington, respected member of the community, active in church affairs and renowned for her talents as a cook. She will be sadly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 111)

the dedication and commemorative refurbishing of the Old Orchard Beach Town Hall, a very significant historic fixture in this community which has been greatly enhanced. Also, our best wishes on the celebration of the 110th Anniversary of the Town Office; (HLS 112)

Merle and Josephine Tenney, of South Casco, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (HLS 113)

Chris Southard, of Crooked River School in Casco, winner of the school's National Geographic Geography Bee; (HLS 114)

Philip D. Thornton, of Caribou, upon his retirement after 38 years of dedicated state service as an exemplary State Police Trooper and Human Services Enforcement Agent; (HLS 115)

Mary Eaton, on the occasion of her retirement after 25 years as the Postmistress of Brooklin, whose many years of dedicated and tireless service exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 116)

Chad Duprey, of Traip Academy, who took an individual first place in the 160-pound weight division in the State Class C Maine Wrestling Competition; (HLS 117)

Jeff Graves, of Traip Academy, who took an individual first place in the 140-pound weight division in the State Class C Maine Wrestling Competition; (HLS 118)

the Traip Academy Cheerleading Team, of Kittery, winners of the State Class C Cheerleading Championship; (HLS 119)

Jillian Mitchell, a member of Girl Scout Troop #531 in Glenburn, who, at the age of six years, saved the life of her five-year-old brother, Michael. As a result of her heroic actions, she received the Girl Scouts Life-saving Medal of Honor; (HLS 120)

Raymond C. Whitney, Sr., of Dexter, honored recipient of the Boston Post gold-headed cane from the Dexter Sunshine Club as the town's oldest man at 98 years of age. Born June 25, 1895, Mr. Whitney is also a veteran of World War I and a retired businessman; (HLS 121)

Floreda Whalen, of Dexter, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, celebrated with family and friends at St. Anne's Parish Center in Dexter; (HLS 122)

the hard work, spirit, cooperation and dedicated efforts of the officers and representatives of the towns that joined together to organize the Tri-County Solid Waste Management Organization, the first multi-county solid waste facility in the state, and extend our congratulations on its grand opening on February 20th; (HLS 123)

the Calais High School Girls Basketball Team and congratulating the players on an outstanding season, finishing with an 18-0 record; (HLS 124)

the Woodland High School Cheerleaders, recipients of the Class D State Championship title; (HLS 125)

Edith Wilbur, of Dexter, honored recipient, as the town's oldest woman, of the silver-headed cane presented by the Sunshine Club. Born January 31, 1895, Mrs. Wilbur is a charter member of Meals for Maine and we congratulate her on her continued involvement in this organization; (HLS 126)

Joe Carr, sportscaster for the University of Maine hockey team, named Maine's Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association for his outstanding talents as an announcer; (HLS 127)

the Boy Singers of Maine and their director, Stewart Schuster, for representing the Pine Tree State at the 52nd Presidential Inaugural Parade and in their command performance at the White House; (HLS 128)

Reiche School teachers and principal Miriam Remar, of Portland, upon the school being named a National Blue Ribbon School by the U.S. Department of Education for excellence in multicultural education. The most ethnically and economically diverse elementary school in Maine, with students from Afghanistan, Cambodia, Russia, Uganda, Vietnam and Jamaica, Reiche School honors its school motto: "Learning and Respect - A Shared Commitment"; (HLS 129)

Sheilia Frances Esty, devoted wife of Donald Esty, Sr. and beloved mother of five sons, Donald, Jr., Michael, Joseph, John and Chris, and two daughters, Cathleen and Melissa. Sheilia, coming from a large family herself, was also the proud grandmother of 14 grandchildren. Sheilia was a long time political activist and enjoyed the theater but was at her happiest doing things for and with her family. She will be missed by all who knew her; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 130)

Paul True, a student at the University of Maine at Farmington, who scored his 1,000th career point as a player for the basketball team on February 10, 1993, against Lyndon State College; (HLS 131)

Llewellyn F. and Margaret C. Hoffses, of Mapleton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, February 17, 1993; (HLS 132)

Kenneth and Iris Charles, of Norridgewock, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, December 2, 1992; (HLS 133)

Michael Simpson, of Cape Elizabeth, for his outstanding academic and volunteer service, and, specifically on this 4th day of March, 1993, for his outstanding achievement in attaining the rank of Eagle Scout; (HLS 134)

Paul F. Tully, Jr. for his outstanding academic, athletic and volunteer service in his community; and be it further ordered that he be recognized for his high honors achievements at South Portland High School, his athletic leadership as "Swim Team Rookie of the Year" in 1992, his "Outstanding Youth of the Year" VFW Post #832, his religious scouting awards, Parvuli Dei and Ad Alteri Dei, the Johns Hopkins University Talent Search Award, his nomination for Young Columbus Award, his 1992-1993 State Championship Member of the South Portland High School Marching Band, his compassion for humanity while helping the young and handicapped in Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts, his Boy Scouts "Order of the Arrow Award" and, specifically, on this 4th day of March, 1993, his outstanding achievement in attaining the rank of Eagle Scout; (HLS 135)

Selectman Neville Hardy, of Deer Isle, who has decided to run for selectman for the 25th time. The town of Deer Isle is indebted to his excellent service throughout the years; (HLS 136)

Edgar Allan Cyrus, widely recognized and respected theater director and educator at the University of Maine for 33 years, whose unselfish commitment to excellence in education has earned him the pride and gratitude of this State; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 137)

Guy Dientes, Jr., of Millinocket, beloved family member, who was a former employee of Great Northern Paper Company and an active member of several fraternal organizations and who served in the U.S. Navy in World War II; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 138)

Mark Leach, fire prevention officer for the South Berwick Fire Department for the past 8 years, whose efforts in teaching fire prevention to children in local schools are greatly appreciated; (HLS 139)

Sherwood Hilt, Scoutmaster of Troop #207 in Union, recipient of the Silver Beaver Award. The award recognizes individuals who have demonstrated exceptional achievement in scouting, in their communities and in their personal lives and whose actions have reflected the values, ideals and character for which scouting is known; (HLS 140)

the Marshwood High School Wrestling Team, winner of the State Class B Wrestling Championship; (HLS 141)

the members of the Old Town High School Boys Swim Team, winners of the State Class B Championship; (HLS 142)

the members of the Old Town High School Girls Swim Team, winners of the State Class B Championship; (HLS 143)

the Old Town High School Hockey Team, winners of the State Class B Hockey Championship; (HLS 144)

Jason W. Benson, of Boy Scout Troop #24 in Levant, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 145) the Reverend Evans I. Wilson, who was born in Bethel in 1906 where he operated the family farm for many years. In 1958, he entered the ministry, serving as pastor of churches in Pownal, New Harbor, North Anson and Winterport. He retired to Orono where he will be remembered for his work in the United Methodist Church and the Homemakers Club and as an avid fan of the Little League; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 146)

Margaret Grindle, of Stonington, whose years of dedicated service to the community and whose steadfast concern for children, the elderly and those on fixed incomes are greatly appreciated and who will be recognized by the dedication of this year's Stonington town report in her name; (HLS 147)

the Houlton High School Girls Basketball Team, winners of the Eastern Maine Class B Basketball Championship, their 9th win in 12 years; (HLS 148)

Albert Cole, of Mt. Vernon, upon his recent retirement following many years of dedicated service in the world of work and, specifically, the last 20 plus years spent at Kents Hill Lumber Company; (HLS 149)

the Mountain Valley High School Girls Gymnastics Team, winners of the State Class B Gymnastics Championship; (HLS 150)

Allison Pope, of East Machias, recipient of the 1993 University of Maine Academic Achievement Award for her exceptional academic achievement demonstrated by her high standards of scholarship; (HLS 151)

Robert Moreau, of Jonesboro, recipient of the 1993 University of Maine Academic Achievement Award for his exceptional academic achievement demonstrated by his high standards of scholarship; (HLS 152)

Kandy Meyers and the second grade class of Bristol Consolidated School, Pemaquid, for their caring contribution to the restoration of the bronze statue of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in Portland, the poet's beloved "City by the Sea"; (HLS 153)

the Rangeley Lakes Regional School Girls Basketball Team, winners of the State Class D Basketball Championship: captains Sarah Bicknell, Beth Morton and Karen Spaulding; team members Aimee Danforth, Pam Haley, Tori Hofmann, Liz Linnell, Lisa McLaughlin, Jessica Mallory, Allison Morton, Kelly Morton, Beth Sheehan and Becca Thomas; managers Joe Clark and Deanna Dunham; and Coach Heidi DeRaps; (HLS 154)

Diana Olin, nursing supervisor at Millinocket Regional Hospital, who is retiring after 37 years of dedicated service; (HLS 155)

the City of Eastport, celebrating 100 years of incorporation as a city; (HLS 156)

Brian Barnes, who has scored 100 goals during his high school hockey career at Stearns High School; (HLS 157)

Charles S. Partridge, of Somesville, beloved husband of Phyllis (Scribner) Partridge, distinguished Pastor, accomplished musician and very active member of the Masons for which he received the Josiah Hayden Drummond Medal in recognition of his many years of service; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 158) the Jonesport-Beals High School Basketball Team, winners of the State Class D Basketball Championship. This is the 9th gold ball won by this school since the two towns merged their secondary schools. Prior to the merger, Beals High School had won 3 state championships and Jonesport had won at least one; (HLS 159)

Dr. William H. Richards, an Auburn native, Superintendent of School Administrative District 43, who has the distinction of being named Maine's Educational Leader of the Year by the Maine Association for Supervision and Curriculum. Dr. Richards was chosen from 10 finalists for his work on Maine's Common Core of Learning, the restructuring of schools at the state and local levels and his work to establish academic standards for all students in his district; (HLS 160)

Head Coach Theodore I. Reese and the members of the Bonny Eagle High School Wrestling Team, winners of the 1993 State Class A Championship; (HLS 161)

the Limestone High School Boys Varsity Basketball Team: Chris Blaisdell, Derrek Giggey, David Holmes, Danny Huston, Robert McDougal, Angelo Malfatti, Jim Morse, Shane Overbay, Trevor Patten, Darian Smith, Tony Tobin, Clarence Williams and Ken Yates; team managers Matt Mazerolle, Danielle Spink and Ron Gallagher; Coach Jason Tarr; and Assistant Coach Donnie Powell, winners of the Eastern Maine Class C Basketball Championship; (HLS 162)

Mary Mitchell Gabriel, of Indian Township, master Indian basket maker and recipient of a fellowship from the 1993 Individual Artist Fellowship program administered by the Maine Arts Commission; (HLS 163)

Steve Xanthopoulos, a senior at Thornton Academy, who is the recipient of the Good Citizen Award given by the Daughters of the American Revolution and the 1993 Principals' Award given by the Maine Principals' Association; (HLS 164)

Father Gerald A. Levesque, of Portland, cofounder of the Parkside Neighborhood Association, human rights advocate and community activist, upon the occasion of his retirement from Sacred Heart Parish. Born in Winslow, he has brought to each church he has served in Africa, England, New York City and Maine his dedication to dignity and equal rights for all people; (HLS 165)

David C. B. Kirk, of Orono, who was a talented engineer and loved the challenge of the many projects he undertook, including the camp he and his family built at Parker Pond. He will be sadly missed by his wife Judith, his children Matthew and Heather and many friends; (HLS 166)

the Calais Lady Blue Devils Basketball Team, winners of the State Class C Basketball Championship; (HLS 167)

Kelly Caouette, of Winthrop High School, for an outstanding high school basketball career, which includes being named to the Mountain Valley Conference All-stars first team for two consecutive years; (HLS 168)

Kate Shepard, of Winthrop High School, for an outstanding high school basketball career, which includes being named to the Mountain Valley Conference All-stars second team in her senior year; (HLS 169)

Trisha Ripton, a senior at Stearns High School in Millinocket, whose outstanding talent as a basketball player has earned her the Big East Player of the Year Award for the second consecutive year and a return to the All-Tourney Team for the third consecutive year; (HLS 170)

Charles and Valerie Maggiani, of Eastport, owners and operators of the restaurant, La Sardina Loca, who are the honored recipients of the "Harry Mattin Award" for their outstanding contribution to the Eastport area; (HLS 171)

Avis M. Luce, of Warren, well-known and respected as a caring and dedicated individual who contributed to the good of the community in many ways, including 24 years as an exemplary town clerk; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 172)

Elsie B. Lorenzen, lifelong resident of Windham, born January 13, 1901, who is the honored recipient of the Boston Post Cane; (HLS 173)

Dr. Gary M. Boone, of Shin Pond, for the many years of research, dedication and outstanding contributions to the geology of Maine; (HLS 174)

the John Bapst Memorial High School Basketball Team, of Bangor, winners of the State Class B Basketball Championship; (HLS 175)

Dr. Olcott Gates, of Wiscasset, for the many years of research, dedication and outstanding contributions to the geology of Maine; (HLS 176) the Hampden Academy Football Team, recipient of the 1992 Football Officials' Good Sportsmanship Award; (HLS 177)

the Hampden Academy Field Hockey Team, recipient of the 1992 Field Hockey Officials' Good Sportsmanship Award; (HLS 178)

Christopher Philbrick, of the Hampden Academy Football Team, individual recipient of the 1992 Hampden Coaches' Good Sportsmanship Award; (HLS 179)

Leola Guerrette, honored recipient of the "1993 Caribou Outstanding Citizen of the Year Award," for her exemplary public service work. Among her numerous contributions are: 6 years on the Caribou City Council; 7 years as member and 3 years as chair on the Caribou Planning Board; current member of the Board of Directors, Maine Sports Hall of Fame; 9 years' service to the Maine Loring Association as secretary, vice president and president; chair of Dirigo Girls State, Caribou area; church organist for 15 years; and many other positions reflecting her dedication and service to all; (HLS 180)

Jason Johnston, member of the National Organization for Students of Agricultural Education, Presque Isle Chapter, winner of the Marketing Plan Project National Competition; (HLS 181)

Cory Johnston, member of the National Organization for Students of Agricultural Education, Presque Isle Chapter, winner of the Marketing Plan Project National Competition; (HLS 182)

Scott Pangburn, member of the National Organization for Students of Agricultural Education, Presque Isle Chapter, winner of the Marketing Plan Project National Competition; (HLS 183)

Barbara Labby, of Millinocket, whose death has deeply saddened family, friends and members of this community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 184)

Josh Bernier, of Stearns High School, member of the Boys Varsity Basketball Team, chosen as an All-Star Honorable Mention for the Big East; (HLS 185)

Elaine Fuller, upon her retirement as Director of the Bureau of Medical Services and for a career spanning 32 years of dedicated state service. Among her numerous accomplishments have been the development and implementation of home-based care for the elderly and her thoughtful guidance of the bureau through trying economic times. Her integrity is, perhaps, best reflected by the fact that she never forgot about the people she was serving through her agency. We extend our best wishes to her in her future endeavors; (HLS 186)

the Town of Mechanic Falls and in extending our best wishes as it celebrates its 100th anniversary, March 22, 1993; (HLS 187)

the residents of Longfellow Commons, Portland, for their caring contribution to the restoration of the Henry Wadsworth Longfellow monument, sculpted by Franklin Simmons, in Portland, the poet's beloved "city by the sea"; (HLS 188)

Eugene D. Picard, of Mars Hill, Central District Lead Worker at Maine Public Service Company, who is retiring after more than 39 years of successful employment; (HLS 189)

the University of Maine-Presque Isle Men's Basketball Team, "the Owls," winners of the Northeast College Conference Championship; (HLS 190)

Christy Wedge, of Stearns High School, member of the Girls Varsity Basketball Team, winner of the Pepsi Spirit Award; (HLS 191)

Joe Montgomery, of Stearns High School, member of the Boys Varsity Basketball Team, winner of the Pepsi Spirit Award; (HLS 192)

Sarah Marshall, of Stearns High School, member of the Girls Varsity Basketball Team, chosen for the Big East All-Star Basketball Team; (HLS 193)

Regan Vaznis, of Stearns High School, member of the Girls Varsity Basketball Team, chosen for the All-Academic Big East Team; (HLS 194)

Sean Dewitt, of Stearns High School, member of the Boys Varsity Basketball Team, chosen for the All-Academic Big East Team; (HLS 195)

Brian Barnes, of Stearns High School, chosen for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 196)

Mecah Illingworth, of Stearns High School, chosen for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 197)

Ben Hanscom, of Stearns High School, chosen for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 198)

Chris Sharpe, of Stearns High School, chosen for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 199)

Trevor Boutaugh, of Stearns High School, chosen as an Honorable Mention for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 200)

Shawn Boutaugh, of Stearns High School, chosen as an Honorable Mention for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 201)

Josh Perry, of Stearns High School, chosen as an Honorable Mention for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 202)

James A. Pratt, of Auburn, a World War I veteran and charter member of the American Legion, Alden M. Gayton Post 31, for 75 years of continuous service in the American Legion, and who will celebrate his 100th birthday in August; (HLS 203)

Michael R. Brooks, a patriotic Guardsman, loving father, caring husband and a person whose courage and infectious positive personality taught us all about living life to the fullest; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 204)

Dr. Phillip H. Osberg, of Orono, for the many years of research, dedication and outstanding contributions to the geology of Maine; (HLS 205)

Chad Cukierski, of Boy Scout Troop #103 in Castine, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 206)

Trisha Ripton, of Stearns High School in Millinocket, honored recipient of the Miss Basketball Award, presented by the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches; (HLS 207)

Josh Bernier, of Stearns High School, member of the Boys Varsity Basketball Team, chosen as an All-Star Honorable Mention for the Big East Basketball Class A Team; (HLS 208)

Dr. Gordon H. Barker, born in Millinocket and resident of Old Town. His commitment to educational reform as a distinguished teacher and educational administrator and active advocate of human rights has served state citizens in many capacities. He will be deeply missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 209)

C. Jack Reynolds, of Buxton, our respected colleague, who served as a member of the House of Representatives during the 101st Legislature. An avid sportsman and ex-Maine Guide, he provided a voice for conservation and sporting interests. Among his numerous contributions to the good of the community was the founding of the Reynolds Sports Center. He will be deeply missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 210)

Regina Breton, of Winslow, who has been named "The Maine Mother of the Year"; (HLS 211)

Cynthia O'Shea, principal of the Narragansett School in Gorham, distinguished recipient of a $25,000 National Educator Award for excellence in education from the Milken Family Foundation. This award is a tribute, not only to Ms. O'Shea, but to elementary education in Gorham; (HLS 212) the Archangel String Quartet, of Archangel Russia, Victor Antoniuk, Maria Latisheva, Julia Bossert and Oleg Klishev. We extend our congratulations on a very successful tour of Maine. This visit contributes to the long-established friendship fostered by the Archangel Committee of Greater Portland and the Portland Committee of Archangel. You honor us with your visit; (HLS 213)

Donald R. Brown, upon his retirement after serving 19 years as the Chief of the Durham Fire Department and for a career with the Department spanning 33 years. Among his numerous accomplishments have been the development of Durham's first formal mutual aid agreements with neighboring communities, the building of the new fire station, the purchase of two new trucks and the acquisition of needed equipment for the department; (HLS 214)

Belle Rush, of Millinocket, honored by the Millinocket Girl Scouts and Abnaki Council for 60 years of dedicated service to the Girl Scouts, which included the presentation of the "Woman of Distinction" Award; (HLS 215)

Steven Orlofsky, Director, and the members of the George Stevens Academy Jazz Band, the Class C State Champions in the Jazz Band Competition; (HLS 216)

the Eagle Lake Elementary Basketball Team, "The Lakers," and their coach James Dyer, who have been named the MSAD #27 Elementary District Basketball Champions with a record of 11-0; (HLS 217)

Jeff Drolet, a student at the Eagle Lake Elementary School and a member of the MSAD #27 Elementary Basketball Team, who broke the District's scoring record with 234 points; (HLS 218)

Dave Stanek, Andrea Little and Peter Webster, of York, in recognition of being named to the Maine Sunday Telegram's All-State Boys/Girls Basketball Teams; (HLS 219)

Polly Dudley, outreach worker for the Mid-Coast Human Resources Council, recipient of the Jefferson Award for her outstanding community service and her incredible, tireless efforts on behalf of the people of Knox County; (HLS 220)

Evelyn L. Cunningham, of Orono, beloved wife of George S. Cunningham, who will be sadly missed by family and many friends. Mrs. Cunningham was a talented woman who took an active role in civic and church affairs; she was also an avid chess player and had been a Maine delegate to the U.S. Chess Federation; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 221)

Kristine Fontaine, of Marshwood High School, honored recipient of the Robert E. Butler Award for athletic achievement and involvement in school and community; (HLS 222)

Robert W. Olson, of Eliot, honored recipient of the 1993 Fabion Drake Award in recognition of outstanding service to his community; (HLS 223)

Kristine Fontaine and Danny Young, of Marshwood, in recognition of being named to the Maine Sunday Telegram's All-State Boys/Girls Basketball Teams; (HLS 224)

the Lawrence High School Girls Basketball Team, and their coach, Bruce Cooper, winners of the 1993 State Class A Basketball Championship; (HLS 225)

Harry True, our distinguished colleague, who is the honored recipient of the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches 1993 Contributor Award. Representative True has a long history of dedicated involvement in the sport of basketball, including championship play as a college student and innumerable contributions to children's teams as coach and clinician. His personal giving of time and effort to the sport truly exemplifies the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 226)

the following students at Scarborough High School, the 1993 Academic Decathlon State Champions: Michael Milliken, Jeffrey Graffam, Kristin Davis, Stephanie Davis, Jeffrey Messer, Alison Bureau, Daniel Hall, Christopher Higgins, and Jeremy Boardman; and the coaches: Ellen Ross and Michael Richards; (HLS 227)

John Cordts, of Boy Scout Troop #125 in Poland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 228)

Claudia J. Ljunggren, for her 18 years of invaluable service helping the Vienna Fire Department; (HLS 229)

Edward H. Shively, of Raymond, widely known for his long and distinguished career in the field of electronics and as the founder of Shively Laboratories. He was also a caring and dedicated citizen who took a very active role in children's sports, school affairs and his church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 230)

Shawn Walsh, whose outstanding ability as coach of the University of Maine Ice Hockey Team has led the Maine Black Bears to a proud and thrilling victory in the NCAA 1993 Ice Hockey Championship. Coach Walsh's devoted efforts to building a strong team and cultivating school and community support contributed to the team's high performance and made the Black Bears the first Maine team to win a NCAA Division I title. We, the members of the Legislature, and the citizens of this State, wish to express our pride in your success and extend our congratulations on your ultimate coaching achievement; (HLS 231)

Douglas Jackson, of Hampden Academy, for his meritorious achievement on the Maine Educational Assessment Test. He was one of the 7 highest scoring students; (HLS 232)

Kelli Walton, of Presque Isle, chosen first runner-up in the Ms. American Petite Pageant, held in Orange Beach, Alabama; (HLS 233)

Martha Dow, of Presque Isle, exemplary student at Northern Maine Technical College, chosen by the Maine Technical College System Board of Trustees as the NMTC Student of the Year; (HLS 234)

Tyler Wood, of the Presque Isle Middle School Stage Band, who plays the trumpet and received an award for outstanding musicianship at the State Jazz Festival at Mount Desert Island; (HLS 235)

Chris Helstrom, of the Presque Isle Middle School Stage Band, who plays the alto saxophone and received an award for outstanding musicianship at the State Jazz Festival at Mount Desert Island; (HLS 236)

the members of the Presque Isle Middle School Stage Band, and their director Dan Schneider, who placed first in the State Jazz Festival held at Mount Desert Island; (HLS 237)

Jocelyne Rancourt, Volunteer Coordinator of the Auburn School Department, honored recipient of the State Board of Education's "Making the Grade" award for her outstanding effort to encourage parental and community involvement in the schools; (HLS 238)

Carrie Ives, a sophomore at Dexter Regional High School, who won the top award for outstanding musicianship in the trombone division at the Maine State Jazz Festival held at Mount Desert High School; (HLS 239)

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Mackay, of Fairfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, celebrated on February 6th; (HLS 240)

Gladys Ganiel, of Narraguagus High School, Harrington, winner of the Girls State Basketball Foul Shooting Contest, completing 49 of 50 free throws; (HLS 241)

Jennifer Pagels, an eighth-grader at Cherryfield Elementary School, who won the 1993 SAD 37 Spelling Bee; (HLS 242)

Angela Curtis, an eighth-grader at Cherryfield Elementary School, who was the runner-up in the 1993 SAD 37 Spelling Bee; (HLS 243)

Shawn Kilton, of Narraguagus High School, who received an academic achievement award from the University of Maine, recognizing his high standards of scholarship while pursuing a challenging course of study; (HLS 244)

Anna Molitor, of Narraguagus High School, who received an academic achievement award from the University of Maine, recognizing her high standards of scholarship while pursuing a challenging course of study; (HLS 245)

Lois Woodcock, Children's Services Caseworker at the Department of Human Services in Bangor, selected as the Caseworker of the Year for the North Atlantic Region by the Child Welfare League of America, recognizing her 30 years of dedicated service to abused and neglected children; (HLS 246)

the members and coaches of the Lewiston High School Ice Hockey Team, winners of the 1993 State Class A Ice Hockey Championship for the second consecutive year; (HLS 247)

Janel Ippolito, of Mountain Valley High School, winner of the 1993 State Class A Ski Championship in the giant slalom event and official Skimeister of the 1993 State Class A Ski Championship; (HLS 248)

Dusty Hackett, of Mountain Valley High School, who was named Outstanding Wrestler and who won in the 103-pound weight class at the 1993 State Class B Wrestling Championship; (HLS 249)

Eric Austin, of Mountain Valley High School, winner of the 1993 State Class B Wrestling Championship in the 125-pound weight class; (HLS 250)

Eric Cote, of Mountain Valley High School, winner of the 1993 State Class B Wrestling Championship in the 189-pound weight class; (HLS 251)

Jason Dolloff, of Mountain Valley High School, winner of the 1993 State Class B Wrestling Championship in the 275-pound weight class; (HLS 252)

Benoit "Benny" Bradley, recipient of the Sidney S. Anthony Award in February 1993 and the Maine Rural Water Association Award in 1991, recognizing his dedicated service as superintendent of the Rumford Water District in bringing clean and safe water to his district; (HLS 253)

Wesley Harl Adams, of Boy Scout Troop #866 in Windham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 254)

the Millinocket Parent Teacher Association, for their tremendous success in promoting bicycle safety in their community including organizing local business support and the Bike Safety Helmet Contest; (HLS 255)

Harry R. Wishart, of Hollis Center, who was a respected businessman, served in the Air Force during World War II and was a member of the Masons. He will be sadly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 256)

Vicki Mazerall, member of the Husson College Women's Basketball Team, who has been awarded 2nd Team All-American; (HLS 257)

Coach Mary "Kissy" Walker of the Husson College Women's Basketball Team, who has been named "MAIAW" Coach of the Year; (HLS 258)

Kristi Wildman, member of the Husson College Women's Basketball Team, who has been awarded Honorable Mention All-American; (HLS 259)

the students of Longfellow School, and their student council group, VOCAL (Voices of Children at Longfellow), for their caring contribution to the restoration of the monument of their namesake poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, in Portland, the poet's beloved "City by the Sea"; (HLS 260)

Dr. Zui Sun Tao, of Fort Kent, whose distinguished career included providing twenty years of health care services to the citizens of the St. John Valley; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 261)

Peter C. Jamerson, of Portland, actor, teacher, and broadcasting pioneer. He made his acting debut in 1939 with Lillian Gish in the original production of "Life with Father," and was a pioneer of live television in the 1950's in Washington DC. For 40 years he taught theatre to young people, believing always that "All the world's a stage"; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 262) the students and student council of the Cape Elizabeth Middle School for their generous and caring contribution to the restoration of the Henry Wadsworth Longfellow monument, in Portland, the poet's beloved "City by the Sea"; (HLS 263)

Philip W. Conkling, and The Island Institute, of Rockland and Portland, upon the Institute's 10th anniversary (1983-1993). As creator of the 325-mile Maine Island Trail, publisher of the monthly paper "Island News," and advocate for balanced coastal conservation and development, for a decade the Institute has been a voice for the diverse economies and communities of the treasured 3500 islands along the coast of Maine, our "Pine Tree State"; (HLS 264)

the Waterville Woman's Club, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary of providing invaluable service to the community; (HLS 265)

Yarrow L. Axford, of Milbridge, who has been selected for the 1993 DAR Good Citizen Award by the Hannah Weston Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution; (HLS 266)

Albert Lincoln Roberts Jr., of Groverville, born in Gorham, a self-employed woodsman and active sportsman. He will be sadly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 267)

Robert T. Gagne, of South Berwick, upon his retirement after 32 years of dedicated service in various law enforcement positions, including part-time police officer, deputy sheriff and humane officer; (HLS 268)

the Millinocket Youth Hockey Association's Black Squirt Team, champions at the recent Canadian Good-will Friendship Hockey Tournament and whose members are: Michael Rolfe, Jon Bowley, Marc Goody, Matt Pelletier, Justin Cummings, Steve Rolfe, Ryan O'Donnell, Matt Welch, Matt Barnes, Aaron Buzzell, Derek O'Clair, Jayson Morrison; and their coaches: Charles Welch, Harvey Bowley and Terry Barnes; (HLS 269)

the Millinocket Middle School Boys Basketball Team, which finished the season with a spectacular 18-0 record; (HLS 270)

the Millinocket students who competed at the Maine Music Educators Association Vocal Jazz Festival: Sterling Sheppard of Stearns High School, jazz choir outstanding male vocalist; Rachel Binder of Stearns High School, show choir outstanding female vocalist; Stearns High School Show Choir, second place;

Stearns Jazz Choir, second place; and Millinocket Middle School Show Choir, second place; (HLS 271)

Manira C. Daniels, of Millinocket, former teacher who was involved in social and church affairs. She will be sadly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 272)

Rose Cappello Robinson, of Millinocket Lake, beloved wife of Robert S. Robinson, Jr. An avid sportswoman and Maine Guide, Mrs. Robinson was well-known for her involvement in and numerous contributions to snowmobiling, the Special Olympics and the Boy Scouts of America. She will be deeply missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 273)

the employees of Boise Cascade, Rumford, and in extending our congratulations for 4,259,921 hours of work without a lost-time accident, setting a state and New England record in the industry; (HLS 274)

Charles O. Spencer, of Old Town, respected member of the community and dedicated citizen, who served as the Old Town city attorney for many years, and was active in professional, civic, fraternal and religious affairs. He will be deeply missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 275)

Lex Jones, a seventh grader at Boothbay Region Elementary School, who competed against 100 other students at the state geography bee held at Messalonskee High School to become the state geography bee champion; (HLS 276)

Cody M. McManus, of Boy Scout Troop #310 in Saco, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 277)

Melanie Hansen, senior at Thornton Academy, recipient of the Principal's Leadership Award sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals; (HLS 278)

the Madison Area Memorial High School Marching Band with their Band Director, Lester Tomlinson, which placed second in Division I of the 1992 Maine State Marching Band Competition; (HLS 279)

Malcolm Trot, of Clinton, who with his twin brother, Merle, has been selected for the 1993 Citizen of the Year Award by the Elks Club; (HLS 280)

Merle Trot, of Clinton, who with his twin brother, Malcolm, has been selected for the 1993 Citizen of the Year Award by the Elks Club; (HLS 281)

Dick Powell, outstanding chess coach of Deer Isle-Stonington High School, the seventh smallest public high school in Maine with an enrollment of 125, who has led the chess team to their extraordinary victories: State champs and 8th place among 76 teams in the national competition; (HLS 282)

Andrew Wendell, a junior at Deer Isle-Stonington High School and an outstanding chess player who placed 15th among 370 participants in the National Chess Tournament in Dallas and whose contribution to the team competition enabled them to place 8th in the nation; (HLS 283)

Christian Blastow, outstanding chess player from Deer Isle-Stonington High School, whose efforts in the National Chess Tournament in Dallas contributed to the 8th place win of their team, "The Mariners"; (HLS 284)

Trevor Harrington, outstanding chess player from Deer Isle-Stonington High School, whose efforts in the National Chess Tournament in Dallas contributed to the 8th place win of their team, "The Mariners"; (HLS 285)

Jeremy Rissi, outstanding chess player from Deer Isle-Stonington High School, whose efforts in the National Chess Tournament in Dallas contributed to the 8th place win of their team, "The Mariners"; (HLS 286)

Ryan Kunkel, outstanding chess player from Deer Isle-Stonington High School, whose efforts in the National Chess Tournament in Dallas contributed to the 8th place win of their team, "The Mariners"; (HLS 287)

Nate Grant, outstanding chess player from Deer Isle-Stonington High School, whose efforts in the National Chess Tournament in Dallas contributed to the 8th place win of their team, "The Mariners"; (HLS 288)

Dick Larrabee, outstanding chess player from Deer Isle-Stonington High School, whose efforts in the National Chess Tournaments in Dallas contributed to the 8th place win of their team, "The Mariners"; (HLS 289)

Dan Larrabee, outstanding chess player from Deer Isle-Stonington High School, whose efforts in the National Chess Tournament in Dallas contributed to the 8th place win of their team, "The Mariners"; (HLS 290)

Maurice and Dora King, of Orrington, and in extending our congratulations on the celebration of their 69th wedding anniversary and Mrs. King's birthday on February 6th and Mr. King's birthday on March 5th; (HLS 291)

Paul Chouinard, of Portland, on the occasion of his retirement as Problems Resolutions Officer for the Internal Revenue Service, a position which is the primary public contact point for the IRS and is the people's ombudsman. Mr. Chouinard has always kept the needs of the public foremost in his efforts and, consequently, has won the respect of his coworkers and professionals in the field. Perhaps more important is the example he has set by overcoming personal adversities that would have defeated a lesser man. His determination in life has been an inspiration to many; (HLS 292)

Garth McNally, of Katahdin High School, selected to the Class C-D East Boys All-Star Basketball Team; (HLS 293)

Kirsten Richardson, of Patten, 1992 graduate of Katahdin High School, selected as Maine's Cherry Blossom Princess for 1993; (HLS 294)

Tammy Greenlaw, of Katahdin High School, selected as Maine Academic All-State in Basketball 1992-1993; (HLS 295)

Kelly Stubbs, of Katahdin High School, selected to the Class C-D East Girls All-Star Basketball Team; (HLS 296)

the Husson College Women's Basketball Team, for an outstanding season (28-3), winning the District 5 NAIA Championship and participating in the final four NAIA Championship in Oregon. All team members are from Maine; (HLS 297) the Volunteer Lawyers Project, a project of the Maine Bar Foundation that has provided for 10 years pro bono legal services to countless Maine citizens. The Volunteer Lawyers Project, through its participating lawyers, staff and volunteers, delivers invaluable legal assistance to persons with low income in Maine. We, the Members of the Legislature, express our support and appreciation for the Volunteer Lawyers Project and those who continue to enable this worthwhile project; (HLS 298)

Saint Anne's Parish of Dexter, and in extending our best wishes as it celebrates its 100th anniversary. The first Mass was celebrated around 1845 in the home of a Catholic family and the first church was built in 1871. In 1893, Dexter was raised to the dignity of a Parish by the Diocese of Portland. The present church was built in 1901. We commend the church for its perseverance and in sustaining the spirit of Christ for so many years; (HLS 299)

William J. Vail, and in congratulating him on the occasion of his retirement from a long, distinguished career with the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife. Starting in 1968 as a district game warden assigned to the Daaquam area, he completed his career in 1993 as Commissioner. Bill will long be remembered for his wit, dedication and human relations skills; (HLS 300)

Perley F. Brown, of Gray, an individual who will long be remembered as a loving husband, father, grandfather and friend and known in the community for his active participation in fraternal, civic, church and social activities in the Gray area; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 301)

Neil A. Hapworth, of Winslow, respected member of the community with a long history of advocacy for the carpenter's union, including service as a representative of the international union's general president since 1980. Mr. Hapworth also operated a dairy farm and was a World War II veteran. He will be deeply missed by his family and many friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 302)

Alma E. Michaud, of Millinocket, beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, and a communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 303)

Villa "Ovila" Caron, of Millinocket, a Fourth Degree Knight of Columbus and member of Council No. 680 and communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 304)

Father Georges Plante, of St. Sebastian Parish in Madison, who is celebrating the 40th anniversary of his ordination to the Roman Catholic Priesthood on May 30, 1993; (HLS 305)

Richard C. Shaw, who has been named the 1992 National Potato Seed Grower of the Year by Frito-Lay, Incorporated. Richard, his wife Elizabeth Ann Shaw and sons Kendall and Douglas farm about 800 acres in the Fort Fairfield area; (HLS 306)

John W. Ballou, senior partner in the Bangor law firm of Mitchell and Stearns and former Bangor city mayor, who will long be remembered for his outstanding service to the City of Bangor and his active participation in professional and cultural organizations throughout the State. Mr. Ballou received recognition from the Maine Civil Liberties Union and the Bangor Management Club as an exemplary citizen and was honored with the Justice Louis Scolnik Award and the Chamber of Commerce Community Service Award; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 307)

Roger Wright, of Sidney, whose 40 years of dedicated service as a member of the town's volunteer fire department are greatly appreciated by the citizens of his community; (HLS 308)

Joyce McClure, vice-president for Institutional Advancement at Thomas College, who has been named Maine's Media Advocate of the Year by the United States Small Business Administration; (HLS 309)

Reginald S. Brown, beloved husband of Helen Mason Brown and a founder of Dielectric. Mr. Brown was a member of the Presumpscot Masonic Lodge and other fraternal organizations, and well-known for his active participation in the community of Raymond where he served as a selectman and was a member of the Raymond Fire Department; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 310)

Margaret R. Adams, of Millinocket, beloved mother and grandmother, who was a member and past president of the Francis Elliott Post No. 4154 VFW Auxiliary and a member of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 311)

Thomas J. Archibald, of Millinocket and Providence, Rhode Island, who served in the United States Navy before World War II and who later worked for the Federal Aviation Administration. His career spanned nearly 4 decades; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 312)

Stephen E. McAvoy, Jr., son of Stephen E. and Jesse Cameron McAvoy, Sr., and Police Chief for the Town of Ashland who, during his service in the United States Navy and as a law enforcement officer devoted his life to serving others. His helping hand of kindness will be missed by his family and many friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 313)

Benjamin David Frey, of New Gloucester, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 314)

Anthony Moore Dyer, a student at Livermore Falls Middle School, who has been named a United States National Award winner in mathematics by the United States Achievement Academy. This prestigious award is granted to the finest students for outstanding academic performance and responsible citizenship; (HLS 315)

Anthony Hinse, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 316)

Maxine Russakoff, of Skowhegan, who was recently elected President of the Business and Professional Women's Organization for 1993; (HLS 317)

Reza Jalali, of Portland, recipient of the third annual Amnesty International Human Rights Award. As a refugee from his homeland, a prisoner of conscience, former staffer for Portland's Human Resources Department and now Housing Director for Portland West, he has devoted a lifetime to advocating equality and dignity for all people; (HLS 318)

Scott Westfall, of West Brooksville, who while fishing with his father, Claude Westfall, landed the 1993 presidential salmon and in doing so wrote an unprecedented chapter in the history of the eighty-one year old tradition as the first father and son to catch the presidential salmon in consecutive seasons; (HLS 319)

the Italian Heritage Center, in Portland, as it celebrates 40 years of service to that community. The Italian Heritage Center was chartered in March of 1953; (HLS 320)

Keith W. Elliott, of Millinocket, longtime employee of the Great Northern Paper Company and respected member of the community who enjoyed membership in church and fraternal organizations. Mr. Elliott was a United States Army World War II veteran; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 321)

John Adam West, who has achieved the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 322)

Ellen Dutton, of Saco, recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award given by the Southern Maine Area Agency on Aging for her many years of community involvement and leadership. Ms. Dutton has been a key volunteer and leader at the Southern Maine Medical Center in Biddeford for many years and is an active member of several community service organizations; (HLS 323)

Angie Brochu, of Jay, on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (HLS 324)

Barry Emery, who was named Vienna's Firefighter of the Year for his hard work and dedication to the Vienna Fire Department; (HLS 325)

Lt. Warren Nelson, of the Millinocket Police Department, who has been named Maine's D.A.R.E. Officer of the Year in recognition of his dedication and involvement in the D.A.R.E. program; (HLS 326)

Andrew Bond, Heather Givens and Jana Montgomery, who have earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorians of the 1993 graduating class of Stearns High School; (HLS 327)

Daniel L. Haskell, Sr., of Hollis Center, respected citizen and local businessman who owned and operated lumber and truck leasing companies. Mr. Haskell was a World War II Navy veteran; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 328)

Rick Brault, head coach of the York High School Boys Basketball Team, who was named Coach of the Year in Western Maine by the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches; (HLS 329)

David Tiemann, of Morse High School in Bath, who has been awarded the Maine Council for the Social Studies Award for Excellence in Social Studies Education; (HLS 330)

Nandini Mukhopadhyay, of Brunswick Junior High School, whose outstanding spelling ability won her first place in the Maine Sunday Telegram State Spelling Bee Championship; (HLS 331)

Sarah Bicknell, captain of the Rangeley Lakes Regional School Class D State Champion girls basketball team, who won the Patricia Gallagher Award as Most Valuable Player of the 1993 Western Maine Basketball Tournament. Sarah was named an All Conference All-Star of the East/West Conference and a Western Maine Class C and Class D All-Star; (HLS 332)

Beth Morton, captain of the Rangeley Lakes Regional School Class D State Champion girls basketball team, who was named an All Conference All-Star of the East/West Conference; (HLS 333)

Pat Brewer, of the Rangeley Lakes Regional School, who was named the 1993 Class C Individual State Champion in alpine skiing; (HLS 334)

Jon Adkins, of the Rangeley Lakes Regional School, who was named the 1993 State Class C Individual Runner-up in alpine skiing; (HLS 335)

Heidi DeRaps, coach of the Rangeley Lakes Regional School Class D State Champion "Lady Lakers" basketball team who was named the Western Maine Class D Coach of the Year; (HLS 336)

Karen Spaulding, captain of the Rangeley Lakes Regional School Class D State Champion girls basketball team, who set the individual scoring record of 32 points in one game of the 1993 Western Maine Basketball Tournament. Karen scored her 1000th point as a junior and was named an All Conference All-Star of the East/West conference; (HLS 337)

Eric Buckingham, of Millinocket, recipient of the Millinocket Fin and Feathers 1993 Adrian Botsan Sportsman of the Year Award; (HLS 338)

Matt MacDonald, of Stearns High School, chosen as an Honorable Mention for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 339)

Dot and Harold Kelley, of Millinocket, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (HLS 340)

Scott Daniell, of Stearns High School, chosen as an Honorable Mention for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 341)

Jeremy Beaupain, of Stearns High School, chosen as an Honorable Mention for the Eastern All-Star Ice Hockey Team; (HLS 342)

Winona F. Michaud, a beloved family member and lifelong resident of Millinocket, who worked for many years at the Millinocket Community Hospital and for Great Northern Paper Company. Mrs. Michaud served in the United States Air Corps during World War II; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 343)

Florence Harnden, of Rangeley, who celebrated her 100th birthday on May 10, 1993; (HLS 344)

the citizens of Old Orchard Beach for their dedicated efforts and determination during the past 7 years towards the beautification and revitalization of the Old Orchard Beach downtown district; (HLS 345)

Jessica Cram, a senior at Leavitt Area High School who has been selected to receive the 1993 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association; (HLS 346)

Jennie Doiron, of Jay, an active participant in the affairs of her community who celebrated her 100th birthday on May 11, 1993. Mrs. Doiron is the mother of 11 children, 8 of whom served in the military during World War II; (HLS 347)

Corey Lavoie, of Boy Scout Troop #190 in Madawaska, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 348)

Philip F. O'Brien, of Portland, community activist, loving father and former president of the National Association of Letter Carriers. As cofounder and president of the Portland Lyric Theater, one of the oldest community theaters in Maine, he devoted a lifetime to sharing the joys of the performing arts with others; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 349) the Pastor, congregation and friends of the Manchester Community Church upon the momentous completion and dedication of this building addition; (HLS 350)

Shirlene H. Ladd, secretary at Penquis Valley High School, in appreciation of 25 years of commitment and dedication to the faculty and students of the school, upon her retirement; (HLS 351)

Shawn Sutton, of Boy Scout Troop #648 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 352)

Marti Stevens, of Cornville, who died May 9, 1993. Marti's enthusiasm for theater and teaching changed the lives of many in her community. The Cornville Players, Lakewood Theater, Crossroads Learning Center and the Somerset County Basic Skills program benefited from Marti's leadership; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 353)

Gordon Seekins, of Pittsfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 90th birthday, June 9, 1993. We also extend our best wishes and congratulations to Gordon and his wife,

Marian on the occasion of their 65th Wedding Anniversary, July 3, 1993; (HLS 354)

Ray Grover, beloved family member and respected citizen who, as a businessman for 42 years, made many contributions to his community and in 1982 earned the Fabyan Drake Award; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 355)

Anita and Charles Stickney, Jr., of Yarmouth, recipients of the Lifetime Achievement Award in Cumberland County given by the Southern Maine Area Agency on Aging for their lifetime commitment to community service and leadership; (HLS 356)

Bruce Churchill Kennett, of Portland, recipient of the Stephen Harvard Prize for Excellence in the Book Arts and cofounder and president of the Baxter Society. As a master student in calligraphy in Linz, Austria, and as a teacher of design principle at Westbrook College, photography at the University of Southern Maine, Gorham and of typography at the Center for Creative Imaging in Camden, he has continued and enriched the Maine tradition of excellence in the Printing Arts; (HLS 357)

Thomas Gallant, our respected colleague, who served as a member of the House of Representatives during the 92nd Legislature; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 358)

Charleston Pentecostal Church, of Charleston, and in extending our best wishes as it celebrates its 70th anniversary. We commend the church for its perseverance in sustaining the spirit of Christ for so many years; (HLS 359)

Pastor Ronald Libby, of Charleston, on the occasion of 30 years of dedicated service to the congregation of the Charleston Pentecostal Church; (HLS 360)

Vaughn W. and Maxine L. Smith, of Presque Isle, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 19, 1993; (HLS 361)

Wendell and Wilda Coffin, of Mapleton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 51st Wedding Anniversary, June 20, 1993; (HLS 362)

Arnold and Catherine Dow, of Mapleton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 23, 1993; (HLS 363)

Stanley and Ethel Johnson, of Mapleton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 21, 1993; (HLS 364)

Jeffrey W. Messer, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 365)

Scott Nichols, a student at Livermore Falls High School, who has been named a United States National Award-winner in mathematics by the United States Achievement Academy. This prestigious award is given to a student who demonstrates outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 366)

Amy Dianne Richard, a student at Livermore Falls High School, who has been named a United States

National Award winner in history and government by the United States Achievement Academy. This prestigious award is given to a student who demonstrates outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 367)

Irven L. and Muriel A. Smith, of Manchester, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, May 22, 1993; (HLS 368)

Mary Philbrook, who has been named the 1992 Presque Isle Citizen of the Year by the Presque Isle Citizen of the Year Committee, a mutual effort of the Presque Isle Chamber of Commerce and the Presque Isle Rotary, Elks and Kiwanis Clubs. Ms. Philbrook has received numerous distinctions in recent years for her tireless efforts and achievements on behalf of the Aroostook Band of Micmacs; (HLS 369)

Neil E. Michaud, recipient of the first Presque Isle Lifetime Achievement Award for his lifetime of community service and achievement as a business leader and active member of many civic organizations; (HLS 370)

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grover, of Eliot, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 371)

Karl C. M. Greiner, of Millinocket, beloved family member who attended the Millinocket Church of the Nazarene and who worked as publication editor for the Association of Retarded Citizens in North Berwick, New Jersey for 25 years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 372)

Tom Plourde, of Jay, whose many years of unselfish community contributions, benefiting the children of the tri-town area of Jay, Livermore and Livermore Falls, are greatly appreciated and remembered and whose actions will continue to contribute to the betterment of our communities for generations to come; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 373)

Jude Kelley, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Narraguagus High School; (HLS 374)

Yarrow Axford, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Narraguagus High School; (HLS 375)

Frank J. Brunette, former resident of Millinocket, beloved husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, who will be missed by his family and the members of this community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 376)

the top 10 students of the 1993 graduating class at Livermore Falls High School: Brian Berry; Karen Brackett; Karen Campbell; John Chretien; Allison Grondin; Marie Heikinen; Sarah Junkins, salutatorian; Melissa Loewe; Jessica Michel, valedictorian; and Joel Turcotte; (HLS 377)

the following members of the Stearns Math Team, Class A Eastern Maine Champions: Jeremy Bither, Heather Givens, Jason Howes, Andrew Barker, Jana Montgomery, Sarah Bond, Manisha Pai and Candace Warren and in extending congratulations to their team coach and advisor Norman Dubois for the many years of hard work and encouragement he has given to the team; (HLS 378)

Matthew Weaver, of Boy Scout Troop #428 in Pittsfield, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 379)

Daniel W. Lavigne, of Boy Scout Troop #22 in South Portland, for his outstanding academic, athletic and volunteer service and, specifically, for his outstanding achievement in attaining the rank of Eagle Scout; (HLS 380)

Dr. Dean Fisher, former Commissioner of Health and Human Services, who dedicated his life to public service to benefit Maine people. Dr. Fisher was a truly great leader and a wonderful, caring person who taught people to read, think and become masters over their own destinies. The people of this State will always be grateful for the dedicated service he provided to so many; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 381)

Jeremy Walsh, of Bangor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 382)

Nicholas Carlisle, of Bangor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 383)

Esther Waters, on the occasion of her retirement after 21 years of thoughtful, dedicated service as Somerset County Superior Court Clerk. Mrs. Waters served the people of Somerset County and this State with the patience, tact and wisdom that have endeared her to all; (HLS 384)

Paul Butler, of Bangor, captain of the Colby College men's basketball team, who was named the "White Mules" Most Valuable Player. Paul's illustrious basketball career includes being named the New England Small College Athletic Conference Player of the Year, the All-New England and Colby-Bates-Bowdoin Player of the Year. Paul was also elected All-ECAG and All-Maine and presented the Donald Lake Award by the Colby "C" Club for scholarship, leadership and athleticism; (HLS 385)

Mabel Maude Harding, of Benton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 105th birthday. She was born May 21, 1888 in Troy. She had one son, and has 7 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren and several great-great-grandchildren. She was presented with the Boston Post Cane for being the oldest resident in Benton; (HLS 386)

the Fourth Regiment Maine Volunteer Infantry Inc., a nonprofit educational unit, for their efforts to share Maine's proud civil war heritage with school children across the State. The Fourth Maine focuses on the life of a civil war soldier and recognizes the many women who participated and played major roles in the war; (HLS 387)

Heather Redding, a junior at Calais High School, who was recently elected as President of the State Student Council; (HLS 388)

Michael Christopher Morin, of Calais, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 389)

the Children's International Summer Villages, Inc. of Orono, and join in celebrating its 3rd "Doris Allen Village Day." We commend CISV for its outstanding efforts in giving children the opportunity to learn how similar they are to children from other parts of the world and how to live peaceably and amicably with one another; (HLS 390)

Justin E. Twitchell, of Boy Scout Troop #207 in Union, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 391)

Conrad "Pete" and Marion Steele, of Washington, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (HLS 392)

the top 10 students of the 1993 graduating class at Gray-New Gloucester High School: Melissa Carey; Jonathan Fellers; Brandy-Marie James; Amy D. Lapoint; Jessica A. Lewis; Scott Lucarelli; William A. Morrison, Jr.; Amy Small, valedictorian; Chad Thompson; and Scott Whittier, salutatorian; (HLS 393)

Thomas Churchill, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Washburn District High School; (HLS 394)

Charlene Dyer, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Washburn District High School; (HLS 395)

Tracy Mulholland, a senior at Calais High School, who has been named the recipient of the Jay Ramsdell Foundation Scholarship; (HLS 396)

Meagan Hall, of Machias, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Machias Memorial High School; (HLS 397)

Morgan Lord, of Machiasport, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Washington Academy; (HLS 398)

Joanna Cates, of Cutler, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Washington Academy; (HLS 399)

Cecil McDonald, of Jonesport, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Jonesport-Beals High School; (HLS 400)

Angela Merchant, of Jonesport, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Jonesport-Beals High School; (HLS 401) the students of the 8th grade class at Beech Hill School, of Otis, whose project in the Maine Energy Education Youth Awards Program was chosen the best project in the State in their age category. Their project also received national recognition at the National Energy Education Development Project, receiving an honorable mention. The project is sponsored by utility companies and the State and winners are chosen for their academic excellence and work in energy; (HLS 402)

Emily Manzo, an eighth grade student at Orono Junior High School, who placed first in the junior division of the Maine Music Teachers Association 5th

Pine Tree State Competition held at Colby College and who placed in the 9th Annual Arcady Youth Competition held at the University of Maine; (HLS 403)

Christy Kilton, of Machias, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Machias Memorial High School; (HLS 404)

Jean Ann Wilbur, a teacher at Madawaska Middle School, who has been named the 1993-1994 Member of the Year by the Greater Fort Kent Area Business and Professional Women's Club; (HLS 405) the following members of the Washburn Recycling Renegades, 8th graders from Washburn Elementary School: Michael Kelly, team leader; Angela Carter, Eric Brown, Tara Tilley, Courtney Flewelling, Jason Libby and their advisor Peggy H. Kelly, who have obtained the high honor of being National Finalists in the contest "A Pledge and a Promise," an environmental award sponsored by Anheuser-Busch Theme Park, Sea World/Busch Gardens given at the Epcot Center in Florida; (HLS 406)

the 5th grade Odyssey of the Mind team members from Weatherbee School in Hampden, who are Division I, first place winners in the Odyssey of the Mind state competition and who will participate in the Odyssey of the Mind World Finals in 1993; (HLS 407) the members of the 4th grade Odyssey of the Mind team from Weatherbee School in Hampden, Division I, 2nd place winners in the Odyssey of the Mind state competition; (HLS 408)

Katie Mathews, Anna Molitor and Erin Molitor, who have been chosen to represent Narraguagus High School at the Maine Scholars Days Program; (HLS 409)

the delegates from Narraguagus High School who have been chosen to represent their school at the forthcoming Dirigo Girls State for 1993 by virtue of their excellent scholarship, dedicated leadership and responsible citizenship: Yvonne Hayward, Amy Domrad, Katie Mathews, Jaime Beal and Pamela Worcester; (HLS 410)

Carla Ganiel, a senior at Narraguagus High School, who has been named the recipient of a Congressional Scholarship; (HLS 411)

the delegates from Narraguagus High School who have been chosen to represent their school at the forthcoming Boys State for 1993 by virtue of their excellent scholarship, dedicated leadership and responsible citizenship: Jonathan Grant, Robert Berry and Timothy Berry; (HLS 412)

Frederick Wood, on the occasion of his retirement as treasurer of the Town of Eddington, whose outstanding service to his community as a former selectman, school committee member and school district trustee is greatly appreciated. We extend our best wishes to Mr. Wood and his wife, Carolyn, for a happy retirement; (HLS 413)

Col. Andrew Demers, on the occasion of his retirement after 25 years of dedicated service and leadership for the people of Maine as a law enforcement official who, during his outstanding career, has served as Chief of the Maine State Police and earned recognition as a "Top-Cop"; (HLS 414)

Michael Mattias Schneider, who graduated first in the 1993 graduating class of Fort Fairfield High School; (HLS 415)

John P. Kozura, who graduated second in the 1993 graduating class of Fort Fairfield High School; (HLS 416)

Nicole Shaw, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 417)

Chad Bradbury, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 418)

Sarah Bradley, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 419)

Deedra Ireland, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 420)

Michael P. Lawlor, of Boy Scout Troop #603 in Augusta, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 421)

Gerry Villeneuve, of Boy Scout Troop #684 in Augusta, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 422)

the "Sister City" relationship of Greater Portland and Maine with Arkhangel'sk and North Russia and the marine heritage common to both, as we, the members of the 116th Maine Legislature, pause to inscribe this token of our heartfelt congratulations to the citizens of Arkhangel'sk on the June 26th and 27th celebration of the 300th Anniversary of the founding of the Russian Marine; (HLS 423)

Teacher Ogden Williams' class and the students of the Pond Cove Elementary School, in Cape Elizabeth, for their caring contribution to the restoration of the Henry Wadsworth Longfellow monument, in Portland, the poet's beloved "City By the Sea"; (HLS 424)

Seth H. Jordan, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Portland High School; (HLS 425)

David A. Polisner, who has been named Second Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 426)

Jennifer M. Gribbin, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Portland High School; (HLS 427)

David E. Novick, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 428)

Justin C. Konrad, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 429)

Valerie B. Green, who was named First Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 430)

the following members of the Percival P. Baxter School Odyssey of the Mind Team: Louis Porta, Erin Beirne, Julie Joy, Joseph Porta, Dov Markowitz, Christine Boucher and Kali Collins, of Portland, who won the Portland, regional and state competitions of the Odyssey of the Mind competitions and will now travel to the University of Maryland to compete in the international finals; (HLS 431)

Christopher W. Till, of Boy Scout Troop #301 in York, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 432)

Matthew G. Balentine, of Boy Scout Troop #301 in York, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 433)

Bill and Gaye Matthews, whose Gorham Connection Restaurant won top honors in the national "Lightsource" cooking contest sponsored by the National Restaurant Association; (HLS 434)

Dr. Leo Siegel, on the occasion of his 50th year of medical practice, including 11 years devoted to the Downeast community; (HLS 435)

Raelene F. Doody, of East Corinth, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Central High School in Corinth; (HLS 436)

Rebecca J. Miller, of Stetson, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Central High School in Corinth; (HLS 437)

James L. R. Murphy, of Boy Scout Troop #25 in Hermon, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 438)

Bryan Ward, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Searsport District High School; (HLS 439)

Kelley Fields, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Searsport District High School; (HLS 440)

Alden W. Folsom, Jr., of Monticello, who has been named First Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class of Houlton High School; (HLS 441)

Zachary T. Goodwin, of Houlton, who has been named Second Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class of Houlton High School; (HLS 442)

Andrea M. Turner, of Houlton, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Houlton High School; (HLS 443)

Steven T. Brockway, of Houlton, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Houlton High School; (HLS 444) the members of the Houlton High School Show Choir, winners of the State Championship in Division "B." The group presented a moving program of selections from the musical "Miss Saigon." This latest achievement continues what has been a rich tradition of musical accomplishments at Houlton High School; (HLS 445)

the students of the Brewer Middle School, whose project, "Energy and Conservation through the Years," in the Maine Energy Education Youth Award and Recognition Program was chosen the best project in the State in their age category. The program is sponsored by utility companies and the State to recognize academic excellence and the study of energy; (HLS 446)

Patrick Bennett, who was named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Caribou High School; (HLS 447)

Jonathan Meir, who was named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Caribou High School; (HLS 448)

Kristen F. Dalzell, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Traip Academy; (HLS 449)

Jennifer N. Smart, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Traip Academy; (HLS 450)

Shannon G. Dionne, who was named an Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class of Traip Academy; (HLS 451)

Christine M. Todd, who was named an Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class of Traip Academy; (HLS 452)

the top 10 students of the 1993 graduating class at Lincoln Academy: Andrew Lewis Chase, Karen Wyman, Amy Anne Gnidziejko, Karl Frederick Brunner, Dana Whitney Lyon, Erica Laurel Stewart, Mary Eleanor Herndon, Anne Catherine Krawic, Heather Meredith Bell and Margaret Hays Lemos; (HLS 453)

Christopher Kudlacz, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Limestone High School; (HLS 454)

James C. Morse, Jr., who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Limestone High School; (HLS 455)

the top 10 students of the 1993 graduating class at Wiscasset High School: Rachel J. Jones, Andrea M. Hall, Steve T. Lach, Joelle K. Leavitt, Joseph C. Marshall, Tony L. Overlock, Morgen Pfanstiel, Lynn A. Rommel, Angela M. Shea and Vanessa A. Soule; (HLS 456)

Lyn Quist, daughter of Wilmer and Debbie Quist of Limestone, recipient of the Girl Scout Silver Award; (HLS 457)

Barbara T. Strout, on the occasion of her retirement as a business teacher at Central High School, whose 35 years as an educator have earned her the respect and admiration of colleagues and students; (HLS 458)

Rodric Johnson, on the occasion of his retirement as a mathematics and science teacher, whose 32 years as an educator have earned him the respect and admiration of colleagues and students; (HLS 459)

Glynn Pratt, of Greene, whose enthusiasm and thoroughness in the performance of his work has led to his being named Game Warden of the Year for 1992 by the Bureau of Warden Service; (HLS 460)

Robert and Muriel Schulz, who were married on July 8, 1943 and who will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary surrounded by family and friends; (HLS 461)

John J. Fox, of South Portland, formerly of Portland, 105 years young, loving father, grandfather and great-grandfather of 16 great-grandchildren. A native of Ireland, he served in the elite Irish King's guard in England and funeral ceremony of King Edward VII, guard of the Tower of London, British Mint and Royal Burial Grounds at Windsor. He served in the U.S. Army Signal Corps in France and Germany in WWI. He was an avid listener of Notre Dame Football, communicant of Sacred Heart Church and strong supporter of Catholic Charities appeal. He devoted his life to helping the family members who remained in Ireland; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 462)

Mildred Martin, of Ellsworth, on the occasion of her 100th Birthday; (HLS 463)

Freeman H. Garniss, of Thomaston, beloved family member and highly respected music educator. Mr. Garniss was a charter member and past president of the Thomaston Historical Society, a member of several fraternal and community organizations and an active member of the St. John Baptist Parish; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 464) the 1993 Senior Seminar Class of Bangor High School. Through the tenacious efforts of the class, under the tutelage of their teacher, Mr. James Smith, a bill, L.D. 938 "An Act Regarding Visually Impaired Voters" was introduced. In a team effort, they testified in favor of the bill, gathered the data, elicited and gained the support of legislators and agencies, raised the funds to eliminate the fiscal impact and saw final passage by both houses of the legislature. Governor McKernan signed the bill on June 4, 1993; (HLS 465)

Jessica Carey, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class at Penquis Valley High School; (HLS 466)

Tara Hayes, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class at Penquis Valley High School; (HLS 467)

the top 10 students of the 1993 graduating class at Hermon High School: Jamie Lyn Andersen, Christine Marie Doyle, Thomas Michael Rogers, Karen Senter, Benjamin Wayne Spaulding, Heather Krishna Blier, Diatha Jeanne Glazier, Harold W. Russell, Jr., Nicole Lisa Soderberg and Tanya Marie Winchenbach; (HLS 468)

Helen Grant Blumenstock, of Old Town and Lower Shin Pond, a beloved family member and well-respected teacher at the Herbert Gray School in Old Town for 22 years, who will long be remembered as a dedicated teacher and a caring and dedicated citizen who took an active role in fraternal, church and social activities in her community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 469)

Gerald and Elva McLaughlin, of Princeton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 6, 1993; (HLS 470)

Mick Archer, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Lubec High School; (HLS 471)

Marcie Gallant, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Lubec High School; (HLS 472)

Opal Johnson, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Shead High School; (HLS 473)

Nicole Geaney, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Shead High School; (HLS 474)

Paul Farrington, of Boy Scout Troop #55 in East Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 475)

James Horowitz, president of Oxford Aviation Inc. and manager of the Oxford County Regional Airport, who has been named Maine's 1993 Small Business Person of the Year by the Small Business Administration for his accomplishments and contributions to the local community; (HLS 476)

Liza Joeanna Brown, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Foxcroft Academy; (HLS 477)

the Rebekah Assembly of Maine, for 100 years of service and dedication to the people of Maine through their belief in friendship, love and truth; (HLS 478)

Samantha Michelle Merrill, of Portland, who died on June 5, 1993. Samantha was the daughter of Philip Merrill and Linda Merrill-Deetjen. Samantha would have graduated from Deering High School in Portland on June 8th. She was a straight A student and editor of her high school literary magazine. She won academic awards for her math and writing achievements. Samantha was a tremendously gifted and thoughtful individual with an engaging, vivacious manner. Samantha will be sadly missed by her family and many friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 479)

Adam McLeod, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Kennebunk High School, S.A.D. #71; (HLS 480)

Robert MacDonald, who has been chosen Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Kennebunk High School, S.A.D. #71; (HLS 481)

Angie Ann Marquis, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Van Buren District Secondary School; (HLS 482)

Katie Ouellette, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Van Buren District Secondary School; (HLS 483)

the Bagaduce Music Lending Library and in extending our congratulations on its 10th anniversary of serving musicians in Maine and the rest of the world. The library's purpose is to collect, preserve and lend music compositions and provide music education programs. The library has been designated the curator of the State's music collection; (HLS 484)

Joseph R. DiNardo, beloved family member and respected citizen of Millinocket, who was a longtime employee of Great Northern Paper Co. and owner of DiNardo's Grocery Store; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 485)

Glenn Campbell, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Windham High School; (HLS 486)

Christopher Harris, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Windham High School; (HLS 487)

Jennifer Wright, of Orland, who has been named co-Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class at George Stevens Academy in Blue Hill; (HLS 488)

Zoe Robbins, of Sedgwick, who has been named co-Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class at George Stevens Academy in Blue Hill; (HLS 489)

Bryan Graham, of Sedgwick, who has been named co-Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class at George Stevens Academy in Blue Hill; (HLS 490)

Jennifer Letarte, of East Holden, who has been named co-Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class at George Stevens Academy in Blue Hill; (HLS 491)

Deborah Hawkes, of Bar Harbor, who has been named Maine's Legal Secretary of the Year by the Maine Association of Legal Secretaries; (HLS 492)

Maurice Canwell, member of Post #24, Rumford, Maine, Grand Chef de Gare du Maine of the Forty and Eight Society for 1992-1993 and Commander of the Second District American Legion for 1992-1993, a dedicated and capable leader who has served with distinction his town, state and nation. Maurice has always been ready to stand and defend his family, religion and country; (HLS 493)

Patrick Marshall King, of Boy Scout Troop #149 in Bridgton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 494)

James Michael Hoglund, who has been named to the Maine State Class B All-Star Hockey Team; (HLS 495)

James Ouellette, who has been named to the Maine State Class B All-Star Hockey Team; (HLS 496)

Christopher Scott Bowman, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Chevrus High School; (HLS 497)

Heatherton Gallagher, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Catherine McAuley High School; (HLS 498)

Tara Tetrault, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Catherine McAuley High School; (HLS 499)

Molly Jilek, who has been named Valedictorian of the Katahdin High School Class of 1993. Molly is the daughter of Paul and Marion Jilek of Sherman Mills; (HLS 500)

Tammy Greenlaw, who has been named Salutatorian of the Katahdin High School Class of 1993. Tammy is the daughter of Steve and Sidney Greenlaw of Sherman Mills; (HLS 501)

Holly Lilley, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Southern Aroostook Community High School. Holly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lilley of Smyrna Mills; (HLS 502)

Jennifer Fowler, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Southern Aroostook Community High School. Jennifer is the daughter of John and Mary Fowler of Island Falls; (HLS 503)

Sarah McQuarrie, who has been named Valedictorian of the Hodgdon High School Class of 1993; (HLS 504)

Alison Stairs, who has been named Salutatorian of the Hodgdon High School Class of 1993; (HLS 505)

Victoria Willette, for her achievements at Southern Aroostook Community High School. Victoria was listed in "Who's Who among American High School Students" and was a Hugh O'Brien Leadership Candidate, Dirigo Girls State Representative, All-State Drama Festival Awards recipient and one of the top ten graduates of her class. Victoria is the daughter of Rodney and Betty Willette of Island Falls; (HLS 506)

Coach Terry Duffy and the Katahdin Lady Cougars, whose victories have thrilled fans and students and earned berths in both the Eastern Maine basketball and softball tournaments, 1992-1993; (HLS 507)

Coach Tom Berry and the Southern Aroostook Lady Warriors for their return to the Eastern Maine Finals in basketball, 1992-1993; (HLS 508)

Coach Murray Putnam and the Southern Aroostook Warriors, for their baseball victories that led them once again to the Eastern Maine Tournament; (HLS 509)

Coach Timothy Toothaker and the Southern Aroostook Lady Warriors for their victories in softball that led them to the Eastern Maine semifinals in 1993; (HLS 510)

Craig Cyr, of Boy Scout Troop #190 in Madawaska, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 511)

the Ellsworth High School Girls Tennis Team, runner up in the Eastern Maine Class B final; (HLS 512)

Kaili Temple, an eighth-grade student at Weatherbee School in Hampden, who won first place in the Single Activity category for her age group in the

Maine Energy Education Program Youth Award and Recognition Program; (HLS 513)

Christopher Norman, of Boy Scout Troop #648 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 514)

Ethan Hedblom, of Boy Scout Troop #648 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 515)

Jennifer Gribbin, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Portland High School; (HLS 516)

Seth Jordan, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Portland High School; (HLS 517)

Justin C. Konrad, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 518)

David E. Novick, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 519)

Susan Thompson, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Hampden Academy; (HLS 520)

Amy Bright, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Hampden Academy; (HLS 521)

Darin Jellson, who has been named Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class of Hampden Academy; (HLS 522)

Robert Young, whose service and dedication to the Maine Correctional Center for 24 years exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 523)

Joleen Fowler, who has been named the First Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class at Southern Aroostook Community High School; (HLS 524)

Mark Scott and the Hodgdon Lady Hawks for a successful basketball year and a return to the Eastern Maine playoffs. The Hodgdon Lady Hawks have a great tourney history, having earned a tourney best for 11 straight years in past successes; (HLS 525)

Jennifer Hersey, who has been named Second Honor Essayist of the 1993 graduating class at Southern Aroostook Community High School; (HLS 526)

Jason Varney, a student at Traip Academy and winner of the pole vault event in the 1993 State Class C Championship; (HLS 527)

Traip Academy students Rebekah Fletcher, Katie Gentile, Jessie Lee and Kate Thompson, relay team winners in the 100-meter event of the 1993 State Class C Championship; (HLS 528)

Chad Duprey, a student at Traip Academy and winner of the 200-meter and 400-meter events in the 1993 State Class C Championship; (HLS 529)

Bret Taylor, of Kittery, a senior at Traip Academy, who is one of 3 Maine high school seniors to win a Peter A. McKernan Scholarship; (HLS 530)

Jill Alexandra Rathbun, of Girl Scout Troop #302 in Presque Isle, who has earned the Girl Scouts' highest honor, the Gold Award; (HLS 531)

the State Street Baptist Church, in Presque Isle, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of its 150th anniversary; (HLS 532)

Kim-Anne Perkins, Assistant Professor of Social Work at the University of Maine at Presque Isle, who has been selected as "Social Worker of the Year" by the board of directors of the Maine Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers; (HLS 533)

Jenny Grace Namur, of Girl Scout Troop #302 in Presque Isle, who has earned the Girl Scouts' highest honor, the Gold Award; (HLS 534)

Richard B. Gould, on the occasion of his retirement as a teacher at Mt. Blue High School after 55 years of dedication and commitment to students in the Farmington area, whose accomplishments as a ski coach, involvement with church work and the Boy Scouts are well-known throughout his community; (HLS 535)

Kimberly Rae Lane, who has been named Salutatorian of the Glenburn Elementary School; (HLS 536)

Lisa Marie Noonan, who has been named Salutatorian of the Glenburn Elementary School; (HLS 537)

John Alan Hall, Jr., who has been named Valedictorian of the Glenburn Elementary School; (HLS 538)

Joe and Lena Dube, of St. John, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 70th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 539)

Gene Letourneau, well-known and respected journalist, who has written about hunting, fishing and nature since 1946, on the occasion of his induction into the Maine Sports Hall of Fame and upon his receiving the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Community Service Award; (HLS 540)

the following members of the Telstar Middle School, S.A.D. #44 Odyssey of the Mind team: Caitlin Bass, Teri Chadbourne, Katie Chapman, Martha Grover, Michelle McInnis and Lauri Young and coaches Jean Bass and Donna Richards, who took 6th place in the 1993 World Competition in Maryland; (HLS 541)

Carrie A. Brown, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Gorham High School; (HLS 542)

Heidi L. Moore, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Gorham High School; (HLS 543)

Colonel Nathan L. Grass, on the occasion of his retirement from the Maine Army National Guard after 38 years of dedicated service; (HLS 544)

Kayla Baker, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Madawaska High School; (HLS 545)

Michelle Gendreau, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Madawaska High School; (HLS 546)

Coach Mike Trafton and the members of the Central High School Red Devils Baseball Team, Class C Eastern Maine Champions and State Runners-up for 1993. It is the team's first appearance in a state final; (HLS 547)

Megan Adams, an eighth grade student from Millinocket, who won first place in the 1992-93 National PTA Reflections cultural arts program for her poem about Alzheimer's disease entitled "Remember Me"; (HLS 548)

Electa A. Gallant, beloved family member and respected citizen of Millinocket who will long be remembered for her active participation in the community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 549)

Philip Curtis, in appreciation of 32 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon his retirement as a teacher at Thornton Academy; (HLS 550)

the Jonesport-Beals High School Royalettes softball team, winners of the 1993 State Class D Softball Championship for 2 consecutive years; (HLS 551)

Coach Kim London and the Katahdin High School Cougars, for capturing the 1993 State Class D Baseball Championship; (HLS 552)

Eileen Hunt, of Island Falls and Bowdoin College, a four-time NCAA Division III All-American in cross country and track and a GTE/COSIDA District I All-American of the Women's at-Large First Team, who graduated magna cum laude and was Bowdoin's top Rhodes Scholar candidate and who is the recipient of a Marshall Scholarship to Cambridge University in England. Eileen is the daughter of Patrick and Rose Ann Hunt of Island Falls; (HLS 553)

Daisy A. Reed, of Millinocket, devoted mother, grandmother and great-grandmother and respected citizen, who was known for her participation and membership in community organizations and who, as a 1918 graduate of the former Eastern Maine General Hospital, was honored as the oldest alumna of the Hospital School of Nursing in 1992; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 554)

David Christensen, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1993 graduating class of Brunswick High School; (HLS 555)

Karen Douglass, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1993 graduating class of Brunswick High School; (HLS 556)

Robert and Linda Webster, for a decade of devoted service to the people of Portland. Robert, who served as minister of Clark Memorial and Washington Avenue United Methodist churches and as a jail and hospital chaplain, has served also as a Habitat for Humanity volunteer and public education advisory committee member. Linda taught at Westbrook College Children's Center and was elected to the Portland School Committee where she served for 3 years; one year as chairperson; (HLS 557)

the members of the Windham High School Lady Eagles Softball Team, and their coaches, who won the 1993 Class B Western Maine Championship; (HLS 558)

Justin Darcy LeBlanc, a 1993 graduate of the University of Vermont who, as 2-year captain of the Men's Division I Gymnastics Team and a 1993 Academic All-American, received the Semans Award for his leadership, loyalty and service as a senior athlete and who received the Keith M. Miser Leadership Award for his outstanding efforts in community service and leadership; (HLS 559)

Lois Tenan, President of the American Legion Auxiliary, for her years of successful service to the veterans of Maine; (HLS 560)

Doris Baker, Commander of the American Legion, Department of Maine, for her years of professional, dedicated service to the veterans of Maine; (HLS 561)

Albert and Lois Harjula, of Thomaston, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, June 20, 1993; (HLS 562)

Lauren Balsley, of Girl Scout Troop #485 in Dexter, who has earned the Girl Scouts' Silver Award; (HLS 563)

Wendy Fern, of Girl Scout Troop #485 in Dexter, who has earned the Girl Scouts' Silver Award; (HLS 564)

Alyson Hitchcock, of Girl Scout Troop #485 in Dexter, who has earned the Girl Scouts' Silver Award; (HLS 565)

Matthew Robert Randall, of Boy Scout Troop #633 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 566)

Morrison J. and Mary E. Cumming, of Easton, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, August 25, 1993; (HLS 567)

Gerald R. Durgin, Athletic Director and head basketball coach at Fryeburg Academy, for his distinguished service and unflinching loyalty, enthusiasm and dedication to the young people of Maine and especially those at Fryeburg Academy; (HLS 568)

Harris and Vivian Porter, of Island Falls and Zephyr Hills, Florida, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 13, 1993; (HLS 569)

Joseph Kreisler, recipient of the first annual Preble Street Resource Center Impact Award in appreciation of his invaluable role in establishing the resource center, his unflinching commitment to assisting homeless people and his dedication to advancing the social work profession; (HLS 570)

the Reverend Elizabeth Morris, an ordained minister with the United Church of Christ, who served as the Protestant chaplain at the University of Maine and as minister at the Maine Christian Association's Wilson Center. Reverend Morris was well-known for her involvement in interfaith activities and for her gentle manner; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 571)

Clayton LaVerdiere, respected Central Maine Morning Sentinel columnist, who is well-known for his "Around the Town" column and as a historian for the Waterville community, upon receiving the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Community Service Award; (HLS 572)

the members and coaches of Deering High School's 1993 Class A State Champion Baseball Team, including the following: Nicholas Caiazzo, Matthew Webb, Christopher Portas, Tracey Gooding, Matthew Camire, Ian Gibb, John Russo, Royce Watson, Jr., Rick Rand, Robert Burrill, Gene Caiazzo, Patrick Cohan, Ben Redstone, John Blomquist, Coach Mort Soule, Coach Peter Eskilson and Coach Brian Smith; (HLS 573)

Mr. and Mrs. Earle W. York, Jr., of Millinocket, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 574)

Gerald Talbot, of Portland, who received a community service award and who was recognized for a lifetime of devotion to social issues at the 8th annual Soweto Day Dinner sponsored by the Maine Project on South Africa; (HLS 575)

Harlan Baker, of Portland, who received a community service award at the 8th annual Soweto Day Dinner sponsored by the Maine Project on South Africa; (HLS 576)

Neville Knowles, who received a community service award at the 8th annual Soweto Day Dinner sponsored by the Maine Project on South Africa; (HLS 577) the Honorable Herbert C. Adams, of Portland, who received a community service award at the 8th annual Soweto Day Dinner sponsored by the Maine Project on South Africa; (HLS 578)

Ivan Suzman, who received a community service award at the 8th annual Soweto Day Dinner sponsored by the Maine Project on South Africa; (HLS 579)

George Neavoll, who received a media appreciation award at the 8th annual Soweto Day Dinner sponsored by the Maine Project on South Africa; (HLS 580)

Earl McCann, who received a media appreciation award at the 8th annual Soweto Day Dinner sponsored by the Maine Project on South Africa; (HLS 581)

Josette Huntres, of Limestone, who has been chosen Miss Maine 1993; (HLS 582)

Jennifer Lyn Hunt, of Rumford, who will represent Maine in the Junior Miss National Teen-ager Pageant in Nashville, Tennessee, in August. Jennifer received perfect scores on scholastic achievement, leadership, poise and personality, community service and appearance from all 5 judges in a statewide pageant where she captured the Miss Maine Junior National title. Jennifer was also voted Miss Photogenic and was 2nd runner-up in the talent competition; (HLS 583)

Alfred Robinson, Jr., on the occasion of his retirement after 35 years of dedicated service to the Dover-Foxcroft Fire Department, including service as Fire Chief; (HLS 584)

A. Steward Bush, after 37 years of dedicated service, on the occasion of his retirement as Assistant Fire Chief of the Dover-Foxcroft Fire Department; (HLS 585)

James Fabian, after 44 years of dedicated service, on the occasion of his retirement as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Dover-Foxcroft Fire Department; (HLS 586)

Douglas Roberts, on the occasion of his retirement from the Dover-Foxcroft Fire Department after 21 years of dedicated service; (HLS 587)

Scott Marshall, on the occasion of his retirement from the Dover-Foxcroft Fire Department after 14 years of dedicated service; (HLS 588)

William R. Sargent III, of Boy Scout Troop #177 in Washburn, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 589)

Leon Rossignol, on the occasion of his 98th birthday on July 6, 1993. Mr. Rossignol has been married 73 years and has 15 children, 58 grandchildren and 135 great-grandchildren; (HLS 590)

Robert and Norma Dinsmore, of Easton, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 31, 1993; (HLS 591)

Roy Thomas, of Houlton, on the occasion of his 100th birthday on March 12, 1993. Mr. Thomas is well-known for his involvement in soil and water conservation, for the agricultural courses that he taught at the University of Maine and for his successful efforts in introducing agricultural courses to the high school curriculum. Mr. Thomas, who was recently featured on the "Today" show, remains active and enjoys joining his friends at the Elm Tree Diner in Houlton; (HLS 592)

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nichols, Jr., of Cherryfield, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 19, 1993; (HLS 593)

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradbury, of Milbridge, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on May 8, 1993; (HLS 594)

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Watson, of Milbridge, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on May 1, 1993; (HLS 595)

Philip L. Bartlett II, a junior at Gorham High School, who won first place in the Northeast Regional Catholic Forensic League Debating Competition and placed among the top third of the high school debaters participating in the National Catholic Forensic Competition in Boca Raton, Florida; (HLS 596)

Reginald E. Boynton, beloved family member and respected citizen of Millinocket, who was an employee of Great Northern Paper Company and a member of the Millinocket Baptist Church. Mr. Boynton was also a United States Army veteran of World War II; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 597)

Janette M. Landry, of Millinocket, beloved family member and respected citizen, who will be missed by the members of this community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 598)

Dana Lougee, on the occasion of his retirement from the Presque Isle School District after 30 years as a U.S. History and Government teacher. Mr. Lougee has also devoted many years of service to the city council, including terms as the chair of the council; (HLS 599)

Helen Perkins, of Brooksville, on the occasion of her 100th birthday on July 10, 1993; (HLS 600)

the citizens of Long Island, upon their becoming the 490th community in Maine and the newest town in the United States of America on July 1, 1993. A pioneer settlement in Casco Bay and one of the 14 remaining year-round island communities along the coast of Maine, Long Island continues the tradition of self-government, pride and independence that is the heritage of our nation and of our beloved "Pine Tree State"; (HLS 601)

the National Honor Society of Washington Academy, East Machias, Maine, for their caring contribution to the restoration and preservation of the Longfellow Monument in Portland, the poet's beloved "City Seated by the Sea"; (HLS 602)

the Advent Christian Church in Port Clyde, as it celebrates its 100th anniversary; (HLS 603)

David Adjutant, who has faithfully served as the County Administrator for York County for the past 13 years and who will resign from that position on June 30th of this year to pursue other interests. His valued presence, attention to detail, commitment to the best interests of county residents and sense of integrity will be long remembered and sorely missed; (HLS 604)

Steve Michaud, of Presque Isle, who earned a gold medal at the Special Olympics state competition held at Orono and who placed fourth in another event; (HLS 605)

Charles W. Collins, Jr., for 20 years of meritorious service to the Town of Georgetown, including 12 years as a selectman during a time of great change in local government, and for his leadership in making Georgetown a voice in regional affairs; (HLS 606)

Eric Pierce, Scooter Gleason, Nathan Ellis and Andrew Ketterer, members of the Cadet Track Club that placed first in the 1992 Maine T.A.C. Junior Olympic Track and Field Championship in the 400-meter relay event; (HLS 607)

Camille L. Labbe, of Fort Kent, who served his country during World War II and later became well-known as a community and state leader, having served as a member of the 88th, 89th and 90th Legislatures. Mr. Labbe was a member of the St. Louis Parish and was active in several fraternal organizations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 608)

Robert E. Baldacci, of Bangor, successful restaurateur, outstanding community leader and devoted member of the Democratic Party who will long be remembered for his devotion to family and commitment to public service; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 609)

Jackie Lambert, and in extending best wishes on becoming an American citizen; (HLS 610)

Ingrid Plourde, and in extending best wishes on becoming an American citizen; (HLS 611)

Jane Ho, and in extending best wishes on becoming an American citizen; (HLS 612)

Jeannette Pelkey, and in extending best wishes on becoming an American citizen; (HLS 613)

Che T Ho, and in extending best wishes on becoming an American citizen; (HLS 614)

Lise Collins, and in extending best wishes on becoming an American citizen; (HLS 615) the following members of Maine's 4.5 women's tennis team, who won the 1992 New England Tennis Championship and participated in the 1992 national championship held in Arizona: Carol Andrews, Nancy Beebe, Debbie Crowley, Lisa Gilbride, Mary Noyes, Sharon Tanerillo, Mary Buxton, Beverly Daggett, Kelly Howe, Cyncee Shuman and Caroline Towne. This is the first time that a Maine 4.5 women's team has participated in national competition; (HLS 616)

Father George Goudreau, of Rumford, upon his retirement after 44 years as a Priest of the Diocese of Maine. Father Goudreau's assignments included the St. Bernard's Parish in Rockland, St. Gabriel's Parish in Winterport and the Sacred Heart Parish in Waterville where, under his able leadership, the parish has developed a deep commitment to assisting the poor and less fortunate, having operated a soup kitchen for over 13 years. The people of Rumford and throughout the State are better off because Father George Goudreau walked our way; (HLS 617)

Ryan Larrabee, of Boy Scout Troop #100 in Dover-Foxcroft, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 618)

Ryan Larrabee, of Boy Scout Troop #100 in Dover-Foxcroft, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 619)

Raymond Mathew Bean, of Boy Scout Troop #648 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 620)

Bruce D. Bean, of Brunswick, and in congratulating him on receiving the Wood Badge Beading, an award given to an adult in scouting who has completed advance adult leadership training; (HLS 621)

Joey Reynolds, of Boy Scout Troop #313 in Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 622)

Dorothy Durgin, of Gorham, who received the New England United Methodist Award for Excellence in Social Justice Actions. The award recognizes her work in AIDS education and advocacy; (HLS 623)

Blanche M. Jandreau, of Millinocket, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and respected citizen, who will be missed by the members of this community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 624)

Bernard J. Rush, beloved family member and respected citizen of Millinocket, who served in the United States Army during World War II, was a life member of the Francis E. Elliott Post VFW and a member of the Millinocket Lodge of Elks No. 1521; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 625)

Dorothy Agnes Brown, of Millinocket and Kittery, a teacher for many years who was involved in social and church affairs. She will be sadly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 626)

Amanda Leighton, a Junior Girl Scout from Medway, who has been awarded the Life Saving Medal of Honor for her clear thinking, courage and alert reactions after her family was involved in a highway accident; (HLS 627)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bolster, of Easton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 8, 1993; (HLS 628)

Phillip W. St. Peter, well-known resident of Millinocket, who was a longtime employee of Great Northern Paper Company and a member of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers Union Local No. 69. Mr. St. Peter was also a 4th degree member of St. Martin of Tours Council No. 680 Knights of Columbus of Millinocket and a veteran of the U.S. Army serving during World War II; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 629)

William F. Elliott, a well-known resident of Millinocket, who was a longtime employee of the Great Northern Paper Company and an active member of the Millinocket Baptist Church, the church choir, the Gideons and the singing group "The Has Beens." Mr. Elliott was a former member of the Royal Canadian Air Force and flew over 67 missions during the Battle of Britain; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 630)

Chad E. Ayotte, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 631)

Todd J. Ayotte, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 632)

Paul L. Bouchard, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 633)

Philip J. Doucette, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 634)

Jonathan J. Ezzy, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 635)

the students from Germany and Luxembourg who are participating in the "Study US 1993" program; (HLS 636)

Sherwood J. Tuell, a well-known resident of Orono, who was a longtime employee of the James W. Sewall Company and a member of the National Society of Land Surveyors, the Orono-Old Town Kiwanis, a former member of the Orono Town Council and the Board of Directors of the Orono-Old Town YMCA; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 637)

Billie (Klimas) Modery, beloved wife of Robert Modery of Orono, who was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary of Orono, the VFW Auxiliary of Old Town and the DAV Auxiliary John F. Kennedy Post. Mrs. Modery will long be remembered for her hobby of porcelain doll making and teddy bear creations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 638)

Jonathan Thayer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. Jonathan is a member of Boy Scout Troop #270 in Frenchville and is the first member of his troop from Sinclair to achieve this honor; (HLS 639)

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bickford, of Cherryfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 10, 1993; (HLS 640)

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tufts, of Hancock, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 14, 1993; (HLS 641)

Lt. William R. Ferracci, Sr., on the occasion of his retirement from the Androscoggin County Corrections Division, whose dedicated service as the Assistant Jail Administrator and chief training officer at the Androscoggin County Jail is appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 642)

Knute M. Kilponen, a resident at the Maine Veterans Home in Augusta, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 80th birthday, August 6, 1993; (HLS 643)

Archie and Ann Pelkey, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 644)

Hampton and Stella McBreaity, of Woodland, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 7, 1993; (HLS 645)

Joe Gilbert, of Augusta, a superb marksman whose impressive list of state and national titles include being named the International Bench Shooter for 4 consecutive years, the 1992 Varmint Hunter national champion and the top varmint hunter and shooter of the year for Maine during 1992; (HLS 646)

Rowena K. (Oakes) Voisine, of Millinocket, who was a member of the St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church, the Donald V. Henry Post American Legion Auxiliary and the Francis E. Elliott Post VFW Auxiliary. Mrs. Voisine was well-known for her volunteer work at the Katahdin Friends School in East Millinocket for many years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 647)

Nina Florence Lyons, a well-known and respected member of Millinocket, who was a member of the St. Andrews Episcopal Church and the Ladies Guild, and the American Association of Retired Persons; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 648)

Albert Frederickson, of Tenants Harbor, on the occasion of his 100th Birthday on August 31, 1993; (HLS 649)

Robert M. Oxton, Fire Chief of the Camden Fire Department for 25 years, on the occasion of his retirement after having served 32 years as a dedicated member of the department; (HLS 650)

Paul Fitzpatrick, beloved family member and respected citizen of Millinocket, who was a great lover of athletics, a communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church and a member of the Millinocket Lodge of the B.P.O.E. and the Donald V. Henry Post American Legion. Mr. Fitzpatrick also served in the United States Navy; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 651)

Donald L. Flanagan, beloved family member and respected citizen of Millinocket, who was an avid outdoorsman, a long-time employee of Great Northern Paper Company, a member of the Electrical Workers Union and a member of Francis E. Elliott Post No. 4154 VFW. Mr. Flanagan was also a United States Navy veteran of World War II; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 652)

Edwin and Gloria Kelley, of Vienna, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 22, 1993; (HLS 653)

Barbara O'Brien Stitham, of Mars Hill, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, September 2, 1993; (HLS 654)

Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Fickett, of Milbridge, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on July 5, 1993; (HLS 655)

Roland L. Ouellette, of Eddington, a long-time employee of the University of Maine and a veteran of the U.S. Army National Guard, having served for 24 years. Mr. Ouellette was a member of several fraternal organizations, including the Ralph J. Pollard Lodge No. 217 AF & AM of Orrington, the Anah Temple Shrine and the Eagles Club of Brewer; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 656)

Edmund J. Legere, Jr., formerly of Millinocket and Westbrook, a beloved family member who will be sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 657)

John C. Barker, of Millinocket, a long-time employee of the Great Northern Paper Company and a member of the Plumbers and Pipefitters Union Local No. 485. Mr. Barker was a decorated veteran of the U.S. Army, having received medals for heroism and gallantry while serving in the Vietnam War; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 658)

Thaddeus and Polly Maxwell, of St. George, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 11, 1993; (HLS 659)

Frank and Dorothy Carsley, of Owls Head, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 70th Wedding Anniversary, August 18, 1993; (HLS 660)

Erving W. and Ruth Elizabeth Morse, of South Berwick, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 24, 1993; (HLS 661)

Shead Memorial High School, in appreciation of its efforts on behalf of the V.F.W. Voice of Democracy Program sponsored by the Passamaquoddy Memorial V.F.W. Post 11299; (HLS 662)

Marla DeWitt, in appreciation of her efforts for the V.F.W. aims and ideals expressed in the patriotic programs sponsored by the Passamaquoddy Memorial V.F.W. Post 11299; (HLS 663)

Nicholas Gammertsfelder, in appreciation of his efforts on behalf of the V.F.W. Voice of Democracy Program sponsored by the Passamaquoddy Memorial V.F.W. Post 11299; (HLS 664)

Robert D. Ashby, of Fort Fairfield, and in extending our congratulations on his retirement after 30 years of dedication and attention to customer service. Mr. Ashby's career as a farm service advisor included examining electrical equipment, and ventilation and storage structures. He taught and demonstrated basic principles of electricity and administered the Electrification Scholarship Contest; (HLS 665)

John York, who has been named Trooper of the Year, by the Maine State Police; (HLS 666)

Merle Frederick Lamoreau and Jean Avis Dodge Lamoreau, of Easton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 9, 1993; (HLS 667)

Odile Plourde, of Millinocket, a beloved family member who will be sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 668)

Andrew L. Miner, of Boy Scout Troop #603 in Augusta, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 669)

Maxim Squiers, of Greenville, who is retiring as Chief of Police after 17 years of dedicated and loyal service to the citizens of Greenville; (HLS 670)

Ronald Faucher, who has been named the Conservationist of the Year by the Department of Environmental Protection in appreciation of his efforts to protect Sebago Lake's watershed; (HLS 671)

Theodule "Ted" Morneault, of Millinocket, a longtime employee of Great Northern Paper Company and a self-employed carpenter. Mr. Morneault was a member of the St. Martin of Tours Council No. 680 Knights of Columbus and a life member of U.P.I.U. Local No. 37; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 672)

Catherine E. Clark, a former district nurse for the Town of Millinocket and a registered nurse at the Millinocket General Hospital; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 673)

Eldora Eaton Higgins, a former member and secretary of the Business and Professional Woman's Association of Millinocket and a member of Onawa Chapter No. 130 OES, the Natoma Rebekah Lodge and the Millinocket Baptist Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 674)

Matthew Gillam, of Boy Scout Troop #27 in Belfast, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 675)

Bill Clarke, on the occasion of his retirement after serving an unprecedented 19 consecutive terms as the City Clerk of Westbrook. Mr. Clarke, a former dairy farmer and milkman, served several years as a city alderman before becoming the city clerk in 1955; (HLS 676)

Ken and Hattie Piper, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on October 16, 1993; (HLS 677)

Craig Cyr, of Madawaska, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 678)

Warren C. Kessler, of Readfield, recipient of the 1993 Outstanding Citizen Award presented by Le Club Calumet; (HLS 679)

Kris LaFontaine, of Boy Scout Troop #179 in Ashland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 680)

Michael D. B. Smith, whose red and white holstein, KASA-RED of Wauregan Farms, won first place in the 1993 Maine State Holstein Show at the Windsor Fair; (HLS 681)

Carroll Kent Lane, of Wayne, whose successful high school career at Maranacook Community School included participation in cross-country running, track, cross-country skiing, selection as a Boys' State delegate and ranking academically among the top ten in his graduating class, is wished much success in his pursuits at Williams College and beyond; (HLS 682)

the North American Vexillological Association, and welcoming them to the State of Maine. The Association will be holding its 27th annual meeting in Portland from October 8 - 11, 1993; (HLS 683)

Albert P. Ross, retired United States Navy Commander, beloved husband of Josephine Ross and a distinguished resident of Hampden, who was instrumental in having April 9th designated as Former Prisoner of War Recognition Day. Mr. Ross, a former Japanese Prisoner of War, retired as a commander from the United States Navy in 1958. Mr. Ross worked as a stockbroker upon his naval retirement and was a parishioner of St. Mary's Parish Community. He remained affiliated with several military organizations and was a prominent member of the Kiwanis organization; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 684)

Michael J. Reidy, Sr., of Wiscasset, whose 10 1/2 years of dedicated service and leadership to the people and the Town of Wiscasset as the Chief of Police and as a prime mover behind the establishment of the DARE Program in the Wiscasset schools is greatly appreciated; (HLS 685)

the Windham Public Library for many years of outstanding library service to the citizens of Windham and join in dedicating its new addition to all the volunteers in the Town of Windham who contributed time, talent and materials to make the addition to the library a reality; (HLS 686)

Robert and Louise Berry, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 17, 1993. Mr. and Mrs. Berry are actively involved in church and social organizations; (HLS 687)

Dr. Edward A. Boynton, Sr., of Millinocket, husband, father, grandfather, U.S. Army Veteran and dedicated educator, who taught at Brunswick High School and the University of Maine at Fort Kent. He also taught in the Mars Hill School System and the Perth-Andover School System in New Brunswick, Canada, retiring in 1978. He later served as the librarian at the Millinocket Middle School during 1990 and 1991; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 688)

Edward F. Freneau, of Kittery, who has been named Citizen of the Year by the Town of Kittery; (HLS 689)

Sarah Katherine Lehto, a sixth-grade student at the Millinocket Middle School, whose death has shocked and saddened classmates, friends and family. Sarah was a member of the school band and chorus and also a member of the Junior Girl Scouts; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 690)

Eleanor L. Chamberlain, of Brownville, a well-known and respected member of her community, having been an active member of the Brownville Community Church, the Aldworth Chapter No. 39, the Rainbow Advisory Board, the Orion Rebekahs No. 16, the Milo Garden Club, the Katahdin Senior Citizens and the Brownville Extension. Mrs. Chamberlain also served as a volunteer in the Brownville Elementary School Library; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 691)

Jennifer Robb, of Calais, who tied for first place in the Maine Interscholastic Girls Golf Championship at the J.W. Parks Golf Club in Pittsfield; (HLS 692)

Julia M. Folsom, of Millinocket, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother and respected citizen, who was involved in social and church affairs and who will be sadly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 693)

Erma C. McLain, of Millinocket, a beloved family member who will be sadly missed by her family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 694)

Willard and Pearline Walker, of Canaan, who have been named Outstanding Woodlot Owners of the Year for 1993 by the Somerset County Soil and Water Conservation District; (HLS 695)

Elroy and Connie Chartrand, of Norridgewock, and their sons Steve and Eric, who have been named Conservation Farmers of the Year for 1993 by the

Somerset County Soil and Water Conservation District; (HLS 696)

Leo A. Roy, who has been elected Governor of the Club Richelieu for the region Louis-Israel Martel, which encompasses Maine, New Hampshire and parts of Massachusetts. The Richelieu International is the only French-speaking service club in the world. The club provides funding for research in finding a cure for children afflicted with leukemia and other childhood diseases; (HLS 697)

J. Walter Snipe, of Phippsburg Center, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 80th birthday, October 30, 1993. Mr. Snipe has received an award for "Outstanding Contributions in Country Music" through his dedication in playing for audiences at nursing and senior citizens homes, schools, festivals and churches; (HLS 698)

the Windham Fire/Rescue Department, which dedicated the newly built East Windham Fire Station on October 9, 1993 to the volunteers of the Town of Windham who contributed their time, talent and materials to the construction. The new fire station serves East Windham and the Town of Windham as a whole; (HLS 699)

George Hanley, of Medway, who was named "Maine's Middle School Educator of the Year" by the Maine Association for Middle Level Education; (HLS 700)

Robert "Bobby" Patrick Duffy, son of John and Lorraine Duffy, Sr., whose ready smile, helping hand, consideration and kind manner will be remembered by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 701)

Aaron Naaman Stinson, of Wilton and Boy Scout Troop #594 in Farmington, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 702)

Dolly L. and Walter M. Reed, Jr., of Fort Fairfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 31, 1993; (HLS 703)

Frank C. Friel, on the occasion of his retirement, whose 21 years of commitment to public safety and service as Police Chief of the Town of Millinocket have contributed to the well-being of the citizens of Maine; (HLS 704)

Peter Y. Deschenes, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 705)

Ronald "Ron" Winfield Cross, of East Winthrop, whose death has shocked and saddened family, friends and colleagues. Ron, who was well known as a sculptor throughout the state and nation, also taught a design class at the University of Maine in Augusta, worked with students in sculpture at the university and at Unity College, and was commissioned for several "percent for art" projects at schools throughout the state; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 706)

Jason M. Gasper, of Boy Scout Troop #622 in Manchester, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 707) the Manchester Community Church and in extending best wishes to its pastor and congregation upon the celebration of the church's 160 years of worship and prominence in the Manchester community; (HLS 708) the Honorable Richard J. Dumont, of Augusta, a member of the One Hundred Second Legislature, recipient of the Medal of Honor presented by Le Club Calumet; (HLS 709)

Lawrence and Phyllis Rowe, of Greenville, on their 60th Wedding Anniversary and in extending our best wishes to two outstanding people who have shared 60 years of love with each other, their children and their families; (HLS 710)

John W. D'Errico, beloved family member and friend, who was the former proprietor of John's Truck and Auto Repair of Orono. Mr. D'Errico was an avid fisherman and hunter and a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church and the Sunk Haze Stream Chapter Trout Unlimited; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 711)

Matthew Oliver Rice, of Old Town and Veazie, beloved family member and friend, who will be remembered for his gentle nature and fondness for and sensitivity towards older people. Matthew was an outstanding athlete, had been an Eagle Scout and was currently working towards a career as a physician's assistant; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 712)

Rita M. Mattall, of Millinocket, a beloved family member who will be sadly missed by her family and friends. Mrs. Mattall was a well-known and respected member of the community and a longtime employee of Great Northern Paper Company; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 713)

Kathleen Wilcox Libby, of Millinocket, who for many years was an active member of the Millinocket Baptist Church, where she worked in the Sunday school office and served as a financial secretary. Mrs. Libby was a member of OES Chapter No. 130, the Rebekah Lodge and the Good Sam Club; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 714)

Josephine Marie Dall, of Orono, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Dall, the beloved wife of the late Augustine Dall, was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 715) the Portland Stage Company, upon the occasion of its 20th anniversary (1973-1993). In two decades the Portland Stage Company has produced over 117 productions, from classical to new American theater, for thousands of Maine patrons and students. The Portland Stage Company has been recognized by the National Endowment for the Arts as an outstanding regional theater for its mission to entertain, engage and educate through the wonder of the performing arts; (HLS 716)

the members of the Windham High School Girls Soccer Team, winners of the Class B State Championship; (HLS 717)

Casey Goodness, of Boy Scout Troop #371 in Saco, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 718)

Glen Paradis, of Boy Scout Troop #270 in Frenchville, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 719)

Janet Rines, on the occasion of her retirement as Dexter's Public Health Nurse, whose 37 years of administering to health needs of Dexter area citizens and dedication to the health care profession is appreciated; (HLS 720)

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Taber, of Fairfield, on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, October 22, 1993; (HLS 721)

Carl B. Estabrooks, devoted husband of Yasuko Estabrooks of Orono, a Vietnam veteran, having served more than 20 years as an electronics technician with the U.S. Air Force and later holding positions as a Veterans Affairs Coordinator for the University of Maine, Emergency Services Director for the American Red Cross and Administrator of the Home Energy Assistance Program. Mr. Estabrooks was an active member of the Knights of Columbus, having held various positions on the local and state level; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 722)

James P. Kilbride, of Wells, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 723)

the Downeast Marine Detachment, and in extending our congratulations upon its being installed as Detachment #864 of the Marine Corps League; (HLS 724)

Robert R. Vickers, upon his retirement as Executive Director of the Aroostook Mental Health Center after 24 years of outstanding service to the center; (HLS 725)

Reid H. Campbell, after 25 years of dedicated service to the citizens of Millinocket and on the occasion of his retirement from the Millinocket Police Department where he had attained the rank of captain and deputy chief; (HLS 726)

Marguerite C. Babin, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Marguerite was a longtime employee of the Great Northern Paper Company as an office clerk and was a member of the Office Employees Union and the Little Flower Circle No. 392 Daughters of Isabella; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 727)

Linwood and Esther Roix, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, November 27, 1993; (HLS 728)

Kevin E. Leavitt, of Explorer Post #86 in Gray, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 729)

Edith Canham, of Vassalboro, who has been honored by the Maine Municipal Association for more than 40 years of service by being awarded the 1993 Ethel Kelley Award; (HLS 730)

Gardner S. Hunt, of Old Town and Dresden, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. Hunt served as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army, where he was involved in research for rocket propellants. He was formerly employed by Pioneer Plastics of Auburn and served as the Director of Laboratories for the Department of Environmental Protection; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 731)

Barbara H. Myatt, beloved wife of Frank E. Myatt of Brewer, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Myatt retired from the New England Telephone Company after 20 years of service and was later employed with Boyd and Noyes. She was a member of St. Mary's Parish Community, the Telephone Pioneers and the Holly Club; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 732)

Sara Richard, of Presque Isle, who was the recipient of an award from the Maine Women's Fund "Honoring Girls and Women in Sports"; (HLS 733)

Brenda Ann Dow, who was named "Realtor of the Year" by Key Realty in honor of her interest, professionalism and support of the real estate industry; (HLS 734)

Marilyn Clark, Director of the Mark and Emily Turner Memorial Library, who was the recipient of an award for service and leadership during National Businesswomen's Week; (HLS 735)

Danielle Donovan, of Presque Isle, who placed first in the Class A State Cross-country Championship held in Augusta on November 13, 1993; (HLS 736)

Sara Richard, of Presque Isle, who placed second in the Class A State Cross-country Championship held in Augusta on November 13, 1993; (HLS 737)

Bishop Amedee Proulx, the second-highest spiritual leader of Maine's Roman Catholics, who will be fondly remembered for his contributions, effective leadership and many years of dedicated service as auxiliary bishop for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Portland; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 738)

Clara Neptune Keezer, of Pleasant Point Passamaquoddy Indian Reservation, recipient of the Individual Artist Fellowship for basketmaking, awarded on November 12, 1993 by the Maine Arts Commission; (HLS 739)

George and Catherine Bass, on the occasion of their 55th Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Bass were married in Brockton, Massachusetts on November 26, 1938; (HLS 740)

Lottie Kemp, of Leeds, on the occasion of her 100th Birthday on December 7, 1993. Lottie was born in Leeds and has enjoyed a lifelong passion for music and continues to play the harmonica; (HLS 741)

Marshall Hills, for more than 17 years of outstanding service as the Town Manager of Winthrop, whose quiet, yet persevering manner will be greatly missed by the citizens of Winthrop; (HLS 742)

Francis M. O'Brien, of Portland, antiquarian, bibliophile and historian, on the occasion of his 85th birthday. As the dean of Maine antiquarian book dealers and a proud son of Munjoy Hill, he has devoted 60 years of his life to historic preservation, fine conversation and cherishing the art of the book to challenge, to stimulate and to educate; (HLS 743)

Clyde and Ruth Ames, of Vinalhaven, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, December 6, 1993; (HLS 744)

Charles H. Rideout, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was a U.S. Navy veteran, and worked at Great Northern Paper Company for many years, where he retired in 1988. Mr. Rideout was an avid pilot and instructor of pilots of small airplanes, and was known at all airports throughout the state. He was a member and past master of Pine Tree Lodge AF & AM in Mattawamkeag, and attended Calvary Temple Assembly of God Church in East Millinocket; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 745)

Reverend John V. MacNeill, pastor of the Baptist churches in Blue Hill and East Blue Hill, who retired on December 1st, 1993, after 39 years in the ministry; (HLS 746)

Elizabeth Avery, of Vassalboro, upon her retirement from the Vassalboro school system after 31 years of being a teacher, assistant principal, and principal; (HLS 747)

Bernard J. "Red" McCleary, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was a veteran of the U.S. Navy, and was a pipefitter for 34 years at Great Northern Paper Company in Millinocket, where he retired in 1983. He was a member of the Plumbers and Pipefitters Union Local No. 485, and of the Millinocket Lodge of Elks No. 1521, and was the most proficient player of the Friday night card group; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 748)

Pearl M. Moscone, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. She and her husband, Edmond Moscone, owned and operated Moscone's Market in Millinocket for 40 years. She was a member of the Katahdin Area Support Group, and was a communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 749)

Trever Laurence Adams, of Boy Scout Troop #866 in Windham, for his achievement of the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 750)

Larry Smith, of Saco, on his retirement after 30 years of dedicated public service with the Saco Fire Department; (HLS 751)

the members of the George Stevens Academy Boys Cross-country Team, winners of the Class C State Championship; (HLS 752)

the members of the Ellsworth High School Boys Soccer Team and Coach Brian Higgins, winners of the Boys Class B State Championship with an 18-0 season; (HLS 753)

Joseph Kilch, of Boy Scout Troop #103 in Castine, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 754)

Lucy Adams Mayo, of Thomaston, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Mayo was the widow of James H. Mayo and the mother of six children, including our colleague, Joseph Mayo. She served for 20 years on both the Thomaston Planning Board and the Thomaston Public Library Board of Directors. She was also a charter member of the Thomaston 4th of July committee, a life member and director of the Thomaston Historical Society and a longtime Girl Scout leader; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 755) the Maine Youth Jazz Ensemble and Isi Rudnick, and in extending our best wishes and good luck on their upcoming trip to Poland. We acknowledge and support the efforts of Isi Rudnick and the Maine Youth Jazz Ensemble, as ambassadors of jazz, music education and international good will. We recognize the importance of ongoing cultural exchanges between Poland and the State of Maine, supporting a world community that embraces shared educational experiences between countries; (HLS 756)

the Stearns High School Football Team, "Stearns Minutemen," coached by David Evans, who won its third straight LTC Championship; (HLS 757)

Philis Beaupain, of Millinocket, who was honored on her retirement by the Millinocket Chamber of Commerce for her long service as chamber secretary; (HLS 758)

Chandler and Alma Cobb, of Kittery, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, December 6, 1993; (HLS 759)

Dave Evans, of Millinocket, named 1993 Class C Coach of the Year. He coached the Stearns High School Football Team, the "Minutemen," to their third straight LTC Class C Championship; (HLS 760)

Hubert Noyes, of Waite, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 761)

Donald J. Ingersoll, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 762)

Bradford A. Waldron, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 763) Jobe A. Doody, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 764)

Justin L. Peltier, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 765)

John S. Stover, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 766)

Ernest and Katherine Canelli, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 52nd Wedding Anniversary, November 27, 1993; (HLS 767) the University of Maine at Presque Isle Women's Cross-country Team and its coach, Chris Smith, winners of the 1993 NAIA District 5 Championship; (HLS 768)

Burns A. Weeks, of Presque Isle, on the occasion of his retirement as Superintendent of Transmission and Distribution at the Maine Public Service Company after 40 years of dedicated service; (HLS 769) the University of Maine at Presque Isle Women's Soccer Team and its coaches, Robert Grove-Markwood and Wulf Koch, winners of the 1993 Maine Athletic Conference Championship and runners-up in the NAIA District 5 Championship; (HLS 770)

the University of Maine at Presque Isle Men's Cross-country team and its coach, Chris Smith, winners of the 1993 NAIA District 5 Championship; (HLS 771)

Reverend William L. Inderstrodt, who is retiring as a Congregational minister after 41 years of service in the ministry. Reverend Inderstrodt has served the parishioners of the First Parish Congregational Church in York since 1985. He was a very active and dedicated minister to the church, extending his goodwill to the entire community by visiting the sick at York Hospital, the elderly throughout the town and participating in local service organizations. His kindness and thoughtfulness will be greatly missed by the entire community; (HLS 772)

Paul W. Knowles, of Boy Scout Troop #171 in Presque Isle, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 773)

Dan Hart, for 11 years of outstanding and award-winning service to students and families as the Guidance Director at Telstar Regional High School, whose improvements to the guidance program, adding many new services and decreasing counselor-to-student ratios, are appreciated by the community and the thousands of students who have benefited from his dedicated service; (HLS 774)

Olive W. Miles, of Orono, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 775)

H. Josephine Graves, of Orono, whose death has saddened family and friends. She was the beloved wife of Dr. Robert A. Graves and the mother of five children; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 776)

George S. Cunningham, of Orono, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was a respected teacher, a nationally acclaimed chess player and coach and a loyal Democratic Party worker; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 777)

Helene von Hoffmann, of Orono, who will be sadly missed by her family and friends. Mrs. von Hoffmann was a Baltic German who was born in Riga, Latvia. She graduated from Riga Conservatory and was a retired pianist and piano teacher. She was the mother of four children and was devoted to her family; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 778)

Mary Jean Waite, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 779)

Lenora H. "Scottie" Moscone, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. She was born in Quebec City, Quebec and was employed as a registered nurse at Millinocket Regional Hospital for 31 years, retiring in 1987. Mrs. Moscone was the widow of Joseph Moscone and is survived by three children, two grandchildren and one great-grandchild; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 780)

Edna Marjorie Jackson, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Jackson, the beloved wife of Harold W. Jackson, had been employed by Great Northern Paper Company and retired in 1979, and was extremely active in the Millinocket Baptist Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 781)

Beulah A. Kelly, a former employee of the Great Northern Paper Company in Millinocket and member of Local No. 12 Pulp and Sulfite Union, who will be greatly missed by family and friends; (HLS 782)

Eagle Lake Water & Sewer District Wastewater Treatment Facility, of Eagle Lake, which received a national award of First Place from the Environmental Protection Agency in the category of small non-discharging systems; (HLS 783)

Larry Jones, police chief of Skowhegan, who is retiring after many years of public service to the citizens of Skowhegan; (HLS 784)

Jonathan L. Cole, of Boy Scout Troop #177 in Washburn, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 785)

Anthony J. "Bucky" Nappi, of Portland, a beloved father, brother and husband. He was a loyal member of the Paul Malia American Legion Post, was honored as "Elk of the Year" by the Portland Lodge of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, and was a proud son of "Gorham's Corner," Portland; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 786)

Elizabeth W. Crandall, of Brunswick, on the occasion of her 80th birthday and in extending appreciation for her years as a knowledgeable and concerned citizen activist, who has supported, advised and comforted Brunswick's legislative delegation for many years. We wish her many more years for her, and our, benefit; (HLS 787)

Roseanne Boutin, on the occasion of her retirement December 31, 1993, after 25 years of dedicated service as the Town Clerk of Winslow; (HLS 788)

Justin Claire Chasse, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Justin was a freshman at Stearns High School, where he played freshman and varsity football, and enjoyed many other sports. He loved to play the drums and was a member of the Stearns High School Band. Justin was a scout for many years. He was a communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church and was a member of the youth ministry. He will be missed by his family, his friends and also his cat, Babe. (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 789)

Madeline N. White, a longtime resident of Millinocket, who will be greatly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 790)

Willis and Barbara Lord, of North Waterboro, and in extending our best wishes on the celebration of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, January 16, 1994; (HLS 791)

Alma Richard, born on February 3, 1894, at Nail Pond near Tignish, Prince Edward Island, on the occasion of her 100th birthday. Alma is a member of the local Acadian Society and is an avid cribbage player. Mrs. Richard shared many wonderful years with her husband, Eli, who is now deceased. They were early and longtime dependable members of the St. Athanasius & St. John's Parish. The lives of many people in the Greater Rumford area have been made a little better because Alma and Eli have walked their way; (HLS 792)

Brent Lawrence Lane, of Boy Scout Troop #16 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 793)

Casey Overcamp, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 794)

David S. Statham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 795)

Sarah Marie Patterson, of Saco, who was selected by her classmates to receive the 1993 D.A.R. Good Citizen Award. Sarah is a senior at Thornton Academy in Saco and was recognized for her dependability, commitment to service, leadership and patriotism; (HLS 796)

George M. Galvin, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was a graduate of Stearns High School and was employed by Great Northern Paper Co. in plant maintenance. Mr. Galvin was a member of the Pulp and Sulfite Union Local No. 12. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, serving in the Vietnam War, where he was a member of the Green Beret Special Forces; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 797)

The Community Resource Center, of Portland, upon the occasion of its dedication. Combining the efforts of the Preble St. Resource Center, the Wayside and St. Luke's Soup Kitchens, the West End Emergency Food Pantry, and the Homeless Health Program and Portland St. Clinic, the Center shall extend a helping hand and open heart in the Maine tradition of sharing and caring for all; (HLS 798)

Al Winter, of Lewiston, State Commander of Veteran of Foreign Wars, for his many years and exceptional dedication to the cause of the veterans of Maine; (HLS 799)

Anna Ivanisin, of Lisbon Falls, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday on January 2, 1994; (HLS 800)

Edward Wall, of Lisbon, for being named by the Lisbon Rotary Club as "Person of the Year"; (HLS 801)

Alta M. Weeks, on the occasion of her retirement on February 1, 1994, after more than 45 years with Maine Public Service Co. and Maine and New Brunswick Electrical Power Co.; (HLS 802)

Madame Elise Robichaud, en lui offrant nos meilleurs vœux à l'occasion de son centième anniversaire de naissance; (HLS 803)

Cony High School Field Hockey Team, of Augusta, the 1993 Field Hockey Champions; (HLS 804)

Margaret and Andrew S. Knight, Jr., of Wayne, who were honored by members of the Modern Woodmen of America for their outstanding service to their community and its citizens. Mr. Knight has served as fire chief for the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department for more than 20 years and has served within the department for more than 45 years; (HLS 805)

George "Jim" St. John, for many years a resident of Bath, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. St. John worked in the field of education for 40 years. He was an author, canoeist, gardener and with his family created the 700-acre Bates Morse Mountain Conservation Trust, a gift for all of Maine. Mr. St. John was an active member of the Society of Friends and the Bath Area Committee for Nuclear Arms Control; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 806)

Carl and Opal Ladner, on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary on January 15, 1994; (HLS 807)

Susan Joy Knight, on the occasion of her 86th birthday on January 29, 1994. Mrs. Knight raised 3 children in Macwahoc, assisted 2 husbands in the operation of fire towers for the forestry service and now resides at Sunrise Village in Mattawamkeag; (HLS 808)

Andy McGlinn, of Caribou, who has been named the Young Farmer of the Year by the Maine Potato Board. Mr. McGlinn has farmed for 13 years and does business as Crown Farms; (HLS 809)

Amy-Katherine Sawyer, a senior at Thornton Academy in Saco, who has been named the 1993-1994 Principal's Leadership Award winner; (HLS 810)

Barbara G. Hale, of Marlborough, Connecticut, who was born and raised in Millinocket. She will be greatly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 811)

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Pietroski, of Rockland, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 812)

Mike Hamel, of Waterville, who has received the prestigious James J. Fitzpatrick Trophy in recognition of his outstanding high school football career; (HLS 813)

Hilda F. Craig, of Millinocket, for her many years of service to the citizens of the Katahdin region, including her service to veterans, the Katahdin Friends, senior citizens, people with disabilities, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts and numerous others in the area. Currently working with the Katahdin Area Support Group, Mrs. Craig and her husband are working to complete their 7th church; (HLS 814)

Emily Ingraham, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, January 31, 1994. Mrs. Ingraham is a lifelong resident of Sherman Mills and has 4 children, 10 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren; (HLS 815)

Heather Redding, a student at Calais High School, who has been elected as President of the Maine Association of Student Councils; (HLS 816)

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bossie, of Eagle Lake, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on December 30, 1993; (HLS 817)

Larry Vautour, of Wayne, for 23 years of dedicated service to the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department; (HLS 818)

Laurence and Marion Smith, of Jonesport, on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary on February 6, 1994. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are longtime residents of Jonesport and have been active volunteers in their community and beyond; (HLS 819)

Dr. Henry Haskell, of Tenants Harbor, educator, scholar, political activist and philanthropist. He devoted his energy, talents and financial resources to encouraging and uplifting individuals, and to raising the general social consciousness by his words and example. Always an advocate for children, he and his wife Bessie established the first privately run multiracial children's camp in New England. Dr. Haskell worked tirelessly for peace and mutual respect among all people. He will be greatly missed and his positive influence will be felt for generations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 820)

John W. Powell, Jr. and Anne B. Powell, of Madison, and in extending our best wishes on the celebration of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, February 12, 1994. They are the parents of John W. Powell III and Susanne Powell Ketterer and the grandparents of Andrew P. Ketterer (HLS 821)

Domenic Cuccinello, Sr., of Thomaston, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. Cuccinello was a prominent practicing attorney and a former associate judge. He was a very active member of the Democratic Party for many years and was a communicant of St. Bernard's Catholic Church in Rockland; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 822)

George Estes, on the occasion of his retirement after 23 years of dedicated service to the citizens of Bangor as a member of the Bangor Police Department; (HLS 823)

Ralph "Rick" Leonard, Jr., of Stillwater, who will be greatly missed by family and friends. He was a graduate of Old Town High School and attended Husson College. Mr. Leonard was an active member of the United Methodist Church of Old Town and had served on numerous committees. He was an avid sports fan and a regular supporter of all Old Town High School athletics. Mr. Leonard always had a warm smile for everyone and was always ready to extend a helping hand to all in need. He will be fondly remembered for his outgoing nature and love of life by all who had the pleasure of knowing him; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 824)

Christopher Matson, of Boy Scout Troop #16 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 825)

G. Melvin Hovey, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Maine Public Service Company, on the occasion of his retirement on June 1, 1994, after 37 years of dedicated service with the company; (HLS 826) the Durham Middle School Varsity Girls Basketball Team for their first place finish in the 1993-94 Pine Tree League and for their spirit and skills, which have carried on the strong tradition of excellence of the Durham girls basketball teams; (HLS 827)

the Corinna American Legion and Auxiliary, Post 73, on the 75th Anniversary of that post and the national American Legion. The American Legion has dedicated 75 years to community service and has been responsible for such accomplishments as the creation of the Boys State Program, the establishment of the U.S. Veterans Administration and annual fund raising of $48 million for youth programs in the nation; (HLS 828)

Kenneth F. Crockett, a longtime employee of the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad who served as a conductor and brakeman. Mr. Crockett was a Navy veteran of World War II and was active in the rebuilding of Mount Desert Island following its burning in the 1940's. Mr. Crockett was married to the former Elizabeth C. Butler and was an active participant in the Felicity Lodge in Bucksport and is most noted for his expert fishing and his fondness for harness racing; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 829)

the dedication, outstanding achievements and long service of former Senator Walter Hichens, of Eliot, to enhance the lives of Maine citizens who are blind or deaf. As a 20-year member of the Maine Legislature, and a 25-year member of the Citizens Advisory Committee of the Bureau of Rehabilitation, Division of the Blind and Visually Impaired, Senator Hichens took a special interest in improving services to people with vision and hearing impairments; (HLS 830)

the Bangor High School Swim Team and Coach Phil Emery, winners of the State Class A Swimming Championship; (HLS 831)

Leona Smith, and in extending our best wishes on her 90th birthday, March 24, 1994; (HLS 832)

David Osgood, who has been selected by the York County Firefighter's Association to receive the 1993 "Firefighter of the Year" award for York County in recognition of his heroism above and beyond the call of duty while using courageous efforts to save a human life; (HLS 833) the mock trial team, of St. Dominic Regional High School in Lewiston, who won the 1994 state championship sponsored by the Maine Bar Association and who will represent Maine in the national championship in Chicago, Illinois; (HLS 834)

Rodney V. MacWhinnie, for 21 years of service as a member of the Madawaska School Committee. Mr. MacWhinnie has served on the school committee longer than anyone in the history of the Town of Madawaska; (HLS 835)

Davis Thomas, on his retirement as editor of Down East Magazine, and thanking him for his ability to attract thousands of tourists to the State of Maine through his beautifully written and illustrated articles describing and promoting our great State; (HLS 836)

Henry L. and Virginia Bryant, of Tenants Harbor, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, March 14, 1994; (HLS 837)

Sara Wolverton, a senior at Machias Memorial High School, who has been selected to receive the 1994 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement, citizenship and participation in school activities; (HLS 838)

the following Washington Academy cheerleaders: Shannon Denbow, Tara Purington, April Harmon, Meghan Gaddis, Kate Fournier, Shelly Cox, Jessika Guptill, Erika Guptill, Calli Fitzhenry, Kelly Greenlaw and Christina Lemieux and their coach Kathy Harmon, winners of the 1994 Class C State Cheerleading Championship; (HLS 839)

Estella Davis, of Jonesboro, who is a freshman at the University of Maine at Machias and was awarded the Henry Dirksen Scholarship by the Machias Rotary Club; (HLS 840)

Nathan A. Beriau, of Gray, who has attained the high rank, honor and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 841)

Wallace Gerry Sr. and Glenna Gerry, of Kittery, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, December 8, 1993; (HLS 842)

Mary Ellen Webster and Walter Everett Webster, Jr., of South Berwick, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, April 10, 1994; (HLS 843)

Carolyn M. Blouin, who has been named "Citizen of the Year" by the South Berwick Rotary Club in recognition of her dedication to the Town of South Berwick; (HLS 844)

Gertrude Levesque, of Dexter, who was presented the Boston Post cane for being the oldest woman in Dexter. Mrs. Levesque is 99 years old and received the silver-headed cane at a ceremony in her honor; (HLS 845)

Marion Chandler Coy, of Dexter, and in extending our very best wishes on her 91st birthday, January 24, 1994. Mrs. Coy retired in 1965 after 42 years of teaching and is a member of the Maine State Retired Teachers Association. She was a longtime volunteer with Meals for Me, has been active with the University of Maine Extension Service and has held many offices with the Eastern Star; (HLS 846)

Christopher M. Hinse, a member of Boy Scout Troop #55 in East Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 847)

Roger and Marie Leblanc, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 17, 1994 (HLS 848)

Evelyn Langlais, of Rumford, who was named Maine Mother of the Year by the Maine Mothers Association. Mrs. Langlais raised six children after she was widowed. She believes her unconditional love for her children, her moral values and her religious faith were the most important influences on them; (HLS 849)

Margaret Beliveau, who has been named "Citizen of the Year" by the Rumford Board of Selectmen in recognition of her many years of service to the Oxford County Association for Retarded Children. Margaret Beliveau is a member of the board of directors for the association and has served for 15 years on the governor's council dealing with problems of the mentally retarded; (HLS 850)

Elsie Morency, who has been named "Citizen of the Year" by the Rumford Board of Selectmen in recognition of her many years of service to the Oxford County Association for Retarded Children. Elsie Morency has been the Director of Horizons Unlimited since 1976 and prior to that was the Director of the Hope Training School; (HLS 851)

Donna May Doyle, of Zephyrhills, Florida and Millinocket, who, with her husband Ralph, owned and operated Doyle's Bakery in Millinocket. Mrs. Doyle will be greatly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 852)

Margaret Jane Cummings Rush, 101, of Millinocket, who will be greatly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 853)

Anna V. Matangelo, of Millinocket, who will be remembered as a very generous and gracious lady. Miss Matangelo was formerly employed at Madden's Hardware store and operated the family-owned Millinocket Fruit Company during World War II in her brothers' absence. She was also a longtime employee of the Great Northern Paper Company. Miss Matangelo belonged to several social and service organizations and was a communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church and a devoted member of the Block Rosary Group; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 854)

Earl W. Tapley, Sr., of Brownville and Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. Tapley, the beloved husband of Loretta Arsenault Tapley, was a well-known carpenter and a former employee of the Xerox Corporation. He was a veteran of the United States Army and a member of the Milo American Legion Post; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 855)

Gordon H. Cook, Sr., of Millinocket, beloved husband of Shirley Barker Cook and longtime employee of the Great Northern Paper Company. Mr. Cook was a veteran of World War II and a member and past commander of the Francis E. Elliott Post VFW. He was also a member of the board of directors of the Katahdin Federal Credit Union; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 856)

Atlee and Shirley Goodwin, of Millinocket, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, February 21, 1994; (HLS 857)

Edward (Bing) and Beatrice DiCentis, of Millinocket, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, February 9, 1994; (HLS 858)

Mildred Wing, of Winterport, and in extending our very best wishes on her 100th birthday, January 19, 1994. Mrs. Wing is the proud holder of the Boston Post gold-headed cane for being the oldest resident; (HLS 859)

Ernest and Emily St. Amant, of Madawaska, on the occasion of their 70th Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. St. Amant were married in Keegan on August 29, 1923; (HLS 860)

Jon Ljunggren, for 10 years of dedicated service as the Fire Chief for the Town of Vienna and for his many other contributions to the community; (HLS 861)

John B. Roberts, of Sanford, a longtime lawyer, Associate Judge of the former Sanford Municipal Court, Judge of Probate for York County, Register of Deeds for York County and member of the Maine Senate during the 106th and 107th Legislatures. Mr. Roberts was an active member of the Republican Party and served on many boards of charitable and service organizations throughout the greater Sanford area; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 862)

the following members of the Eagle Lake Elementary-Junior High School Lady Lakers: Amy Bouchard, Eve Labbe, Anna Long, Shilo McBreaity, Bobbie Jo Michaud, Melissa Parent, Erin St. Peter, Denise Simard, Jarita Sirois, Leah Theriault, Christina Valcourt and Stacy Voisine for winning the S.A.D. #27 District Basketball Championship for the 1993-1994 school year; (HLS 863)

John J. "Mike" Murphy, of Portland, veteran railroad employee, proud son of Tate Street, and a Founder of Harbor View Memorial Park, Portland, in the heart of the city's Irish settlement district, where he was proud Keeper of the Flag for over a decade; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 864)

Calvin and Barbara (Hilton) Wood, of Castle Hill, and in extending our very best wishes on their 50th Wedding Anniversary, March 14, 1994; (HLS 865)

Geraldine Baker Hannay, of Bingham, who was presented with the Boston Post gold headed cane as Bingham's oldest citizen; (HLS 866)

the Madawaska High School Boys Ski Team on winning its second consecutive state title at the 1994 State Class C Boys Ski Championship; (HLS 867)

Debbie Plourde, a member of the Madawaska High School Girls Ski Team, who won her fourth consecutive skimeister award at the 1994 State Class C Girls Ski Championship; (HLS 868) the Madawaska High School Girls Ski Team on winning its third state title in four years at the 1994 State Class C Girls Championship; (HLS 869)

Edward Lavertu, a member of the Madawaska High School Boys Ski Team, who won his second consecutive skimeister award at the 1994 State Class C Boys Ski Championship; (HLS 870)

Susan Gibson Lougee, who has been named the Middle School Teacher of the Year by the Maine Athletic Physical Education, Recreation, Education and Dance. Susan is presently a physical education teacher for SAD #1; (HLS 871)

Lucy Miriah Sleeper on the occasion of her 84th birthday on February 4th, 1994. A lifelong resident of Sherman, she has three children, 12 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. She is much loved and respected by family and friends; (HLS 872)

Tessie Libby, of Mattawamkeag, on her 80th birthday, February 6th, 1994. She has been a tireless worker in civic and community affairs, an important advocate of education and a supporter of her children and grandchildren in area and regional athletic programs. In addition to raising her own family, she has been mother and advisor to many more children through the years; (HLS 873)

William R. Littlefield, Jr., of North Berwick, a well-known and respected contractor whose buildings are prominent in several southern Maine communities. Mr. Littlefield was a selectman and was a founder of the North Berwick Little League. He was a founding director of Waban Projects, a former member of the Sanford Town Club, the Yorkshire Masonic Lodge and the Sanford Country Club; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 874)

Frederick W. Stasinowsky, Sr., on the occasion of his retirement after 24 years of dedicated service as a selectman for the Town of Pownal; (HLS 875) the Town of Cornish on the 200th Anniversary of its founding and in extending best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate this special occasion; (HLS 876)

Andy Bedard, member of the 1994 Mountain Valley High School Basketball Team in Rumford that won the Class B State Championship. Andy scored the most points in a State Championship game with 53 points, a tournament record of eight 3-pointers, 17 field goals and tied the free-throw mark with 11; (HLS 877)

the Schenck High School "Lady Wolverines," of East Millinocket, who won the State Class C Girls Soccer Championship; (HLS 878)

the following members of the Mountain Valley High School "Falcons" Basketball Team, of Rumford, winners of the Class B State Basketball Championship: Andy Bedard, Adam Dayon, Shawn Spadea, Steve Gonzales, Matt Foreman, Dean Boudreau, Robert Callahan, Micah Cormier, Chris West, Kevin New, Jack Dorr, Jason Carrier, Chad Haynes, Clay Marston and Mark Jorgensen; managers Luann Burns and Jenn Perry; and coaches Matt Kaubris, Don Roberts, Andy Shorey, Chris Gorham and Tim Giasson; (HLS 879)

the Schenck High School "Wolverines," of East Millinocket, who won the State Class C Boys Basketball Championship. The "Wolverines" season includes 22 straight wins; (HLS 880)

Madame Essie Gagnon Pinette, une mere qui a devoue toute sa vie a sa famille, en lui offrant nos meilleurs voeux a l'occasion de son quatre-vingtieme anniversaire de naissance; (HLS 881)

Phillip Hoose, a Portland author, who received the 1994 Christopher Award for his book, "It's Our World, Too! Stories of Young People Who Are Making a Difference." The award is given for artistic merit and work that expresses the high values of the human spirit; (HLS 882)

Adrienne Bruno, of Raymond, whose poem entitled "Camera" was among 25 stories, essays and poems published in the sixth annual edition of "Young Authors of America." Her poem was selected from more than 6,000 pieces of writing submitted by students from around the country. Adrienne is 11 years old and is an avid reader. She likes to write stories, science fiction and poetry; (HLS 883)

Jean Louis Boulet, a well-known and respected resident of Winslow, who will be remembered as the founder of the Greater Waterville Exchange Club's Old-Timers Hockey Tournament and as an ardent supporter of hockey and good sportsmanship at all levels of play; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 884)

Jonesport-Beals High School Cheerleaders for winning the Runner-up Award in the Class D State Competition; (HLS 885)

Captain Sandi Carver, Kristi Carver, Jan Beal, Natalie Fagonde, April Smith, Heidi Stanhope, Michelle Mills, Stacy Beal, Rachael Beal, Crystal Alley, Courtney Bryant, Leah Woodward, Amber Smith and Robin Woodward, of the Jonesport-Beals High School Girls Basketball Team, their managers, Nicole Carver, Timmy Lunn and Amy Faulkingham and their coaches, Duanne Carver, Dwight Carver and Suzanne Carver, for winning the Maine State Class D Championship; (HLS 886)

Miss Sandi Carver, of Beals, for her outstanding academic and athletic achievements. Her awards include selections on the McDonald's All Star Teams in the C and D Divisions and the Down East Athletic Conference All Star Team; the Owen Osborne Award as Most Valuable Player in the 1994 Eastern Maine Tournament; and Female Athlete of the Year in 1993 by the National Association of Girls and Women in Sports. She was recently awarded a full four-year Basketball scholarship to the University of Maine at Orono; (HLS 887)

the Millinocket Mites, who won the co-championship in the Mites division of the Penobscot Valley Hockey Conference; (HLS 888)

Katherine Bossie, of Millinocket, for receiving the Girl Scout Silver Award; (HLS 889)

Kelly King, of Millinocket, for receiving the Girl Scout Silver Award; (HLS 890)

Drew O'Connor, of Millinocket, who has been named to the McDonald's All-Star Basketball Team. He is starting center for the Stearns High School Minutemen and helped them get to the semi-final round in the Eastern Maine Tournament; (HLS 891)

Omer J. Cyr, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. Cyr was employed by Great Northern Paper Co. as a papermaker for 22 years. He was a member of U.P.I.U. Local No. 24, St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church and the Millinocket Lodge of Elks No. 1521; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 892)

Viola M. Walls, longtime resident of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 893)

Carol Armstrong, of Millinocket, for 13 years of volunteering at Millinocket Regional Hospital. She was presented with an engraved locket honoring her dedication to patients; (HLS 894)

Wayne Newell, of Princeton, former Passamaquoddy Representative to the state Legislature, in appreciation of his dedication and commitment in preserving the culture and heritage of Maine Indians; (HLS 895)

Jane Ames, of Northport, who was honored with the Jefferson Award for Public Service. She was given this award for her selfless service to the community; (HLS 896)

Rebecca Martin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Martin of Rumford, received the highly prized Abe Olman Scholarship Award given annually by the National Academy of Popular Music, in New York City. The award is given for excellence in songwriting and places Rebecca in the Academy's Songwriters Hall of Fame; (HLS 897)

Roger C. Doyle, of Winthrop, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was a retired Maine State Police Captain who carefully followed and supported the activities of the Maine State Police. Capt. Doyle was a former Winthrop selectman, and was well-known for his skills in boatbuilding, woodworking and cabinetry. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Laura Doyle, 2 sons, 5 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 898)

Mabel Sheehan, of East Millinocket, and in extending our very best wishes on her 85th birthday, April 28, 1994; (HLS 899)

Ben Hanscom, a member of the Stearns High School "Minutemen" hockey team, who has been selected as a 2nd team Big East All-star; (HLS 900)

Bill Swift, a native of South Portland, who was recognized January 14, 1994 on "Billy Swift Day," for his extraordinary career in baseball. Highlights of his career include leading the Maine Black Bear Baseball Team to 4 consecutive appearances in the College World Series, pitching for Team USA in the World Championships and pitching for the 1984 US Olympic Baseball Team. Presently, Bill is an outstanding pitcher for the San Francisco "Giants" Baseball Team; (HLS 901)

the following members of the Central Aroostook High School Boys Basketball Team: Brady Mahan, Chad Boyd, Mitchell Orser, Frank Kearney, Tim Brewer, Matt Townsend, Seth Locke, Ben Allen, Randy Libby, Lee Shaw and Rick MacDonald; managers Tory McQuade and Liza Clockedile; assistant coach Tom McGarvey; and coach Steve Shaw, winners of the 1994 Class D State Basketball Championship; (HLS 902)

Yvette Farris, of Belgrade, winner of the 1994 Jefferson Award for Public Service. Mrs. Farris has been helping people for almost five decades. She gives credit to the public who helps her. She now dedicates her selfless efforts to the elderly and children; (HLS 903)

the following members of the Lawrence High School Girls Basketball Team, of Fairfield, 4-time winners of the Class A State Basketball Championship: Jill Atwood, Wendy Atwood, Cindy Blodgett, Alexis Bogel, Addie Brown, Michelle Clark, Janet Francoeur, Kelly Jonassen, Chrissy Roy, Sherrie Roy, Carolyn Tabone, Karen Weymouth, Shannon York and Catherine Suttie; their managers Kevin Douglas, Christy Hamlin and Katriz McLellan; and their coaches Bruce Cooper, Larry Deans, Lars Jonassen and Scott Ballard; (HLS 904)

Cindy Blodgett, of Clinton, for her remarkable and distinguished achievements as a member of the Lawrence High School Girls Basketball Team. During her 4 years as a starter on the team, she led the Lawrence Bulldogs to 4 consecutive Class A State Championships. She ended her career as the all-time leading scorer in the history of Maine high school basketball with 2,596 points and is also the holder of several records in Maine high school tournaments. In addition to many other honors, she was named Kennebec Valley Athletic Conference Player of the Year for 3 consecutive years. She plans to attend the University of Maine at Orono next year with a full 4-year basketball scholarship; (HLS 905)

William A. Rowe, Esquire, on the occasion of his 60th birthday and in recognition of his years of public service and commitment to improving the quality of life; (HLS 906)

Micah Illingworth, a member of the Stearns High School "Minutemen" hockey team, whose extraordinary high school hockey career includes obtaining 100 goals and being selected as a first team Big East All-star; (HLS 907)

Tim Peabody, of Northport, who has been named the Game Warden of the Year; (HLS 908)

Gerald Miller, of Littleton, who has been selected from more than 30 other seed suppliers throughout the country as the 1993 National Potato Seed Grower of the Year by Frito-lay in recognition of his commitment to quality, his conscientious approach to customer satisfaction and his service to the Maine seed potato program; (HLS 909)

Paul and Mary (Clark) Drew, of Houlton, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on January 5, 1994. Mr. and Mrs. Drew enjoy walking and have an on-going cribbage game; (HLS 910)

Calais High School Lady Blue Devils, of Calais, who won the State Class C Girls Basketball Championship. They won 44 straight games in the last two years; (HLS 911)

the Scarborough High School Academic Decathlon Team, and the coaches, for winning the 1994 State Championship; (HLS 912)

Joseph Nicholas, director of the Passamaquoddy-Maliseet Bilingual Program at the Pleasant Point reservation, in appreciation of his years of dedicated service and commitment in preserving the language, culture and heritage of the Passamaquoddy Tribe of the Abnaki Nation of American Indians; (HLS 913)

Charles Weeks, of Southport Island, on the occasion of his 80th birthday. Mr. Weeks is very active in church and the senior citizen's Coastal Club; (HLS 914)

Maia Dumas, a State champion in cross-country skiing. Twelve-year old Maia, of Mountain Valley Middle School, won the Gold Medal in the State Middle School Cross-Country Championships held at Troll Valley in Farmington; (HLS 915)

Aomori Prefecture of Japan and the Japan America Society of Maine as they explore ways to further close relations between the State of Maine and Aomori, and as they continue to develop a Sister State exchange program; (HLS 916)

the 10th Anniversary of the Sister City program between Portland, Maine and Shinegawa, Japan. We congratulate the 2 communities as they celebrate the enormous successes of their exchange program, honoring the diverse economic, governmental, cultural, educational and youth exchange experiences in which hundreds of their citizens have participated over the years; (HLS 917)

the following members of the Lawrence High School Boys Basketball Team, of Fairfield, winners of the Class A State Basketball Championship: Ty Donahue-Beard, Craig Seeley, Rick Fortier, Mike Hamlin, Jon Hiltz, Kyle Holmstrom, Chris Winship, Billy Cole, Greg Harrison, Keith Knights, Jeremiah Nowlin, Tommy Reynolds, Allan Richards, Heath MacArthur and David Elliot; their managers, Randy Caswell, Kyle Marquis, Jeremiah Hutchinson and Dean Guite; and their coaches, Mike McGee and Lenny Cole; (HLS 918)

Jennifer Hunt, 15, of Rumford, who was crowned Miss Maine Teen USA and Miss Photogenic at the Sheraton Tara Hotel in Portland on March 20, 1994. Jennifer will compete in the national Miss Teen USA pageant in Biloxi, Mississippi in August; (HLS 919)

David Francis, Sr., language coordinator of the Passamaquoddy-Maliseet Bilingual Program at the Pleasant Point reservation, in appreciation of his years of dedicated service and commitment in preserving the language, culture and heritage of the Passamaquoddy Tribe of the Abnaki Nation of American Indians; (HLS 920)

Lawrence "Larry" Oliver, Sr., of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. Oliver was employed by Great Northern Paper Co. He was a member of the Millinocket Lodge of Elks Post No. 1521 and a life member of Donald V. Henry Post No. 80 American Legion; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 921)

Rodney and Phyllis Bowers, of Sherman Mills, and in extending our very best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, April 1, 1994; (HLS 922)

Scott Boucher, of Presque Isle, who has been honored with the National Achievement in Volunteerism Award by the Future Farmers of America. Scott is the local chapter president of the organization and we extend our congratulations to him on this achievement; (HLS 923)

Alix Searle Caldwell, of Wiscasset, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Caldwell was active in organizing and lobbying for better health care for senior citizens and was instrumental in the organization of the Wiscasset Senior Citizens. She was a past worthy member of the Eastern Star and a member of St. Philips Episcopal Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 924)

Marilyn King, who has been named 1993 Citizen of the Year by the Limestone Chamber of Commerce and the Limestone Rotary Club; (HLS 925)

Danny Patterson, who was named the 1992 Citizen of the Year by the Limestone Chamber of Commerce and the Limestone Rotary Club; (HLS 926)

Ellwood and Winnifred Grass, of Caribou, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, April 1, 1994; (HLS 927)

Tammy O'Neil, from Wells High School, on achieving academic excellence. Tammy is one of 13 students out of the 14,000 tested who scored highest on the reading, writing and mathematics sections of the 1993 Maine Educational Assessment; (HLS 928)

the following members of the 1993-1994 Millinocket Blue Pee Wees, First Place winners of the Penobscot Valley Hockey Conference: Ryan O'Donnell, Josh Brown, Mike Rolfe, Carson Shedd, Adam Birt, Robbie Landry, Marc Goody, Adam Ouellette, Derek O'Clair, Steve Rolfe, Darren Daniels, Matt Barnes and Matt Welch; and their coaches, Terry Barnes, Charlie Welch, Joe Daniels and Dewey Shedd; (HLS 929)

Alexander Richard, of Madison, former member of the Maine House of Representatives, longtime educator, decorated veteran of World War II and member of the Maine Air National Guard, in which he obtained the rank of Colonel. Mr. Richard will be fondly remembered for his contributions, effective leadership and many years of dedicated service to the citizens of his community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 930)

Mandi Pratt, from Dexter Regional High School, on achieving academic excellence. Mandi is one of 13 students out of 14,000 tested who scored highest on the reading, writing and mathematics sections of the 1993 Maine Educational Assessment; (HLS 931)

David Gahris, from Dexter Regional High School, on achieving academic excellence. David is one of 13 students out of 14,000 tested who scored highest on the reading, writing and mathematics sections of the 1993 Maine Educational Assessment; (HLS 932)

Ashley Flynn, from Deering High School, on achieving academic excellence. Ashley is one of 13 students out of the 14,000 tested who scored highest on the reading, writing and mathematics sections of the 1993 Maine Educational Assessment; (HLS 933)

Archie A. Stevens, of Skowhegan, beloved husband of Ada V. (Arnold), who will be remembered for his years of dedicated service in municipal government, including his service as Town Manager and Assessor to the citizens of Skowhegan and Fairfield. Mr. Stevens also served the citizens of Skowhegan in several elective and appointed positions and was a member of the Fairfield Kiwanis Club, the Skowhegan Lions Club and the Centenary United Methodist Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 934)

the following members of the York High School Girls Basketball Team, winners of the Western Maine Class B Basketball Tournament and the Class B State Basketball Championship: Elizabeth Brown, Joanna Brown, Tiffani Chapman, Katie d'Entremont, Melissa Gagnon, Cynthia Herbein, Andrea M. Little, Molly MacDonald, Jeseca L. Martel, Sharon Orchard and Lindsay L. Plaisted; managers Robin Bruce, Abby Carmichael, Kathryn Kyricos and Sara Woods; head coach Rick Clark; and assistant coaches Jon Carmichael and Lynne Michaud. This is the 2nd time in 3 years that the team has won the state championship; (HLS 935)

retired Air Force Colonel Frank P. Bostrom, of York, a much decorated World War II bomber pilot who flew General Douglas MacArthur from the Philippines before the surrender of the American forces and was the commander of the 313th Troop Carrier Group during the Berlin Airlift in occupied Germany. Ret. Colonel Bostrom, a Bangor area native and University of Maine graduate, also served as professor of air science at Harvard University; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 936)

the devotion and courage of Master Sergeant Gary Gordon who has been nominated to posthumously receive the Medal of Honor for valor above and beyond the call of duty while defending the crew of a downed helicopter in Somalia on October 3, 1993; (HLS 937)

Carl and Harriet Horne, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 938)

Robert (Bob) F. Lausier, of Madawaska, beloved family member, respected businessman and an active participant in civic, fraternal and social activities in his community. Mr. Lausier was a 40-year member of the Knights of Columbus Council No. 2638 and was a fourth degree knight and a former grand knight. He was also a coach and avid supporter of youth hockey; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 939)

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Bunker, of Franklin, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, March 25, 1994; (HLS 940)

Starley Moffitt, student at Cherryfield Elementary School, who won 2nd place in the S.A.D. #37 Spelling Bee; (HLS 941)

Anna Molitor, of Cherryfield, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class of Narraguagus High School; (HLS 942)

Courtney Maratta, student at the D.W. Merritt School in Addison, who won the S.A.D. #37 Spelling Bee; (HLS 943)

Katie Mathews, of Cherryfield, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class of Narraguagus High School; (HLS 944) the members of the Vinalhaven High School Math Team for outstanding achievement in competition in 1993-94. They placed first among the Class C schools and second among all classes; (HLS 945)

Ruth Mary Catherine Blake, formerly of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Blake was a communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church and a loyal and faithful member of TOPS; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 946)

Matt Casavant, recipient of the all-conference presented at the Big East Basketball Conference held at Bangor High School; (HLS 947)

Tate McPherson, recipient of the all-conference presented at the Big East Basketball Conference held at Bangor High School; (HLS 948)

Kyle Keenan, recipient of a scholar-athlete award presented at the Big East Basketball Conference held at Bangor High School; (HLS 949)

School Administrative District No. 1, on being recognized by Redbook Magazine as the best school in the State of Maine; (HLS 950)

Tim Prescott, of Presque Isle, who was named Coach of the Year by the Big East Basketball Conference; (HLS 951)

Heather Piper, recipient of a scholar-athlete award presented at the Big East Basketball Conference held at Bangor High School; (HLS 952)

Officer Robert E. Reid, of Presque Isle, who was presented his service revolver by the city manager as a token of appreciation for his 21 years of dedicated service to the city; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 953) the members of the Presque Isle High School Jazz Combo, Division I First Place winners at the State Jazz Festival. Congratulations is also extended to the following who won individual solo awards: Tyler Wood on the piano, Justin Wood on alto sax and Phil Yaeger on the trombone; (HLS 954)

the members of the Presque Isle Middle School Stage Band, Division I Second Place winners at the State Jazz Festival; (HLS 955)

the following members of the Presque Isle High School Stage Band Division I solo award winners: Justin Wood on the alto sax and Phil Yaeger on the trombone; (HLS 956) and welcoming the 12 students and 2 teachers from Arkhangel School No. 6, of Arkhangel, Russia, as they participate in the High School exchange of April, 1994. It is part of the very successful Sister City exchange between Greater Portland, Maine and Arkhangel, Russia; (HLS 957)

Dale E. Lyons, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. Lyons was very active in the Millinocket Nazarene Church. He held various elected positions and represented the Maine District at the 23rd General Assembly. Mr. Lyons traveled throughout New England as a gospel singer for many years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 958)

L. T. "Pete" Pedersen, of Vinalhaven, who was given a Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics Teaching for the State of Maine. We join the people of Vinalhaven in expressing appreciation for Mr. Pedersen's dedication to his profession and to his students; (HLS 959)

Pearle Virgie, of Orono, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 97th birthday; (HLS 960)

Bruce Trott, of Eliot, for 20 years of continued service to the Town of Eliot. His work on the Volunteer Fire Department, Business Development Committee, Board of Appeals and Budget Committee has made him a mainstay of the community. The people of Eliot truly appreciate his many years of hard work; (HLS 961)

Jeff Pelkey, of Eliot, for receiving the Fabian Drake Good Citizen Award. Jeff is a source of pride to the people of Eliot and to the State of Maine. His work as the D.A.R.E. Director in Eliot has helped many young people through the years and we thank him for his achievements; (HLS 962)

Drusilla (Dru) Smith, for her 28 years of dedicated service as a ballot clerk for the Town of Sidney; (HLS 963)

the Town of Raymond, a country town where open fields, dark forests and glistening lakes invite residents and visitors to live life to its fullest, and in recognizing the town's residents, descendants and friends as they celebrate the establishment of the legal settlement of the town on Founder's Day, August 13, 1994; (HLS 964)

George R. McGinn, of Old Town and Bradley, whose death has saddened family and friends and who will be remembered for his kind and caring nature. Mr. McGinn was the husband of Gretchen "Gerry" (Fitzsimmons) McGinn and the father of Kathy Marie. He was a longtime employee of the James River Corporation, serving as fire chief of the fire brigade. He was a veteran of World War II, a member of American Legion Post No. 84 and the VFW Post No. 3381. Mr. McGinn also served as a Boy Scout leader for several years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 965)

Willard Parker, of Passadumkeag, a dedicated public servant who served his community for many years in many different capacities and who is retiring as a selectman. We join the members of the community in extending our appreciation for the contribution he has made to the town; (HLS 966)

Albert Starbird, 90, of Passadumkeag, who was one of the first of his trade to be issued an electrician's license in the State of Maine. Mr. Starbird is presently the electrical inspector for the Towns of Enfield and Passadumkeag. He has more than 55 years' experience in the electrical trade and is a great source of advice and inspiration to others. We congratulate him on his service to the area for over half a century; (HLS 967)

Wilbur Morgridge, of Eliot, for 30 years of vigilant service as Harbor Master for the Town of Eliot. He has been the guiding light to the many boats carrying the people of Eliot on their travels; (HLS 968) the following members of the Maranacook 5th & 6th grade travel basketball team for their accomplishments in 1993-94 in compiling a record of 36 wins and 3 losses and winning 3 postseason tournaments: Brian Gerrity, Justin Olsen, Jared Ishkanian, Greg Creek, Joey Lemieux, Matt Wilson, Evan Hall, Anthony Mancini, Ryan Raines and Nick Lachapelle and their coaches Bruce Gerrity, Mark Ishkanian and Terry Creek; (HLS 969)

Carl W. Litsch, of Boy Scout Troop #271 in Presque Isle, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 970)

Frank Hopkins, an 8th-grade student at Fort Kent Elementary School, who won the Aroostook County Spelling Bee; (HLS 971)

Allan Erickson, a senior at Traip Academy in Kittery, for being selected for the Maine Sunday Telegram Class C Boys All-Star Basketball Team; (HLS 972)

Alex Scott, a senior at Traip Academy in Kittery, for being selected for the Maine Sunday Telegram Class C Boys All-Star Basketball Team; (HLS 973)

Andrea Little, of York High School, for being selected for the Maine Sunday Telegram Class B Girls All-State Basketball Team; (HLS 974)

Joanna Brown, of York High School, for being selected for the Maine Sunday Telegram Class B Girls All-State Basketball Team and being named its Player of the Year. She averaged 16.9 points and 10.9 rebounds per game and finished her varsity career with 993 points in 3 seasons; (HLS 975)

Katherine E. Davis, of Veazie, whose death has saddened family and friends. She was one of the nation's first teachers to specialize in multicultural education. Mrs. Davis was a communicant of St. John's Catholic Church and was active in many social, cultural, service and parish organizations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 976)

the Millinocket Middle School Choir, of Millinocket, for winning First Place in the State Vocal Jazz Festival, under the direction of Miss Sherri Pelletier; (HLS 977) the Stearns High School Jazz Choir, of Millinocket, for winning First Place in the State Vocal Jazz Festival, under the direction of Mr. Doug Kennedy; (HLS 978)

Gertrude York, of Millinocket, and extending our very best wishes on her 80th birthday; (HLS 979)

Gladys Ganiel, of Narraguagus High School, in Harrington, the State Foul Shooting Co-Champion for 1994; (HLS 980)

Gerard and Rita Bernier, of Sanford, on the occasion of the Sanford Lions Club 14th Annual Franco-American Night, for their many contributions to the Franco-American community; (HLS 981)

Ann Jordan, of Sebago Gardens in North Windham, who was named the Maine State Designer of the Year by the Maine State Florists' and Growers Association at the annual Maine State Florists' Day Show; (HLS 982)

Sarah Beal, of Beals, a senior at Jonesport-Beals High School, who has been selected to receive the 1994 Principal's Award. This award is given for academic achievement and citizenship by the Maine Principal's Association; (HLS 983)

Allison C. Pope, of East Machias, a senior at Washington Academy, who has been selected to receive the 1994 Principal's Award. This award is given for academic achievement and citizenship by the Maine Principal's Association; (HLS 984)

Lloyd E. Oliver, Jr., of Old Town, beloved husband of Helen (Stormann) and father of Brenda and Kim, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. Oliver was a veteran of the Korean Conflict and a longtime employee of the Old Town Police Department, having retired with the rank of sergeant. He was a 32nd degree member of the Star of the East Masonic Lodge #60 AF & AM, a life member of the National Rifle Association and an avid outdoorsman; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 985)

the Cape Elizabeth Girls "Capers" Swim Team, upon winning its 3rd straight Class A Swimming and Diving State Championship; (HLS 986)

Dewey J. Morong, of Boy Scout Troop #648 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 987)

the following members of the Millinocket Bantam hockey team for their accomplishments in 1993-94 as the regular season Penobscot Valley Champions, the Penobscot Valley Tournament Champions and as participants in the final four for the State: Travis Cummings, Justin Birt, Josh MacDonald, Loren Pinette, Kevin Libby, Peter Madden, Jared Merry, Alex Morrison, Kris Shields, Heath Weatherbee, Dan Gardener, Mat Lynch, Jon Seamans, Frank Bowley, Rocket Munoz, Carl Barr, Steve Jamieson and Leo Marquis; coach Bruce Morrison; and assistant coaches Joe Lynch and Mike Merry; (HLS 988)

Stanley G. Phillips, of Orrington, a longtime employee of the St. Johnsburys Trucking Company, in Bangor, where he served in several capacities including terminal manager and office manager. Mr. Phillips, the beloved husband of Elisabeth (Heinlein), will be remembered for his kind and gentle nature towards all; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 989)

George Moran, coach of the Lady Vikings, who was named as Coach of the Year by the Big East Basketball Conference; (HLS 990)

Marion Dunivan, whose name has been included in the Snowmobiler's Hall of Fame by the Pine Tree Society for Handicapped Children and Adults during the 21st Annual Pine Tree Camp Snowmobile Ride-in, in appreciation of her efforts to raise funds on behalf of the camp; (HLS 991)

Hector C. Albert, of Madawaska, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 992)

Tim Brown, of Boy Scout Troop #300 in Wells, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 993)

Nokomis Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Stanley Buchanan, for winning the Division I State Championship for the 5th consecutive year; (HLS 994)

Donald W. and Ida J. Green Curtis, of Palmyra, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 22, 1994. They are the parents of Carl Curtis, Patricia Jordan, Gary Curtis, Richard Curtis and Donna Holden, and the grandparents of 12; (HLS 995)

Sandra Lovell, of Portland, an educator with Planned Parenthood of Northern New England, for her commitment to international family planning. Ms. Lovell was among a group chosen to travel to Uganda to train sexuality educators, assisting that nation to achieve a sustainable population, HIV/AIDS prevention and healthy families; (HLS 996)

Katharine "Kit" Poland, of Madison, for 7 years of dedicated service as a scout leader for the Madison/Anson Pack #419; (HLS 997)

Erric Williams, of Boy Scout Troop #604 in Winthrop, who, through hard work and dedication, has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 998)

Travis Humphrey, of Houlton High School, who was selected as top male vocalist in the High School Show Choir Competition for Division B. This is the fourth straight year that Travis has won this award in his division; (HLS 999)

Mark Askren, of Houlton Junior High School, who was selected as top male vocalist in the Junior High School Show Choir Competition. This is the second straight year that Mark has won this award; (HLS 1000) the Houlton High School Show Choir, winner of the State Championship in Division B of the Show Choir Competition. This is the second straight year that Houlton High School has placed first in this competition; (HLS 1001)

Nokomis Jazz Chorus, under the direction of Stanley Buchanan, for winning the Division I State Championship for the 5th consecutive year; (HLS 1002) the members of the York County 4-H Beef Club for their participation in the gathering, donating and sending of hay to Iowa farmers devastated by the floods of 1993. Their participation demonstrates the kinship, compassion, generosity, caring and commitment of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1003)

Steve Shaw, coach of the Central Aroostook Panthers, who was honored by the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches as the Class D Coach of the Year. He guided the team to their first regional and state title, with a 20-game winning streak. Coach Shaw gives credit to the administration at Central Aroostook High School, the players and the whole community of Mars Hill; (HLS 1004)

Jasper "Bud" Umphrey, the Fire Chief of Washburn, on his retirement after 31 years as Chief and 47 years with the volunteer department. He has contributed great leadership to the department and the residents of Washburn are deeply indebted to him. Chief Umphrey is well respected by other fire departments throughout Aroostook County and New Brunswick; (HLS 1005)

Samuel Saliba, of Bangor and Lamoine, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was owner of Saliba's Rug Sales and Service for over 40 years and was well-known and respected throughout Maine and New England. Mr. Saliba was a member and past president of the Bangor Chamber of Commerce, was involved with numerous civic organizations and was a recipient of the Norbert X. Dowd Award. He was a valued citizen and a beloved husband, father and grandfather; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1006)

Dorothy A. Neal, a teacher at Sacopee Valley High School for 27 years, who has been named the National Business Education Teacher of the Year and Maine State Teacher of the Year; (HLS 1007) the following members of the Old Town High School Chess Team: Christopher Dunn, Saurab Barua, Travis Beadnell, Tracy Comeau and their coach Lawrence Nicholson, who have been named the 1994 State Chess Champions; (HLS 1008)

Julian and Betty Jones, of Bangor, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 8, 1994; a happy anniversary to 2 special people to whom we send best wishes for a wonderful day and many wonderful memories; (HLS 1009)

Charles O. "Peeper" Brown, Sr., of Millinocket, beloved husband of Evelyn V. (Raymond) Brown, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1010)

Jason Howes, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class of Stearns High School in Millinocket; (HLS 1011)

Laura Cyr, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class of Stearns High School in Millinocket; (HLS 1012)

Jennifer White, of Presque Isle, who was selected as first runner-up and who was also named Miss Congeniality in the annual Miss Presque Isle pageant; (HLS 1013)

Alan Gordon, coach of the University of Maine-Presque Isle women's basketball team, who was named Coach of the Year by the Maine Athletic Conference; (HLS 1014)

Shari Scullion, of Presque Isle, who was crowned 1994 Miss Presque Isle and who also received the talent award in the annual Miss Presque Isle pageant; (HLS 1015)

Kathryn Jo Bradgon, who was named second runner-up and the winner of the award for high ticket sales in the Miss Presque Isle pageant; (HLS 1016)

Gail A. and Edgar F. Hamm Jr., who were honored by the East Millinocket/Medway Chamber of Commerce for outstanding and conscientious service to the Katahdin area; (HLS 1017)

Nandini Mukhopadhyay, a 7th grader at Brunswick Junior High School, winner of the Maine Sunday Telegram Spelling Bee for the 2nd consecutive year. Nandini is one of only 3 champion state spellers who have managed to repeat as state winners in consecutive years; (HLS 1018)

Joyce Champlin, of Rockland, for the many years of volunteer service she has provided the City of Rockland and Knox County residents. Her aid to the elderly, children, women and the mentally ill will long be felt because of her service on and creation of many boards and organizations to assist them; (HLS 1019)

Sharon Y. Miller, in appreciation of her many years of dedicated service to the State and to Governor John R. McKernan, Jr.; (HLS 1020)

Earl Bonness, of Grand Lake Stream, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1021)

Lesley Brown, of Grand Lake Stream, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1022)

Val Moore, of Grand Lake Stream, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1023)

Lawrence (Pop) Moore, of Grand Lake Stream, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1024)

George Sprague, of Grand Lake Stream, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1025)

Kenneth Wheaton, of Grand Lake Stream, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1026)

Harold Yates, of Grand Lake Stream, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1027)

Earl Gould, of Princeton, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1028)

Hovey Gould, of Princeton, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1029)

Paul Slipp, of Princeton, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1030)

Albert Dana, of Indian Township, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1031)

Lola Sockabasin, of Indian Township, in appreciation of 50 years of dedicated service as a Registered Maine Guide; (HLS 1032)

the Madison Area Memorial High School Girls Basketball Team and their coach Albert Veneziano, winners of the Western Maine Class C Basketball Tournament; (HLS 1033)

Ralph E. Walsh, Sr., of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was retired from Great Northern Paper Company and was a member of the Machinist Union. Mr. Walsh was a member of the Millinocket Lodge No. 1521 of the Benevolent Protective Order of the Elks; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1034)

Henry James Carbone, in honor of 27 years of service as the Year Book Advisor at Fort Kent Community High School; (HLS 1035) and in extending our very best wishes to Annie I. Somers on her 80th birthday, April 15, 1994; (HLS 1036)

Peter O'Donnell, on his retirement from the Portland City Council. We congratulate him on his outstanding and dedicated service to the people of Portland. As City Councilor and former Mayor, he has provided strong leadership and statesmanship in his support of civil rights and in his service to the neighborhoods and the low-income residents of Portland; (HLS 1037) and in extending our best wishes to Jason R. Southwick, of Troop 310 in Saco, for attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1038)

Jill Eastman, of Windham, who was a winner of the Colgate-Palmolive Scholarship, for her essay on "What a College Education Means to The Future of America." Jill is 14 years old and her essay was judged one of the four best from 6000 entries for the 4-year, $34,000 college scholarship; (HLS 1039)

Dorothy Clarke Wilson, of Orono, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, May 9, 1994. Mrs. Wilson is a well-known author of historical fiction and biography with more than 27 books to her credit. She is the recipient of an achievement citation from the Maine chapter of the American Association of University Women and the Maryann Hartman Award from the University of Maine; (HLS 1040) and in extending our very best wishes to Irene F. Wark, of Dexter, on the occasion of her 80th birthday, May 4, 1994. She was born in Palmyra, graduated from Farmington Normal School and worked for many years as manager of the United Stores in Dexter. Mrs. Wark is very active in the Methodist Church in Dexter and is loved and appreciated by her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, whom she has nurtured all her life; (HLS 1041) and in extending our congratulations to Eric D. Wheeler, of Troop #39 in Scarborough, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1042) and in extending our congratulations to Scott B. Murray, of Troop #39 in Scarborough, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1043) and in extending our congratulations to Mark C. McGinnis, of Troop #39 in Scarborough, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1044) and in extending our congratulations to Jeffrey R. Graffam, of Troop #39 in Scarborough, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1045) and in extending our congratulations to Larry E. Hawk II, of Troop #39 in Scarborough, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1046)

Jeremy D. Dunham, of Jefferson, whose death has saddened family and friends. Jeremy was a senior at Lincoln Academy in Newcastle and was recently honored at a Blaine House reception for his performance on the Maine Educational Assessment Test; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1047)

Donald Buckingham, Principal of the Sedgwick Elementary School, recipient of the Maine 1994 National Distinguished Principals Award; (HLS 1048)

John Fuhrer, of Millinocket, recipient of the Fin-Feather Club Adrian Batson Sportsman of the Year Award; (HLS 1049)

Matthew Belanger, of Rumford, who was recognized for scholarship at the Maine Scholars Achievement Awards program on March 27, 1994. Matthew will receive a $1000 scholarship when he completes high school and is admitted to the University of Maine; (HLS 1050)

Vicki Lee Farquhar, of Millinocket, who will be sadly missed by family and friends. She was a member of the Maine Trappers Association and the Millinocket Baptist Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1051)

Marlene J. Hallett, of Millinocket, who will be sadly missed by family and friends. She was a lifelong communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church, where she led the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine for many years. Mrs. Hallett was a member of the Jaycee Wives and worked as a nurses aide at Millinocket Regional Hospital. She will always be remembered for her many acts of caring, her kindness and her generosity; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1052)

Francis Patrick "Pat" Galvin, formerly of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mr. Galvin was a computer systems assistant engineer and a veteran of the United States Army; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1053)

Willis A. Trafton, Jr., of Auburn, whose death has saddened family and friends. A former member of the Auburn City Council, he served in the Maine House of Representatives from 1952 to 1956 and was elected Speaker of the House for his second term. Mr. Trafton ran for Governor as the Republican candidate in 1956, and had been involved in numerous business, community and social organizations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1054)

Ida Gopan, of Bangor, who is retiring after 27 years of dedicated and loyal service to the Jewish Community Center. She was very conscientious and worked many long hours, and continued to work for the Jewish Community Council after the Center was closed; (HLS 1055)

Frank and Edwina Brochu, of Bingham, and in extending our very best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 24, 1994; (HLS 1056)

Zippel Elementary School, in Presque Isle, for receiving the Maine Energy Education Youth Award for 4 of the last 5 years. Miss Jennifer York and her elementary class won this year's contest with a project entitled "The Earth Is in Our Hands"; (HLS 1057)

Ellsworth's Bryant E. Moore School Odyssey of the Mind competitors, the Iliad Team, for winning the First Place Honor in the Division I competition; (HLS 1058)

Albert S. Hall, on his retirement as the Superintendent of Schools in Waterville. He began his distinguished career in education as a sixth grade teacher in Waterville over 36 years ago, and was also a supervising principal and assistant superintendent in the Waterville school system. He has been actively involved in numerous professional associations, as well as many community services, such as the Boys'/Girls' Club, the United Way and the Salvation Army; (HLS 1059)

Leon Audet, of Winslow, a gallant soldier of the Fourth Infantry during World War II, on the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of the Allied Invasion of Normandy, known as D-Day, June 6, 1994. We offer our gratitude to him and to people like him, who gave of themselves for this momentous effort; (HLS 1060)

the Sibelius High School Chamber Choir, of Helsinki, Finland, and in extending a welcome to its members and conductor Mrs. Marukka Riihimaki. The Choir has won many awards for performances in Europe and is one of the finest European youth choirs. We congratulate the choir on its successes and extend our best wishes on their 1994 American tour, strengthening the cultural and international ties between our countries; (HLS 1061)

Cheryl Bossie, for her meritorious service as president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Ladies Auxiliary, Post 9389 from 1991 to 1994 and for her dedication to the community and diligent leadership; (HLS 1062)

the top 10 students of the 1994 graduating class at Maranacook Community School in Readfield: Benjamin L. Davis, Heather Albert-Knopp, Joel Tolman, Jennifer Durgin, Jennifer Hilton, Jessica Therrien, Karen

Therrien, Loryn Kipp, Lisa Fleury and Mark LaChance; (HLS 1063)

Steve Groves, for 25 years of service to the State of Maine. Mr. Groves served in the Maine Department of Environmental Protection as the Director of the Bureau of Water Quality Control. He was involved with the reclassification of Maine's rivers, streams, lakes and ponds; (HLS 1064)

Isaiah Peppard, of Boy Scout Troop #610 in Richmond, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. Isaiah is the first scout to earn this distinction in the history of Troop #610 and the first from the community of Richmond in more than 40 years; (HLS 1065)

Bethany Kelsch, of Edward Little High School in Auburn, for academic excellence. She was honored on March 29, 1994 at an award ceremony and reception at the Blaine House as one of 13 students who scored highest on the reading, writing and mathematics sections of the 1993 Maine Educational Assessment; (HLS 1066)

Wade Dunham, member of the Deer Isle-Stonington High School Chess Team. The team was second in the nation at the recent national Chess Tournament; (HLS 1067)

Aaron Nevells, member of the Deer Isle-Stonington High School Chess Team. The team was second in the nation at the recent national Chess Tournament, and Aaron earned the distinction of being 1st overall at the Tournament; (HLS 1068)

Dick Powell, coach of the Deer Isle-Stonington High School Chess Team. The team was second in the nation at the recent national Chess Tournament; (HLS 1069)

Chris Keefe, coach of the Deer Isle-Stonington High School Chess Team. The team was second in the nation at the recent national Chess Tournament; (HLS 1070)

Dylan Grant, member of the Deer Isle-Stonington High School Chess Team. The team was second in the nation at the recent national Chess Tournament; (HLS 1071)

Richard Larrabee, member of the Deer Isle-Stonington High School Chess Team. The team was second in the nation at the recent national Chess Tournament; (HLS 1072)

Andrew Wendell, member of the Deer Isle-Stonington High School Chess Team. The team was second in the nation at the recent national Chess Tournament; (HLS 1073)

the Jazz Show Chorus of Nokomis Regional High School in Newport, directed by Denise Parkhurst, for winning the Division A State Championship; (HLS 1074)

Jude Kelley, a member of the 1993 graduating class from Narraguagus High School, in Harrington, who obtained the highest grade point average; (HLS 1075)

William Glanz, Associate Professor of Zoology, recipient of the Presidential Outstanding Teaching Award in recognition of his excellence as a teacher at the University of Maine; (HLS 1076)

Dana Humphrey, Associate Professor of Civil Engineering, recipient of the 1994 Distinguished Maine Professor Award presented by the University of Maine General Alumni Association in recognition of his devotion to education and to students, overall teaching effectiveness, research accomplishments and public service; (HLS 1077)

Dr. Rodney M. Redding, of Clinton, upon his retirement from the Kennebec Valley Technical College after 20 years of service in education, including his affiliation with Thomas College and the Department of Education. Dr. Redding is well-known as an independent thinker and an innovative educator and administrator; (HLS 1078)

Gladys Hocking, on the occasion of her 100th birthday, June 9, 1994. Her contributions to the community, her thoughtful acts of kindness and her never failing good humor make her a blessing to her family and her many friends; (HLS 1079) the following students from the Central School in South Berwick: Aja Giar, Katie Leavitt, Jessie Walker-Lewis, Erin Schea, Scott McGregor, Jennifer Hamel and Alec Vaughan and coaches Dan Giar and Gary Leavitt, who finished first in the division one "Believable Music" category at the state Odyssey of the Mind championship and in extending best wishes as they participate in the national championship; (HLS 1080) the week of August 14, 1994 as the 200th Anniversary of the arrival of Jonathan Fisher in Blue Hill. Jonathan Fisher was the 1st minister to settle in this area; (HLS 1081)

Ray Owen, Jr., Commissioner of the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife and Professor of Wildlife, recipient of the Presidential Public Service Achievement Award presented by the University of Maine; (HLS 1082)

C. Stewart Doty, Professor of History, recipient of the Presidential Research and Creative Achievement Award for his excellent record of scholarship at the University of Maine; (HLS 1083)

Marjorie L. Philbrook, formerly of Millinocket, beloved wife of the late Willard E. Philbrook, Sr., whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1084)

Martin H. George, beloved husband of Patricia George, of Millinocket, a longtime employee of the Great Northern Paper Company where he was a member of the Firemen and Oilers. Mr. George enjoyed fly fishing and fly tying and was a member of the Fin and Feather Club. He also enjoyed his workshop, known to his friends as Punk's Place; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1085)

Irene Bradford, of Patten, on the occasion of her 80th Birthday, June 10, 1994; (HLS 1086)

Eugene and Edith Pelkey, of East Millinocket, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 22, 1994; (HLS 1087)

Jason R. Morin, of Boy Scout Troop #603 in Augusta, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1088)

Kathryn Lewis, of the University of Maine at Machias, for outstanding educational achievement. She earned the distinction of graduating Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts; (HLS 1089)

Merle and Ruby Thompson, of Jay, on the occasion of their 65th Wedding Anniversary, July 6, 1994; (HLS 1090)

Frederick A. Ashmore, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #81 in Franklin, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1091)

Jolene Mamaree Griffin, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class of Central Aroostook Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 1092)

Danielle Lynn Wilson, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class of Central Aroostook Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 1093)

Jason Stewart Adams, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 1094)

Carolyn Marie Sullivan, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 1095)

Jared Bruce, of Fort Fairfield High School, who, for high academic achievement, has earned the distinction of being one of the top 2 students of the 1994 graduating class; (HLS 1096)

Amy Shaw, of Fort Fairfield High School, who, for high academic achievement, has earned the distinction of being one of the top 2 students of the 1994 graduating class; (HLS 1097)

Randi Pickering, Chris Vinciguerra, Tim Vaughn and their advisor, Mary Sue Jackson, of the South Berwick Central School, who won 3rd place in the Maine Energy Education Program Youth Award and Recognition Program for their "Recycling Six-Pack Rings" activity in the primary level competition; (HLS 1098)

Geneva Giffard Harriman, of Orrington, whose memory will be honored at a service on May 29, 1994. She will be remembered for her dedication to her family and her faith. Through her strength and hard work, she raised her 3 children alone, and the loss of her husband and later her daughter was borne but never shown. Her love for her family and her God provided and motivated this lovely lady for a full and rewarding life. We thank the Lord for gracing us with her presence and touching our lives with love; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1099)

Officer Tim McCue, of Presque Isle, who was recently named Officer of the Year by the Maine D.A.R.E. Officers Association. He ran a 16-week program in 1993 to teach elementary school students in S.A.D. No. 1 about the dangers of substance abuse and peer pressure. His reinforcement of high self-esteem has gained him the reputation of a trusted friend and confidant among the district's students; (HLS 1100)

Nicole Dobson, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class at Washburn District High School; (HLS 1101)

Paige Cox, one of the top ten students of the 1994 graduating class at Katahdin High School; (HLS 1102)

Chris Curtis, one of the top ten students of the 1994 graduating class of Katahdin High School; (HLS 1103)

Jaime Dyer, one of the top ten students of the 1994 graduating class of Katahdin High School; (HLS 1104)

Shenanne Tucker, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class at Washburn District High School; (HLS 1105)

Amanda Marecaux, of Ashland, recipient of the Girl Scouts' highest achievement, the Gold Award; (HLS 1106)

Jason Shayne Lincoln, of Boy Scout Troop #207 in Union, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1107)

John Rush, one of the top ten students of the 1994 graduating class of Katahdin High School; (HLS 1108)

Bernice Michaud, who was named the 1994 Outstanding Alumna by the University of Maine at Fort Kent Alumni Association; (HLS 1109)

Amy Hamlin, of East Millinocket, who has earned the title of Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class of Schenck High School; (HLS 1110)

Ernie Cyr, of Medway, who has earned the title of Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class of Schenck High School; (HLS 1111)

Shane Pulkkinen, one of the top ten students of the 1994 graduating class at Katahdin High School; (HLS 1112)

Beth Bagley, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class at Katahdin High School; (HLS 1113)

Dan Engroff, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class at Katahdin High School; (HLS 1114)

Amanda Robinson, one of the top ten students of the 1994 graduating class at Katahdin High School; (HLS 1115)

Michelle Roy, one of the top ten students of the 1994 graduating class at Katahdin High School; (HLS 1116)

Heidi Tower, one of the top ten students of the 1994 graduating class at Katahdin High School; (HLS 1117)

the Katahdin Valley Health Center on the occasion of its 20th anniversary; (HLS 1118)

the 20 Educators and Students from St. Petersburg, Russia, on their 10-day exchange visit in June to Rumford, Maine, and the United States. These social, cultural and educational exchanges promote peace and goodwill and provide an opportunity for greater understanding between our 2 great nations; (HLS 1119)

Alice Severance, a member of the Boynton-Webber Unit No. 179 of South China, who has been the State President of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Maine for 1993-94 and has been a dedicated and capable leader who has served the organization with distinction; (HLS 1120)

William Audet, a member of the Westbrook Memorial Post No. 197, who has been the State Commander of the American Legion Department of Maine for 1993-94 and has been a dedicated and capable leader and has served his town, state and nation with distinction. Commander Audet has always been ready to stand and defend his family, his religion and his country; (HLS 1121)

Amy Edwards, of Hudson, whose academic achievements have earned her the distinction of being Salutatorian of Central High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1122)

Julie Allen, of Bradford, whose academic achievements have earned her the distinction of being Valedictorian of Central High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1123)

Rebekah Fletcher, whose great academic achievements have earned her the high rank of Valedictorian of the Traip Academy High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1124)

David Alexander Scott, whose great academic achievements have earned him the distinction of being Salutatorian of the Traip Academy High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1125)

Staci Des Bouvrie, who has accomplished the great academic achievement of second honor essayist of the Traip Academy High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1126)

Angela Averill, who has accomplished the great academic achievement of first honor essayist of the Traip Academy High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1127)

Keith Lemont, of the Frisbee Middle School in Kittery, for his excellent first-place performance in the Math Alliance League sponsored by the University of Southern Maine; (HLS 1128)

Joanne Pratt, of the Frisbee Middle School in Kittery, for her excellent second-place performance in the Math Alliance League sponsored by the University of Southern Maine; (HLS 1129)

Jonathan "Kipp" Smith, of Troop #149 in Bridgton, for attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1130)

Clifton and Doris Dunn, of Mt. Vernon, who have dedicated over 65 years of service to their community by providing dispatching for the Mt. Vernon Fire and Rescue Departments; (HLS 1131)

Sarah Collett, whose great academic achievements have earned her the high rank of Salutatorian of the Windham High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1132)

Jamie Rand, whose great academic achievements have earned her the high rank of Valedictorian of the Windham High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1133)

Byron and Marilyn Ames, of Auburn, who have been recognized by the Central Maine Medical Center for their volunteer service. Mr. and Mrs. Ames have contributed a combined total of more than 12,000 hours of volunteer time to the medical center; (HLS 1134)

Alberta Wentworth, who has received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Southern Maine Agency on Aging; (HLS 1135)

Gretchen Goding, of Marshfield, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class at Machias Memorial High School; (HLS 1136)

Allison Pope, of East Machias, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class at Washington Academy; (HLS 1137)

Robert Moreau, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class at Washington Academy; (HLS 1138)

Sandi Carver, of Beals, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class at Jonesport-Beals High School; (HLS 1139)

Sara Beal, of Beals, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class at Jonesport-Beals High School; (HLS 1140)

Ruth Daggett, of Durham, on the occasion of her retirement after 32 years of dedicated service as the Executive Secretary of School Union #30 in Lisbon Falls; (HLS 1141) the Town of Newfield, one of the smallest towns in the southwesternmost county of York, where hills, beautiful lakes, ponds, rivers, brooks, plains and rolling farmlands invite residents and visitors to live life to its fullest. We recognize the town's residents, descendants and friends as they celebrate the 200th anniversary of the incorporation of the town, February 26, 1994; (HLS 1142)

the following members of the Greater Rumford Community Center Gymnastics Team who are the Level 2 State Champions: Missy Zadakis, Sara Anderson, Ronnie Jean Bernard, Jessica Flynn, Jeni Lee, Laurie Carrie, Melissa Martin, Mary Gill, Amy Marston, Michelle Mayo and Coach John Tardiff. The team received 27 medals, 4 personal trophies and the Number 1 team trophy for the State of Maine; (HLS 1143)

Hazel R. Dana, a registered nurse on the Pleasant Point Passamaquoddy Indian Reservation, in appreciation of her years of dedicated service and commitment in establishing and maintaining health services for the members of the Passamaquoddy Tribe of the Abnaki Nation of American Indians; (HLS 1144)

Sister Maureen Wallace, teacher and friend of Maine's Native Americans, for 26 years of dedicated service as a teacher to the Passamaquoddy Native American school children. Sister Maureen's dynamic approach to teaching and profound respect for Native American culture and spirituality have won her a place in the hearts of the tribe's people; (HLS 1145)

Doris Kirby, Social Services Director to the people of Pleasant Point and an advocate for Native Peoples since the 1950's, in appreciation of her 40 years of dedication and commitment as a teacher, health advisor and counselor to the people of the Passamaquoddy Tribe; (HLS 1146)

Mary Mitchell Gabriel, of Indian Township, master Indian basket maker and the only New Englander to receive the National Heritage Award, presented by the National Endowment for the Arts for the year 1994; (HLS 1147)

Sara Wolverson, of Machias, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class at Machias Memorial High School; (HLS 1148)

Galen Fox Butler, beloved husband of June Butler and father of Gale, Lori and Jody, all of Old Town. Mr. Butler served with the Old Town Police Department and had served in the Army, Navy, Air Force and Air National Guard. He was an active member of the Orono American Legion. Mr. Butler, known as "Red" to family and friends, dedicated his life to helping and caring for others and will be missed by the entire community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1149)

Marie Reardon, who received a Governor's Award for working towards drug awareness and prevention. Ms. Reardon worked with the K-Cap group; (HLS 1150)

Kelsey Vaughn, of the Frisbee Middle School in Kittery, for her excellent second-place performance in the Math Alliance League sponsored by the University of Southern Maine; (HLS 1151)

Michael P. White, of Castle Hill, on the occasion of his retirement after 29 years of dedicated service to the United States Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service and in appreciation of his work with the Central Aroostook Soil and Water Conservation District and the natural resource community; (HLS 1152)

Jason Cookson, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class at Glenburn High School; (HLS 1153)

Michael Lynch, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class at Glenburn High School; (HLS 1154)

Peter Titula, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class at Glenburn High School; (HLS 1155)

Edna M. Brooker, of Millinocket, known affectionately as "Sister" to family and friends, will be sadly missed. Mrs. Brooker was an avid gardener and enjoyed crafts. She was a member of the Francis E. Elliott Post Number 4154 of the Veterans of Foreign War Auxiliary, the Donald V. Henry Post Number 80 of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Millinocket Cemetery Committee and the Millinocket Baptist Church. Mrs. Brooker was a girl scout leader for 10 years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1156)

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Smith, of Harrington, and in extending our best wishes on the celebration of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 6, 1994; (HLS 1157)

Bangor High School Boys Baseball Team, winners of the 1994 Class A State Championship; (HLS 1158)

the First Maine Heavy Artillery and the Living History Association, for representing the State of Maine at the 130th anniversary of the Battle of Petersburg. In the charge of June 18, 1864, the original "First Maine Heavies" suffered the greatest loss of any one federal regiment in any one action of the Civil War, symbolizing the sacrifice and dedication of the Pine Tree State in the War to Save the Union; (HLS 1159)

Ruth E. Kenneson, of Millinocket, beloved wife of the late Charles E. Kenneson. Her death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1160)

the Senator from Cumberland, Gerard P. Conley, Jr., of Portland, on his retirement from the Maine State Legislature. He will be remembered for his humor, patience and understanding. Senator Conley provided outstanding service to the people, and was strongly committed to the neighborhoods of his district. He had the courage to stand by his convictions, even if alone in his views, and always remembered his roots in defending the people's interest; (HLS 1161)

Timothy Furrow, an educator in the Brewer School System and cancer survivor, and in extending best wishes on his running trek from the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute in Boston to the Eastern Maine Medical Center to raise funds for cancer research; (HLS 1162)

Keith Martin, whose great academic achievements have earned him the high rank of Valedictorian of the Caribou High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1163)

Jessica Huck, whose great academic achievements have earned her the high rank of Salutatorian of the Caribou High School Class of 1994; (HLS 1164)

Verna Norton, of Caribou, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, May 27, 1994; (HLS 1165)

Tracy Fongemie, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class at Madawaska High School; (HLS 1166)

Robin Chasse, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class at Madawaska High School; (HLS 1167)

Tricia Daggett, Christine Lipofsky, Lisa Pushard, Carrie Therrien, Heather Leet, Megan McLellan, Heidi Reynolds, Angela Castonguay, Jessica Cosgrove, Tracy Lamontagne, Jessica Oliver, Joanne Strout, Michelle Morin and Tara Tracy; manager Sarah Castonguay; assistant coaches Steve Golden and Patricia Doyle; and head coach Linda Laughlin, who captured the 1994 Class B State Softball Championship for Oak Hill High School; (HLS 1168)

Clayton H. Thomas, Sr., Department Commander of AmVets 1993-94, member of Post No. 14, Augusta, a dedicated and capable leader who has served his town, state and nation with distinction. Commander Thomas has always been ready to stand and defend his family, his religion and his country; (HLS 1169) the members and coaches of the Traip Academy Girls Track Team, winners of the 1994 Class C State Championship. This is the 1st State Title Championship for the team; (HLS 1170)

Katie Gentile, a member of the Traip Academy Girls Track Team, who won 1st place in the 100-meter dash event and the sprint relay at the 1994 Class C State Track Championship; (HLS 1171)

Rebekah Fletcher, a member of the Traip Academy Girls Track Team, who won 1st place in the 400-meter run and the sprint relay at the 1994 Class C State Championship; (HLS 1172)

Greg Cyr, a member of the Traip Academy Boys Track Team, who won 1st place in the triple jump at the 1994 Class C State Championship; (HLS 1173)

Jessie Lee, a member of the Traip Academy Girls Track Team, who won 1st place in the sprint relay at the 1994 Class C State Track Championship; (HLS 1174)

Kate Thompson, a member of the Traip Academy Girls Track Team, who won 1st place in the 100-meter hurdles, the triple jump and the sprint relay at the 1994 Class C State Track Championship; (HLS 1175)

Floyd W. Murphy, Jr., a firefighter with the Pioneer Hose Company for 11 years and a former member of a semi-pro baseball league and coach of a summer All-star team in Millinocket. Mr. Murphy enjoyed hunting and fishing and was an avid baseball fan. He was a member of the Millinocket Lodge of Elks No. 1521 and a longtime member of the N.R.A.; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1176)

Alfred M. Birmingham, of Millinocket, a self-employed trucker for many years and a past noble grand and longtime member of the Odd Fellows in Patten. Mr. Birmingham enjoyed hunting, fishing and gardening; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1177)

John P. (Jack) Zollo, of Rumford, who was inducted into the Maine Sports Hall of Fame on June 11, 1994. Jack was an All-Maine, All-East and Little All-American football guard. Jack has served his town, his state and his nation with distinction and was wounded four times during World War II and received the Silver and Bronze Stars for heroism. Jack is always ready to stand up to defend his family, his religion and his country; (HLS 1178) and in extending a very warm greeting to our friends and guests from Finland, the dance team Wanhapiika and the musicians Soittavat Saarat. We are pleased to welcome them to Monson and Maine and we thank them for their efforts to strengthen the cultural relations and friendship between our two nations; (HLS 1179)

Phidelma Wallace, a lifelong resident of Howland, who is retiring after 18 years of service in the Town Office. She has been a loyal and dedicated employee whose good nature and pleasant disposition always made it a pleasure for people to do town business. We extend to her our very best wishes; (HLS 1180)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gagnon, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 25th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1181)

Sandy Lynch, of Traip Academy in Kittery, who was named to the 1994 Maine Sunday Telegram Class C All-Star Softball Team; (HLS 1182)

Angela Averill, of Traip Academy in Kittery, who was named to the 1994 Maine Sunday Telegram Class C All-Star Softball Team; (HLS 1183) and extending our congratulations to Virginia and Sherman Higgins, of Kittery, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 25, 1994. (HLS 1184)

Beatrice Rand Fowler, of Norcross, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, June 21, 1994. Mrs. Fowler taught at many one-room schoolhouses around the state before settling at Norcross in the 1930's; (HLS 1185)

Frank W. "Lucky" Rush, of Millinocket, who will be missed by family and friends. He worked for the Great Northern Paper Co. for over 30 years, was a member of the Francis E. Elliot Post VFW and the Millinocket Lodge of the Elks No. 1521 and was a veteran of the U.S. Army, serving in the Korean War; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1186)

Jacqueline M. Pound, of Millinocket. The mother of three and grandmother of six, she thoroughly enjoyed her family, friends, flowers and home. She will be sadly missed; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1187)

Robert Z. Fitzpatrick, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was a veteran of World War II, serving with the United States Navy. Mr. Fitzpatrick was retired from the United States Postal Service and a member of the American Postal Workers Union and Millinocket Lodge Number 1521 of the Benevolent Protective Order of the Elks; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1188)

the Town of Bridgton, where within its boundaries well over a dozen lakes, several mountains, a large number of brooks and streams and acres of meadows and forests attest to its abundance of natural beauty, and in extending best wishes to the town's residents, descendants and friends as they celebrate the 200th anniversary of the incorporation of the town, February 7, 1794; (HLS 1189)

Joseph and Patricia Morgan, of Bath, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 8, 1994. We extend to them our congratulations and our very best wishes; (HLS 1190) and gratefully extending our congratulations to Patrick Cyr, 20, of Saco, for his heroic and selfless rescue of Mark Hoglund, Jr. (3 years old) and Brittany Hoglund (20 months old) from the swift waters of the Saco River on Saturday, May 28, 1994. Without an instant of thought for his own safety, Patrick dove twice into the river to pull the children to shore; (HLS 1191)

Erin Molitor, of the Narraguagus High School Track Team in Harrington, who was a member of the winning Class C 4 x 400-meter relay race team at the 1994 Eastern Maine Track Meet; (HLS 1192)

Amy Domrad, of the Narraguagus High School Track Team in Harrington, who was a member of the winning Class C 4 x 400-meter relay race team at the 1994 Eastern Maine Track Meet; (HLS 1193)

Kristin Polk, of the Narraguagus High School Track Team in Harrington, who was a member of the winning Class C 4 x 400-meter relay race team at the 1994 Eastern Maine State Track Meet; (HLS 1194)

Gladys Ganiel, of Harrington, a junior on the Narraguagus High School Track Team, who won the Class C 1600-meter and the 3200-meter races at the Maine State Track Meet. She also won the Class C 1600-meter and the 3200-meter races and was a member of the winning 4 x 400-meter relay race team at the Eastern Maine Track Meet. Gladys was named to the 1994 Maine Sunday Telegram All-Star Class C Girls Track Team; (HLS 1195)

Dan Curtis, of Cherryfield, a junior at Narraguagus High School, who was named to the 1994 Maine Sunday Telegram Class C All-Star Baseball Team as shortstop; (HLS 1196)

Phil Dugas, of Gorham, who was inducted into the Maine Baseball Hall of Fame. When at Edward Little High School in Auburn, Phil was the first 2-time winner of the Androscoggin Valley Conference batting title, hitting .394 in 1946, and .420 the next season. We extend to him our congratulations; (HLS 1197)

Harold and Eleta Fletcher, of Mars Hill, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 10, 1994. We extend to them our congratulations and very best wishes; (HLS 1198)

the following members of the Greater Rumford Community Gymnastics Squad: Katie Kervin, Beth Gallagher, Erin Provencher, Amy Zadakis, Miki Payton, Kate McKenna, Peggy Gill, Teatra Bousquet and coach Louanne Thibodeau. They won the State Title among community-based programs in Level 5 and received the first Team Trophy in the State of Maine; (HLS 1199)

the following members of the Greater Rumford Community Gymnastics Squad: Meagan Thibodeau, Samantha Mayo, Nichole Boucher, Stacey Zadakis, Melissa Thibodeau and coach Louanne Thibodeau. They won the State Title among community-based programs in Level 6 and received the first Team Trophy in the State of Maine; (HLS 1200)

Marion M. Hannemann, of Thomaston, on the occasion of her 100th birthday, July 7, 1994. We extend to her our very best wishes; (HLS 1201)

Gerard and Carmen Laliberte, a well-liked couple in Augusta's Franco-American community, the St. Augustine Parish and Le Club Calumet, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 20, 1994; (HLS 1202)

William "Bud" Gage, of Fort Kent, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was an employee of the United States Postal Service for 36 years, a veteran of World War II and past commander of the American Legion Martin-Klein Post No. 133. Mr. Gage was also very active in the St. John Valley Democratic Committee; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1203)

Gerald A. "Shorty" Barnes, of Millinocket, who will be sadly missed by family and friends. He was employed by Great Northern Paper Co. for 34 years, was a member of P & S Union Local No. 12 and was a communicant of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church. Mr. Barnes was an avid outdoorsman and was a Maine Guide at Buckhorn Camps; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1204)

Mary H. MacBride, on the occasion of her retirement as a member of the House of Representatives after sixteen years of dedicated service to the citizens of Presque Isle. Representative MacBride served on several legislative committees and was a member of the Reapportionment Task Force and the Law and Justice Committee for the National Conference of State Legislatures. Representative MacBride is well-known and respected for her effective leadership in her community and throughout the state; (HLS 1205)

Blanche S. Surette, who worked for many years in the family business, Bossie's Boarding House, in Millinocket. Mrs. Surette was a member of the Little Flower Circle No. #392 Daughters of Isabella and was an avid Beano player; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1206)

Kylie E. Lang-Gluscic, daughter of John J. Gluscic and Christine M. Lang, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1207)

Camille J. Blanchette, of Millinocket, a longtime employee of the Great Northern Paper Company and a member of the Pulp and Sulfite Union Local No. 12, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1208)

the administration, staff and children of the Miller Grade School in Waldoboro upon achieving the prestigious National School of Excellence Award; (HLS 1209) the Feeley Sisters, Martha, Elizabeth and Amey, of Auburn, who went to England this June to help in the 50th Anniversary remembrances of the D-Day invasion of Normandy during World War II. The three sisters are singers who entertain with the Big Band sounds, which stir both sadness and victory in the hearts of those who survived the invasion and the war. They were most committed to honoring those who gave all they had to give during the war; (HLS 1210)

Mervin P. Harriman, of Rockland, the oldest active senior train conductor, on his 85th birthday, July 8, 1994. We acknowledge his volunteer service which helped assure the reactivation of the Rockland line by the Maine Coast Railroad. We extend to him our very best wishes; (HLS 1211)

Merle and Rebecca Wilcox, of Woodland, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, January 22, 1994. We extend to them our congratulations and very best wishes; (HLS 1212)

Hannah Jackson, of York High School, who won 1st place in the 100-meter dash event at the 1994 Class B State Track Championship; (HLS 1213)

Albert and Ursula Moulton, of York Beach, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary, May 15, 1994; (HLS 1214)

Thomas R. Fawcett, Jr., on the occasion of his retirement after 19 years of dedicated service as the Harbor Master and Assistant Harbor Master for the Town of York; (HLS 1215)

Belinda Kimball, of Medway, for many years of service to the citizens of the Katahdin region, including service to veterans, senior citizens, people with disabilities, the Katahdin Friends and the Scouts; (HLS 1216)

George W. Walsh, of Millinocket, who is retiring from Great Northern Paper Company after almost 40 years of loyal service. We extend to him our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1217)

Carroll and Berla Wixon, of Rockland, on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary on June 3, 1994. Their lives exemplify Christian love and their never-failing kindness and cheerfulness endear them to innumerable friends; (HLS 1218)

Chris Stevenson, of Wayne, for 21 years of dedicated service as the "Road Commissioner." The roads and citizens of Wayne have benefited from his expertise and leadership; (HLS 1219)

Arline Lovejoy, of Wayne, for 53 years of outstanding and dedicated membership in the Business and Professional Women Organization. Throughout her life, she has demonstrated exemplary qualities of good citizenship and deep passion for the benefit of others. As a business leader and a teacher in her communities, she has enriched the lives of hundreds of people. Her leadership and successful life have provided an example for many to follow; (HLS 1220)

Peter and Mary Nasse, of Saco, on the occasion of their 25th Wedding Anniversary, August 16, 1994. We extend to them our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1221)

Fred Douglas, of Winthrop, who is retiring after 30 years of dedicated service in the Department of Education. His work ethic and experience will be greatly missed by all who have worked with him; (HLS 1222)

Millage E. Kelly Sr., beloved husband of Emily (Downs) Kelly, of Millinocket, and a longtime employee of the Great Northern Paper Company. Mr. Kelly was a World War II veteran and enjoyed hunting and fishing. He will be sadly missed by his family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1223)

Evangeline McNaughton, of Portland, an artist, poet, community volunteer, communicant of St. Joseph's Church, loving parent and friend, who was a proud daughter of Portland, Longfellow's beloved "City by the Sea"; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1224) the officers and crew of the S.S. Jeremiah O'Brien, the last sailing unaltered World War II Liberty Ship, and sole surviving vessel of the 5000-ship Allied Armada at D-Day, June 6, 1944. Launched at the South Portland Shipyard in June 1943, she symbolizes the spirit of the 35,000 Maine men and women who built Liberty Ships from 1941-1945, and the sacrifice of the U.S. Maritime Servicemen and the U.S. Armed Guard who sailed them, in the ancient Maine tradition of "Those that go down to the Sea in Ships"; (HLS 1225)

The South Portland Shipyard Society, dedicated to the preservation of the historic contribution of the 35,000 Maine men and women who built 236 Liberty Ships at the New England Shipbuilding Corporation East and West Yards in South Portland, from 1941-1945, and who sailed Liberty Ships in the U.S. Maritime Service and U.S. Armed Guard, in the Maine tradition of "Those that go down to the Sea in Ships"; (HLS 1226)

Florence Leighton, on the occasion of her retirement from Meals for Maine and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 86th birthday on August 22, 1994. Florence retired in 1973 after 40 years of employment in the public and private sector and has more recently been very active in volunteer work. She has served as the site manager for Meals for Maine in Dexter since June 1978 and her dedication and efforts have been instrumental in the success of the program; (HLS 1227)

John and Marcadai Black, of Millinocket, formerly of Bangor, who celebrated the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary on June 24, 1994; (HLS 1228)

Keith S. Wood, of Boy Scout Troop #622 in Manchester, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1229)

Jason Syversan, of Hampden, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1230)

Jonathan Syversan, of Hampden, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1231)

Stuart and Marion Chaplin, of South Berwick, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1232)

Dale and Josephine (Dodie) Olmstead, of Woodland, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, August 24, 1994. We extend to them our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1233)

the Greater Rumford Community Center Gymnastics Squad, for winning the State Title among community-based programs in levels 5 and 6; (HLS 1234)

Representative John Jalbert, of Lisbon, who has served his town, state and nation with distinction and honor. As the dedicated House Chair of the Aging, Retirement and Veterans Committee for many years, Representative Jalbert could always be relied upon to lead the battle, both in committee and on the floor of the House, in all matters concerning veterans. He always stood ready to defend his family, community and country. Many patriotic people of this great and beautiful State have benefited because Representative Jalbert walked their way; (HLS 1235)

SFC Robert L. Booth, of Auburn, on his retirement from the Army Reserve. He was a senior instructor with the 76th Training Division and has served in units in Lewiston, Augusta and Bangor. We extend to him our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1236) the Shakers, who reside at the Shaker Village at Sabbathday Lake in New Gloucester and all the Shakers in Maine as they celebrate their 200th anniversary. The settlement in New Gloucester is one of the last Shaker settlements in the nation. The Shakers have contributed to the rich diverse cultural and religious heritage of our State and are good neighbors to all the citizens of Maine; (HLS 1237)

Susan Romatzick, of Winthrop, who will be greatly missed. In her short life, Susan gave generously of herself to her community and will be remembered for her active involvement with environmental issues, her involvement with the Southern Maine Technical College and as the chairperson of the Winthrop Planning Board; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1238)

Alton and Beryl Avery, of Athens, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 1, 1994. We extend our congratulations and very best wishes; (HLS 1239)

Richard Jerolman, on his retirement after 20 years of service as Chief of Police and Constable for the Town of Vassalboro. Chief Jerolman is a former Police Officer of the Year for Somerset and Kennebec counties, and has given above and beyond the call of duty in his years of public service; (HLS 1240)

Janice Isaly, of Windsor, who was awarded the Governor's Medal for outstanding performance in the field of substance abuse prevention. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1241) the Blue Hill American Legion Post for their generosity, kindness and patriotism. Members of the post give selflessly of their time to personally welcome the troops as they journey home from their overseas duties and again set foot on American soil. They have been greeting members of the service at Bangor International Airport since March, 1991; (HLS 1242) the Gilbert and Sullivan Society of Hancock County, for being named "Best Overseas Society" and overall "International Festival Winner" at the first annual International Gilbert and Sullivan Festival in Buxton, England for their performance of "Utopia Unlimited." We extend to them our congratulations; (HLS 1243)

Frank D. Larlee, a well-known and respected resident of Millinocket, who retired as a train master for the Bangor & Aroostook Railroad after 44 years of service. He was active in civic affairs, having served as president of the Millinocket Chamber of Commerce and as president of the Deaconate Board of the First Congregational Church. "Red," as he was affectionately known, was also a longtime member of several masonic orders, the Anah Temple Shrine, of Bangor, and the Northern Penobscot Shrine Club; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1244)

Clare Stewart and David Perry on their Wedding Day, Saturday, October 8, 1994 in Stevenson, Maryland. We extend our congratulations and best wishes as you begin your life together; (HLS 1245)

the Residents of Franklin Towers, of Portland, upon the occasion of its 25th Anniversary. As Maine's first and largest high-rise congregate housing for senior citizens, Franklin Towers has served them for a quarter-century with diligence, dedication and an appreciation of the contributions of their generation to Maine, the "Pine Tree State"; (HLS 1246)

Andrew J. Cole, of Troop #177 in Washburn, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1247)

Susan Clement Farrar, of Bethel, for over 59 years of teaching theater and dance to both children and adults. She began teaching in 1935 and established the Children's Dance Theater of Bethel in 1957, where she continues to teach in a new studio built for her by the townspeople of Bethel. We extend our congratulations and very best wishes; (HLS 1249)

Ben T. Moore and Nettie R. Moore, of Rockwood, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 4, 1994. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1250)

Sean Kuietauskas, of Lisbon Falls, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1251)

Idella Harter, of Auburn, who was presented with the Milken Family Foundation Educators Award. She was 1 of 5 teachers honored for achievement with the 1994 Maine Educator Award for being an exceptional educator. We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1252)

Rebecca A. Young, of Solon Elementary School, who has graduated from the National Geographic Society's 1994 Instructional Leadership Institute in Washington D.C. She was 1 of 63 teachers selected on a competitive basis from 31 states, Washington D.C., and Puerto Rico to participate. We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1253)

Laurence P. Bagley, of Winthrop, for almost 9 decades of service for the public good. As a former Legislator, superintendent of schools, principal, coach and school play director, he has been dedicated to public education and senior citizen's issues in the State of Maine. Mr. Bagley and his wife of 65 years, Grace, have been vital members of their communities. They exemplify the highest family values and community service and in 1994 were selected as the Maine Grandparents of the Year; (HLS 1254)

Rachel C. Kidman, who was named Honor Essayist of the 1994 graduating class of Deering High School in Portland; (HLS 1255)

Jacob Stass-Handwerker, who was named Honor Essayist of the 1994 graduating class of Deering High School in Portland; (HLS 1256)

Heather B. Thompson, who has earned the title of Commended Student of the 1994 graduating class of Deering High School in Portland; (HLS 1257)

Kimberly A. Tudor, who was named Salutatorian of the 1994 graduating class of Deering High School in Portland; (HLS 1258)

Zhao Teng Chen, who has earned the title of Commended Student of the 1994 graduating class of Deering High School in Portland; (HLS 1259)

Ashley C. Flynn, who has earned the title of Valedictorian of the 1994 graduating class of Deering High School in Portland; (HLS 1260)

Joseph and Eva Marquis, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 3, 1994; (HLS 1261)

Ernest and Laura Mitchell on their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 16, 1994. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1262)

Adrian and Ruby Carver, of Mt. Chase, on their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 13, 1994. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1263)

Matthew K. Huston, of Orono and Millinocket, whose death as the result of an accident has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1264)

Hazel Manchester Hawkes, now of Falmouth, formerly of Windham, on the occasion of her 100th birthday, August 25, 1994. She is an accomplished herbalist whose home was known as the "House of Herbs." We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1265)

H. Allen Ryan, the 1994 recipient of the Outstanding Citizen Award by Le Club Calumet. It is the highest honor given to a nonmember and is awarded for the years of support he has given to the Club, and for the many hours he has dedicated to his business, affiliations, associations and civic groups; (HLS 1266)

James Joseph Melvin, of Troop 189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1267)

John Walter Carbone, of Troop 189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1268)

Matthew Michaud, of Troop 189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1269)

Mark Theriault, of Troop 189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1270)

Don David Berube, of Troop 189 in Fort Kent, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1271)

Lucas W. Patch, of Boy Scout Troop #317 in Sanford, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1272)

Barbara S. Arms, of Vassalboro, District Office Manager for the Kennebec Soil and Water Conservation District, who is retiring after 23 years of loyal service and dedication in assisting landowners with matters concerning soil and water conservation; (HLS 1274)

the Greater Portland Chapter of the NAACP on the occasion of its 30th anniversary (1964-94). For a generation the NAACP has championed the cause of equal rights and equal opportunity for all people in Maine, the Pine Tree State, and proudly carries that challenge on to a new generation in the 21st century; (HLS 1275)

Nancy Sewall Cunningham, on the special occasion of her 100th birthday, October 7, 1994.- A lifelong resident of Island Falls, Nancy is the daughter of William Sewall, who was a guide and a personal friend of President Theodore Roosevelt. Her century of memories includes attending President Roosevelt's inauguration ceremony; (HLS 1276)

the Elizabeth Wadsworth Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution upon the honored occasion of its centennial year. For over a century the Wadsworth chapter has preserved and promoted the ideals of independence, patriotism and pride, which are the heritage of all daughters and sons of Maine, the "Pine Tree State," for the 21st century to come; (HLS 1277)

Honorable Albert Theriault, Representative from Rumford and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 86th birthday, November 2, 1994. Representative Theriault was House Chair of the Aging, Retirement and Veterans Committee for many years and served his town, state and nation with distinction. He was known in the Legislature as a gentleman with credibility, integrity and capability, had the respect of his colleagues and was known as someone who would fight for his people. We are all better off because he walked our way; (HLS 1278)

Laurence Pierce Bagley, beloved husband of Grace Bagley, well-known and respected resident of Winthrop, former Legislator, superintendent of schools, principal and coach, who will be long remembered for his dedication to public education and senior citizen's issues; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1279)

Aaron Lewis, of Falmouth, who was the individual Scholastic Chess Champion on the Senior High School Level for the State of Maine in 1994; (HLS 1280)

Michael Smith, of Wayne, who was the individual Scholastic Chess Champion on the Junior High Level for the State of Maine in 1994; (HLS 1281)

Esther Crowley Taylor, of Old Orchard Beach, on the dedication of the Esther Taylor Children's Park to honor her for over 50 years of caring and selfless service to the community. She became Old Orchard Beach Tax Collector in 1943 and has also served on the School Board and the Town Council, was Town Clerk and in 1983 was named Citizen of the Year. She has been a Teacher's Aide for over 25 years and has helped and inspired many. We extend our warmest congratulations; (HLS 1282)

Adeline Jandreau, of St. Francis, for her service to the community on the local, state and federal levels, which included 27 years as a school teacher and 23 years as a postmistress and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 80th birthday; (HLS 1283)

Theresa H. Scarano, of Millinocket, who will be greatly missed by family and friends. She was employed by the Millinocket School Department as director of school services and was actively involved in many educational, charitable and civic organizations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1284)

Kathryn M. Boutaugh, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. She was employed by the Millinocket School Department for ten years and also worked at the Millinocket Ford-Mercury Garage; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1285)

Dorothy Clark, of Crystal and Gardiner, who will be missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1286)

Edith P. Walsh, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. She was formerly employed at the Millinocket Regional Hospital and at the U.S. Envelope Co. in Connecticut. She was a member of the VFW Auxiliary and the AARP of Millinocket; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1287)

Steven H. Tweedie, of Boy Scout Troop #25 in Hermon, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1288)

David Cowallis, of Boy Scout Troop #25 in Hermon, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1289)

Harry J. Raye, of Perry, recipient of the "Radio Operator Wings" given by the Chinese Air Force for outstanding sacrifice for freedom and service during World War II; (HLS 1290)

Harland and Eleanor Priestley, of Clark's Island, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 15, 1994. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1291)

William M. Detweiler, member of American Legion Post #307 in New Orleans, Louisiana, who is National Commander of the American Legion for the year 1994-1995, a dedicated leader who has served his city, state and nation with distinction. Commander Detweiler has always been ready to stand and defend his family, his religion and his country. The people of America are better off because he has walked their way; (HLS 1292)

Hilda Louise Espling, of Caribou, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, November 12, 1994; (HLS 1293)

the Zippel Energy Group of the Zippel School of Presque Isle for having been named one of the ten national winners of the President's Environmental Youth Award. We extend our congratulations to Mrs. Jennifer York and her class: April Alley, Christina Craft, Jesse Cray, Michael Fisher, Bethany George, Erica Harding, James Hathaway, Yuran Lu, Joey Madore, Brianna Marston, Marcus Nadeau, Shane Nibby, Nicholas Pelkey, Belinda St. Jean, Felicia Watananuchit, Terrence White, Mathew Williams and Angela Zullo; (HLS 1294)

Harold and Francena Philbrick, of Corinth, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 26, 1994; (HLS 1295)

Steven Currier, whose brave and heroic actions were directly responsible for saving the lives of his parents when a fire broke out in their home. Steven was recognized by the National Fire Protection Association for his bravery; (HLS 1296)

Jessica Currier, whose brave and heroic actions were directly responsible for saving the lives of her parents when a fire broke out in their home. Jessica was recognized by the National Fire Protection Association for her bravery; (HLS 1297)

Milford and Flora Adams, of Easton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 14, 1994; (HLS 1298)

the students of the Princeton Elementary School for reading over 1,000 books in the first 50 days of the school year; (HLS 1299)

Mr. and Mrs. Everard Farren, of Harrington, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, December 25, 1994. We extend our best wishes and congratulations; (HLS 1300)

the following members of the Greater Rumford Community Gymnastics Team: Leah Madigan, Tracy Glover, Tasha Hebert and Coach Louanne Thibodeau. They won the second place Team Trophy in the State of Maine among community-based programs in Level 8; (HLS 1301)

the following members of the Greater Rumford Community Gymnastics Team: Beth Holman, Yaicha Provencher, Emily Rainville, Sarah Madigan, Valerie Martin, Georgiana Henry, Lacey Bousquet, Amy Hebert, Jennifer Flynn and Coach Louanne Thibodeau. They won the second place Team Trophy in the State of Maine among community-based programs in Level 4; (HLS 1302)

James Emile LaPoint, of Millinocket, who will be missed by family and friends. He worked for the Great Northern Paper Company for 33 years and was a veteran of the U.S. Navy, serving in World War II; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1303)

Marguerite "Peg" Dyer, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Dyer enjoyed playing the violin and was a former member of the Bangor Symphony Orchestra. She was a school nurse, a county nurse for the Maine State Bureau of Health and a mill nurse for Great Northern Paper Company. She also worked for the American Red Cross. She was a member of O.E.S. Sunset Chapter No. 53, Skowhegan, and a member of the First Congregational Church of Millinocket; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1304)

Lewis C. Foote, of Millinocket and Silver Springs, Florida, who will be sadly missed by family and friends. He was a U.S. Army veteran, serving with the 15th Infantry Division. He was employed by Great Northern Paper Company. Mr. Foote loved hunting, trapping and fishing, which he did for 65 years in Maine; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1305)

Brandin Turner, of Rumford, who was one of the 102 finalists, out of more than 50,000 entries, in an art contest sponsored by the United States Postal Service and McDonald's Restaurants; (HLS 1306)

Greater Portland Landmarks, on the occasion of its 30th Anniversary, 1964-1994. For three decades, Landmarks has encouraged preservation and appreciation of our rich architectural heritage, and by example has taught that our built environment symbolizes eternal Maine values of community pride, individual effort and building for the future generations in Greater Portland, Longfellow's beloved "City by the Sea"; (HLS 1307)

Jamie M. Bell, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, for attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1308)

Steven A. Smith, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, for attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1309)

Matthew R. Bossie, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, for attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1310)

Albert Burbank Eliot, of South Thomaston, a former member of the Maine State Legislature. He was elected to the Maine House of Representatives in 1934 and served for two terms, served three terms in the Maine Senate and was also a former selectman and School Committee member in Thomaston. Mr. Eliot was a member of many social and civic organizations and will be sadly missed by his family, friends and community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1311)

Chris Bernier, of Boy Scout Troop #443 in Winslow, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1312)

Bernie L. and Janet Andrews, of North Caribou, on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, June 2, 1994. They are the parents of 5, the grandparents of 3 and great-grandparents of 2. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1313)

Richard N. Lord Jr., of Presque Isle, who was selected the 1994 Outstanding Biology Teacher for the State of Maine by the National Association of Biology Teachers, in conjunction with Prentice-Hall Publishing Co. This award is given to those who have made valuable contributions to the profession and to students. We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1314)

Downeast Horizons, on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of its founding and in extending best wishes for continuing success in providing quality services for mentally retarded citizens of Hancock County; (HLS 1315)

Howard Dakin, of the Belfast Police Department, for saving a life on October 20, 1994 by rescuing a person from a burning building and administering CPR. We commend his bravery and valor in the face of great danger, and we extend our congratulations; (HLS 1316)

Bryan Cunningham, of the Belfast Police Department, who helped save a life on October 20, 1994 by assisting Officer Dakin in the rescue of a person from a burning building. We commend his bravery and valor in the face of great danger, and we extend our congratulations; (HLS 1317)

Virginia M. Foster, of Skowhegan, who has been named the Business and Professional Woman of the Year; (HLS 1318)

Coach Bob Dyer and the Katahdin Lady Cougars, winners of the 1994 Eastern Maine Class C Girls Soccer Championship; (HLS 1319)

Coach Brian Fitzpatrick and the Hodgdon Lady Hawks, who were runners-up in the 1994 Eastern Maine Class C Girls Soccer Championship; (HLS 1320)

Jonathan Jamison, of Boy Scout Troop #478 in Orono-Veazie, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1321)

Arthur M. Linscott, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. He was employed as a pipefitter at Great Northern Paper Company where he was a member of the fire brigade. Mr. Linscott enjoyed hunting, fishing and attending Blue Grass Festivals; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1322)

Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Schnaars, of Cherryfield, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 14, 1994. We extend our best wishes and congratulations; (HLS 1323)

Coach Bob Dyer and the Katahdin Lady Cougars, for winning the 1994 Class C Girls Soccer State Championship. We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1324)

Margaret L. Goodale, of Augusta, on her retirement after 33 years of loyal and devoted service to Maine State Government, most recently as Office Manager in the Division of Public Health Nursing in the Department of Human Services; (HLS 1325)

Pauline Curtis, upon her retirement after 16 years of thoughtful, dedicated service as Treasurer of Knox County. Ms. Curtis served the people of Knox County with the patience, tact and wisdom that have endeared her to all; (HLS 1326)

Bradford Daziell, Ph.D., author, historian and Dorothy Healey Professor of Literature Emeritus at Westbrook College, Portland, who enriched generations of Maine students and who made bright the World of Maine Letters; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1327)

The Windham High School Girls Soccer Team, who won the Class B State Championship for the second year in a row. We extend our congratulations on its achievement; (HLS 1328)

Roger Young, coach of the Windham High School Girls Soccer Team. His team won the Class B State Championship for the second year in a row and he was named "Coach of the Year." We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1329)

Joanne Kellogg, of Windham, who is retiring as Town Librarian after 12 years of dedicated and conscientious service. We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1330)

Keith Brian Burby, of Troop No. 16 in Brewer, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1331)

Fabian Felix Corriveau, of Troop No. 565 in Bethel, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1332)

Packard's Camps, on Sebec Lake, on their 100 years of quality and friendly service to their visitors and guests. Jerry Packard and Burt Packard are Maine Guides who are carrying on the strong sporting tradition of their family as they serve those from out of state as well as from Maine. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1333)

Reginald "Butch" Guay, of Rumford, whose death has saddened family and friends. The people of the great State of Maine have lost a dedicated public servant. He was very active in local politics and had served as County Commissioner since 1984. Butch served his town, state and nation with distinction. His credibility, capability and dedication and the respect of his many friends was outstanding. His friendly smile and "helping hand" will be greatly missed; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1334)

Roger Willette, of Augusta, on the occasion of his retirement from the Augusta City Council, where he served from 1980 to 1994. We extend our congratulations and very best wishes; (HLS 1335)

Lloyd Drinkwater, of Belfast, on the occasion of his retirement after many years of thoughtful and dedicated service. Mr. Drinkwater served the people of his community, Waldo County and the State as a member of the House of Representatives during the 108th through the 112th Legislatures, as a county commissioner for Waldo County and as a member of the Maine Highway Safety Commission with the patience, tact and wisdom that have endeared him to all; (HLS 1336)

Rita Daigle, of Madawaska, who will be sadly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1337)

Aline Lavertu, of Madawaska, who will be greatly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1338)

the Orono Red Riots, who, against all odds, rose to the top of the Class B Division, to become the 1994 Maine State Football Champions; (HLS 1339)

Robert A. Adams, of Millinocket, who was a Senior at Stearns High School. He had a brown belt in karate and enjoyed hunting and camping. He will be sadly missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1340)

Lillian L. Morey, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends. She had worked with her late husband, Dr. Lloyd W. Morey, assisting him in his practice for many years and was a former member of the Contract Bridge Club and the Rebekah Lodge; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1341)

Angus "Scotty" McDonnell, of Millinocket, who had worked for Great Northern Paper Company for almost 40 years and was a member of BPOE Lodge 1521. He will be missed by family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1342)

Jackie Tselikis, R.N., a school nurse for Old Orchard Beach, was honored as Maine's first School Nurse of the Year by the Maine Association of School Nurses. She was chosen for excellence in school nursing, her dedication to the health and welfare of the students in her school district, her contributions to the community and state and for her professional contributions to the Maine Association of School Nurses. We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1343)

Esther Quigg Pettengill, of Island Falls, on the occasion of her 80th birthday, December 1, 1994. She kept the accounts in balance for many years as bookkeeper for the Milliken Memorial Hospital. We extend our congratulations and very best wishes; (HLS 1344)

Ray Lund, of Saco, who was selected as one of America's Top Teachers by the Disney Foundation. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1345)

Katie Rowan, a senior at Traip Academy in Kittery, who was elected to the Second Team All-State Class C Field Hockey Team; (HLS 1346)

Tyler Lakin, a defensive back for Traip Academy in Kittery, who was elected to the Campbell Super Conference All-Star Football Team; (HLS 1347)

Katie Gentile, a senior forward for Traip Academy in Kittery, who was elected to the First Team All-State Class C Field Hockey Team; (HLS 1348)

Herschel Almon Smith and Elizabeth Joan Smith, of Mars Hill, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, November 26, 1994. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1349)

Rita Barr, of Pembroke, who was named the 1994 Outstanding Adult Education Vocational Teacher of the Year for the State of Maine. We extend our congratulations; (HLS 1350)

Dorothy Currier, of Augusta, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, December 9, 1994. We extend our congratulations and very best wishes; (HLS 1351)

Janet St. Michel, who has been elected to the office of National President of the American Veterans Auxiliary; (HLS 1352)

Michael Levasseur, known as Penny to most people, on her retirement from the Farmers Home Administration after over 26 years of dedicated service. She worked at the County Office in Caribou and served in various positions as she advanced from Clerk Typist to County Loan Technician. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1353)

Richard Heath, on his retirement from the Farmers Home Administration, after almost 30 years of dedicated service. He worked in the county offices of Houlton, Presque Isle and Fort Fairfield in various capacities, including District Director for Aroostook County. We extend our congratulations and best wishes to him; (HLS 1354)

Ambrose Maxim, an 81-year old Winthrop native and veteran, well-known as the Grand Marshal of Memorial Day parades, who has performed 1700 hours of volunteer service at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Togus. Mr. Maxim's dedication is appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 1355)

D. Renaud Brochu, for his contributions in genealogical research, which have enabled numerous people to find their roots. This research will be instrumental in linking Canadian and United States citizens and in promoting international good will and cooperation; (HLS 1356)

Winfield Smith, of Mere Point, Brunswick, who spent his entire life doing what he liked best, working on the lands and waters of Casco Bay. He will also be remembered for his service to his customers, his family and his God. He was a true "Downeast Gentleman"; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1357)

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Kachinski, of Mere Point in Brunswick, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, November 11, 1994. We extend our congratulations and best wishes; (HLS 1358)

Aline M. Corbin, of Millinocket, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1359)

Mrs. Edridge Saucier on the occasion of her 90th birthday, October 27, 1994. We extend our warmest congratulations; (HLS 1360) the Bath Auxiliary of Mid Coast Hospital for 50 years of service to the Mid Coast and Bath Memorial Hospital. The Bath Auxiliary was created in June 1944 during World War II to help the community deal with war conditions. Auxiliary members today continue their support of the Bath Hospital through their operation of the coffee and gift shops and volunteer activities. Their fund-raising efforts buy equipment for the hospital and provide health career scholarships for students; (HLS 1361)

Bernice M. Brown, an original member of the first Bath Auxiliary Board, for her outstanding 50 years of service; (HLS 1362)

Christine Curtis Summerton, an original member of the first Bath Auxiliary Board, for her outstanding 50 years of service; (HLS 1363)